Since their defeat of last Sunday, the foot ball club has moved from its third-story quarters into a basement room. They expect, however, to "do up" the Phoenix boys by a score that will not only put them back in the third story, but will permit them to take quarters on the roof of a five-story building.

Travel over the S. F., P. & P. Railroad is quite heavy at present. South bound trains, as a rule, are crowded, while north bound trains are also doing a good business. The road bed is in splendid condition, being well halia ted from one end to the other. There are few roads in the western country, in fact, in as good condition as this, and none better. The passenger trains make good time.

Through the courtesy of Morris Fleishman, manager of the opera house at Phoenix, the editor of the Journal-Miner was present at the opening performance of the Haverly Minstrels on Monday evening. The opera house was crowded to its fullest standing room capacity and the audience was kept in a perfect uproar of laughter from the commencement to the close of the performance. The performance of this troupe is all that is claimed for it.

Judge Hawkins is listening this afternoon to the argument on the motion to dissolve the incorporation of the town of Williams. The town is all split up on the question. There are incorporators and anti-incorporators, all of whom are active, while there are a few neutrals who don't take any interest in the fight. W. H. Dunbar, city attorney of Williams, and E. S. Clark, of Flagstaff, represent the incorporators, while H. D. Ross, of Prescott, and his brother, J. W. Ross, of Flagstaff, represent the anti.

Mr. Hickey replied and secured possession of it and is returning it to Prescott.

The pupils in Miss Flagg's room of the public school gave a very interesting entertainment yesterday afternoon, which was quite well attended by the patrons of the school. The little folks acquitted themselves very creditably. A feature of the afternoon's performance was the singing by the little tots, which was greatly appreciated by the visitors. Mrs. Douglas had charge of this feature and gave the little ones instruction.

"The Argus" is the name of the new paper recently started at Holbrook, by A. F. Banta an old time newspaper man, banker and legislator. It is a four page paper of seven columns to the page and the first number which has been received at this office is quite spicy and full of news. A part of the paper is printed in Spanish. May the Argus prove a successful financial venture, as it is sure to be from a literary and news stand point.

C. P. Clark, editor of the Phoenix Express, pays a glowing tribute to the Prescott Courier giving the date of its birth away back in 1864. The paper receiving the compliment at birth and all without even "battin' an eye" or indulging in an "agad a blush." For the benefit of A. F. Clark, we will state that our office is a third story apartment, first saw the light of day in a two story building in Prescott in February, 1882, nearly fourteen years ago and it was within the present month grown up to its present third story quarters. All the other nice things said in the Express in regard to it were true and even more could be said in praise of it and its two rustling proprietors. By the way, as a historical fact, it may be stated, that the Arizona Miner, at present the published annex of this paper, was started in 1864 and whose "early files are the territory's history."

THE OPENING SESSION

Of the Teachers' Joint Institute and Arizona Teachers' Association.

Large Attendance of Enthusiastic Educators and Interesting Exercises.

This morning the curtain was raised on the opening session of the fourth annual meeting of the Arizona Teachers' Association in connection with the Joint County Institute, and in every point of excellence it bids fair to be one of the most interesting if not "the best" meeting held in the territory.

The hall was decorated with evergreens and bunting, artistically festooned with flags, and appropriate mottoes of welcome greeted the eye.

The attendance from all parts of the country was good, notwithstanding the stormy weather, and more teachers are expected yet. The opening of the session was postponed until after the arrival of the late train.

After the opening exercises, conducted by Rev. G. L. Pearson, the meeting was called to order by Superintendent Netherton, who introduced Mayor Goldwater and Supt. C. P. Hicks, who delivered very good addresses of welcome.

Prof. Cluff being absent a pleasing impromptu response by Prof. Case, followed by an eloquent and convincing response by Prof. Young. After a few remarks by Supt. Netherton the meeting was adjourned till 1:30.

The following teachers were present at the opening session: Mrs. Mary Hennessy, Charlotte Cook, Mary Finnie, Clara E. Whitmore, Mrs. A. E. Henning, Stanley Windes, Josephine Butler, Maddie Brasler, Olema Kempe, E. B. Coleman, Basile Smith, Nettie Hunt, Jessie M. Fish, Geo. U. Young, John Metz, T. J. Arnold, J. Curtis Wason, Jos. M. Birehett, E. V. Hendrick, Joe M. Culver, Fred Stephens, Mrs. F. Jackson, Frank K. Seegmiller, A. C. Peterson, Bertha Smith, Mary Wingard, Ella A. Flagg, Emma A. Cook, Mary E. McNeill, Bella G. Beatson, Bessie Buchanan, C. O. Anderson, Ella Cardon, L. P. Cardon, R. Walsworth, C. O. Case, Alice Postle, Mabel C. Meany, Matt Vardant, Flora M. Westcott, Ida Williams, A. E. Jocelyn, Alma M. Chilson, Viola B. Reeves.

When the session convened this afternoon at 2 o'clock, President Netherton announced the following list of COMMITTEES.

School Law—A. E. Jocelyn, Mrs. Bella G. Beatson, of Yavapai and Geo. U. Young, Miss Smith, of Coconino, C. O. Case, of Maricopa, A. C. Peterson and Mrs. Coleman, of Mohave, F. K. Seegmiller and Mr. Gordon, of Navajo.

Resolutions—J. C. Wason, of Coconino; Miss Elizabeth Baker, of Mohave; M. Culver, of Yavapai; C. O. Anderson, John Metz, Maricopa; Bessie Buchanan, Mr. Jackson, Navajo.

Auditing—Judge Chas. F. Hicks, Yavapai; Judge N. G. Layton, Coconino; Judge Willard Farr, Apache; Judge E. M. Zuck, Navajo; A. H. Fulton, Maricopa.

Prof. Netherton then made a few explanations of the purpose of the committee on school laws. The teachers of the territory are the persons having the most experience with the school laws and are most competent to report on their defects. Teachers having suggestions should file them with the committee. At the end of the session the committee will draw up a report and resolutions to be presented to the legislature at their first session.

The first paper presented was "Literature in Primary Grades" by Mrs. Bella Beatson, of Yavapai county. She thought the present fairy stories and work prattle of the school readers could be well replaced by extracts from many of our interesting classics, works of adventure, etc. Also by requiring scholars to write short descriptions of objects brought into the school room. Many valuable suggestions were made. Discussion was postponed.
