

THE LOCAL NEWS OF THE CITY AND COUNTY

From Wednesday's Daily.
C. M. Shannon left for the south yesterday.

Mrs. L. Wallenberg and daughter have returned from a visit to California.

The mining case of Beckwith et al. vs. J. O. Marr, involving title to mining property in the Bradshaw mountains was on trial today.

Forest Supervisor Stewart returned last night from a visit to California. He found the fire almost extinguished upon his arrival there.

Business was brisk on Tuesday in the mining location business, thirty-two notices of deposit were filed. Thirty-two of them were of supposed oil land.

Steve Ochso, a prominent citizen of Tucson, was shot recently through the body by a Mexican boy with a Winchester rifle. A dispute over wages led to the shooting.

After publication for four weeks of the result of the recent election on prohibition in Maricopa county, prohibition will be in force in the section covered by the election.

Mrs. J. H. Collins is able to sit up now for the first time. Mr. Collins who has also passed through a stage of sickness, but able to be at work all the time, is also considerably improved.

Miss Daisy Blain, a very prominent woman of Detroit, arrived on last evening's train in Prescott for a visit to her brother, Dr. Blain, the well known dentist. She expects to remain here for some time.

The court calendar has been cleared of the criminal business, with the exception of one case which is set for trial tomorrow. That case is the one wherein Charles Scheutz is charged with forging a will.

The strike of oil and gas recently made by the Oklahoma Oil and Gas company, in their well at Mineral Point, has given a new impetus to the location business. The location notices filed for the week ended yesterday.

A party of employees of the agricultural department left this morning for Crowned King, under the supervision of C. O. Sparks of that department. The others of the party were Messrs. Baker, Dunlap, Phillips and Dr. Francis.

Mrs. A. V. Kautz and her daughters entertained a number of ladies and gentlemen at Whipple last evening in honor of Mrs. Captain Hatch, who is here. The place was beautifully illuminated for the occasion with Chinese lanterns, and ping pong and other games were played.

J. D. Wakely scored another victory yesterday in the district court in securing a verdict of acquittal for Francisco Padilla, charged with resisting an officer at Congress. Mr. Wakely secured the first acquittal ever during the present term of court, and has won every criminal case he has tried.

W. F. Whenthorp arrived in Prescott yesterday from Nogales, where he has been residing for a number of years. Mr. Whenthorp, when a boy, resided in Prescott, and his mother, Mrs. Robinson, who built the house now known as the Columbian house on the corner of Mt. Vernon and Gurley streets. His mother is at present a resident of Globe. Mr. Whenthorp intends to locate in Prescott with his family and engage in the "mining and ladies' furnishing business."

J. Research has started an enterprise in Prescott which promises to become quite an important one. It is a stone cutting and polishing business. Mr. Research has been engaged for some time in the stone cutting business in West Prescott, doing the work by hand. Recently he purchased a gasoline engine, and started the business. He has installed a polishing machine, and started the machinery up a few days since to work to the entire satisfaction. With its use he polished a huge block of granite in a little over half a day that would have taken from a week to ten days to polish by hand. The work is taken superior to hand polishing, as the surface of the stone is left as smooth as glass. Mr. Research says the granite of this section is of a superior quality, and it takes an excellent polish, as it is not surpassed, while the colors of the granite are simply perfection itself.

From Thursday's Daily.
Miss Clator took her Sunday school class out for a picnic morning. Phoenix papers announce that a trial will be commenced there soon bearing for oil.

Dr. J. R. Walls has returned from his visit east and resumed his practice again.

The Women's Relief corps express their thanks to the Fourth of July committee and the judges for the $300 check awarded them for the best decorated float in the Fourth of July procession.

Mrs. J. W. Conger and her son Frank left on today's train for the east. They will visit friends in Chicago, New York, Boston and Washington. They expect to be absent about two months.

J. B. Girard has just returned from surveying township 18 n. 2 e. for the government. He is making preparations to commence work on his new contract in the San Francisco Mountain forest reserve. He has a force of fourteen or fifteen men there.

