

City News In Brief

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Mining Man Here
 Claud O. Eckel, mining man of Huron, was a visitor in the city on business yesterday.

On County Business
 C. E. Gentry, county assessor, yesterday went over to Camp Verde on assessments of property.

Humboldt Rancher
 W. L. Bell, rancher of Humboldt, was among those who came in to the city yesterday to transact business.

Kirkland Rancher
 Marvin Piper, well known rancher of Kirkland, passed yesterday in the city coming in for a short stay on business.

Returns from South
 Onas H. Jett, assistant secretary of the chamber of commerce, has returned after a stay of several days in Phoenix.

Kirkland Visitor
 Mrs. R. L. Forbes, resident of Kirkland, drove to Prescott yesterday, coming in to shop and visit friends in the city.

Flagstaff Banker
 M. I. Powers, banker of Flagstaff, was in the city yesterday on business with R. N. Fredericks, president of the Prescott State bank.

Go to Camp Wood
 Paul H. Roberts, district forest grazing inspector, and Robert Munro, assistant supervisor of the Prescott National forest, yesterday went to the Camp Wood district of the forest, to make grazing inspections there and in the Walnut Creek district.

Maricopa Senator
 Charles Pishon, representative from Maricopa county, was in the city yesterday on a brief visit on business.

Gets Cars Out
 Louis Gray, proprietor of Gray's Taxi, now has four cars on his stand at the Central drug store, polished up for the spring trade.

Returns from Coast
 George Nilsson, of Anderson, Gale & Nilsson, yesterday afternoon returned from California, where he has been recently on legal business.

Cattleman Here
 William Heath, well known cattleman of the Verde country, passed yesterday in the city, coming in to transact business and greet his Prescott friends.

Jerome Visitor
 Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gordon drove over to Prescott yesterday to shop, visit and transact business. Gordon is proprietor of a clothing store at the Billion Dollar camp.

Kirby-Hoffman
 Rudolph Kirby of Dayton, Ohio, and Mary Hoffman of Dewey, Okla., were married here yesterday by Justice of the Peace Charles H. McLane. They will make their home in Parks, Coconino county.

Prison Guard
 Tom Marks, formerly deputy sheriff in this county and now a prison guard at the state penitentiary at Florence, came to Prescott Monday night with Robert Fuller in custody. Fuller will be retired on a statutory charge.

Goes to Phoenix
 Roy B. Kemper, claim adjuster for the local Santa Fe, has gone to Phoenix on business. He will return in a day or so.

Here on Business
 R. M. Evans, of St. Louis, is here representing a hosiery manufacturer of that city, calling at the Bashford-Burmister store.

Power Operator
 George Allen drove over yesterday on business from Jerome. Allen is employed by the Arizona Power company at their station at Hope-well.

Goes to Tucson
 Dr. E. Lee Howard yesterday afternoon went to Tucson, where he will attend the Arizona state convention of the Christian Endeavor society.

Returns from North
 F. W. Ayer, night ticket agent at the local Santa Fe offices, yesterday afternoon returned from Flagstaff, where he has been passing his vacation.

Surveys Claims
 R. L. Merritt has gone to the southern part of the state, where he is surveying mining claims west of Phoenix. He will be away for several days.

Return to Chicago
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Willoughby and their daughter, Miss Frances Willoughby, parents and sister of Mrs. George Fields, tonight will leave for their home in Chicago, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fields since last September. Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby are greatly pleased with Prescott and plan to return here again.

Carload of Maxwells
 The Arizona Mine Supply company yesterday received a carload of six of the new model Maxwells, five of which have already been sold. The cars are stored at present in the company's warehouse.

To Camp Wood
 William Wolff, of Phoenix, who is interested with Lon Harmon in the Harmon cattle ranch near Camp Wood, arrived from the south yesterday and went to that district to confer with Forest Grazing Inspector Paul H. Roberts.

To Teachers' Meeting
 Miss Anna McEachren, teacher in the Humboldt school, yesterday went to Tucson to attend the State Teachers' association meeting. School is not in session at Humboldt this week, during which Easter vacation has been granted.

