

C. H. Akers is in town today on business. Did you ever try an eye of Joe Wilson's celebrated "King Quality" shoe? Sold here at the same price as in the east. $1.50 all shapes and styles.

Mrs. H. B. Long and son have returned from their visit east. The railroad people ought to make a sort of pontoon bridge at Point of Rocks and then anchor it.

Miss Alice Campbell has gone out to the Gopher mine to visit the Misses Kautz.

The seven-month-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Helm has been quite sick, but is now recovering.

Fluttery scarfs, vests, breezy, bright hued neckwear with the delightful touch of coolness and grace, Wilson's.

The railroad people expect to have the railroad repaired and open for traffic again tonight.

Even prices are molting. You can get the pick of the town in a neat stylish straw hat. Not many left, but they are the better grade. Price will suit anyone. Joe Wilson.

R. N. Fredericks is in Phenix attending the meeting of the territorial board of equalization, which convened yesterday.

The will of the late Louis Becke was proved and admitted to probate yesterday. He bequeathed his property to Fred C. Moore, son of J. M. W. Moore, and the latter is appointed executor of the estate.

Midsummer sale is now on at F. P. Linn's Golden Eagle store, where you can save 20 to 40 per cent on your purchases.

Prescott Hotel arrivals, August 12: A. K. Jones, Jerome; N. P. McCallum, Phenix; John Weller, Phenix; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Johnson, Phoenix; A. Humphreys, Senator; George R. Kautz, Deputy; Dan McGone, Mayer; Y. Kida, San Francisco.

W. J. Collard, John Copeland and Ben Wallis, who have been in Prescott for some time, are now in the United States land office, left for their homes in Williams this morning.

Another bright lot of those handsome negligee shirts has just arrived. Planted blooms in fancy stripes. We can't get enough of them. Wilson.

J. F. Smith, the asphaltum roofer and sidewalk builder, will leave for Williams in a few days where he has several contracts for roofing.

The Castle Rock Improvement company is spending $20,000 in improvements on its place this summer. They consist of an addition to the hotel, an ice plant and an electric light plant.

Don't forget that next Thursday is the last day of our suit and pants sale. Ed Block.

Owen Callahan, a prominent capitalist, arrived in Prescott recently and went out today to McCabe with Reese M. Ling to look at the McCabe Extension mine in which he is a stockholder.

The postoffice boys captured the prize at the poverty ball. Matt Lorenson was adjudged the poorest person there with the worst clothes on of anyone, and Billy Murphy, being mistaken for a young lady, was voted the handsomest lady with the shabbiest costume.

Cooldest place in town and best place for a glass of beer. Comet Grocery, basement of Lawler block.

The Arizona Blade is going after O'Brien Moore, of the Citizen. It brazenly leaves out the fact that in the old democratic household, but we have often wondered why, if O'Brien Moore is as big a fish as he is, why he is not a bigger fish.

The editor of the Globe Times colloquies thusly over the invention of labor-saving machines: "If when a labor-saving machine is invented, the whole people, including the common laborer, got the benefit of it, why the more inventions the better. But it appears to be the case, an invention throws the laborer out of employment and carries all its profits to some one else, it were better to turn back to the days of the rap-book and wood-mold-board."

A. A. Johns returned today from Jerome.

C. C. Randolph is in town today on life insurance business.

The Granite Creek flood last evening washed out 150 feet of the United Verde & Pacific railroad bridge over that stream just east of Jerome Junction. Residents along the creek there state that the water was higher than it was ever known to be before.

The eight Mexicans who were arrested and brought to Kingman last week from the Big Sand on charges of violation of the Edmunds act, were released from custody by the United States marshal, who is in charge of the prisoners. Blakely and all immediately secured licenses and went back home where they will have no further connection with the case.

It will pay for to buy boy's clothing now. Next Thursday is the best day of our suit sale. Ed Block.

The Verde river has been higher this summer than it has been for many seasons past at this time of year. It did its level best to show the Salt River valley that it holds no malice, even if it did wish to coral all its water for their own consumption. It gathers every drop of surface and surplus water from every drop of mountain and pours them post haste into the waters, the greedy sea will receive for their own.

The Court Grotto in the basement of the Lawler block is the best place in town. Best beer 5 cents.
