ANTIFERMENTINE
Preserves Fruit, Cider, Milk, Butter, Eggs,
Tomatoes, Catsup, Pickles, Etc.

What it is: It is a simple, harmless preparation, free from taste, smell and color, that has the properties of stopping and preventing fermentation in all vegetable and animal foods.

What it does: It is especially useful for preserving fruits of all kinds without cooking, retaining their natural fresh appearance and taste.

Its Use does away with labor, and makes what has been a hot, disagreeable task, a delight and a pleasure. It substitutes for the Summer heat of the kitchen the cool shade of a lawn or piazza.

Its Results are never doubtful when used according to directions, and Plum Puddings, Peach and Berry Pies can be had in Winter as well as in Summer.

Its Use is profitable and economical, for it saves one-half of the sugar, saves the jars broken by heat, saves the fruit cooked away, and saves the time and labor lost by the old methods.

For Cider it unsurpassed. It stops fermentation at any point desired, and produces a sparkling beverage like Champagne.

The question is sometimes asked, "Is it injurious?" To allay all doubts on that score, we would say that we have consulted many of our most eminent Chemists and Physicians, and all unite in pronouncing the use of ANTIFERMENTINE as a preservative, a perfectly safe and harmless preparation.

The Galled Jade Winees.

Vague rumor of a suit for criminal libel against the editor of the LEADER for the exposure of the rottenness connected with the failure of the bank of Hamilton, Job & Co., reaches our ears. It but exemplifies the old saying that, "the galled jade winees," and is a very good evidence that a portion of the shot fired by the LEADER into the outfit has struck very close to the mark, if indeed, it has not scored several bullseyes.

As to the matter of a suit for criminal libel, or any other kind of a suit we wish to remark right here and now that so far as we are concerned the suit can begin at once. The name of the editor of the LEADER is John F. Stewart, and his place of residence is Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, and any papers placed in the hands of Geo. A. Landis, sheriff, will be duly served upon him. And we wish further to state that all their threats will not silence the LEADER's voice in denouncing fraud wherever found. They may be able by threats, or otherwise, to muzzle certain papers, whose sacred duty it should be to defend the interests of their people and community, but when they reckon to do the same with the LEADER they are laboring under a huge delusion, for this paper dares to expose fraud wherever found, and this will be done without having to resort to a non de plume, or to an attorney or a deputy county officer to get its articles penned. But we want to say that the Jobs and their close friends don't want, and if they can prevent it, won't have any criminal suits of any kind. If there is one thing that the Jobs wish to steer clear of in all events, in our opinion it is the criminal court. Such a suit might compel them to tell why they accepted over $50,000 overdrafts from the stock company of which Zeph Job was at the head, which operated the ramshackle old saw mill in the Cascades. Such a suit might compel them to state how it was that, although they received at least $50,000 in deposits during the last thirty days the bank run, with no correspondingly heavy checks paid, that there were but about $13,000 in the bank when they closed their doors. Such a suit might compel them to tell why it was that they kept an unusual amount of gold in sight on their counters during the last few days they run their rotten bank, and why they received heavy deposits during the last day before closing, even keeping the bank open an hour after closing time, and receiving a deposit as late as five o'clock on the day before they closed. Such a suit might compel them to tell how it was that they telegraphed the Yaquina branch bank to put the time lock on for forty-eight hours, and that only forty-five hours out of the forty-eight had elapsed before Mr. Davis, the cashier of the Yaquina bank had all the available assets of that concern in his own grasp and was on his way to Corvallis with them. Such a suit might compel them to state why they accepted $18,000 of state money, $11,000 of Benton county money and $4,000 of Lincoln county money and converted it to their own use. Such a suit might compel them to state why it is that although they have sworn that they have turned over all their property to the assignee, they are still able to hunt, fish, wear good clothes and have a good time generally. Such a suit might compel them to state how it is that although Zeph Job's father-in-law went to Corvallis a few short years ago in a very poor financial state that he is fairly well-to-do now; in fact his income seems to be very good here lately. Such a suit might compel them to state why it was that the Job's closest friends did not happen to have a dollar deposited in the bank on the day it closed. Such a suit might compel them to state all these things and many others that they might not like to relate. By all means, let them start the suit. Start it today; start it tomorrow; start it next week; start it any time, and they will find that the editor of the LEADER is ready to meet them half way. But they won't start any suit. Not a single one.

Waldport Items.

Salmon fishing has fairly begun. One boat caught twentyfour August 4th.

Mr. Al. Guin is up from the cape.

A company of Indians are camped near town, they hail from the Siletz.

Haying in this vicinity is about at a close.

Potatoes are hard to be got.

There is quite a good attendance at our meetings from the North Side.

A load of campers just arrived from Salem.

Mrs. W. C. Marnoe, is unable to care for her household, she is doctoring with Dr. Diven.

The cannery put 54 Salmon the 5th of August.

One of the San Francisco drummers visited Waldport.

Miss Nora Reynolds has taken up her abode with Mrs. Monroe.

New Potatoes are selling for $1. per bushel.

