"German Syrup"

For children a medicine should be absolutely reliable. A mother might as well pin her faith to it as to her Bible. It must contain nothing violent, uncertain, or dangerous. It must be standard in material and manufacture. It must be plain and simple to administer; easy and pleasant to take. The child must like it. It must be prompt in action, giving immediate relief, as children's troubles come quick, grow fast, and end fatally or otherwise in a very short time. It must not only relieve quick but bring them around quick, as children chafe and fret and spoil their constitutions under long confinement. It must do its work in moderate doses. A large quantity of medicine in a child is not desirable. It must not interfere with the child's spirits, appetite or general health. These things suit old as well as young folks, and make Bo-schee's German Syrup the favorite family medicine.

PURIFY YOUR BLOOD.

But do not use the dangerous alkaline and mercurial preparations which destroy your nervous system and ruin the digestive power of the stomach. The vegetable kingdom gives us the best and safest remedial agents. Dr. Sherman devoted the greater part of his life to the discovery of this reliable and safe remedy, and all its ingredients are vegetable. He gave it the name of Prickly Ash Bitters!

A name every one can remember, and to the present day nothing has been discovered that is so beneficial for the BLOOD, for the LIVER, for the KIDNEYS and for the STOMACH. This remedy is now so well and favorably known by all who have used it that arguments as to its merits are useless, and if others who require a corrective to the system would but give it a trial the health of this country would be vastly improved. Remember the name—PRICKLY ASH BITTERS. Ask your druggist for it.

KANSAS STATE NEWS.

Blue Mound Sun: One hundred and fifty-two marriage licenses were issued in Anderson county during 1890.

Emporia Republican: The mechanical working force in the Santa Fe round house has been reduced by the discharge of twenty men.

Letter from Abilene: Diphtheria is reported as assuming alarming proportions in the south part of the county, some children having died of it during the present month.

Ashland Clipper: The bounty allowed by the county commissioners last week on rabbit scalps amounted to $425. Presumably there are fewer of the pesky rodents in the county by 8,500.

From Cherryvale by wire: While boring for gas, a six-foot vein of a superior quality of coal was found at a depth of 919 feet. Great excitement prevails, and land adjacent is already being leased.

At Topeka W. M. Stewart: of Wichita, slipped on the ice at Ninth and Jackson streets and dislocated his left wrist very badly. He was assisted to the Copeland by friends, and a physician attended to his injuries.

Dighton Herald: We are pleased to say when the state alliance sent out to the sub-alliance to find out how many families needed assistance, that after investigation word was sent back that Lane county needed no outside assistance.

Fredonia Citizen: The Fredonia Canning company has three far shipped about twenty cases of canned goods, and yet to look at the stacks in the warehouse one would think they had not commenced selling anything of their season's pack.

From Hutchinson by wire: J. L. Burwell, a prominent stockman committed suicide by stabbing himself three times in the right side with a pocket knife. Financial troubles added to bodily illness was the cause. He was 38 years old and unmarried.

Letter from Lawrence: Wright & Ziegler, the Junction City contractors, have put a force of men on the Henry street sewer and will push the work rapidly. At Massachusetts street crossing a tunnel will be dug under the street at a depth of forty feet. The main will be 2,500 feet long.

Topeka Sunday Ledger: An eastern capitalist is in the city negotiating for a site to erect a new flouring mill on the north bank of the river, corner Curtis and Van Buren streets. The Rock Island company owns the ground and has a switch running to it. It is to be furnished with power from the dam.

Wichita Eagle: It is reported that Lincoln street Presbyterian church, at the request of the Humane society, gathered about 300 garments for the poor of the city, through its committee, in the district assigned them, which the ladies of the congregation have neatly repaired and put in good condition for wear.

Special from Nortonville: Abiel Cushman died at Nortonville, a small village in Athens county. He was born in Massachusetts on November 28, 1796; was therefore in his 95th year. He has lived in Kansas over thirty years. It was his boast that he had lived under the administration of all of the presidents of the United States.

Ness City Times: The snow plow on a Missouri Pacific train created quite a sensation at Uteca. There was quite a big snow drift by the depot, and when the plow came along it elevated the snow with so much force that the boy in the window was knocked out. The agent in the depot, and his best and household goods were covered with the "beautiful."

Ulysses Tribune: The mirage Wednesday morning was very beautiful, especially looking east from Tribune. The town of Selkirk, twelve miles away, was thrown into the most fantastic shapes, and a train running between Whitlaw and Selkirk carried above it the image of the train several times the size of the original. The mirage was to be seen in every direction, and was unusually well defined.

