Everything Under the Sun is Limited. The lives of the inhabitants of all nations are limited to three score and ten years. The mental and physical endurance of man is limited; in fact everything under the sun is limited, but the most distressing thing of all is a limited pocket-book. Now gentle reader if you should ever be attacked with this branch of the disease and you would like to see your long, lean, lank limited pocket-book swell up, grow fat and become a thing of importance, reach farther, stand by you longer, and in fact prove your best friend, then take it to the new clothing house of Luttrell Bros., and see what a gorgeous array of wearing apparel it will bring you. 122 East Douglas avenue is the place to buy your clothing, gents furnishing goods and hats, for which you can take the word of— An Old Stager. d4-11
