

City News In Brief

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Jerome Visitor. J. P. Wilson, auto dealer of Jerome, is in the city returning from Phoenix, with a new stock of cars for the above market.

Holiday Shopping. Mrs. J. S. Boyer, wife of a well known resident of Camp Verde, is in the city for a few days on a holiday shopping trip and to visit with friends.

Country Awakening. R. C. Heuston, who owns valuable mines in Pine Flat, is a visitor on business, and reports quite a revival of properties as beginning since the Circle Park company entered that field and purchased the Roach and Healy coppers. The latter mines are now being placed in shape for large operations and other properties in that country having been opened by good roads, many mining men are now coming in by auto.

To Phoenix. F. A. Reid is in the city from Seligman, after an inspection of the holdings of Reid-Exans Cattle Co., and en route to Phoenix to spend the holidays with his family.

Return From Coast. Mrs. J. M. Cook and daughter, formerly of Dewey, returned yesterday from San Diego, after an extended absence visiting with friends.

Rangeman Pleaded. Frank Munkittrick was a visitor yesterday from Goodwin, on Turkey creek, reporting that country from a range cattle standpoint, in fine condition. Water is abundant everywhere and grazing is good.

Apex to Resume. E. L. Bartholomew, superintendent of the Verde Apex, near Jerome, returned to the camp yesterday, stating that arrangements are practically concluded to resume at an early date.

Comes Back. Adolph Moser, who will be favorably remembered as a former resident of this city, arrived yesterday from San Diego, to remain for a few days visiting with relatives and friends.

From the Mines. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. F. Jones were arrivals yesterday from the Little Jessie camp in Chaparral, where the former is in charge, limited development going ahead for the present.

Road in Bad Shape. Attorney and Mrs. C. H. Rutherford motored yesterday from Jerome to Prescott and reported that road in the worst shape ever known, due principally to lack of rain. The five-mile strip out of Dewey toward Cherry creek, built by the State this year, holds up, and is a fine piece of construction.

A Necessity. J. D. Bethune, superintendent of the County Farm, purchased yesterday another new auto from C. G. Riebeling, of the Studebaker type, with a carrying capacity of six people. This was due to the arrival a few days ago of another member of his family, necessitating the enlargement of traveling accommodations.

For the Holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Benjamin are in the city from Black canyon district, en route to Glendale, Cal., for the holidays, leaving this afternoon. Mr. Benjamin is to start a shipment of silver-tungsten ore to El Paso next week to test values and if returns warrant will erect a hoist and install a compressor.

Come By Train. Mr. and Mrs. Harris Harding arrived yesterday morning from Searchlight, Nevada, boarding the train at Seligman and leaving their auto on the grade. They report roads as deplorable and an accident resulted, the car being badly damaged. Mr. Harding is returning to this section to locate, and will follow mining, securing an option last June on a Big Bug property.

(From Friday's Daily.)

In Jerome. Under Sheriff Johnnie Robinson was a business visitor in Jerome yesterday.

Country Visitor. Fred LaJunness, a well known farmer of Skull valley, was a visitor yesterday on business.

After Powder. W. E. Rollins, mining in the Big Bug district, arrived yesterday to procure a powder license.

Leaves for Coast. Guy Tucker, an auto machinist of this city for several months, left yesterday for Los Angeles to accept the homeownership in a big garage.

Left For New York. Judge and Mrs. Frank O. Smith left yesterday evening for New York city, from which port they expect to sail for France within the next two weeks.

Will Visit Son. Judge Charles McLane expects to leave tomorrow for San Diego, where he will visit for a short time with his son Charles, now located at Camp Kearney.

Holiday Shopping. Mrs. Minnie Wells and daughter, Harriet, left yesterday for San Jacinto, Cal., to visit with a sister of the first named, Mrs. Peter Jordan, until after the holidays.

Back to Coast. Attorney Thomas Job, who has been here for several weeks looking after his end of the Jerome-Portland Copper Company case in the Superior court, left last night for Los Angeles.

Vacation Trip. Fred R. Thompson, a well known miner of this section, returned during the week from a vacation trip since early in November, visiting with relatives at Modesto, Cal., and leaves today for Big Bug mining camps.

