

LOCAL NOTES

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY

Heavy frost at night. Beef tea at the Cob Web Hall. The new law full fledged poet. Read the new section advertisement in this issue. Carp raising has become very successful in this county. Telegraph wires between Prescott and Phoenix are down. Two stages a day are now run between Phoenix and Maricopa. We have experienced the April showers during the past twenty four hours. Wire polling among candidates for office is already becoming quite active. Several of our ambitious and energetic citizens still complain of having the Honduras fever. The United Verde Copper Company has a small force of men at work in their mines at Jerome.

Fred E. Murray left for Jerome this morning. Mrs. W. C. Davies is in from Alexandria visiting friends. Mr. Watterell, manager of the Geper Horse & Cattle Company, is in town. A fine opportunity will be presented to obtain fine furniture at the auction next Wednesday. D. Postland will not start on his expected trip for about ten days yet; and those who desire his services will please call early.

Captain F. S. Ingalls, since resigning as superintendent of the territorial prison, has gone to ranching. He owns a splendid ranch below Yuma. Fears are entertained for the safety of Fernan Mejia, a well known Mexican miner, his cabin on the Haasayampa was recently found deserted.

A New Haven editor remarks that it is a strange thing that the man who knows exactly how to run a newspaper is always engaged in some other kind of business.

The real estate and personal property of the Arizona Industrial Exposition, at Phoenix, was recently sold at sheriff's sale for $1243. The purchaser was Wm. Christy.

The Natural Hot Spring Life Association, of which Hon. J. J. Gosper is general agent in Arizona, has been organized in California, took $2,500,000 worth of business during the month of March.

Fruit trees on the ranch of James Wing on Granite Creek, below town, grew five and a half feet during the past year. Trees planted one year ago are now in bloom, with good prospects for a fair crop being raised.

After three months of preparation The Current announces its Easter issue. The 100,000 copies, double the usual issue. List of authors is remarkable, embracing thirty seven leading contributors of the country.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The Chicago Typographical Union will furnish a prize article by John C. Harding. A thrilling novel by E. Hough will commence. Gaudier will write about his Shakespeare autograph. Epens will set forth an enumeration of subjects, but each of the articles have a value commensurate with the taste of its writer. It is doubtful if any western publication ever before offered its readers a table of contents so varied and attractive.

The mining outlook for this section is good. A large amount of gold is being taken out by the placer miners, while a number of mills are in operation and others will soon start.

Governor Sallick arrived from the south last evening. While he was well received and well entertained in the south he is glad to get back to the capital and breathe the pure mountain air again.

Geo. H. Tucker has in charge of the Flagstaff Champion, and his issue of this week will appear under his editorial management. As George is rather inclined to radical republicanism, we doubt if the sheet will be as democratic as the last issue.

Travel on the Atlantic & Pacific road is very heavy at present. The company has been compelled to frequently, of late, to run their trains in two sections. This route is rapidly becoming the favorite, it being the shortest and most pleasant between the Missouri river and San Francisco.

Hon. J. J. Gosper left this morning for Denver to attend a meeting of the officers and executive committee of the International Range Association, which convenes on the 13th instant. From there he will go to Illinois, to look after some live stock ranch business.

P. J. McCormick has shipped three car loads of stock and took to Independence, Kan., for work on the railroad near that point. He estimates that he will have two years' work on contracts recently taken.

Mr. Brown, of the abbie laundry, reports fair state of patronage this week. When it becomes generally known that washing can be done by white labor, it will, no doubt, be generally patronized.

Hyman Ellis, assignee of Quia Ellis & Co., arrived in Phoenix to day, and will have charge of the business of that firm, under the great reduction sale to begin next Thursday. — Gazette.

United States District Attorney Owen F. Russ refuses to resign on the mere invitation of the board. If they attempt to force him to do so he will be found to be what might be termed a Bower.

Thos. Ughart killed another duck on the Miller creek dam yesterday. Duck shooting promises to become quite good there yet.

