

City News In Brief

(From Friday's Daily.)

Mining Business
G. W. DeVere, with the Binghamton at Stoddard, was in the city during the week on mining business.

Soldiers for Whipple
Arriving yesterday from Camp Oreen, N. C., was a detachment of 12 soldiers, among whom were nine patients, two medical men and one commissioned officer, their destination being Whipple Barracks.

Range Business
Levi Young of Phoenix, heavily interested in lands and livestock in this county with W. Wilkins of Dewey, was in the city yesterday on business and is very much pleased with the change on the range in this county during the past four months.

Mining Man Returns
C. E. Patton, principal of the Peck Mining company, after an absence of several months, returned during the week from Huntington, Virginia, and leaves today for the camp in the Bradshaws to look over the situation, the property being in action.

Ready Deal
Through R. H. Burmister the sale of the T. P. Morgan home on South Marina street was closed yesterday, the buyer being Mr. Jernigan, recently from the east, who has decided to remain. His wife and family are with him.

Pleased People
Mrs. V. W. Morgan and daughters, the Misses Miriam V. and Lily A. Morgan, of Yakima, Washington, visited the city this week from Phoenix, and have concluded to make Prescott their home indefinitely, the climate being the attraction. They left for the south yesterday, to return early next week.

Visiting Old Home
B. F. Peters arrived in the city yesterday from Edwardsville, Illinois, his boyhood home, where for the first time in many years he visited with relatives and schoolmates. He is going to the camp of the Ford Gold Mines company today, in Crook canyon, in which he is heavily interested.

(From Saturday's Daily)

From Groom Creek
Mr. and Mrs. Dave Johnson were Groom creek visitors yesterday.

Outing Trip
Rev. George Golden, rector of St. Luke's church, this city, has gone to the Grand Canyon for a few days on an outing.

Returns Home
Thomas Earnhart of San Diego, after a month in this section looking after his varied business interests, returned home yesterday.

Jerome Visitor
Fred Hawkins, special officer of the United Verde, also deputy sheriff of Jerome, is in the city on a brief business trip on official business.

Home to Barstow
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Patterson return today to Barstow, leaving their daughter here to attend school, and later will be joined by a brother.

From Jerome
J. D. Johnson, who is building a new theater, the Lyric, in Jerome, came to Prescott yesterday on a business trip. He will be in the city for several days.

Back From Coast
T. J. O'Neill, one of the best known of carpenters, has returned from the coast after an absence of two years, to resume his vocation in this city.

Fraternal Visitor
In the city yesterday from Phoenix was J. A. Gilbert, who comes on fraternal matters for the Knights of Pythias, of which order he is one of the high officials in state work.

Formerly of Prescott
Miss Seabrook, a former resident of this city, now a resident of Ipswich, Mass., is a visitor at the home of H. P. Hunter, Park avenue. She is receiving a welcome from her many friends.

Regular Convoy
John Matli arrived in the city yesterday on his regular Friday trip with the Simmons school teacher, who spends the week ends in this city. Orchard and garden products are in the best of condition.

Change Residence
Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bloom, the first named a mining man of the Bradshaws, left Thursday for Wickensburg, where they will spend the winter, desiring to be out of the snow belt.

Inspecting Horses
Dr. C. W. Pardee has gone to Selignan, where he will inspect a big bunch of range horses owned by Clarence Denny, that are to be shipped to California. The laws of California require an accredited veterinarian to give clearance to such animals.

Valley Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jackson motored to the city yesterday, the former coming on business and the latter to visit with her daughter, who is a student of St. Joseph's academy. Jackson stated the fall rodeo begins next week, and the condition of the country is the best known in years.

Back From Conference
After a trip through Southern California, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Cole attended the Southern California conference of the Methodist Episcopal church held at Santa Barbara. Granted a continued leave of absence from that conference, Dr. Cole will continue as pastor of the North Marina street Methodist church.

Coast Visitor
Miss Gertrude Buchanan, an attaché of Tuft, Lyons & Co., the well known business house of Los Angeles, is a recent arrival in the city on a vacation trip to visit with friends, and is so favorably impressed with the country that she may decide to remain.

Building Plans
Plans for the proposed Yavapai memorial building are available for consideration by the American Legion of this city through the courtesy of A. J. Gilford, supervising architect for the state institutions. When a few minor changes of detail are arranged, the sketches will be placed on exhibition.