Business Visit. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lawson, who arrived recently from an army cantonment in the East, the former being drafted into the army, visited the city yesterday from Mayer, where they have interests.

Christmas Shopping. Mr. and Mrs. Claud Ferguson, the former the superintendent of the Copper Queen, were Prescott visitors yesterday, making some Christmas purchases and looking after some other business matters.

Drouth Continues. Grant Carter was a visitor yesterday from Kirkland valley, reporting the country as the driest ever known and considerable alarm was prevailing over the outcome of the prevailing drouth.

New Sailors. William Sieckmann, local naval recruiting officer, states that the following named young men have left for El Paso to join the navy since the last report: Herbert Reubel of Jerome, Allen Cooper of Wickenburg and David Merwin and Edgar Lewis of Prescott.

Will Visit Husband. Mrs. H. H. Linney left last night for San Antonio, Texas, where she will spend the holidays with her husband, Lieutenant Linney, who is stationed at the adjacent Camp Stanley. Lieut. Linney will be granted a Christmas furlough of five days, and will spend it in the city.

Off to Frisco. Charles McGimsey, Cottonwood merchant, left Prescott yesterday afternoon for a visit at his old home in San Francisco. Mr. McGimsey has been away from the old town for nearly a year, and was of course anxious to see the Golden Gate tower once more.

Back From Kearney. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Churchill, who had been visiting with a nephew of the 160th (Cal.) infantry at Camp Kearney, Cal., returned on Wednesday, and leave later for Constellation, where the former is to operate a mine under a bond. They are recently from Los Angeles.

Mine Examination. Dr. Richard Moldenke, of New York city, accompanied by Lieut. E. Brown of Newark, N. J., returned to the city yesterday forenoon after a trip in the southern section of this county on an examination of a mine. They left later for the East on a hurry-up call, presumably on military matters pertaining to the latter officer.

Fine Highway. A. R. Sykes, a mining engineer of Globe, who had been looking over conditions in Eureka district, states the new road out of the Copper King camp is a creditable piece of work, about five miles being completed. Mr. Sykes states he is now with a Warren district company, and is not in the employ of the Lewishsons, as is generally reported. He is well pleased with the above field in its copper possibilities.

To the Desert. Thomas Swinburne, civil engineer until recently in the Jerome field, was an arrival Wednesday and yesterday left for the Quartzsite section, to accept a situation with the Pacific Placer Co., now starting up. His cousin, P. S. Rawlins, one of the directors, will be remembered as a resident of this city a few years ago.

Record Run. Al Weber has outclassed all previous records in traveling between Prescott and Cottonwood, making the trip on Wednesday in 2:40, the distance being 58 miles. He used a noted Oldsmobile car, and carried three passengers. Weber is one of the noted drivers of this locality and states that with roads improved he can easily make the trip in 20 minutes less than the above time, which is the record to date.

Pleased Mining Men. Albert Harrigan and Stephen Lombard, mining men who recently arrived from Goldfield, Nevada, returned yesterday from the Hooper country in making examination of mines expressed themselves as very much pleased. They traveled in auto, and reported the rebuilt road as entering Hooper. Both may become interested and return in the Spring, when Mr. Harrigan will be accompanied by his wife.

Was Not Accepted. Roy Medley, the young man from the Journal-Miner job rooms who recently went to Los Angeles to join the U. S. cavalry, returned to Prescott yesterday afternoon, having been rejected by the examining physicians.

The young man had a slight operation several years ago, and the doctors objected to a sea which had been left, and turned the boy down. It is said that the number of youths enlisting at present is so great that the recruiting officers are accepting only those in tip-top physical condition, rejecting all who have the slightest physical imperfection.

(From Saturday's Daily)

Leaves for Holidays. Mrs. George C. Rufiner left yesterday for Tempe, to visit with relatives during the holidays.

Sail Visitors. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Baldwin, of Walnut Grove, are in the city for a few days to visit with friends.

Comes to Visit. Miss Ellen White of San Diego, Cal., arrived yesterday for an extended visit with Miss Ernestine Lund.