Messrs. Marsh & Ross are engaged in laying the foundation for the Old Fellows' hall, on the corner of Gurley and Goodwin streets.

The boys inaugurated in Tombstone have proven a failure, and many who entered into it have withdrawn.

The Daily Tombstone and the Tucson Star have failed to receive this issue for about two weeks. Wonder if Brothers Nash & Hughes have retired from business.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY. Prepare for the business boom. Baseball in East Prescott to-morrow. Services will be held at all the churches to-morrow.

The recent fair weather has caused talk of spring picnics. Lillian Hancock, of Phoenix, has been adjudged insane.

Mr. Tracy and family have gone to their Oak creek home. Distinguished scientist and public man in America endows Red Star Cough Cure.

Ex-Mayor Goldwater and Hon. L. Baahford have proven themselves fast friends of Prescott.

United action on the part of our citizens will accomplish wonders in the matter of building up a town.

Gorbun A. Bray went this afternoon to meet his wife, who will arrive here this evening from the east.

Our public schools are a credit to the town. The teachers employed are competent and faithful to their duties.

Judge J. C. Shields and wife will arrive this evening, a private conveyance having been sent to meet them on the road.

Religious services will be held at the M. E. Church, South, to-morrow at 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend a hop to be given by the Prescott Grays, at their armory next Tuesday.

Dr. McCandless who returned this morning reports the old man Peters whom he went there to visit, as being seriously ill with paralysis.

Messrs. Reed & Watson, the well known stock and mining men, of Turkey creek, were in town to-day, and paid their respects to this office.

County warrants are selling at from 67 1/2 to 90 cents on the dollar, on the general fund and 80 cents on the road fund.

A semi-official rumor has reached here to the effect that the surrendered Chiricahua Indians have been taken to Fort Marion, near St. Augustine, Florida, for confinement.

Justice of the Peace Eugene Pannenberg has recently received the appointment as agent of a number of first class fire insurance companies.

The Gazette says that the prohibition movement has reached Vulture and some fifteen or twenty old timers have sworn the flowing bowl and are now agitating the formation of a temperance society.

Parties in communication with T. S. Bullock inform us that the railroad negotiations are progressing satisfactorily and that the prospect is now good for commencement of active work within a very short time.

According to the Herald the under sheriff of Maricopa county has been requested to front out of his office. His name is F. T. Trot and Sheriff Broadway recently informed him that his resignation would be accepted, therefore he placed it in the hands of that official and immediately took the road for Ft. McDowell. Some irregularities had been discovered in his accounts which led to the above result. Just how much he is behind has not been ascertained and will not probably be known until his accounts are examined. M. H. C. Orms has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

During the absence of the editor of the Phoenix Herald, some one imposed on the editor in charge and induced him to publish an article reflecting on the honesty of the late Under Sheriff Trot, of Maricopa county. Sheriff Broadway, the writer of the article in question, as well as the editor of the Herald, all publish cards correcting the statement and testifying to the honorable character of Mr. Trot. As the item was copied in this paper it is but just that this statement be made.

A gentleman who arrived from Mesquiti yesterday reports that Germaine with 79 Indians, of whom about 50 were back, passed Frontiers on Sunday, and camped on the Frontiers river. They there killed some cattle, had a big pot-wow and a food, staying until between four or five o'clock, when they struck out for the south. The backs were all well armed. As this number of bucks does tally with the number of hostiles, who wait off with Germaine, it would seem that the renegades must have obtained reinforcements. — Epitaph.

Proposals for four and for army transportation will be opened at Whipple on Thursday.

The school boys will play another game of ball Saturday.

California strawberries have made their appearance in the market.

Mr. Emily L. Boon has filed her declaration as sole trader with the county recorder.

The Grays will give a grand calico ball on their second anniversary, the sixth of May.

Carrriages will leave town Wednesday morning to take parties to the section at General Crook's residence.