Surveyor Geleson is gone to Coon Hollow on a surveying tour.

The steamer Mascott leaves Waldport daily at 2 p m for Tidewater and returns the same day.

Two lumber Schooners are laying off Siuslaw bar waiting for the tug to come from Astoria, to tow them in, the tug had gone to Astoria for repairs.

Mrs. Silas Howell, received the sad news of her father's death which took place in the Alsea Valley the 7th of August. Mr. Hayden was an old pioneer of Oregon, and much respected. Mrs. Silas Howell, Mrs. Ada Baldwin and Mrs. James Harrison, relatives of the deceased started for the Valley.

The Rev. Mr. Hartman, and Rev. Mr. Woolly, closed their meetings and left for their homes Monday.

The reward of $3000 offered by the Southern Pacific company for the arrest and conviction of the party who attempted to wreck the overland train near Yoncalla last spring, has been paid. The amount was turned over last Saturday to Sheriff Noland of Lane county and S. C. Miller, Sheriff of Douglass county.

The fire alarm was sounded Wednesday forenoon in the southern part of town. Fire company No. 1 was soon at the scene of danger, but to late to render assistance, as the South Oakville Co., had arrived fifteen minutes ahead and their active climber, Archie Robison, was on the roof less than two minutes after arriving on the ground, and in a very short time had the fire under subjection. Mr. R. is quite young, only 80.—Albany Democrat.

The Oregonian's report of the San Francisco business men visiting the valley was not altogether a news report. It was made up largely of venom, ill will and envy. A great deal of emphasis was laid on the personality of the visitors, and because a few of them were not well dressed was ridiculed and abused. The Oregonian is supposed to print the news and not the opinions and narrow prejudices of its reporters, as done in this instance.—E. O.

James Davis is probably the first person who ever went deer hunting on a bicycle. He was visiting Idanha last week on his wheel, and as the country around there is comparatively smooth and free from underbrush, he borrowed a rifle from a gentleman at the hotel and started out for a ride. The inflated tire on his wheel allowed of his traveling swiftly and noiselessly over the ground, strewn with pine needles, and before he had pedaled many miles he came upon an unsuspecting deer quietly browsing just ahead of him. The result was that he killed the deer and returned to the hotel with it slung over his shoulders. Captain M. W. Hunt, is the man who will vouch for this story.—Independent.

Get onto the editor of the LEADER'S whiskers.

L. M. Starr moved his residence to the south part of town, last Saturday.

Fisherman on the Alsea Bay, are busy hauling in salmon for the cannery.

Uncle George Kirby has been laid up the last few days with a couple of "pets."

Mr. Butler, of Philomath, a brother of Milt Butler, of this city, is visiting with him this week.

L. M. Butler and family left last Wednesday, for the beach, where they will camp out for a while.

For Sale.—160 head of sheep, 30 wethers. Apply to R. A. Miller, Bear Creek, up Bjr Elk. 2-t.

Beal Gaither has moved his family to the Agency, where they will remain until his labors there, are completed.

Haying is the thing of the past for this season. More hay has been made this season than for several years past.

Charles Williams is slinging type for the LEADER this week. It comes handy to have a wood chopper around in case of a "pinch."

The section men are raising the track through town, and filling in with gravel, which greatly improves the appearance of the road-bed.

Col. F. J. Parker, of the Walla Walla Statesman, was in this city last Monday on business. We acknowledged a pleasant call from him.

NOTICE.—All parties indebted to me must settle the same without delay.
T. P. FISH.

The LEADER was in error last week in the statement that Wm. Ennis had gone to Yamhill county. It was Wm. Enos, instead of Wm. Ennis.

J. Hall has returned from the Columbia river, where he has been fishing during the last season, and is preparing to haul in the salmon here which will be in here in a few days.

Several of our hunters are bragging of the deer they have killed, but the editor can't tell whether they are telling the truth or not, as he has never seen any of the meat yet.

Last night G. T. Smith saw a bear prowling about his place, the only weapon he had to frighten the beast away, was a dish rag, which he threw at him with good effect.

Remember the meetings at the court house this week, Rev. Hartman will preach to the people of this city and vicinity every night this week. All come and bring your friends.

Parties owing me for meat will settle by the 15th inst., as all overdue accounts will be placed in the hands of a collector on that date.
ROBT. CAMPBELL.

Indian Agent Buford, was over the first of the week looking after the arrival of three car loads of flour for the Agency. The flour is furnished by the Benton County Flouring Mills, at Corvallis, and is the highest grade made.

One of our merchants received a package of freight weighing 125 pounds from San Francisco this week. The freight charges from San Francisco to Albany here fifty-five cents.—Eugene Register.

Suit has been brought by John P. Fay, on behalf of the Oregon Pacific company, in the United States circuit court at San Francisco, to recover $98,000 worth of steel rails which lies in the custom house at that place. The rails are claimed to be the personal property of T. Egerton Hogg, and has been held in the custom house for the duties, which are unpaid. The suit is brought to recover the rails for the use of the company which wishes to use in the extension of the road over the mountains.