Holiday Shopping. Mrs. Henry Ritter of Hillside, and guest, Mrs. Zona Swan, are visiting the city on a holiday shopping trip.

Visiting Friends. Mrs. Louis Gruwel, wife of a well known rangeman of the Mayer section, was a visitor yesterday with friends in the city.

Out of Army. Mike Lawler returned yesterday from Camp Kearney, Cal. having been discharged from the army owing to physical disability.

Country Visitors. Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Fuel, the former a rangeman of Martinez creek, are in the city to visit with friends and for holiday shopping.

Home From College. Miss Marcella Brinkmeyer has arrived from the University of California to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents and friends.

To the Coast. Ed. S. Wright left yesterday for Los Angeles to visit with his wife and family, who are making their home in that city for the present.

Holidays on Coast. Miss Gladys Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Fox, left yesterday for Los Angeles to spend the holidays with her sister, Mrs. George Miller.

"Dry as a Bone." James Russell was a visitor yesterday from Skull valley, and reports farming at a standstill, owing to dry weather, soil conditions not permitting plowing to start.

Holiday Visitor. Thomas Pinkham was an arrival yesterday from a mining camp near Vicksburg, on the A. & C. road, to visit with his wife and family during Christmas. Later they leave for the camp for the winter.

Holiday Trip. J. W. Jenkins, manager of the Arizona Daisy Copper Co., operating near Walker, left yesterday for Los Angeles to spend Christmas with his wife and family. Work is to continue during his absence and he returns before the first of the year.

Holiday at Home. Mr. and Mrs. Ben. P. Powellson, of Castle creek district, are in the city, the latter to leave today for Albuquerque, N. M., to spend the holidays with parents at home. Mr. Powellson comes to secure a powder license, and is well pleased with his mining properties.

Operated Upon. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. D. Jackson were arrivals Thursday from Walnut Grove, the first named coming to submit to an operation to his hand, affected with blood poisoning, several weeks ago, from which he nearly lost his life.

Mayer Visitors. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Pentland motored to the city yesterday from Mayer, to visit for a short time with relatives and friends. Mr. Pentland is now engaged in copper mining and his property is attaining prominent rating from recent development, a high grade ore body having been struck.

Coming From Kearney. Harry Henderson, who contracted pneumonia at Funston, and recovered after reaching Camp Kearney, Cal., is soon to be given a discharge from the army, with the report received yesterday. He expects to return to Prescott before the first of the year.

Given Furlough. William Jones, a young soldier with the 158th Infantry, stationed at Camp Kearney, arrives today on a furlough to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. R. L. Dossey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Jones of this city, whose death occurred on Thursday night.

Called Back. N. Jameson, of Walnut Grove, exempted from military duty, leaving afterward for Bingham, Nebraska, returned yesterday to be further grilled by innumerable questions propounded by the local board. If successful in again escaping, he is going back to the above State, after visiting with his parents in Walnut Grove.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Mining Business. H. B. King, of the Coleman Brokerage Co., is in Phoenix for a few days on mining business.

Here From Wickenburg. L. Delshar of Wickenburg was a Prescott visitor yesterday, the trip being a combined business and shopping expedition.

Sid Looks Us Over. Secretary of State Sidney Osborn was a Prescott visitor yesterday, coming up for the big blow-out which the Elks staged during the evening.

State Auditor Here. State Auditor Jesse L. Boyce was among the distinguished Phoenix visitors who was here yesterday to attend the Elks festivities.

Home for Holidays. Miss Ruth Merwin, who has been attending business college at Phoenix for the past several months, returned to Prescott yesterday for a Christmas visit at home.

Phoenix Visitor. Eugene Pierson, one of the prominent cotton growers of the Phoenix country, was a business visitor in Prescott yesterday afternoon, returning on the evening train.

Nevada Man Here. W. D. Shaw, a mining man from Goodsprings, Nevada, was here yesterday for a few hours, en route to Swansea, where he was to look over some property in that part of Yuma county.