The Anti-Chinese League, of Tombstone, publishes, in the Daily Tombstone, what it calls a black list, composed of the names of those who patronize Chinese labor.

The Prescott Grays will celebrate their second anniversary on Thursday, May 6th, by giving a grand calico party in the city hall. They will spare no efforts to make it a complete success.

Good prices have been realized at the auction sale of merchandise belonging to Boon & Spencer.

Mount Steele & Price have an attractive advertisement in this issue of their flouring extracts and baking powder.

The San Diego branch of the Lion Store, will be opened this week by Henry Warrburg, the junior partner of the firm.

Chas. W. Beach, of Kirkland Valley, is in town. He came in to meet his partner, W. H. Comstock, of Canada.

The Tucson Star still fails to reach this office and is not to be questioned from it in our exchanges we naturally conclude that it has been stopped.

Our southern exchanges have a prolific source of news in the Shaw-Paul contest. Whoever wins gets a rare few dollars are readily secured with which to "fill up."

Superintendent J. A. Mair, of the Arizona division of the S. A. R. R., has recently been promoted. Before leaving Tucson, the employes of the road presented him with a diamond pin.

The editor, who, through a troubled life, maintains in extravagance a long list of delinquent subscribers, accomplishingly devotes space in his paper that ought to earn him a living to pulling church festivals and harrumphing for his side of political battles, cannot afford to put on style. — K.

The Utica, New York, Saturday Globe, has the following concerning a Prescottite: Edson Long, of Prescott, Arizona, is visiting Utica after an absence of sixteen years. He is the guest of J. C. Babcock, of Park avenue. Territorial life agrees with Edson and he speaks glowingly of the future of that splendid division of the far west.

The Champion claims that on account of there having been no deputy assessor, as yet, appointed for Flagstaff and vicinity, Yavapai county has lost taxes on about 30,000 head of sheep, which wandered close to town and have now been driven to Apache county.

The present snow storm promises to prove fatal to the Lynx creek peach crop this season, as the peach trees are in full bloom.

Ex-Congressman John G. Campbell, of Prescott, a large cattle raiser and business man of that place, visited Tempe last Wednesday. He had "an eye" to something. — Tempe News.

The hearing of the annual statement of the account of Mrs. Alice Meoller, administratrix of the estate of A. L. Meoller, deceased, set for hearing to day was postponed by Probate Judge Hawkins until tomorrow at 10 a. m.

W. H. Comstock and daughter will arrive in Prescott this evening by the Ash Fork stage. Mr. Comstock is the father of E. Comstock, who visited this section recently, and is the senior member of the stock firm of Comstock & Co.

The Florence E-terprise, owned and edited by Horv. Tom Weedin, has entered its sixth year, free from debt, and with $2,513 due from its patrons. There are other papers in the territory than Weedin's that cannot make so good a financial showing.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Flagstaff Champion, under the new management of Geo. H. Tinker. In his editorial "starter" he announces that the Champion will hereafter be independently republican, its columns are well filled with local news, and gives every promise of being a bright new paper, while its well filled columns would indicate that Mr. Tinker had struck a journalistic bonanza.

Advice Concerning Horv. Always be careful about using a whip on a horse you don't know, advise a sensible writer. See how differently horses take a whipping. They are just like youngsters. Some will tremble and lose their spirit; others will become stubborn and balk; a spanky one will jump at sight of your hands, and you might not get him back in time enough to save a broken wagon or head. And here in a bad practice you ought to avoid—the lighting of those snappy parlor matches on a wheel tire. Many a horse has been started in that way. Smoking on horseback is a very bad practice. A falling spark from a pipe or cigar has caused many riders broken bones or bad bruises. — N. Y. Independent.

What Seventy-Five Costs 90c. A farmer in Missouri writes that he has had a tough time. The potato bugs got into his fields; his children had had whooping cough, and his wife was crippled with rheumatism. Then he invested fifty cents in a bottle of Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and in ten days he was able to get to work again. He is an energetic and faithful office.

