ARE LINING UP FOR A BIG FIGHT

The Japanese as Usual Assume the Offensive and Move to the Front.

Russians Commend the Japanese Methods in Preserving Sacred Property on the Battlefield.—A Stray Torpedo Boat at Chefoo.

Mukden, Nov. 15.—The Manchurian army paper Vestnik, published under the sanction of the Russian officials, and the only newspaper printed at the theatre of war, gives the details of the scrupulous care that is shown by the Japanese for relics and other effects of the Russian dead found on battlefield, and tells how the Japanese have forwarded such effects to St. Petersburg. The paper highly commends this action. The paper announces that General Kuropatkin recommends that all of his commanders shall observe a similar practice regarding the Japanese dead. This humane practice, which was initiated by the Japanese, and which is calculated to secure consideration for their dead, has met with applause from the Russian army and will undoubtedly be imitated whenever the Russian is in possession of the field over which the battle has been fought. Owing to the fact that the Japanese have been left in possession of nearly all battlefields, these humane and benevolent offices have entirely devolved upon them.

The following jury was impaneled to try the case of Byron Hill charged with a deadly assault on John Speario, Charles Battye, J. D. Glenn, Charles M. Raible, Fred C. Moore, A. F. Blackburn, George Whittaker, A. E. Kinsman, Carl Reese, George H. Avery, J. W. Jackson, J. R. Colwell and J. L. Simmons.

The case was tried and given to the jury shortly after 5 o'clock and at 8:30 a verdict of guilty, as charged, was returned, and the jury was discharged.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Bar association of northern Arizona, at a meeting held at Prescott, Arizona, November 15, 1904, in reference to the death of Judge W. H. Barnes:

Whereas, The Bar of Arizona, in the death of Hon. William H. Barnes of Tucson, has lost one of its oldest, ablest, and most respected members, whose acute and penetrating mind, and ready and effective use of an extensive knowledge, gleaned from a study of the law and of almost every branch of literature and of human learning, especially fitted him for the notable work he did as a member of the supreme bench of the territory, to which he was called in the prime of his manhood; and whose intensity and force of utterance, added to his other qualities, gave him a professional distinction altogether unique, and

Whereas, the older members of this association can vividly recall his striking face, his grace and charm of conversation, and the various elements of personality which, though felt, cannot be described, but which made him at all times and places and in every assemblage a commanding figure among men.

Now, therefore, be it resolved:

1. That the members of the Bar Association of northern Arizona do hereby attest our sense of profound regret and sorrow that the ranks of our profession, through the termination of the earthly career of William H. Barnes, have been depleted of one of its honored and most distinguished members.

2. That we tender our sympathy to the widow and family of the deceased, and that the secretary be requested to send to them a copy of these resolutions.

Mining News.

UP TO THEIR EYES IN LABOR'S CAUSE

An Avalanche of Resolutions Faces the American Federation.

The Rights of the Japanese to Seek Employment, the Question of Woman Suffrage and Other Matters that are to be Considered.

San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 15.—The second day's session of the American Federation of Labor was abruptly concluded shortly after the afternoon session was called to order today. A change in the program was necessitated by a flood of resolutions which poured in when Gompers called for the documents. In the space of half an hour, sixty one were handed to Secretary Morrison. They are almost of every character that would affect trade organizations, ranging from such topics as petty discussion on union jurisdiction to such questions as woman suffrage and the exclusion of Japanese from the shores of America. An adjournment was taken that the proper committees might have the afternoon and evening considering the resolutions.

A MATTER OF LANGUAGE

French Goes Well at Home But in This Country the Straight American Goods is Wanted Even in Baloon Juice.

St. Louis, Nov. 15.—A lack of common language caused a misunderstanding in orders given by the French navigators of the Francois air ship, resulting in an accident which is responsible for two large rents in the top of the immense balloon. When ascending late this afternoon, M. Francois shouted in French to cut loose the guy ropes. The English speaking attaches of the aerodrome misunderstood him and hauled in the guide ropes. The result was the ship lowered, crashed into the north fence of the aerodrome course, breaking the prow of the machine.

THE IRRIGATION CONGRESS BEGINS

President Roosevelt in Sympathy With the Great Movement.

He Addresses Two Letters to the Congress.—President Diaz of our Sister Republic Also an Ardent Supporter of its Principles.

El Paso, Nov. 15.—During this afternoon's session of the twelfth annual irrigation congress a letter was read from President Roosevelt and President Diaz and Vice President Corral, of Mexico, also letters from all members of Roosevelt's cabinet.