Go to New Orleans
 F. G. Brown of Martindell, Horne & Co., and Fred G. Brecht, of the Prescott State bank, are leaving for New Orleans, to attend the triennial encampment of the Knights Templar of the United States, to be held there from April 24 to 27.

Receives Appointment
 Charles McLane, son of Justice of the Peace Charles H. McLane, has been appointed claim adjuster for the Santa Fe at Kingman, according to word received by Mr. and Mrs. McLane yesterday. Young McLane, after passing the state bar examination with high credit last year, went to Kingman, where he has been practicing law for some months past with Attorney Charles Herndon.

(From Thursday's Daily)
From Sycamore
 Lee Murphy, a cattleman from the Sycamore canyon district, was in Prescott yesterday.

From Kirkland
 John Warren, who is engaged in ranching near Kirkland, is spending a few days in the city.

To Camp Verde
 C. E. Gentry, assessor for Yavapai county, is in the Verde section on business connected with his office.

From Winslow
 George Hixon is in the city from Winslow for a brief stay. He is connected with the Santa Fe railroad at the main line town.

Visited Mayer
 W. A. Gibson of the Bashford-Burmister company of this city, left yesterday on a short business trip to Humboldt and Mayer yesterday.

By Automobile
 Robert McMurchie left yesterday overland via Ash Fork for Kingman. He was accompanied by J. A. West. Business matters took him over to the Mohave county seat.

Back to City
 "Buddy" Lewenick, one of the veterans from Whipple Barracks, has returned to Prescott from Casa Grande, to which place he went to take up land recently opened to settlement in that section.

From Seligman
 George C. Keith is in the city from Seligman.

Kirkland Visitor
 John Brady came to the city yesterday from Kirkland on business.

Camp Wood Visitor
 Mrs. Orville Bozarth was in the city yesterday from Camp Wood.

From Ash Fork
 William J. Smith is a visitor in this city, arriving yesterday from Ash Fork.

From Camp Verde
 Granville Fain, a cattleman from Camp Verde, was a Prescott visitor yesterday.

Went to Mine
 L. N. Wombacher left yesterday for his mining properties in the Cherry Creek district.

Walker Visitor
 Wilfred Dodson, a disabled ex-service man of the late war, was a visitor to this city yesterday, coming from Walker.

Goes to Camp Kearney
 Dr. L. B. Collier left for Camp Kearney yesterday afternoon, making the trip by automobile. He has recently been transferred from Whipple Barracks to do duty in the United States Veterans' hospital at Camp Kearney.

Humboldt Visitor
 A. F. Janssen was in the city yesterday from Humboldt, making a short business stay.

In the City
 Carl Johnson, who is a stockman of the Kirkland section, is spending a few days in the city.

Visiting Friends
 Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson are visiting friends in this city. They are residents of Wagoner.

From Humboldt
 Returned to Kirkland
 L. J. Haselvelt, Kirkland merchant, returned yesterday to Kirkland, after a short business stay in this city.

From Florida
 Robert Lee Edwards of Tampa, Fla., who has been visiting in this city for the past week, has been admitted to Whipple Barracks for treatment of disabilities incurred in the World war.

J. C. Fenwell was in the city yesterday from Humboldt. He is principal of the schools there.

From Walker
 Charles H. Brown, who is a mining man of the Walker district, was a visitor to this city yesterday.

Mayer Visitor
 J. L. Warren, a mining man from the Mayer district, arrived in Prescott yesterday on a short business trip.

Stockraiser Here
 J. L. White, who combines ranching and stock raising in the Verde valley, is in the city on a short business trip.

To Flagstaff
 Mrs. Catherine McMillan returned to Flagstaff yesterday. She has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Flemming, of this city.

Left for Phoenix
 W. E. Milligan left on last night's train for Phoenix. He will return in a Durant six which he will drive up for the Milligan-Weaver warehouses.