Where there were many a thing of merit, as during the recent celebration, and where so many individuals deserved mention, it is almost impossible not to overlook something deserving in a report of it. Two commissions of these kind were by the Journal-Miner (and these may be others) was mention of the fact that the success of the Horribles was due to J. H. Mulvrein, who put in a large amount of time in arranging for this feature of the celebration. Another was the decoration of the opera house by F. A. Tritto, Jr., and F. L. Wright, the latter having a light display specially in charge.

From Friday's Daily.

In an article in the July Criticism entitled "The Trouble About Yellow Journalism," Samuel E. Moffet, gives the real facts of the so-called "yellow" journal from the inside. The writer states impartially and objectively the conditions that govern the popular newspaper, gives an insight into its methods of collecting news and discusses the accuracy and value of the matter that appears in the columns of these much talked of papers.

E. C. Gee, special agent of the Sunset Telephone company, is in town today. Mr. Gee is in charge of surveying corps of the company, and is running a telephone line from Wickenburg to Prescott. They have the line staked out as far as Government Springs, and are now working on it from there. The line has just completed a line from Wickenburg to Hot Springs. When completed this line will be used between Prescott and Phenix instead of the one now used.

Outlaw Tracy has put in another appearance in his holding jail. His family named Johnson in Washington, compelling the man to go to Tacoma and buy him two revolvers and a quantity of ammunition, while he remained at the Johnson home in Idaho. After securing his gun and ammunition he compelled Mrs. Johnson to buy two dozen of eggs and cook a lot of bacon and supper for him with sugar and flour, and at night he again took to the brush.

A Tucson paper says the rumor is false about John Ivanovich who had been incarcerated in an Austrian jail. Mr. Ivanovich left Tucson about three weeks ago for his old home in Europe. It appears that he deserted the army when a boy, and was under the impression that American citizens would protect him. If the report be true, he will have to wait six months for an examination, and will have to spend three years in prison in the army. His many friends in the city are concerned about his welfare.

Few people in Albuquerque but will remember the terrible wreck at Franconia last fall when the east and west bound limited trains of the Santa Fe met head on near the little station, resulting in four deaths and a tremendous loss of valuable equipment. The first suit against the railroad company as a result of this wreck has just been filed. Laurett Homes of Compton, Cal., engineer on the No. 4 east bound train, has brought an action through his attorney, Walter A. Wiles, for $50,000 damages for injuries received. His attorneys state that Homes was so badly hurt that he will never be able to stand on his feet again. In addition to being burned and scalded, the complaint sets forth that Holmes sustained a lower broken jaw, the loss of all teeth, the face, a broken nose and a dislocation of the right eye; that his spinal column was so injured as to render him helpless parapetic, and that he is still helpless. The other injuries which he received while pinned down under the debris of his wrecked engine. Several other persons were injured, and Laurett Homes is successful in his action. Other suits are likely to be brought. Homes was engineer on the east bound train.—Albuquerque Democrat.

Captain Burton Mossman, of the Arizona Rangers, came up from Bisbee yesterday morning on business. He has little to say. The latest work done that can be looked upon as a finished product of the Rangers should be credited to the Ranger Thomas Holland, who captured Ricardo Marquez, alias Dick Martinez, and Dick Sanderson in Sono Monday night. Marquez is a fugitive from Texas, where he is wanted for murder.—Republican.

Dr. DeChalk, physician of the Indian school, in a rigid examination of the pupils of the Indian school for heart and lung trouble. In an examination of twenty-four pupils yesterday he found no trace of either trouble, showing a remarkably healthy lot. It is not likely that such a showing could be made by a single number of white children taken up in a body anywhere in the United States. The school now has a professional nurse, Miss Robinson, a graduate nurse of the leading hospitals of New York. She has had considerable experience outside of her hospital work, having been associated with many eminent physicians of New York.—Republican.
