

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

WEDNESDAY'S DAILY.
E. Burgess came in from the Yarnell mine last evening.

Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Wyckoff left for California yesterday.

W. G. Stewart arrived on yesterday from Flagstaff.

J. L. Gardner has gone to California and Oregon, on a pleasure trip.

T. D. Vandeventer, an old Prescott type, now holds a position on the Pacific, California, New Era.

Sullivan's admirers are offering bets of $100 to $750 on their favorite, but can find no takers in Prescott.

Clouds have been gathering for two or three days and threaten rain, but the welcome showers do not come.

"A Plain Talk on the Drama," by Richard Mansfield, is announced to appear in The North American Review for September, an article upholding the noble aims of the stage.

Northern Arizona should be well represented at the New Mexico territorial fair with a good exhibit of fruit, grain, vegetables and mineral specimens. Exhibits will be carried free.

Golden Rule Chapter, No. 1, O. E. S. will hold a regular stated meeting on Thursday at 8 o'clock p. m. in Masonic Hall. By order of the W. M. Angie B. Brown, secretary.

Jerry Millay and party left for Phoenix this morning. Several of the party went down to the bottom of the Canyon and remained in camp for over a week. They speak of having had a delightful outing of two months.

A deed has been filed for record from J. D. Burgess to F. C. Beckwith, for the three-fifths of the Buxton mine, Peck district, for $5,000, also one from the same to F. C. Beckwith et al. for two-fifths of the same mine, for $500.

The call for holding primaries and the county convention by the republicans of Yavapai county will be found in this issue. The date for the former is September 13, while the convention which will nominate the future officers of this county will be held September 20.

R. F. Murphy is repainting and making general repairs throughout to it, preparatory to its occupancy by F. M. Murphy and party on their return from their wedding trip. As Mr. Murphy has excellent taste in such matters, the place will be made very attractive for the happy couple.

"The territory of Arizona vs. Charles Bates" is the title of a case on trial to-day before Judge Andrews and a jury. The prosecuting witness in the case is Frank Gensung, and the charge is malicious mischief in the alleged shooting of a steer, by defendant, belonging to the plaintiff. The jury found for defendant.

Our contemporary contains a very sympathetic paragraph for one of the candidates for delegate to the county convention who was defeated at last Saturday's election. As there were six devoted candidates, we are at a loss to know just which particular one these crocodile tears are shed over. In the very nature of things, six of the candidates had to be beaten.

For the benefit of our nimrods and also the members of the gun club, we publish the following from the game laws of the territory, showing the dates in which it is lawful to kill the following game: Elk, deer, antelope, mountain sheep, mountain goats, October 1 to February 1. Partridges, wild turkeys, geese, brant, swans, curlews, plovers, snipe, quail, ducks, September 1 to March 1. The capture of fish by means of nets or explosives is prohibited.

The "Odd Fellows' Grand March" and the "Air Ship Waltz" are two of the latest compositions of Isaac Doles, Indianapolis, Ind. Both are musical gems. They comprise five pages each, sheet music size, besides illustrated title pages, notes on their execution, but beautiful in composition, and sell at 40 cts. each. By way of introduction, Mr. Doles will mail them to any address on receipt of ten cents per copy, when accompanied by this notice. Address, Isaac Doles, Indianapolis, Ind., U. S. A.

The Stutz opera company was greeted last night by a large audience again. The "Crystals Cross," and its production was in keeping with the previous performances of the company, the audience being kept in good humor throughout. To-night the company will produce "Under Two Flags." Interest in the gold watch contest is increasing. The vote last night stood as follows: Gertrie Hale, 357; Ida Spaulding, 238; Mattie Fisher, 36; Mattie Freuler, 12; Ida Smith, 6; Mollie Osborn, 6; Daisy Stone, 5.

