

NOGALES NOTES.

A Survey of the Happenings in the Line City and Vicinity During the Week.

Prices reduced on all trimmed hats, at the Elite Millinery. [Adv.]

Mrs. L. H. Watkins, who had been visiting in Texas, has returned home.

Mr. E. Caddell, the well known mining man, has returned from a visit in Colorado.

Mr. Arcus Reddoch is up from Cerro de Plata visiting his mother through the holiday season.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Bird went to Hermosillo for a short visit. They will return tomorrow evening.

Monday Judge and Mrs. Frank J. Duffy went to Parker Cañon to pass the Christmas with the parents of Mrs. Duffy.

Proto Brothers held THE OASIS in kind remembrance Christmas by presentation of a pair of chickens for the Christmas dinner.

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barnett, of the Commercial Hotel at Patagonia, were at Nogales engaged in Christmas shopping.

Anyone needing a good, nearly new mine car and a lot of rails, may find a bargain by applying to Mr. S. A. Bowman, the plumber. [adv.]

It is reported that the Fourth Cavalry, which was under orders to proceed to Honolulu, has been held at Fort Huachuca for further orders.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gordon, from Empalme, Sonora, were at Nogales, en route to Naco, where they will reside henceforward.

Next Tuesday evening at the club rooms, the Santa Cruz Club Auxiliary will give its regular New Years Eve reception to the members of the Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hannah have bought the Lester property, on O'Keefe street, and Thursday and Friday they were engaged in moving into their new home.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tomlin, Wednesday evening, there was a beautiful Christmas tree, laden with gifts for their little boy, Master Edward Tomlin.

Sunday Nogales was visited by Mr. B. Maier, the Benson merchant, who came from Cananea Saturday evening, and remained here until Monday morning when he went to Elgin.

This week Nogales has been visited by Mr. A. D. Nanney, from Douglas, who had not been at this line city before since three years ago. Formerly Mr. Nanney was in business here, with the Southwestern Commercial Company.

F. Peltier, Accountant and Auditor. Incorporation Mexican Mining Companies. Denouncements, Translation, Typewriting, etc. Desk in office of C. F. Holler above Palace Saloon, Nogales, Arizona. [Adv.]

Tuesday Doctor H. W. Purdy, Mrs. Purdy and Bo. J. Whiteside, went to the 78 ranche, in the Santa Catalinas, north from Tucson, to pass Christmas with the family of Mr. Charles Ruppelius, the son-in-law of Doctor and Mrs. Purdy. They travelled by automobile.

This week the American drug store, Jesus Saldamando, proprietor, is moving into its new and elegant quarters in the new Wise building on Morley avenue, near International street.

Captain A. M. Macnab was over from Duquesne Monday on business. Captain Macnab and his associates, Messrs. Menefee and MacFarland, have some fine prospects on which they are working.

By the Tucson train at evening of Christmas day Reverend Father Duval, priest of the Sacred Heart parish, went to Tubac where he held a Christmas service that evening, returning home Thursday morning.

In a postal card, received at Nogales on Christmas, Mrs. Frank Fitch, who had been visiting some months in Pittsburg, wrote that she expected to start for home very shortly, and would soon be again at the line city.

Full line of the celebrated "Lady Jeanne" kid gloves, in black, white and tan, at the Elite Millinery. [Adv.]

Several days this week Nogales has been visited by Mr. C. H. Menefee from the Duquesne region and Mr. C. L. Reinbold from Cananea, who are interested jointly in a valuable gold property in Sonora. The two gentlemen expect to return to their homes tomorrow.

Attention is called to the advertisement of a sheriff's sale of property at the Trenton Camp, in the Santa Rita mountains, which sale will take place in front of the court house door, at 10 o'clock, next Tuesday, December 31st, at which there will be offered some rare bargains in mining property and machinery.

Saturday of last week Nogales was visited by Mr. Monte E. Mansfield, representing the Eagle Milling Company of Tucson, in whose mill is manufactured the famous Kan-Zona flour, for which there is growing a large and insistent demand. The dealer who fails to carry that brand of flour now is behind the times.

Upon behalf of J. A. Straith an application has been made by Frank J. Barry Esq., counsel for Mr. Straith, for a restraining order from the Superior Court, against E. J. Fernald of Tombstone, to restrain the latter from interfering with assessment work upon certain mining properties on the west side of the Patagonia mountains. Mr. Straith holds the properties under sheriff's sale under execution, and Mr. Fernald claims them as receiver in bankruptcy in a case in the United States court.

The Johnson-Mix Wedding.

Thursday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the Church of the Sacred Heart, in Nogales, Arizona, in the presence of a large number of friends of the high contracting parties, there were united in the bonds of holy matrimony, Miss Elena Mix, eldest daughter of Captain L. W. Mix, mayor of Nogales, and Lieutenant Alexander Leroy P. Johnson, of the Fourth Regiment U. S. Cavalry.

The church was decorated beautifully for the auspicious occasion, and the ceremony was performed by Reverend Father Duval, assisted by Reverend Father Early. The bridal couple were attended by Mrs. Elisa E. de Chenoweth and Mr. Eduardo Ramirez, with Lieutenant Rudd and Miss Josephine Mix.

By the evening train the newly married pair departed for Tucson, thence to Fort Huachuca, where the regiment of the groom is stationed.

Of Local Interest.

The following from the Boston Herald of December 17th will be read with interest by many readers of THE OASIS:

A studio tea was given Saturday, December 14th, in Copley Hall

Studio by Miss M. B. Titcomb for her niece, Miss Georgia Titcomb of Wellesley College. The studio was decorated with flowers, potted plants and greenery, and prettily lighted with candles. Girls from Wellesley and Radcliffe were in attendance, Miss Cole and Miss Marguerite Smith of Kentucky pouring and Miss Ethel Keep assisting. There were many visitors during the afternoon, among them a number of painters and Harvard men.

Change of Business.

The El Paso Times of the 22d inst. presented the following with regard to a young gentleman known well to many readers of THE OASIS. "Cecil Hostetter, general agent of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railroad in El Paso, has resigned and will take a position with Runkle & Peacock of this city. His resignation will take effect Jan. 1. He has been the local agent of the road for the last three years. The successor of Mr. Hostetter as general agent of the road has not been announced."

Mr. Hostetter is the son of Hon. Louis Hostetter, American consul at Hermosillo.