To Philadelphia
 Harry Jahdy, who will be accompanied by Doctor Fahy of the United States Veterans' hospital, Whipple Barracks, leaves tonight for his home in Philadelphia, Pa.

From Peeples Valley
 Mrs. Reg. Forbes of Peeples valley returned home yesterday after a short visit with her daughter, Lillian, who is attending the Prescott city schools. Mr. Forbes is a member of the Hays Cattle company.

Trip North
 A. H. Favour is visiting Holbrook and Kingman on a business trip. It is reported that he will go to the coast before returning to this city the latter part of this week. He is a member of the law firm of Favour & Baker.

Visiting With Family
 Otto Lang, Sr., is in the city from Slate creek, winter headquarters of his cattle ranch. He has been absent from the city a month and will remain here several days before going to the Hassayampa ranch house at the foot of Mount Tritle.

(From Friday's Daily)
Humboldt Visitor
 Roy White is making a short visit in the city from his home in Humboldt.

From Parker
 George Dedrick, mining man of Parker, is in the city on business and to visit friends here.

Returns from North
 Judge John A. Ellis has returned from Flagstaff, where he has been lately on legal business.

On Legal Business
 Perry Ling was in the city on legal business yesterday, driving over from Jerome on Wednesday.

Kingman Visitor
 Tim Monaghan, of Kingman, is among visitors in the city, coming down to pass a few days on business.

Class in Dancing
 Mrs. H. K. Allen is preparing to hold a dancing class at the Frolic tomorrow night. Instruction will be given from 7:30 to 8:45 o'clock.

Leaves the Post
 Granville E. Thorpe, who has been a patient at Whipple Barracks for the past four months, has returned to his home at Holcomb, W. Va., where he plans to close a deal for 640 acres of timber land, and where he has real estate with coal and other mineral rights.

Mining Man Here
 John Brady, mining man of the Kirkland country, yesterday afternoon returned there after a short visit in this city.

Jerome Visit
 Winchester Dickerson, well known Ash Fork merchant, drove to Jerome on business yesterday, having come down from the north on Wednesday.

Go to Phoenix
 Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Acker are in Phoenix attending the good roads meeting, to which Mr. Acker is a delegate of the chamber of commerce.

Goes to Groom Creek
 Mrs. Alice Archambeau, deputy county superintendent of schools, yesterday went out to the Groom Creek district, where she visited the county school.

Comb from Jerome
 Driving over from Jerome Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Deming and Miss Nancy Gibbs were visitors in the city.

Returns from South
 Mrs. Lester Ruffner and Mrs. H. T. Southworth, with Dorothy Fay Southworth, have returned from Phoenix, where they participated in a program before the Phoenix Women's club on Tuesday.

Returns from South
 John S. Reilly has returned from Phoenix, where he has been during the winter.

Northern Visitor
 M. J. Smith, resident of Ash Fork, is visiting in the city for a few days on business.

Goes to North
 R. E. Morrison, of Morrison & Morrison, is in the northern part of the county on legal affairs.

Mining Man Here
 D. J. Sullivan, mining man of Congress Junction, is making a short visit in the city on business.

Here on Business
 H. L. Wilson, proprietor of the Ash Fork motion picture theater, is visiting in the city for a short while on business.

To Hear Bidding
 Attending the opening of road contract bids at the highway commission yesterday were P. P. Correll and F. E. Williams.

Railroad Chiefs
 E. A. Bryan, traveling freight and passenger agent, and A. C. McQueen, livestock claim agent for the Santa Fe railroad, are in the city from Phoenix.

Motor from Jerome
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Galbraith motored over from Jerome yesterday to shop and visit. Galbraith is engaged in contracting in the Billion Dollar camp.

Returns to East
 Concluding a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMahon, Mrs. H. M. Root has returned to her home in Wisconsin. Mrs. Root is Mr. McMahon's sister.

Visits Family
 C. P. Mullen, county highway commissioner and rancher of the Hillside district, is visiting his family in Tempe, where they are staying during the school year.