The following are the names of the delegates elected to represent Maricopa county in the territorial convention, which meets in Prescott next Thursday, September 8th: George Beardsley, Frog Tanks; Sylvester Moots, Mesa City; H. H. Hansell, Glendale; W. L. Van Horn, Tempe; John T. Priest, Tempe; J. J. Wolfley, Phoenix; J. B. Early, Phoenix; C. J. Dyer, Phoenix; W. C. Deputy, county; George L. Israel, Phoenix; Robert Hudson, Phoenix; E. M. Mills, Phoenix; W. O. Hanson, Phoenix; W. A. Hancock, Phoenix; W. L. Vail, Phoenix.

Desirable residence property for sale. Apply to Wm. Dulin, Montezuma Saloon. As good a well of water as there is in town is located on the premises.

Fine Imported Cigars just received at Ford's. These cigars are of excellent.

FRIDAY'S DAILY.
P. J. McCormick is in town.

W. H. Williams returns to Gallup tomorrow.

Jack Martin, of the Crowned King mine, is in town.

Joseph Mayer, the popular station keeper of Big Bug, is in town.

Base ball meeting next Sunday at 2 o'clock at Dr. Waite's office.

S. E. Fuller, superintendent of the Rich Hill Placer Mining company, is in town.

James Duffy, an employee of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad, at Williams, died of typhoid fever last week.

The JOURNAL-MINER is in receipt of a lot of fine letter heads especially adapted for the use of professional men. Call and see samples.

Work was commenced today on the extension of the city water along Mount Vernon avenue from Gurley street to W. B. Jones' residence.

R. C. Brown, of the Arizona Enterprise, returned last evening from a visit to the Yarnell mine. He reports finding a very prosperous camp there.

John Rhodes, who was accused of being one of the murderers of Tom Graham, but who was released by Justice Huson, is brother of Wm. Rhodes, of Chino valley.

THURSDAY'S DAILY.
George Merwin has gone to Castle creek with a Denver capitalist, to look at some mining property.

At a mass meeting recently held at Tompeo vigorous resolutions were passed denouncing the murder of Tom Graham.

The JOURNAL-MINER solicits correspondence from all parts of the county. Mining news is particularly solicited.

A chicken thief stole a large portion of the chickens in Mrs. Bourke's coop, about a dozen in number, a few nights since.

A young and enthusiastic professional gentleman of this city has wagered $500 on the fight for sheriff next November in Yavapai.

The vote for the gold watch last night stood as follows: Gertrie Hale, 478; Ida Spaulding, 438. The remaining votes were unchanged.

The Albuquerque fair will open September 11. Exhibitors desiring to send exhibits to it should prepare them, and have them shipped not later than next week.

W. C. T. T. meets in the M. E. church at 3 o'clock, Friday September 2. All members are requested to be present. Business of importance is to be transacted.

The Atlantic & Pacific Railroad company has issued a circular giving rates for the various stations on its line to Albuquerque and return during the fair. The round trip will fare from Prescott Junction is $2.00, or just one cent per mile.

Jim Davis, of the Hillside mine, arrived yesterday and will "spike" the mine at the Albuquerque races. He is an old time member of the Tough hose company of this city, and can handle his feet lively in a running race as well as in a "hoe down."

The preliminary examination of Ed. Tewksbury was commenced at Phoenix last Monday. Several witnesses swore positively to having seen him at or near the scene of the murder.

The Atlantic & Pacific Railroad company has issued a circular giving rates for the various stations on its line to Albuquerque and return during the fair. The round trip will fare from Prescott Junction is $2.00, or just one cent per mile.

Under Two Flags, was the title of the play produced at the opera house last night. The performance was among the best yet given by the company. Mr. and Mrs. Stutz were excellent actors and are supported by a good troupe. Their season in Prescott has been very successful, as their performances have given good satisfaction. They will give their closing performance this evening.

While Jos. Valdrini was unloading a carload of ore last Friday at the Hillside mine, he lost control of the car and it went over the dump, pulling him with it. The two rolled down the side of the dump a distance of thirty-five or forty feet, landing at the foot of it, with the car, which weighs about 1,100 pounds, on top of the man. On being taken from under the car, it was found that Valdrini was quite seriously cut and bruised, but no bones were broken.