Kansas Farmer: The Brown County Farmers' institute will convene at Hiawatha, Thursday, February 5, and hold a two days' session. Ex-Governor Glick and two of the professors of the Agricultural college will be present with valuable papers upon important subjects. Mr. Carstairs, President of the institute, informed us that a very interesting program has been arranged.

An Ottawa special: An accident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, on North Hickory street. Mrs. Wilson had left the house for a few moments, but was recalled by the report of a revolver and a scream from her children. On entering the house she found that her eight-year-old daughter had shot the baby in the cradle. The revolver was supposed not to be loaded. The little girl stoutly denies that she did the shooting. The baby died.

A Hutchinson special: Rawlin Thomas, a youth of 17, was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years for wheat stealing. When he was being locked up again he broke away from the turkeys and ran away. Pursuit was immediately begun, and, being hard pressed he started to run under a moving freight train and was cut in two. Thomas was arrested in October in the act of stealing wheat, and while being brought to town made a break for liberty and escaped. He was re-captured in West Virginia and brought back.

Kansas City Gazette: A prominent financier tells a story of a well-known citizen who has $70,000 in cash locked up in a drawer in a private vault that is neither doing him nor the public any good. The same man had $3,000 deposited in a bank, and when the flurry in Wall street came, a few weeks ago, he became scared and drew out $2,000. The $1,000 was left in the bank simply because he was afraid to touch it.

Wellington Mail: Some time ago, Mike Burns, who lives near Corbin, discovered what he considered unmistakable evidences of coal oil in a branch on his farm. An oil seep covered the water, and Mr. Burns filled a bottle with the substance and sent it to a mining expert in Pennsylvania. The report came back that it was genuine coal oil. Later on an expert visited Mr. Burns' place, and after a careful Survey stated that not only coal oil but coal would be found if a proper effort was made to find it. We understand that Mr. Burns has now commenced operations.

Leavenworth Standard: Fred Crawford, who owns a celery farm on Pilot Knob, supplies most of the local trade and ships between 400 and 500 pounds of celery each day to Kansas City. The native celery gets into market about Thanksgiving day, and with its advent all transportation of the Kalamazoo plant ceases.

Letter from Lawrence: The faculty committee of the university have reported on the ten orations handed in, and have selected the following six for delivery at the local contest, to be held January 23: "Advance the Lines," J. L. Bowersock; "Oliver Cromwell and Puritanism," H. S. Halley; "The Sign of the Cross," Holmes; "Charles Sumner and the Kansas Struggle," H. F. Roberts; "Spirit of Dissent, a Factor in Progress," R. D. Brown; "Sectionalism from a Southern Standpoint," Parks. The selections were made from the largest list that has ever been tendered since the association has been organized.

From Arkansas City by wire: The business men's club rooms were crowded to overflowing to make the preliminary arrangements to hold an immense mass meeting here on Thursday, January 23, to which all Kansans and others interested in opening the strip are especially invited. An executive committee of ten was appointed to take charge, with full power to appoint sub-committees; also, a memorial committee to present the views of our citizens to their representatives, both state and national. Since Congressman Mansur's bill has been introduced, our citizens have awakened to their opportunity, and nothing in their power will be left undone to push to a consummation the opening of the strip. Reduced rates will be secured on the various roads centering here, and this will be made the greatest meeting ever held in this section.

Letter from Abilene: Bishop Jesse Engle, of Belle Springs, one of the leading ministers of the River Brethren church in the west, and also an extensive farmer in this county, made an assignment to Cyrus Leubart, a neighboring farmer. Mr. Engle was the leader of the River Brethren in Kansas, and had a wide reputation in his church throughout the nation. During the boom period he invested largely in real estate and the payments were more than he could carry. The schedule of liabilities foots up $30,115, and the creditors are nearly all brethren of the church. About half the amount is due friends in Pennsylvania, of whom he has been borrowing for years. The assets are chiefly farm land and implements, but are not thought to be worth over $35,000. The failure was a great surprise, as he was considered wealthy.

Arkansas City Traveler: Boss Merrick raised the best corn crop last season. He had 8,000 bushels, which he sold to the Arkansas City Cattle company for $4,000.

Abilene letter: A number of cars of horses have been shipped to Louisiana and Oregon from this county during the past two weeks. Dickinson county sent out about fifty cars of fine horses during 1890, making a valuable return for the farmers.

A Hiawatha dispatch says that horses are dying in Nemaha county from some unknown disease. They become violently sick and the trouble goes to their heads, making them wild from pain. They live in this manner a few hours. M. J. Rich, of Sabetha, who lost three horses in one day, thinks it is either from the grippie or from eating corn stalks.

Lions Tribune: C. D. Leonard informed a reporter recently that he had just figured up his stock account, and found that since July, 1886, he had sold from his farm over 21,900 worth of hogs, netting him on his corn fed more than 50 cents per bushel. He says his figures prove that hogs sold at 31 cents have his corn worth 45 cents per bushel. The average price of his entire sales was $4.10 per 100 pounds.