Motors to Humboldt
 Billie Hughes motored over to Humboldt Wednesday on business for the Prescott Iron Works. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wise and Louise Hughes.

Humboldt Principal
 J. C. Kenwell, principal of the Humboldt school, is in the city visiting the local schools and conferring with the county superintendent. The Humboldt school is closed this week for Easter vacation.

Go to Douglas
 Mrs. H. T. Southworth and Mrs. Florence K. Smith, Business and Professional Women's club delegates to the State Federation of Women's clubs' second annual convention, at Douglas, yesterday left for that city.

To Return East
 Mrs. M. R. Vanderkloot is planning to return to her Chicago home Sunday, after a visit of several months in Prescott as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Laura Lamb. Mrs. Vanderkloot plans to return to Prescott this summer.

(From Saturday's Daily)
Goes to Kirkland
 Deputy Sheriff Grant Carter has gone to Kirkland for a short stay.

Kirkland Visitor
 Mrs. R. W. Forbes, wife of the Kirkland rancher, drove to Prescott yesterday to shop and to visit friends.

To Return South
 Pete Macy is planning to return to Phoenix presently, following his bout on the American Legion card with Tiny Refeld. Macy has satisfied Prescott fans of his ability in the ring, and it is likely that he will again appear on local programs.

Dewey Rancher
 Jack Henderson, well known rancher from Dewey, was in the city yesterday, transacting business and greeting his local friends.

Visits in Town
 J. Van Dickson, rancher of Skull Valley and Prescott, was in the city yesterday, coming up on business from the ranch.

Goes to Valley
 Forest Supervisor H. B. Wales will go to Skull Valley today to meet Southwestern District Grazing Inspector Paul H. Roberts, who will drive to the valley from Simmons.

Goes to Mayer
 Deputy Sheriff James Cook yesterday went to Mayer on official business for the office.

Goat Raiser Here
 J. D. Page, who is engaged in goat raising near Cordes, was among those who were visiting in the city yesterday.

Returns to Ranch
 William Roberts, Fair Oaks rancher, yesterday returned to his home after a short stay in the city on business.

Returns to Ranch
 T. G. Walters yesterday returned to his ranch home near Walnut creek, concluding a short stay in the city on business.

Demonstration Delayed
 Late budding of native walnut trees in Yavapai will delay demonstrations in grafting English and other cultivated walnuts onto the native stock in Yavapai county next week. It was announced yesterday by C. U. Pickrell, county agricultural agent. The demonstrations, which are to be given by Professor A. E. Kinnison, assistant in arboriculture at the University of Arizona, will be held at a date to be announced later.

From Coburn Ranch
 R. J. Coburn was in the city yesterday from the Horseshoe ranch, owned by the Coburn brothers in the Bloody Basin district.

Drive to Project
 A. W. Davis, W. J. O'Brien and Jerry Sullivan yesterday drove out to Williamson valley on business at the Farms company project.

From Road Camp
 Yorke Terrell was in the city yesterday from the state highway camp at Granite Dells, driving in to transact business in the city.

Deputy Sheriff
 Fred Hawkins, deputy sheriff from the Clarkdale precinct, came in to Prescott yesterday, bringing a prisoner from the Verde valley.

Jerome Attorney
 Norman F. Wykoff, attorney of Jerome, was among visitors in the city yesterday, driving over on legal business in the superior court.

Called by Illness
 Mrs. Clara Worthen, manager of the Head hotel, has gone to Kirkland, called there by the serious illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ben Ainsworth.

Mayer Officer
 Tom Thompson, deputy sheriff for the Mayer precinct, drove in to Prescott yesterday to confer with Sheriff Davis on official business of the county.

Goes to Mayer
 Mrs. Frank Condon was in the city from the Diamond Two ranch near Walnut Grove yesterday, on her way to Mayer, where she is visiting relatives.

From Crown King
 Mrs. John Shearer, wife of the deputy sheriff, is among visitors in the city, coming from her home in the Bradshaws to visit friends here for a few days.

