B. N. Bancroft, of the Thomas Co-Nursery is visiting friends and relatives in Illinois.

Dr. Eddy has moved the house, from his claim, into town, and will use it for a barn.

Some of the school reports were crowded out of this issue, but will appear next week.

Dr. J. W. Martin returned, last Friday night from an extended visit to DeKalb Mo. his former home.

Just as we go to press the Presidents Message arrives, and will be sent with this issue as a supplement.

The chattels and effects of Martin Eder were sold at auction on the street to satisfy an account held by some parties here in town.

G. M. Strain of Brewster was in the city yesterday, being examined by the medical board, for an increase of pension.

J. N. Fike, ex-editor of the Colby Free Press spent the fore part of this week at Kansas City, where he went on business. He also visited his old home at Wilbur Neb.

L. L. French, formerly Cashier of the State Bank of this place, but now of Corning Iowa, made a hurried visit to this place last Sunday, arriving on the noon train and leaving the same evening.

Mr. T. P. Feehan, received a telegram Tuesday forenoon announcing the sad news of the death of his father, who lives in Illinois. Mr. Feehan telegraphed back to postpone the funeral until Thursday, and he would be there. He left on the evening train, Tuesday.

We understand that there are about signers enough on the petitions to the county commissioners, to require that body to call an election to vote bonds, from the proceeds of which to buy seed wheat, corn and other seeds for the farmers of this county. The election will probably be called soon.

Mr. A. B. Jardine, who has been working at McFarren Colo. for the past two months, returned here last Friday, and will take his family back with him to-morrow. He reports having had plenty of work at good wages. He made this office a pleasant call, and paid for the CAT one year to be sent to his new home.

Letters remaining uncalled for in the postoffice at Colby for the week ending Dec. 2nd 1890. Maria Egbert, Dr. G. Bohrer, P. C. Chamberlain, J. E. Hahn, John J. Fitzgerald, William Smith Godwin, Norman Huxley, and Emil Knuss.

THANKSGIVING ENTERTAINMENT. The entertainment given by the Sunday School children of this city at Armory hall last Thursday evening was a genuine success, the supper for the children after the exercises were over, was immensely enjoyed by them. The house was crowded, many having to stand up. The teachers who trained the children for the entertainment, deserve much credit for their work.

MEMOIR. Dec. 2nd 1890. The Literary is progressing nicely. The "Liberty" people are preparing for a Christmas tree.

The Menlo school commenced yesterday, with Mr. Spitzer as teacher.

Mr. J. W. Potter and Mr. Isaac Lanning sold their cattle last week.

Mr. George Wasson and his mother will start for Nebraska on a visit soon.

Mrs. Pearl Gaffney will spend the winter with her parents here while Mr. Gaffney is in Colorado.

There was a dance at Mr. Joe Ogiers St. last Thursday night. A large crowd was present and a general good time was had.

Mrs. Sam Gummings is back from Missouri, and Sam wears a smile on his face but who wouldnt? For he will not have to "Bach" it any longer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Badgely, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ogier, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Chaney miss moody and master Clara March, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Clark and family last Sunday.

Mass Convention.

At Armory Hall, Saturday Dec. 6 at 2 o'clock P. M. to send delegates to the irrigation convention at Oberlin, Dec 10th 1890. Everybody is interested and should turn out to the meeting. Do not neglect this or forget the time.

Married. Miss Ada Shultz to James W. McNeely, on Dec. 3rd. 1890, at the Windsor hotel, Judge Losh officiating. The bride is one of Randall township's accomplished ladies, and the groom is from Sheridan county. Success and happiness, is what we wish them.

Brewster Items. The "devil" from Colby was among us over Sunday.

Charley Murphy is the biggest fool in town.

Brewster is about to be afflicted with a coal famine.

W. L. Thompson made a business trip to Colby Monday.

Frank Horney returned home from Nebraska last Saturday, to remain all winter. We welcome him among us.

W. L. Thompson butchered thirty head of hogs Tuesday. He intends to cure and keep the meat for next summer's use.

The man that carried off Thompson's coal Tuesday had better return, the same or we will have him turned out of the Alliance.

Our community was startled last Sunday evening by the arrival of a pet bear in town but we learned later that he was harmless.

We notice that our friend Sweatland is taking an unusual interest in educational purposes lately, from the way he visits the schools.

Frank Drummond and Chas. Rawson of near Quickville boarded the train for Denver Thursday. They expect to stay all winter if they get work.

There will be a grand Masquerade in Brewster on Wednesday evening Dec. 24th, a good supper in connection with the dance. Everybody invited and a good time guaranteed.

H. J. Williams and family have moved on their farm north of Goodland. We are sorry to see them go, and they will be sadly missed in this community. Mr. Williams intends to engage in the cattle business at present, and his many friends wish him success in his new enterprise.

The masquerade given at this place on Thanksgiving night, was a grand affair and a decided success in every particular. The attendance was large and everyone enjoyed it immensely. About twenty couples were masked besides a large number that were not. Supper was served at the world renowned Caterer, Mrs. Scott and needs no comment as anyone that has ever partaken of her tempting viands knows what supper would be by her. Taking every thing in consideration it was the best ball ever given in Brewster.

Ye scribe had the pleasure of attending a sociable at Mr. Sam Carpenter Saturday night and we had a very pleasant time. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter furnished some very nice music on the violin and organ, as did also Miss McArthur and a gentleman, we did not learn his name, we had also plenty of vocal music, Mr. Goodenough took the cake though, singing an Alliance song, which he had composed. It was received amid great and continued applause. The Alliance as usual carried everything before them, but it is all right though they did not get the bouquet.

Dr. Taylor of Colby was in our burg Monday. —DUKE

Nice weather again. Look out for your turkey roasts.

Some of our farmers are sowing grain yet.

Fall grain in this vicinity is looking splendid since the snow and rain.

Messrs. Taylor, Blacky and Thompson, started for Colorado on Monday to find work for this winter.

Mr. Bassett of Colorado Springs, brother of Mrs. W. A. Douglas, made them a short visit last week.

A Thanksgiving dinner was served at Mr. Crawford's on Thursday.

Mr. Chas McKinney left for Washington where he intends to remain hereafter.

Mr. McDaniel has gone to Nebraska.

Mr. Pike and wife have returned from Colorado.

Mr. Smith had his cattle delivered on Tuesday, Mr. Fred Howard performed the operation.

Mr. Hutchinson's baby is very sick.

A dinner was served at the Independent School house on Thursday.

As Rev. Baker, our worthy pastor did not arrive, no services were held at this place on Sunday last.

The spelling school on last Friday evening at the Pleasant Ridge school house was well attended considering the enormous number of entertainments which were given the same evening, we can estimate two dozens, one surprise party, and an orator speech, all in this vicinity.

A day of thanks to us is given. Shall we not improve? By giving thanks to one above. For his most wonderful love. Should we not, one day devote. Out of one long, long year. For the preservation of our lives? And friends we hold so dear?

To thank our loving Savior Friend, Whom our ancestors did save, When a slight squall, would have sent them down Beneath a sailors grave. —TAMM JONES

These items were intended for last week but came in to late. (Ed.)