There were two letters from Roosevelt and one said in part "The best use of the public land is that made by the man who has come to stay. You should make yourselves guardians of the future and prevent the waste of the great natural resources of the country." He said that irrigation and all other interests of the country, interlaid as irrigation made the west prosper, and if the west prospered, such cause other sections to prosper as a result. The other letter said: "I wish it were possible for me to accept your kind invitation to attend the national irrigation congress to be held in El Paso. I need not state to you the deep interest I have in the cause of national irrigation. Irrigation is in fact one means for national expansion, which is most important. Wishing you a successful meeting, I am yours truly, Theodore Roosevelt."

AN EXCELLENT PROPOSITION

Two Huntington Mills Are Here for the Mt. Union Mining Enterprises.

Other Machinery En Route—Opinion of a Gentleman of Authority on the Property—Practical Mining and What it Demonstrates Again.

A noteworthy movement in mining in this section is that signalled in the arrival of two up to date mills of the Huntington type for the Mt. Union Consolidated Mining company, operating near Prescott. These mills reached this city Saturday and will be transported to the properties at once.

Each mill has a capacity of forty five tons, and in addition to this shipment received two more car loads of machinery are also en route and will reach their destination in a few days hence. It is expected that by the middle of December the reduction of ores from this company's interests will be inaugurated, and to that end Superintendent Greenwood will rush the plant to completion as fast as possible.

Attending the introduction of this machinery the mine work that warrants this heavy outlay in mechanical utilities, has terminated in a handsome showing on the properties, and to support the heavy consumption of ore the capacity of these plants show, here are several thousands of tons of ore ready for reduction on the ground, a guarantee that the enterprise can be stated to be a success before it is practically demonstrated in this connection. In addition to this feature of the past operations of this enterprise, the earnest and practical manner in which this property has been handled, the rating of the ground of this company is ranked as among the best in this county. In less than nine months of operations Mr. Greenwood has sunk the main shaft to a depth of 500 feet, along with other development, all of which reflects on not only his capability as a miner, but also does it demonstrate that where good judgment is linked with economical methods mining would prosper more materially if conducted on this principle generally speaking.

Recently the mines of this company were inspected by H. A. Coben, of the DeLamar company, and although this gentleman was in no way identified with them, he made the statement voluntarily to the public that in his duties of visiting properties in this territory, he was free to form impressions, and would accordingly make the statement that considering development to date, he pronounced the interests of the Mt. Union people as among the most desirable to be seen in this territory. Such a tribute to this property and from such an authority, is in itself gratifying not only to the property, but likewise to the management of Mr. Greenwood.

It is truly remarkable that a mine should be developed and placed in a channel of handling its own product in the short space of nine months, with a guarantee of success behind it, but such is nevertheless, the case, and it will be proven to be also one of the best mining propositions in this county or in the territory.

SKULKS IN TO SURRENDER

Another Russian Torpedo Boat Gets Caught in a Trap and Will go Out of Business.

Chefoo, Nov. 16, 7:15 a. m.—A Russian torpedo boat destroyer has just entered the harbor. She has not been communicated with yet going to the roughness of the sea. It is reported a Japanese torpedo boat destroyer was seen out ide watching the movements of the Russian vessel.

The Russian torpedo boat destroyer Rastoroony put into the harbor this morning. Firing was heard half an hour before she entered the harbor. A snowstorm and high wind was prevailing at the time and it is believed the Russian vessel under cover of the storm attempted to escape from Port Arthur. A correspondent of the associated press succeeded in reaching the Destroyer after her arrival here but was not allowed to board her. The captain of the Chinese cruiser was the first person to board Rastoroony. He held a brief conference with the commander after which the Rastoroony came further into the stream and anchored at the same spot the Ryeshtelni did last August before she was cut out by the Japanese. There is every evidence that the Rastoroony will disarm here, only as a last resort.

It is thought she hopes to elude the Japanese destroyer, reported outside the harbor at night. The Rastoroony brought a number of copies of the Novakrai, a Port Arthur newspaper. In one of its issues it is stated that while a Japanese destroyer was laying mines, November 11th, she was surprised by the battleship Retvizan and sunk.

A SOUTHERN REBELLION

War Students Taste of the Real Business and Then Surrender and Go to the Guardhouse.

Rio de Janeiro, Nov. 15.—All students of the military school here revolted yesterday evening and deposed the commandant, General Costallat. This was followed by secret meetings. A serious encounter followed and Travassos was wounded and his adjutant killed. The cadets then fell back and occupied the hills in the neighborhood of the school. At 2 a. m. the soldiers and police supported by war vessels, attacked the cadets' position. At 5 a. m. the cadets, being without a leader, surrendered. All were placed in prison.