THE CHAMPION BELT.
The following verses were found posted in the bath room of the hose team which goes to Albuquerque to enter the firemen's contest. They were composed by the members of Hose Co. No. 4, and the boys say every word in the song "goes!"

Here's the good old fire boys, on the track again;
Running with a spirit that will melt the old car spin.
Prescott boys are marching off with the belt again
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Hurrah, Hurrah, Prescott wins the day,
Hurrah, Hurrah, the belt is here to stay.
The Prescott boys are marching with the champion belt again
Under the fire lads' protection.

II
I am all good working boys, who work an honest day,
For the grand old Champion Belt we all come here today.
Prescott you will find it, where it has come to stay,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Now you'll see the old cart spin along the track again,
The Albuquerque are looking on as if they were insane.
Don't you get excited, boys, we'll take her home again,
Under the fire lads' protection.

III
Prescott boys are coming home for the fair is o'er,
Happy girls are waiting, for to see the lads come home.
When the lads come home, how they'll yell and roar,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Let the Albuquerque roar, the Prescott's run them out,
Fair and squarely won the belt in the three successive bouts.
The little mountain city is so full of cheers and shouts,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Owing to the death of W. H. Throne, of the firm of Brecht & Throne, all persons indebted to the said firm are notified that such indebtedness must be paid within sixty days from date, or the same will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Prescott, Aug. 24, 1892.

Desirable residence property for sale. Apply to Wm. Dulin, Montezuma Saloon. As good a well of water as there is in town is located on the premises.

Fine Imported Cigars just received at Ford's. These cigars are of excellent.

FRIDAY'S DAILY.
P. J. McCormick is in town.

W. H. Williams returns to Gallup tomorrow.

Jack Martin, of the Crowned King mine, is in town.

Joseph Mayer, the popular station keeper of Big Bug, is in town.

Base ball meeting next Sunday at 2 o'clock at Dr. Waite's office.

S. E. Fuller, superintendent of the Rich Hill Placer Mining company, is in town.

James Duffy, an employee of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad, at Williams, died of typhoid fever last week.

The JOURNAL-MINER is in receipt of a lot of fine letter heads especially adapted for the use of professional men. Call and see samples.

FRIDAY'S DAILY.
P. J. McCormick is in town.

W. H. Williams returns to Gallup tomorrow.

Jack Martin, of the Crowned King mine, is in town.

Joseph Mayer, the popular station keeper of Big Bug, is in town.

Base ball meeting next Sunday at 2 o'clock at Dr. Waite's office.

S. E. Fuller, superintendent of the Rich Hill Placer Mining company, is in town.

James Duffy, an employee of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad, at Williams, died of typhoid fever last week.

The JOURNAL-MINER is in receipt of a lot of fine letter heads especially adapted for the use of professional men. Call and see samples.

Work was commenced today on the extension of the city water along Mount Vernon avenue from Gurley street to W. B. Jones' residence.

R. C. Brown, of the Arizona Enterprise, returned last evening from a visit to the Yarnell mine. He reports finding a very prosperous camp there.

John Rhodes, who was accused of being one of the murderers of Tom Graham, but who was released by Justice Huson, is brother of Wm. Rhodes, of Chino valley.

Pete Collett, of the Jerome stage line, says that travel to and from that camp is quite active at present. His stage will be in operation for the great copper camp. Passengers can secure seats at T. M. Earnhart's.

All members of the Prescott Base Ball club, both active and honorary, are requested to meet at my office, Sunday, September 4th at 2 p. m. to make arrangements for the reception of the Flagstaff team. F. H. Aute, President P. B. C. C.

The Flagstaff base ball club will arrive in Prescott, September 7th and will play a game with the Prescott club September 8th. The game promises to be a very interesting one, as our home team will fare from Prescott Junction is $2.00, or just one cent per mile.

Jim Davis, of the Hillside mine, arrived yesterday and will "spike" the mine at the Albuquerque races. He is an old time member of the Tough hose company of this city, and can handle his feet lively in a running race as well as in a "hoe down."

The preliminary examination of Ed. Tewksbury was commenced at Phoenix last Monday. Several witnesses swore positively to having seen him at or near the scene of the murder.