Health Restored. W. A. Cline returned yesterday from Murietta, Cal., his health fully restored after taking the water cure. He brings word that Ben Bybon is rapidly improving and his physical condition is again normal.

Comes to Visit. Mrs. Mary O. Ross, of Long Beach, Cal., mother of State Bank Examiner F. E. Ross, arrived yesterday to remain for a three week's visit, and is at the home in this city of their son and his wife.

Students Return. Miss Elsie Nelson, Miss May Achaer and Miss Alice Thompson, students of the Tempe Normal, arrived yesterday and are en route to their homes at Mayer to spend the holidays with relatives and friends.

From Mohave. C. T. Paukland was an arrival yesterday from Chloride, Mohave county and later leaves for a mining camp near Wickenburg to spend Christmas with a sister. This is his first visit to Prescott in twenty-nine years.

warmer elevation. He is on leave of absence for 60 days.

Buying Mine Supplies. Ed. Haney was a visitor yesterday from his camp near Bannate, reporting a satisfactory situation in new developments. He also comes to procure a powder license, and is to make arrangements for shipping to begin at an early date.

On Hunting Trip. The game birds and animals in the Congress section of the county got the fright of their lives yesterday, Luther Spalding and Ed Meaney having journeyed thither with their pump guns in an effort to bring home something for the Christmas dinner.

Home From School. Among the young lady students of Tempe Normal school to arrive yesterday to spend Christmas holidays with relatives and friends at home were Miss Minnie Piper, Miss Mary Farley and Miss Helen Reibel.

Mining Business. Thomas Roach, who sold his copper holdings recently in Pine Flat, arrived yesterday from the new camp near Walker, established, and reports that active development would be under way in a short time. Mr. Roach is to return to Hooper, where he has other mines, and is to start operating.

Back From Apache. Horace Yeomans has returned from Apache county visiting his wife and family and looking after his farm interests. He states the drouth is severe in that section, and unless rain soon comes losses will be heavy to farmers and rangers.

Brief Visit. Victor Starr, a resident of this city 8 years ago, when in the locksmith business, was a visitor yesterday by train, coming from Phoenix and being en route to Las Vegas, N. M., to spend Christmas with his mother and other relatives.

Yuletide Visitors. Miss Nydia Acker, domestic science instructor of several schools in Salt River valley and sister, Miss Teel Acker, who is a student of the Redlands, (Cal.) University, both daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Acker, arrived yesterday to remain during the holidays with relatives and friends.

Exceptional Weather. Arriving yesterday from the Quartzsite country to spend the holidays in this section, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Derick reported climatic conditions as exceptional, in which residents of that country for over 30 years had never experienced such a warm winter. The temperature reached to 89 degrees on last Wednesday and since late in July not a single rain has fallen. The growth of trees and shrubbery indigenous to the desert is unusually prolific.

Visiting Teachers. Miss Alice Martin, teacher of the Crown King public school, is in the city visiting with friends during the holiday recess, while Miss Grace Gillette, teacher of the Kirkland public school also is here for Christmas and is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Poulson, the former her uncle.

Going to Leave. Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Rudy were visitors yesterday from Kirkland, and the former states he is preparing to leave this section for a new location in Mohave county to pursue his range business. He has secured a location in the Colorado river country, and early in Spring begins shipping his range stock and personal property.

Here From Oatman. E. J. Jargon of Oatman arrived in Prescott for an over-Sunday visit, and says that the camp is getting to be a lively place once more. The recent strike in the lower Tom Reed workings had put a bunch of pep into the affairs of the place and much new development work is being done on the Reed and on other properties in the district.

Come for Christmas. Mrs. Daniel Frostman and daughter, Mrs. Ella Kingsley, of Pima county, are in the city en route to Oatman, to spend Christmas with relatives, leaving this afternoon. Mrs. Kingsley made this city her home for many years, when her husband worked at different mines nearby as a hoisting engineer.

After License. A. G. Metter was an arrival yesterday from Copper Creek, east of Mayer, to procure a powder license. He has started development for a Utah syndicate, recently entering that field and is here also to meet one of the principals, Harry B. Chamberlain, of Salt Lake City, who was due on last night's train.