Always be careful about using a whip on a horse you don't know, advise a sensible writer. See how differently horses take a whipping. They are just like youngsters. Some will tremble and lose their spirit; others will become stubborn and balk; a spanky one will jump at sight of your hands, and you might not get him back in time enough to save a broken wagon or head. And here in a bad practice you ought to avoid—the lighting of those snappy parlor matches on a wheel tire. Many a horse has been started in that way. Smoking on horseback is a very bad practice. A falling spark from a pipe or cigar has caused many riders broken bones or bad bruises. — N. Y. Independent.

Always be careful about using a whip on a horse you don't know, advise a sensible writer. See how differently horses take a whipping. They are just like youngsters. Some will tremble and lose their spirit; others will become stubborn and balk; a spanky one will jump at sight of your hands, and you might not get him back in time enough to save a broken wagon or head. And here in a bad practice you ought to avoid—the lighting of those snappy parlor matches on a wheel tire. Many a horse has been started in that way. Smoking on horseback is a very bad practice. A falling spark from a pipe or cigar has caused many riders broken bones or bad bruises. — N. Y. Independent.

Always be careful about using a whip on a horse you don't know, advise a sensible writer. See how differently horses take a whipping. They are just like youngsters. Some will tremble and lose their spirit; others will become stubborn and balk; a spanky one will jump at sight of your hands, and you might not get him back in time enough to save a broken wagon or head. And here in a bad practice you ought to avoid—the lighting of those snappy parlor matches on a wheel tire. Many a horse has been started in that way. Smoking on horseback is a very bad practice. A falling spark from a pipe or cigar has caused many riders broken bones or bad bruises. — N. Y. Independent.

Always be careful about using a whip on a horse you don't know, advise a sensible writer. See how differently horses take a whipping. They are just like youngsters. Some will tremble and lose their spirit; others will become stubborn and balk; a spanky one will jump at sight of your hands, and you might not get him back in time enough to save a broken wagon or head. And here in a bad practice you ought to avoid—the lighting of those snappy parlor matches on a wheel tire. Many a horse has been started in that way. Smoking on horseback is a very bad practice. A falling spark from a pipe or cigar has caused many riders broken bones or bad bruises. — N. Y. Independent.

Always be careful about using a whip on a horse you don't know, advise a sensible writer. See how differently horses take a whipping. They are just like youngsters. Some will tremble and lose their spirit; others will become stubborn and balk; a spanky one will jump at sight of your hands, and you might not get him back in time enough to save a broken wagon or head. And here in a bad practice you ought to avoid—the lighting of those snappy parlor matches on a wheel tire. Many a horse has been started in that way. Smoking on horseback is a very bad practice. A falling spark from a pipe or cigar has caused many riders broken bones or bad bruises. — N. Y. Independent.

Wednesday's Edition

Old Folks might like to try it. The Tombstone boycott is a failure. A. G. Oliver came in from Ash Fork last night.

Kansas City has elected a republican mayor. The custom house at Fort Yuma is to be established.

The county hospital contains two patients at present. Snow all gone and delightful spring weather again.

Henry Hebrun left for his home on Beaver creek this morning.

Trains carry from 300 to 500 passengers on the A. & P. now.

Professor Arnold is practicing with C. P. Stanton, at Weaver.

Dr. Kelly, of Ohio, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gorham at Bray.

Good prices were realized to-day at the auction at General Crook's.

A Santa Fe train brought over 1,000 passengers into Albuquerque recently.

County Treasurer Boon, of Apache county, has been required to furnish a new $50,000 bond.

The bill admitting Washington Territory as a state has passed the senate by a vote of 32 to 13.

The boy which was a heaver by the Prescott Grays at their armory last night, will come off next Friday.

Judge Griffin, who came up from West, yesterday, reports placer miners busy there washing out plenty of gold.

Geo. W. Binn, of the Sonoran Saloons, has just received a large invoice of iron brass whisks which samples up well.