Returns from Phoenix
 Mrs. Anna Henry has returned from Phoenix, where she attended the grand lodge convention of the I. O. O. F., as a delegate from the local lodge of Rebekahs.

Return to North
 Winchester Dickerson and Mr. Watson, who were in the city yesterday and Thursday from their homes in Ash Fork, yesterday afternoon returned to the north.

Returns Today
 Robert Munro, assistant supervisor of the Prescott forest, is expected in the city today from Camp Wood, where he has been on forest business with Paul H. Roberts, district grazing inspector.

Is in Clarkdale
 Eli S. Perkins, deputy internal revenue collector for this district, is in Clarkdale on business for his office.

Return from Capital
 Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Loftus, of Clarkdale, have returned to their home following a visit of ten days to Phoenix and Mesa.

Over the Hill
 Attorney LeRoy Anderson yesterday drove over to Jerome on legal business for Anderson, Gale & Nilsson. He returned in the evening.

Jerome Visitors
 Mr. and Mrs. Haydee Lane, of Jerome, were among visitors in the city yesterday. They drove over from the Copper Camp on Thursday.

Go to Phoenix
 Dr. and R. H. Thigpen of Jerome and their son, Joey, plan to journey down to Phoenix tomorrow for a visit at the capital. They will travel by automobile.

Pastor Arrives
 Rev. W. T. Loomis, of Salem, S. Dak., arrived from that city last night, en route to Clarkdale, where he will take charge of the Clarkdale Community church.

Goes to Jerome
 County Treasurer Frank E. Smith drove over to Jerome yesterday to transact county business. In talk with friends, he intimated that he will be a candidate for re-election.

Legion Election
 Wilbur T. Walsh has been elected vice-commander of the Jerome American Legion post, succeeding A. C. Gardner, whose removal from the district made the place vacant.

Return from Jerome
 Mr. and Mrs. Vern Roberts, of this city, have returned from Jerome, where they visited Mrs. Roberts' sister, Miss Lillian Clabaugh. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts formerly lived in Jerome.

Visit in Clarkdale
 Mrs. Winchester Dickerson and Miss Floy Dickerson, wife and daughter of the Ash Fork merchant and former highway commissioner, are visiting at the home of Mrs. W. F. Ferris in Clarkdale.

Mine Accident
 Pete Vukimir, an employee of the Verde Central mine, suffered a broken leg, when he was spilled out of a hoist bucket in the shaft Wednesday. He was taken to the United Verde hospital, where his fractures were reduced, and where he is now resting easily. He will be in the hospital several weeks.

Mining Men
 A. W. Engelder, chief clerk of the Calumet & Arizona Mining company and brother of Oscar Engelder of Jerome; and H. B. Paul of New York, general auditor of the C. & A., are in Jerome on mining business.

New P. U. Chief
 Frost L. Benham has taken charge of the Jerome office of the Upper Verde Public Utilities company, succeeding C. R. Furr, who will leave Jerome shortly to devote his attention to oil interests in the Holbrook field.

Reported Recovering
 Mrs. Joe Larson, of Jerome, who underwent a serious operation at a Phoenix hospital Monday, yesterday was reported to be recovering.

Return from Michigan
 Mrs. J. S. Siler and her children, of Cottonwood, have returned from a trip to Mrs. Siler's old home in Saginaw, Mich., where Mrs. Siler was called by the sad death of a niece and the serious illness of her only sister.

Returns from Phoenix
 Mrs. Henry Bergman, of Clarkdale, has returned from Phoenix, where she attended the grand lodge meeting of the I. O. O. F. as delegate from the Clarkdale lodge of Rebekahs. Mrs. Bergman is deputy president of the district.

Is Recovering
 Mrs. Earl Standridge, who underwent a serious operation at the Mercy hospital here Tuesday, yesterday was reported to be doing well. The Standridges are living at Kirkland, where Mr. Standridge is in the employ of the county highway department.