Overland Trip. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Paine were arrivals in auto Friday afternoon from Redlands, Cal., en route to Verde for a holiday visit with relatives. At Needles they took the river road to Parker, and report that grade in good condition. They were advised not to travel the Old Trails route.

Will Live in Frisco. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Willman left yesterday afternoon for San Francisco, where the former will take a position as assayer with the Dalbar Manganese Company. During the past year, Mr. Willman has worked in a number of local assay offices, and has proven himself to be thoroughly competent in that line of business.

Prominent Elks. Joe V. Prochaska, State Game Warden, and a Past District Deputy of the Elks of Arizona, H. B. Cassidy, Past Exalted Ruler of Phoenix lodge of the above order, and E. A. Harter, a visiting Elk from Santa Monica, Cal., motored from Phoenix to Prescott yesterday to participate in the fraternal doings of the local lodge. They made the trip via Black Canyon, negotiating the 105 miles in less than six hours.

On Leave. Lieut. H. L. Brockmann, ground officer of the St. Louis military aviation school for training officers, is in the city for a few days to try out the climate, owing to poor health. He was advised to come to Prescott by Major Charles Brett, of the medical corps, regular army, who is conversant with this climate from medical reports on file. The visitor is agreeably surprised with the December weather, and is to remain until snow flies, when he will go to a lower and

From Tuesday's Daily.)

On Trip to Coast. Attorney L. P. Spalding expects to leave tomorrow for a business trip to Los Angeles. He will remain in the city for several days.

Visiting in Phoenix. Miss Grace M. Sparkes of Chamber of Commerce left yesterday for Phoenix for an over-Christmas visit with relatives in the capital city.

From Clarkdale. Miss Edna Uber, who is teaching in the commercial department of the public schools at Clarkdale, returned to Prescott on Sunday for a Christmas visit with her parents.

Home From Camp. Sergeant Major George Nilsson, now stationed at Camp Funston, arrived in Prescott yesterday for a holiday visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Anderson.

Verde Visitors. K. R. Muhlolland and Homer B. Cummings, well known rangers of Verde Valley, are in the city on business and to spend Christmas with friends.

Back From East. D. C. MacIver, who had been East for several months on business pertaining to different local mining companies, arrived Sunday, coming to attend annual meetings and transact other business.

Christmas at Camp. Miss Webb is in the city from St. Louis to spend Christmas with her sister, Mrs. Frank G. Mueller, at the Yellow Jacket mining camp on Groom creek, where Mr. Mueller is operating.

Holiday Visit. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gish, of Davis county, Kansas, were arrivals Sunday to remain during the holidays, and are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Crozier. Mrs. Gish is a niece of Mr. Crozier.

Business Trip. A. O. Coover, who conducts boarding houses at the Binghamton and Commercial mining camps, and has recently opened a restaurant at Humboldt, was a visitor yesterday on a buying trip.

From the Range. J. Frank Condon, one of the well known cattle growers of Walnut Grove, is a visitor during Christmas holidays with his brother, Daniel Condon and wife. He states the country is dry, but cattle are in good form.

Christmas at Home. J. R. Lowry arrived yesterday from the United Verde Extension mine, at Jerome, where he is employed in a special capacity as officer, to spend Christmas with his wife and friends at home.

Range Visitor. Colin Campbell is in the city from Ash Fork, and states the drouth is not occasioning any alarm to sheepmen, fair grazing continues and no losses are anticipated.

Home From Honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. William Lewler, who have been at San Francisco and other points on the coast on their honeymoon trip, returned to Prescott yesterday. During their trip they visited with the former's brother at Camp Kearney, California.

From the Mines. John McKinnon, one of the best known miners in this section, is in the city from his camp near Senato to mingle with friends on Christmas day. He is also one of the most consistent of the old-timers, his mining group being situated right at the head of the Hayesayupa.

Range Visitor. E. H. Duffield, one of the best known of cattlemen in Coronado county, was an arrival Sunday from Williams, to spend Christmas with Prescott friends. He states cattle are in good condition, and no alarm prevails over the drouth, grazing being excellent.