It is stated that twenty-five cases of cholera have appeared in the vicinity of Anderson, in Arizona, one of which proved fatal.

The self-confessed Texas desperado still remains in jail awaiting intelligence from the officers, whom he claims to have committed the crime.

The railroad is coming soon: "no more ape business." "Catch the idea." It is a fine drink of leaf tea, or extract of chicken call at the Palace.

W. H. Thorne returned from Tombstone last night. He was well pleased with his trip and speaks highly of the hospitality of Southern Arizona.

The Best St. Louis strikers among the killing of some of their number by the officers by setting fire to and destroying a large amount of railroad property.

Sergeant N. D. Lane, of the Signal Service office at Whipple, left this morning for Whipple by Sergeant Connor, from Fort Grant.

Tim Hanson, a resident of Ferguson valley, came in yesterday to receive medical treatment for a skull bite which he received the night before at the ranch of Bushford & Fisher. The bite of these animals are considered very dangerous.

We are in receipt of some very attractive posters, issued by the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad, in regard to Arizona, which it designates as the "Treasure Chest of precious metals." The Rock Island route is always alive to its best interests and it furnishes good accommodations in speed, safety and comfort to all its patrons.

W. C. Wetherby received a telegram yesterday containing the sad news of the death of his brother, Charles F. Wetherby, at Greenville, Miss., on the 11th instant of pneumonia. Deceased is said to have been a bright young man, being only 24 years of age. He resided with his wife and family at Atlanta, Georgia, and had gone to Greenville on business, when he was stricken down with the fatal disease.

It is stated that Col. A. J. McGonigle, Chief Quartermaster of this Department, will shortly be transferred to some other station, probably San Antonio, Texas. His successor at Whipple is Major Kimball, recently stationed in Oregon. The business, as well as the social relations, between Colonel McGonigle and the editor of this paper have in the past been of the most pleasant character, and we are sorry to see him leave the department. He is an energetic and faithful officer.

What Seventy-Five Costs 90c. A farmer in Missouri writes that he has had a tough time. The potato bugs got into his fields; his children had had whooping cough, and his wife was crippled with rheumatism. Then he invested fifty cents in a bottle of Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and in ten days he was able to get to work again. He is an energetic and faithful office.

Always be careful about using a whip on a horse you don't know, advise a sensible writer. See how differently horses take a whipping. They are just like youngsters. Some will tremble and lose their spirit; others will become stubborn and balk; a spanky one will jump at sight of your hands, and you might not get him back in time enough to save a broken wagon or head. And here in a bad practice you ought to avoid—the lighting of those snappy parlor matches on a wheel tire. Many a horse has been started in that way. Smoking on horseback is a very bad practice. A falling spark from a pipe or cigar has caused many riders broken bones or bad bruises. — N. Y. Independent.

Always be careful about using a whip on a horse you don't know, advise a sensible writer. See how differently horses take a whipping. They are just like youngsters. Some will tremble and lose their spirit; others will become stubborn and balk; a spanky one will jump at sight of your hands, and you might not get him back in time enough to save a broken wagon or head. And here in a bad practice you ought to avoid—the lighting of those snappy parlor matches on a wheel tire. Many a horse has been started in that way. Smoking on horseback is a very bad practice. A falling spark from a pipe or cigar has caused many riders broken bones or bad bruises. — N. Y. Independent.

Always be careful about using a whip on a horse you don't know, advise a sensible writer. See how differently horses take a whipping. They are just like youngsters. Some will tremble and lose their spirit; others will become stubborn and balk; a spanky one will jump at sight of your hands, and you might not get him back in time enough to save a broken wagon or head. And here in a bad practice you ought to avoid—the lighting of those snappy parlor matches on a wheel tire. Many a horse has been started in that way. Smoking on horseback is a very bad practice. A falling spark from a pipe or cigar has caused many riders broken bones or bad bruises. — N. Y. Independent.

Always be careful about using a whip on a horse