Finds his chief delight in Pounding Prices!

The Reason Why We're overstocked--we must unload--but one way to do it--

Found the Life Out of Prices
We've done it. We're doing it. We make this season face the music of its own mistakes, stand its own losses. We carry no goods over--never did--never will. A casual perusal of the items below will open your eyes to the Big Bargains in the Annals of Trade.

MILLINERY.

33-1/3 Per Cent. off Regular Prices on all Millinery Goods.

Holiday Buyers, this is your fortunate chance; we have the goods you want at prices you can afford to pay. Our well assorted stock is replete with Novelties and abounds in inviting prices and latest styles.

As this space is not large enough to mention the thousands of other bargains, we will say to one and all, come at once and get goods for one-half what you pay at other stores; we have employed extra help, so that the public can be waited on at once.

WE look back with gratification on our Six Months of successful business. Hard work, close attention, a thoroughly reliable line of Dry Goods, Notions, Millinery, and Reasonable Prices--especially reasonable prices--were and are the motors of our steadily increasing trade. We do not boast of the enormous territory of our establishment, but we claim that we do a larger business for the size of our store than any other house in Sumner county. MERIT ASSERTS ITSELF. We thank our patrons for their liberal support and promise at all times to retain their confidence. Finishing up the last great business week of 1892, with unflagged efforts, we take this opportunity to extend to our friends and the public our sincere wishes for

A Happy New Year.

Very Respectfully,

JACOB ENGLE