Miner Visits. William Foley, a well known miner of this section, is in the city from the Copper King Camp, out of Hillside, to remain for a holiday visit. He gives an excellent account of the property, saying that its zinc content ranges to over 50 per cent and an immense tonnage is exposed.

Come to Visit. Mr. and Mrs. B. J. McNicholl, of Jerome Junction, the first named job cashier of the S. F. P. & P. and U. V. railways, spent yesterday in the city visiting with friends, and were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ehle, the former a brother of Mrs. McNicholl.

Country Visitor. George Phippney is in the city from Thompson valley on a holiday buying trip, and reports Western Yavapai as passing through the severest drouth ever known. Winter farming looks favorable, however, but the range is badly in need of rain.

Mining Business. Ed. Gilchrist, who has mining interests in Copper Creek district, was an arrival Sunday from Hillside, reporting an excellent outlook for the region to begin a new era in the near future. Several properties are contemplating resuming and those developing are making a splendid showing.

Back From Coast. H. I. Jackson, superintendent of the Wildflower mine near Crown King, under operation by the Bradshaw Development Co., returned Sunday from Inyo county, California, where he had been making an examination of a mining property. He returned to his camp yesterday to assume charge.

Christmas Visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Sines, of Los Angeles, were arrivals Sunday to spend Christmas holidays at home with the parents of the first named, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sines, popularly known in pioneer times. This is the first visit of Mr. and Mrs. Sines in several years, and they are welcomed back by many friends.

Christmas at Phoenix. Frank W. Giroux, who is operating the Swastika silver mines in the Bradshaws, left yesterday morning for Phoenix to join his wife and family during the holidays. He was accompanied by his father, Peter Giroux. He states he is satisfied with his mine holdings and since silver has advanced, returns are gratifying.

Comes for Christmas. W. L. Comer, in charge of the Rannic mine, is in the city from the camp near Walker, operations having been suspended until after Christmas. He states conditions in new exploration are favorable and the property is making a fine showing in all workings.

Visiting on Coast. Mrs. O. G. Griffin and daughter Mary Jane, left on Sunday for a visit with friends in Los Angeles.

From Camp Kearney. Lorion Reif, one of the Prescott lads now stationed at Camp Kearney, is here for his Christmas visit.

Discharged From Service. Harry Henderson returned yesterday from Camp Funston, having been given an honorable discharge from the service because of some slight physical imperfection.

Home For Christmas. Clarence Moffett is one of the Yavapai lads who is back home for the Christmas visit, Clarence being stationed at Camp Kearney with the Arizona contingent.

Back From Normal. Neil Farley, who is attending the present term of the State normal at Tempe, returned to Prescott on Sunday for a holiday visit with the home folks.

Home for Holidays. Miss Ola Henry, a student of the Flagstaff Normal, returned home Saturday to be with relatives and friends during the holidays, and is at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Henry.

Christmas Visitors. Mr. and Mrs. M. Reardon, of Clifton, the former a conductor of the Clifton-Morenci railway, were arrivals Sunday to spend Christmas at the Yeager camp of the Shannon-Copper Co., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Leland, the latter joining them here. All left yesterday for the above mines, of which Mr. Leland is superintendent. Mr. Leland is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Reardon.

Postoffice Hours. Postmaster Herndon has announced that the general delivery at the postoffice will be open today between the hours of 10 a. m. and 1 p. m. The carriers' windows and the stamp window will be open from 12 until 1 o'clock.

Christmas At Home. Miss Marguerite Levy, teacher of the public school at Jerome, is home with her parents and friends to spend Christmas.

Visiting Friends. C. R. Cross, a business man of Jerome, is in the city to spend Christmas with friends, arriving yesterday.

Concludes Visit. Miss Mary Lannon, a visitor for the past month with Mother Victoria, at St. Joseph's Academy, returned yesterday to Los Angeles, her home.

Christmas With Parents. Miss Delma Goldsborough, of Jerome is in the city to spend the holidays with her parents and friends.

Sad Mission. William Jones, who was granted a furlough to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. R. L. Dossey, will return to Camp Kearney, California, today.