(From Sunday's Daily)
From Camp Wood
 Guy Bozarth, rancher of Camp Wood, was in the city yesterday.

Visits in Mayer
 Miss Nellie Marshall last night went to Mayer, where she is visiting friends.

Hillside Visitor
 Mrs. Eva Ehrenfeld was a visitor in the city yesterday, coming in from Hillside to shop and visit.

Go to St. Louis
 Mrs. L. B. Collier and Mrs. Thos. Barnidge today will leave for St. Louis, where they will visit for several months.

From the East
 Henry Miller, well known cattle raiser from Thompson valley, was among business visitors in the city yesterday.

Week-end Visit
 Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ritter drove in yesterday from their ranch at Kirkland, and passed the day shopping and visiting. With them was their daughter, Edna Ritter, who is the guest over the week-end of Helen Chapman.

Inspect Roads
 Supervisors C. C. Stukey and L. S. Colwell returned last night after a trip over the Santa Maria roads.

Goes to Verde
 E. H. Meek yesterday went out to the Verde Hot Springs, of which he is proprietor, and will remain there over today.

Shopping Trip
 Mrs. Wayne Thornburg was in the city from the Diamond Two ranch near Kirkland yesterday, coming in to shop.

From the Verde
 Mr. and Mrs. Henry See, Henry See, Jr., and Jack Bholm, are visitors in the city, coming over from their homes in the Verde valley.

Leaves for East
 Mrs. R. M. Vanderkloot today will leave for her home in Chicago, concluding a visit here as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Lura Lamb. Mrs. Vanderkloot plans to return to Prescott this summer.

Dick Twamley Back
 Mr. and Mrs. Richard Twamley arrived from Phoenix yesterday, and Dick is greeting his old Prescott friends.

Fishing Trip
 A. W. Davis, W. J. O'Brien and J. H. Robinson plan to visit the Hooker ranch today to try out the fishing there.

Goes to Phoenix
 Miss Grace M. Sparkes, secretary of the chamber of commerce, is visiting in Phoenix on business, and will return tomorrow.

From Ash Fork
 Miss Emma Brosam, teacher of the school at Ash Fork, came down to Prescott yesterday to shop and visit in the city.

Returns from Coast
 R. M. Caldwell, Phoenix representative of the Williamson Valley Farms company, has returned from a visit in California.

Mining Man Here
 Frank W. Giroux, of the Swastika mine in the Mayer district, was among those who were in this city yesterday on business.

Visits Sister
 Fred G. Wasson of California is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. Hugh Parker. Mr. Wasson is on his way to Albertine, Ia.

Week-end Visit
 Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Brasel came down yesterday from Ash Fork, planning to remain in Prescott with friends during the week-end.

Attends Dance
 Gail Gardner was among out-of-town guests at the Yavapai club dance Friday evening, coming in from his ranch near Skull Valley.

Miss Cora E. Phillips, sister of Mrs. J. D. Dann, came in from Mayer yesterday with Mrs. H. W. Fisher. Miss Phillips and Mrs. Fisher are teachers at the Mayer school.

Returns to Stoddard
 Mrs. Grover Lessard is visiting in the city from Stoddard, to which place she will return tomorrow to be present at the opening of school following Easter vacation during the past week.

Miss Frances Densmore of Washington, D. C., and Miss Margaret Densmore of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived yesterday from the east, and will be in the city for some time. Miss Frances Densmore is connected with the Smithsonian Institute, and is here for the purpose of studying southwestern lore.

To Make Locations
 L. J. Anderson today is going out to the Senator district to make location on certain mining claims he has there with other Prescott men. He will report on the claims-as soon as assays of the gold-silver-copper ores they contain have been made.

Improvement Reported
 Mrs. Clarence Stewart, of Williamson valley, who has been ill recently with pneumonia, yesterday was said to be much improved. This news was brought to the city by Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, who drove in from the valley to shop and visit in town.

Mayer Visitors
 Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Peacock drove in from Mayer yesterday to remain over today. Mr. Peacock is employed by the Arizona Power company at Mayer