The Atlantic & Pacific Railroad company has issued a circular giving rates for the various stations on its line to Albuquerque and return during the fair. The round trip will fare from Prescott Junction is $2.00, or just one cent per mile.

Under Two Flags, was the title of the play produced at the opera house last night. The performance was among the best yet given by the company. Mr. and Mrs. Stutz were excellent actors and are supported by a good troupe. Their season in Prescott has been very successful, as their performances have given good satisfaction. They will give their closing performance this evening.

While Jos. Valdrini was unloading a carload of ore last Friday at the Hillside mine, he lost control of the car and it went over the dump, pulling him with it. The two rolled down the side of the dump a distance of thirty-five or forty feet, landing at the foot of it, with the car, which weighs about 1,100 pounds, on top of the man. On being taken from under the car, it was found that Valdrini was quite seriously cut and bruised, but no bones were broken.

THE CHAMPION BELT.
The following verses were found posted in the bath room of the hose team which goes to Albuquerque to enter the firemen's contest. They were composed by the members of Hose Co. No. 4, and the boys say every word in the song "goes!"

Here's the good old fire boys, on the track again;
Running with a spirit that will melt the old car spin.
Prescott boys are marching off with the belt again
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Hurrah, Hurrah, Prescott wins the day,
Hurrah, Hurrah, the belt is here to stay.
The Prescott boys are marching with the champion belt again
Under the fire lads' protection.

II
I am all good working boys, who work an honest day,
For the grand old Champion Belt we all come here today.
Prescott you will find it, where it has come to stay,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Now you'll see the old cart spin along the track again,
The Albuquerque are looking on as if they were insane.
Don't you get excited, boys, we'll take her home again,
Under the fire lads' protection.

III
Prescott boys are coming home for the fair is o'er,
Happy girls are waiting, for to see the lads come home.
When the lads come home, how they'll yell and roar,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Let the Albuquerque roar, the Prescott's run them out,
Fair and squarely won the belt in the three successive bouts.
The little mountain city is so full of cheers and shouts,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Owing to the death of W. H. Throne, of the firm of Brecht & Throne, all persons indebted to the said firm are notified that such indebtedness must be paid within sixty days from date, or the same will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Prescott, Aug. 24, 1892.

Desirable residence property for sale. Apply to Wm. Dulin, Montezuma Saloon. As good a well of water as there is in town is located on the premises.

Fine Imported Cigars just received at Ford's. These cigars are of excellent.

FRIDAY'S DAILY.
P. J. McCormick is in town.

W. H. Williams returns to Gallup tomorrow.

Jack Martin, of the Crowned King mine, is in town.

Joseph Mayer, the popular station keeper of Big Bug, is in town.

Base ball meeting next Sunday at 2 o'clock at Dr. Waite's office.

S. E. Fuller, superintendent of the Rich Hill Placer Mining company, is in town.

James Duffy, an employee of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad, at Williams, died of typhoid fever last week.

The JOURNAL-MINER is in receipt of a lot of fine letter heads especially adapted for the use of professional men. Call and see samples.

Work was commenced today on the extension of the city water along Mount Vernon avenue from Gurley street to W. B. Jones' residence.

R. C. Brown, of the Arizona Enterprise, returned last evening from a visit to the Yarnell mine. He reports finding a very prosperous camp there.

John Rhodes, who was accused of being one of the murderers of Tom Graham, but who was released by Justice Huson, is brother of Wm. Rhodes, of Chino valley.

Pete Collett, of the Jerome stage line, says that travel to and from that camp is quite active at present. His stage will be in operation for the great copper camp. Passengers can secure seats at T. M. Earnhart's.

All members of the Prescott Base Ball club, both active and honorary, are requested to meet at my office, Sunday, September 4th at 2 p. m. to make arrangements for the reception of the Flagstaff team. F. H. Aute, President P. B. C. C.

The Flagstaff base ball club will arrive in Prescott, September 7th and will play a game with the Prescott club September 8th. The game promises to be a very interesting one, as our home team will fare from Prescott Junction is $2.00, or just one cent per mile.