Successful Drunk
Pedro Rodriguez acquired an alcoholic exhilaration which attracted the attention of the city police night before last. Although he had disposed of the bottle as well as the contents, enough coin of the realm had stuck in his pockets to pay the $5 fine and costs which was assessed him for his successful attempt to become intoxicated.

Returns Home
Mrs. M. J. Dickson, who will be favorably remembered by many pioneers of this section, has concluded quite an extended visit to the county with relatives and friends, returning home to Bakersfield, Cal., on Thursday. For the past few weeks she had been visiting with a daughter at Clarkdale.

For the Winter
Mr. and Mrs. Harris Peavey, visitors since early in July, leave for home near Glendale today, their two daughters accompanying them. Elsie, one of the young ladies, was brought here suffering from influenza complications, but her health has been fully restored.

Back on the Job
William Harris, who went overseas nearly two years ago, volunteering for service with the Canadian army, has returned to resume his business as news agent on the S. F. P. & P. line. He is receiving a welcome from the traveling public, and states the "Hun never touched me," although the enemy wasted a lot of ammunition on a good target.

On a Furlough
In the city yesterday from Fort Sheridan, Chicago, was Carlin A. Tweed, who is en route to the southern part of the county on a 30 day furlough, and he will visit with relatives. He enlisted voluntarily and has until next June to return, when he will be discharged. He was with the Second division, and his only misfortune was in losing a portion of the little finger of the left hand by a piece of flying shrapnel. Quite a number of Prescott friends are extending him a welcome.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Change Residence
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Russell left yesterday for Phoenix, where they will reside in the future.

Verde Land Deal
N. N. Cherry has sold to R. C. Ralston for $2,000 a tract of farming land in Verde valley, the deed being recorded yesterday.

From California
Mrs. J. B. Ricketts of Cottonwood, accompanied by Mrs. C. W. Roland and son of Oakland, California, is visiting Prescott friends.

Teacher Visits
Miss Mabel Lee, a teacher in the public school of Pleasant valley, is in the city for a week and will visit with her mother and brother.

Visited Friends
Professor and Mrs. R. W. Hull, the former superintendent of Jerome public schools, motored to the city Friday to visit with Prescott friends.

Visiting Teachers
Professor and Mrs. E. H. Ford and Miss Hortensia Schoshusen, teaching the Mayer public school, motored to the city yesterday to visit with friends, returning home later.

Leave for Winter
Mrs. George Crawford and daughter, Dorothy, of Pine Crest, have gone to Tucson for the winter, making the change of residence for the health of the latter.

City Realty Deal
Mr. and Mrs. John Massing, for a consideration of about $100, have sold to Thomas Ralston a lot in the southwestern section of the city, the deed being recorded yesterday.

Fraternal Event
James W. Coyne, deputy county recorder, left for Jerome yesterday, where a big Knights of Columbus event was to be celebrated Saturday night in initiating many new members.

Business and Pleasure
"Boss" Head, the well known Hassavamp, who is getting weaned from the exhilarating exiler of the homeland and has switched over to the ozone of the briny, arrived yesterday from Los Angeles to "stick around" for a month on business and to visit with his daughter, Mrs. Veva Head Parr, in the suburban home among the boulders west of town.

Light Calf Crop
L. L. Harmon, in the city yesterday from Camp Wood, stated the fall rodeo was being closed up, and while cattle were in fine condition and grazing was excellent, the increase was light in young stock, and far below that of former years. Unfavorable weather conditions early in the year was the cause.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Country Visitors
Ralph E. Monroe and R. W. Wingfield of Camp Verde are in the city to attend the Northern Fair.

Range Visitors
Earl Shultz, a young rangeman of the Hillside country, is in the city for fair week and to visit with friends.

Going to Texas
Charles Ewing, the well known mining man of Jerome, visited the city yesterday and is en route to Texas, where he has oil interests.

Come to Fair

Business Trip
W. W. Conway, section foreman of the Bradshaw railroad, is in the city from Huron on business matters, and is accompanied by his wife, who will visit with friends.

Sunday Visitor
Deputy Sheriff T. J. Marks of Humboldt spent Sunday with friends in the city, reporting a slow town in his business, but commercially it was a live one.

Pioneers Return
Mr. and Mrs. William Allen, well known pioneers, formerly of Williamson valley, are in the city from Santa Barbara, Cal., to remain for an extended visit. Later they contemplate returning to remain.

Coast Visitors
Arriving Sunday from Los Angeles were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pillars and the Misses Erma and Grace McDonald via Parker. They are en route to Jerome, where Mr. Pillars is interested in mining, and before returning home they will attend the Northern Arizona Fair in Prescott.