Wichita Eagle: George A. Lyon, one of the oldest residents of this valley, and who has successfully farmed in Sedgewick county ever since the county was a county, or for twenty years, and who saw all the big wheat crops of the famous wheat years harvested, says that he never saw such a prospect for a big yield as now. If all the conditions should continue as favorable from now on as they have proved since its sowing, there will come in reports of yields per acre that will open the eyes of the world. As for the acreage in southern Kansas, it is greater than the year when it was not an unusual sight to see on the streets of this city from three to five hundred wagons loaded with wheat waiting their turns at the elevators. The crop should prove all that promises, and should command as much as a dollar or more per bushel, south Kansas would wipe out her entire indebtedness before next Christmas.

KANSAS RAILROADS.

Special from Harper: The Wichita & El Paso railroad bonds carried in Harper by 140 majority. All the wards carried for bonds.

Wichita Eagle: The various railroads entering the city have entered into an agreement to establish a joint agency at the Union stock yards, for the purpose of handling exclusively the stock yards and packing house business. The roads which are party to this agreement are the Santa Fe, Rock Island, Missouri Pacific and Frisco. W. H. Harding is appointed joint agent for the above-named lines. Mr. Mills, who has had charge of the transfer work at the stock yards, will be continued as an assistant to Mr. Harding.

SENATE.

Mr. Mills of Texas moved to debate the question of approval of the journal, making the demand while the vote on that question was in progress. The speaker refused to recognize him. He claimed for his right of debate all through the roll call, and the speaker applied to his supporters, with interjectory replies to his opponents, together with an appeal for assistance in the form of a wild yelp. The speaker finally called upon the sergeant-at-arms for the restoration of order and the speaker resumed his seat.

Sweet Potatoes for Stock. A farmer who has experimented with sweet potatoes as stock food, claims that they can not be beaten by any food tried as a milk producer, and that hogs fed on them fatten faster than when fed on milk and corn. In addition their well-known table qualities make them a vegetable well worth raising, especially as they are so easily grown.

An Fact.

(From an interview N. Y. World.)

In an interview with a leading drug-house the other day, Mr. W. J. Cheney gave the following comment on the proprietors of reliable patent medicines:

"He is a specialist and should know more of the disease which this medicine combats, his manufacturer investigates thousands, who you buy ready made up for 50 cents, is likely to more than double the cost of the ordinary physician, who charges you anywhere from $2 to $10 for giving it, and leaves you to the cost of having it prepared?"

"The patent medicine man, too, usually has the good sense to confine himself to ordinary, every-day diseases. He leaves to the physician cases in which there is immediate danger to life, where the disease is one which the patient can diagnose for himself, or which some physician has already determined the nature of, and which is incurable. I have a preparation which is better than any other known and which will cure you." In nine cases out of ten his statement is true.

This is absolutely true as regards the great remedy for pain, St. Jacobs Oil. It can be used without fear, and without any danger to the patient and permanent cure for pain. It can show proofs of cures of chronic cases of 20, 30 and 40 years' standing. It is a remedy for all cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, and a large proportion of cures is made by half the contents of a single bottle. It is therefore the best.

Protect Your Health.

Cold and moisture combined have a torporous effect upon the bodily organs, and the digestive and secretory processes are apt to be more tardily performed in winter than in the fall. The same is true, also, of the excretory functions. The bowels are often sluggish, and the pores of the skin throw off but little waste matter at this season. The system, therefore, requires to be kept up and also purifying and regulating, and the safest, surest and most thorough tonic and alterative that can be used for these purposes is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Persons who wish to escape the rheumatic twinges, the dyspeptic agonies, the painful distensions of the bowels, the lumbago attacks, and the nervous visitations, so common at this time of the year, will do well to reinforce their systems with this renowned vegetable stomachic and invigorant. It improves the appetite, strengthens the stomach, cheers the spirits and renovates the whole physique.

Those of you who are weary and heavy laden with sickness and care, weighed down with the intricacies that beset the human system, can find the one thing necessary to restore you to bright, buoyant health, in Sherman's Prickly Ash Bitters. It invigorates and strengthens the debilitated organs, aids digestion, and dispels the clouds arising from a diseased liver.

I wept when I was born and every day shows why said Housekeeper—who didn't use SAPOLIO.

Sapolio is a solid cake of scouring soap used for all cleaning purposes.

"Ah! Ah!" Oried the housewife, "The Secret I know, no DIRT can resist SAPOLIO."

"Oh! Oh!" Oried the DIRT, "At length I must go, I cannot withstand SAPOLIO."