Jim Davis, of the Hillside mine, arrived yesterday and will "spike" the mine at the Albuquerque races. He is an old time member of the Tough hose company of this city, and can handle his feet lively in a running race as well as in a "hoe down."

The preliminary examination of Ed. Tewksbury was commenced at Phoenix last Monday. Several witnesses swore positively to having seen him at or near the scene of the murder.

The Atlantic & Pacific Railroad company has issued a circular giving rates for the various stations on its line to Albuquerque and return during the fair. The round trip will fare from Prescott Junction is $2.00, or just one cent per mile.

Under Two Flags, was the title of the play produced at the opera house last night. The performance was among the best yet given by the company. Mr. and Mrs. Stutz were excellent actors and are supported by a good troupe. Their season in Prescott has been very successful, as their performances have given good satisfaction. They will give their closing performance this evening.

While Jos. Valdrini was unloading a carload of ore last Friday at the Hillside mine, he lost control of the car and it went over the dump, pulling him with it. The two rolled down the side of the dump a distance of thirty-five or forty feet, landing at the foot of it, with the car, which weighs about 1,100 pounds, on top of the man. On being taken from under the car, it was found that Valdrini was quite seriously cut and bruised, but no bones were broken.

THE CHAMPION BELT.
The following verses were found posted in the bath room of the hose team which goes to Albuquerque to enter the firemen's contest. They were composed by the members of Hose Co. No. 4, and the boys say every word in the song "goes!"

Here's the good old fire boys, on the track again;
Running with a spirit that will melt the old car spin.
Prescott boys are marching off with the belt again
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Hurrah, Hurrah, Prescott wins the day,
Hurrah, Hurrah, the belt is here to stay.
The Prescott boys are marching with the champion belt again
Under the fire lads' protection.

II
I am all good working boys, who work an honest day,
For the grand old Champion Belt we all come here today.
Prescott you will find it, where it has come to stay,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Now you'll see the old cart spin along the track again,
The Albuquerque are looking on as if they were insane.
Don't you get excited, boys, we'll take her home again,
Under the fire lads' protection.

III
Prescott boys are coming home for the fair is o'er,
Happy girls are waiting, for to see the lads come home.
When the lads come home, how they'll yell and roar,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Let the Albuquerque roar, the Prescott's run them out,
Fair and squarely won the belt in the three successive bouts.
The little mountain city is so full of cheers and shouts,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Owing to the death of W. H. Throne, of the firm of Brecht & Throne, all persons indebted to the said firm are notified that such indebtedness must be paid within sixty days from date, or the same will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Prescott, Aug. 24, 1892.

Desirable residence property for sale. Apply to Wm. Dulin, Montezuma Saloon. As good a well of water as there is in town is located on the premises.

Fine Imported Cigars just received at Ford's. These cigars are of excellent.

FRIDAY'S DAILY.
P. J. McCormick is in town.

W. H. Williams returns to Gallup tomorrow.

Jack Martin, of the Crowned King mine, is in town.

Joseph Mayer, the popular station keeper of Big Bug, is in town.

Base ball meeting next Sunday at 2 o'clock at Dr. Waite's office.

S. E. Fuller, superintendent of the Rich Hill Placer Mining company, is in town.

James Duffy, an employee of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad, at Williams, died of typhoid fever last week.

The JOURNAL-MINER is in receipt of a lot of fine letter heads especially adapted for the use of professional men. Call and see samples.

Work was commenced today on the extension of the city water along Mount Vernon avenue from Gurley street to W. B. Jones' residence.

R. C. Brown, of the Arizona Enterprise, returned last evening from a visit to the Yarnell mine. He reports finding a very prosperous camp there.

John Rhodes, who was accused of being one of the murderers of Tom Graham, but who was released by Justice Huson, is brother of Wm. Rhodes, of Chino valley.

Pete Collett, of the Jerome stage line, says that travel to and from that camp is quite active at present. His stage will be in operation for the great copper camp. Passengers can secure seats at T. M. Earnhart's.