Sudden Illness
W. E. Dorrin, a mining man recently from Pioche, Nevada, who has been looking over silver mines in Turkey Creek district, was taken suddenly ill on Saturday night after arriving in town, with symptoms of pneumonia, according to his physician. His wife has been advised to come to Prescott at once.

Going to Leave
Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Shepherd, for many years residing in Kirkland valley, are preparing to leave for California, to remain away indefinitely.

An Active Mine
O. O. Ardrey, in the city yesterday from Big Bug creek, reported the principal mine work as at the Henrietta, which is going ahead with a big force. Smaller camps are under consideration to be established in the district and the general outlook was excellent for many properties to start up this fall.

Lively Silver Field
J. A. Swigert, an arrival yesterday from Turkey creek, reported heavy production in silver mining in that district. The higher the price of the white metal the harder is development pushed, and in this connection the leaser is enjoying good times. Climatic conditions in that field are favorable for continuous work in the open, no snow ever falling. Shipping out has been discontinued, a custom plant treating the output of all mines at home.

Back to Tucson
K. L. Lundgren, a retired merchant from Minnesota, who for the past eight years has been assiduously following out a set program of spending the summers in Prescott and the winters in Tucson, left yesterday for the southern city again. He is coming back when spring dawns, and states his health is being improved by shifting his base each season. Mr. Lundgren said: "I am getting pretty well acquainted with Prescott people, and between the two towns it is hard to pick a winner; so it is an even break, and both are fine places."

Soldier Drums
Chester Drummond, from overseas recently, who had been at Syracuse, N. Y., since being discharged from the army, visited Sunday with friends in the city, and was en route to White Picocho district to resume mining this winter. Accompanying him was a cousin, G. S. Morgan, the latter making his first trip west of the Mississippi.

Getting Mine Shaped Up
Richard Kingdon, superintendent of the revived Tuscumbia silver mine in the Bradshaws, was in the city yesterday and reported the reopening of old workings as progressing, while zones were being entered that indicated a desirable mineral situation. The property is being shaped up for large operations and Mr. Kingdon is quite optimistic over the outlook.

Shannon to Resume
Reports were in circulation last week that the Shannon Copper company, at a meeting held in New York City recently, had arranged for resumption at once on their holdings in Yeager canyon, the operating plans calling for larger development than heretofore. Since suspending last spring a small force has been retained to keep the workings clear of water, and maintain the camp in shape for the work outlined.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)
Visiting Friends
Mrs. Bessie Hansen of Verde valley is in the city visiting with friends, and also to attend the fair.

Came to Ride
Frank Thompson has arrived in the city, coming from Blythe to enter the riding events at the fair.

From the Coast
Mrs. A. E. Comer and two daughters have returned from the coast, after an extended absence visiting friends.

In Town
Ed Contreras, cattleman, and Joe Contreras, who reports ranching conditions as extra good, were in the city yesterday.

Mayer Realty Deal
W. H. Morrison has sold to J. A. Martin for about $500, two lots in the town of Mayer, the deed being recorded yesterday.

Buying Autos
W. S. Lowthian left yesterday for Phoenix to replenish his stock of automobiles, selling out this week all in stock. He returns tomorrow with a carload.

Farming Business
Dell Riggins, the well known Verde valley farmer, also interested in oil lands that are getting ready for early action, is in the city on business and to attend the fair.

Business Trip
R. C. Walters, cashier of the Bank of Mayer, was a brief visitor to the city yesterday on business matters, reporting the country in a healthy condition.

Verde Peaches
As fine peaches as are raised in the continent were brought in by F. D. Fuehl from Verde valley yesterday. Not a few samples, but a load of prize winners, which were quickly bought by a local merchant.

Back From Jerome
H. G. Fansler arrived yesterday from a trip which included Mayer, Humboldt, Clarkdale and Jerome. All the above places are enjoying substantial business and residential development. Mr. Fansler reported the tone of the business market as very good and predicts an excellent fall trade for the merchants of the county.

An Active Mine
O. O. Ardrey, in the city yesterday from Big Bug creek, reported the principal mine work as at the Henrietta, which is going ahead with a big force. Smaller camps are under consideration to be established in the district and the general outlook was excellent for many properties to start up this fall.

TO TRY MEDIATION
WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Some official action, either by President Wilson or the cabinet, to avert the threatened strike of soft coal miners November 1 is to be expected, it was said today at the White House. Officials regard the matter as one requiring governmental action if other efforts to avert a tie up of the coal miners fail.
