

Dr. Whitehorn went up to Manhattan last week.
Eaton has not returned from business...

Mr. John Davidson's wife and children went down to Wellington yesterday on a visit.
The tourists were immense. The hand-

Mr. C. A. Davis, clerk of the Windsor Hotel, Topeka, is downing playing his toy and relatives a visit.
A. B. Lemmon, of the Newton Experiment...

Mr. S. L. Davidson and wife are down at Kansas City this week visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. H. Gosard.
The Fourth of July in Wichita will be, if nothing happens, the grandest celebration ever attempted in Kansas.

Another good rain last Friday night. This season, having the unusually high winds, starts out most promisingly.
The preceding elder of this district, the Rev. T. A. Hunt, has arrived with his family who have taken up their residence in this city.

Thos. Jewell and wife returned on Friday. Mr. Jewell's mother died while he was back, but Mrs. J.'s mother is recovering.

The Eagle had pleasant call last week from Lemuel C. Eise, an attorney at law from Topeka, Michigan, who was looking after legal business.

Mayor Hamilton, Representative Meyer, John Stewart, and other prominent gentlemen of Wellington and Sumner county, were in the city on Tuesday.

Mr. Bell, formerly with the City Mills, but for four years located in Iowa, in the milling business, is back making his friends and acquaintances a week's visit.
The Second Baptist Church congregation...

Treasurer Woodcock's quarterly statement of the finances of the county has been made, but owing to the crowded condition of our columns cannot be published.

Mr. Hollinger, assistant railroad agent, has purchased the Natzger residence on Topeka Avenue, which, in many accounts, one of the most desirable places in the city.
M. H. Dewing drives his span of Normans down to the city occasionally from Sunny Dale. Their respective weights 1,200 and 1,400. They can be seen at the Exchange Stables three days of the week.

The prosperous proprietors of the Wichita Eagle are building quite a large addition to their office, which is one of the best ordered and most complete printing establishments in the State.
Every apple tree in the country is in bloom, and Sedgewick county will make a showing this fall in the apple field which will surprise people who think it takes an old settler country to make a fruit showing.

Mr. Ernest Honek's little five-year-old son—his eldest—very lively, we are sorry to learn, with an attack of the spinal meningitis, the disease which has proved so fatal to so many of our dear ones this spring.
The creamery is getting fairly down to work. From two three hundred pounds of very choice yellow butter is being turned off per day. There is no handling except by water and machinery, and the product is very clean, pure and sweet.

Mr. Richards, of the Wellington Press, and Mr. Hutchison, of Caldwell Commercial, are in town Tuesday. Hutchison will cattle drive of the coming season will consist principally of beef steers, and the number will be less than for several seasons.
The good Bishop Vail, the great friend of Kansas, spent last Sabbath in the city, conducting the confirmation services in the morning at St. John's Church in the afternoon administering the ordinance of baptism. Six persons were confirmed in the morning services.

Mr. Natzger with his family left for their home in Sedgewick county, where they last, where he goes into banking. Mr. Natzger has lived in Wichita only a year, but he says he never lived in a place in his life that he liked so well as Wichita and her people. We are sorry to lose him.
Mr. George Ross returned from his Chikahua cattle ranch last week where he had been branding. He says that the storm of last Friday night was very severe on the range and that half of the herd of his range was as large as gose eggs, but of irregular form more like conglomerate ice.

As a matter of record we write it down that this Wednesday morning, the 25th day of April, there was a very heavy white frost, with the moon shining brightly. The fog lay on and much corn, but what the damage will be is hard to tell, but we would guess not much.
There are worms in stones. There is something in a woman in a hymn and Ray Kelly preached a beautiful sermon Sunday morning in reading properly a hymn, commencing:
"Thou art a witness to God's mercy.
'This is the witness of the sea."

Judge Campbell says that after reading the Eagle has had to say about the assured future of Wichita, he hesitates about selling his property here, but feels more like letting his property at Sedan, which is more than ordinarily attractive.
Judge C. in our opinion, is concluding wisely.
Mr. G. H. Sampson informs us that the stud stone of Saturday being done the stable of Mr. Hittner, near Beloit's, in Gripsum township. The stable was torn to pieces, but five horses were not badly hurt. His house was also more or less damaged. Some of the lumber of the stable was carried three-fourths of a mile.

A fine black stallion with heavy skin eight or eight inches deep, and other valuable points, was received in the Wichita post office Saturday night without direction or name to indicate for what person or address it was destined. Any person who has such goods care, by calling and telling where the show and other things are from, obtain them.
Mr. Jacob Pittinger, of this city, received last Saturday over the "Plover line, thirty-four car loads of cattle gathered up in Missouri, Arkansas and Texas, in all one thousand three hundred and thirty head to be grazed, fed and fattened for market within the next year. Another lot of ten or loads came in on Saturday for other markets.

Something of the details of a tragedy reaches us from Cassa township in this county. Last Saturday, through some misunderstanding, Eugene Brown was shot by one Reynolds who was in the act of entering the hall possessed over one third and into the other, as we understand it. Dr. C. C. Purdy, of this city, extracted the ball and says Mr. Brown recovered.

Mr. Chas. Heltz left for an extended trip to the West Saturday last. He will tour through Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona and California, returning through the West, his idea being to travel while he is yet young. He did not appear to entertain any definite idea as to his travels, but we are confident that he will have some interesting experiences of a much sort involving, in the West, an expensive luxury.

Eight bright school girls, ranging from five to sixteen years, were riding Saturday night on the Overland road between here and back. They made a habit of slipping down below the mill-dam, where they were seen by a man who was driving a slow steam train and sent it to them. Mrs. B. has the thought of at least the largest number of the brightest school girls in the West, in an expensive luxury.

Dr. Erickson, of Beloit, will deliver a sermon at the open house this (Thursday) evening for the benefit of the new building, and those who think this is in all, or that there is an occasion, should go and hear the doctor. It is being held at the hotel, but not only that, but you can see the building.

A few weeks ago a quiet, unobtrusive life was terminated in our city, which deserves a more extended notice than has yet been given. The Rev. Henry Adams was born in Western Massachusetts about 77 years ago. Sixty years ago, or at the age of 17, he was led to embrace the Christian faith. This was while he was engaged in the hardware business in Boston, and with every prospect of business success, he chose, like Moses of old, to abandon these things and to devote himself to a career of preparation for the gospel ministry. Studying at Andover and Yale until his course was completed, and then spending a year at the Western Seminary, he was ordained to the ministry in 1845. He labored for years in the Presbyterian Church, and although his work was at times very difficult and trying, yet he was uniformly rewarded by seeing the work of the Lord prospering in his hands. At times, sorely overworked, he had to rest from his labors, but renewed his work again and again, and had spent forty years in the Ministry's service. His work was from first to last characterized by prudence. It was in one of these special efforts to which he was engaged in Northwestern Ohio ten years ago that his health gave way. From that attack he never fully recovered, but grew more and more feeble until his life faded away and he entered into rest, a few days ago. His last illness was attended by the first of his ministry he was connected with the Presbyterian Church and during the latter with the Protestant Episcopal Church. He was a hearty worker in all our meetings for the promotion of Christianity, and a zealous advocate of temperance in his ministry relating to drink wine even at weddings. He lived for others and he lived happily.

His wife, Dr. J. C. Dean is his daughter. It was in her house that the aged and reverend father died last week.