All members of the Prescott Base Ball club, both active and honorary, are requested to meet at my office, Sunday, September 4th at 2 p. m. to make arrangements for the reception of the Flagstaff team. F. H. Aute, President P. B. C. C.

The Flagstaff base ball club will arrive in Prescott, September 7th and will play a game with the Prescott club September 8th. The game promises to be a very interesting one, as our home team will fare from Prescott Junction is $2.00, or just one cent per mile.

Jim Davis, of the Hillside mine, arrived yesterday and will "spike" the mine at the Albuquerque races. He is an old time member of the Tough hose company of this city, and can handle his feet lively in a running race as well as in a "hoe down."

The preliminary examination of Ed. Tewksbury was commenced at Phoenix last Monday. Several witnesses swore positively to having seen him at or near the scene of the murder.

The Atlantic & Pacific Railroad company has issued a circular giving rates for the various stations on its line to Albuquerque and return during the fair. The round trip will fare from Prescott Junction is $2.00, or just one cent per mile.

Under Two Flags, was the title of the play produced at the opera house last night. The performance was among the best yet given by the company. Mr. and Mrs. Stutz were excellent actors and are supported by a good troupe. Their season in Prescott has been very successful, as their performances have given good satisfaction. They will give their closing performance this evening.

While Jos. Valdrini was unloading a carload of ore last Friday at the Hillside mine, he lost control of the car and it went over the dump, pulling him with it. The two rolled down the side of the dump a distance of thirty-five or forty feet, landing at the foot of it, with the car, which weighs about 1,100 pounds, on top of the man. On being taken from under the car, it was found that Valdrini was quite seriously cut and bruised, but no bones were broken.

THE CHAMPION BELT.
The following verses were found posted in the bath room of the hose team which goes to Albuquerque to enter the firemen's contest. They were composed by the members of Hose Co. No. 4, and the boys say every word in the song "goes!"

Here's the good old fire boys, on the track again;
Running with a spirit that will melt the old car spin.
Prescott boys are marching off with the belt again
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Hurrah, Hurrah, Prescott wins the day,
Hurrah, Hurrah, the belt is here to stay.
The Prescott boys are marching with the champion belt again
Under the fire lads' protection.

II
I am all good working boys, who work an honest day,
For the grand old Champion Belt we all come here today.
Prescott you will find it, where it has come to stay,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Now you'll see the old cart spin along the track again,
The Albuquerque are looking on as if they were insane.
Don't you get excited, boys, we'll take her home again,
Under the fire lads' protection.

III
Prescott boys are coming home for the fair is o'er,
Happy girls are waiting, for to see the lads come home.
When the lads come home, how they'll yell and roar,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Let the Albuquerque roar, the Prescott's run them out,
Fair and squarely won the belt in the three successive bouts.
The little mountain city is so full of cheers and shouts,
Under the fire lads' protection.

CHORUS.
Owing to the death of W. H. Throne, of the firm of Brecht & Throne, all persons indebted to the said firm are notified that such indebtedness must be paid within sixty days from date, or the same will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection.

Prescott, Aug. 24, 1892.

Desirable residence property for sale. Apply to Wm. Dulin, Montezuma Saloon. As good a well of water as there is in town is located on the premises.

Fine Imported Cigars just received at Ford's. These cigars are of excellent.

FRIDAY'S DAILY.
P. J. McCormick is in town.

W. H. Williams returns to Gallup tomorrow.

Jack Martin, of the Crowned King mine, is in town.

Joseph Mayer, the popular station keeper of Big Bug, is in town.

Base ball meeting next Sunday at 2 o'clock at Dr. Waite's office.

S. E. Fuller, superintendent of the Rich Hill Placer Mining company, is in town.

James Duffy, an employee of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad, at Williams, died of typhoid fever last week.

The JOURNAL-MINER is in receipt of a lot of fine letter heads especially adapted for the use of professional men. Call and see samples.

Work was commenced today on the extension of the city water along Mount Vernon avenue from Gurley street to W. B. Jones' residence.

R.