Vacation Trip. M. Jacobs, an employe of the Clarkdale smelter, is in the city for the rest of the week to enjoy a vacation and mingle with friends during the Christmas holidays.

Major W. W. Midgley, formerly of the Valinda Rancho, now captain of the Clarkdale Home Guard, was a visitor Sunday with friends returning home later in the day. It is stated he has one of the best drilled commands in the Southwest, with the company recruited up to a war footing.

Ready to Fight. Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Rogers have received a letter from their son, Frank Rogers, in France, which states he has recovered from illness, and is ordered to report for aerial duty. He has been given a battleplane and expects to be in action soon. This young man is a native of Prescott and is the first from Arizona to be selected for the hazardous work to face him. He has been abroad for over four months.

APPLICATION FOR GRAZING PERMITS. NOTICE is hereby given that all applications for permits to graze cattle, horses, hogs, sheep and goats within the PRESCOTT NATIONAL FOREST during the season of 1918 must be filed in my office at Prescott, Arizona, on or before January 20, 1918. Full information in regard to the grazing fees to be charged and blank forms to be used in making applications will be furnished upon request. E. G. MILLER, Supervisor.

(W) Dec. 19, 26: Jan. 2, 9, 16.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. Estate of David Connor, deceased. Notice is hereby given by the undersigned Executors of the estate of David Connor, deceased, to the creditors of and all persons having claims against the said deceased, to exhibit, them with the necessary vouchers, within four months after the first publication of this notice to the said executors at the office of J. E. Russell, Room 27-28 Bank of Arizona Building, Prescott, Arizona, the same being the place for the transaction of the business of said estate, in said County of Yavapai.

ANNIE S. McNALLY and H. R. WOOD, Executors. Estate of David Connor, deceased. Dated Prescott, Arizona, this 15th day of December, 1917.

Dec. 19-5t.

SUMMONS. In the Superior Court of Yavapai County, State of Arizona. Helen J. Brock, Plaintiff, Versus: George Allen Brock, Defendant.—Summons No. 6860.

Action brought in the Superior Court of Yavapai County, State of Arizona. The State of Arizona Sends Greetings to George Allen Brock.

You are hereby summoned and required to appear in an action brought against you by the above-named plaintiff in the Superior Court of Yavapai County, State of Arizona, and answer the complaint filed with the Clerk of this Court at Prescott, in said County (a copy of which complaint accompanies this Summons), within twenty days (exclusive of the day of service), after service upon you of this Summons, if served in this County; in all other cases thirty days, after the service of this Summons upon you (exclusive of the day of service).

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the complaint as above required, plaintiff will take judgment by default against you and judgment for costs and disbursements in this behalf expended.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at Prescott, this 27th day of November, A. D. 1917.

(Seal) P. J. FARLEY, Clerk. By HELEN V. CARTMELL, Deputy.

J. E. Russell, Attorney for Plaintiff.

(W) First publication Nov. 28.—5t.

FORFEITURE NOTICE. Prescott, Arizona, October 30, 1917.

To A. A. IMMEL; his heirs, legal representatives and assigns: You are hereby notified that I have expended during the years 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, 1913, 1914, 1915 and 1916, Nine Hundred Dollars ($900.00) in labor and improvements upon the Red Top Lode Mining Claim, situate in the Big Bug Mining District, County of Yavapai, State of Arizona, the location notice of which is found of record in Book 75 of Mines, at page 96, in the office of the recorder of said county, in order to hold said claim under the provisions of section 2324 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and the amendment thereto approved January 22, 1880, concerning annual labor upon mining claims, being the amount required to hold said lode for the period ending on the 31st day of December, A. D. 1916. And if, within ninety days from the personal service of this notice, or within ninety days after the publication thereof, you fail or refuse to contribute your proportion of such expenditures as a co-owner, which amounts to Four Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($450.00), your interest in the claim will become the property of the subscriber, your co-owner, who has made the required expenditure, by the terms of said section.

E. K. BATEMAN. (W) First publication Nov. 21, 1917.

A NERVOUS WRECK. Prescott, Arizona, October 30, 1917.

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."