COUNTY NEWS News of each Community Gathered each week by Our Rustling Associate Editors

Newport

The annual institute for the teachers of Lincoln county held a three days' session at the High School building, commencing April 28th. The session was the most interesting and successful of any ever held in the county. Nearly all the teachers in the county being present and a number from Salem and other Valley cities, among them the state superintendent. One teacher came from the Upper Salmon River district, coming all the way on foot, sending his suit case by mail with his good clothes in it. The teacher got here before his clothes did, but he kept shy until they did come. Others came from Ten Mile, Yachats and the Big Elk country. Many of them walking long distances in order to be at the institute to come in touch with the teachers of other parts of the county and to enjoy the splendid lectures given by State Superintendent Churchill and others. The Superintendent spoke of the thorough training of the grade teachers at the state normal school and emphasized the importance of the teachers in our public schools to see that each pupil master the course of study in the grade that he is in before being passed to a higher grade. If this thorough preparation was required in all our public school the pupils would have no difficulties in passing in the Eighth grade examinations when they get to it. Mr. Churchill's lectures were very instructive and helpful to all the teachers. He also thought it would be a good thing to change the old system of dividing a county into school districts and instead divide them into wards and have each ward elect a supervisor and these supervisors to compose a board who will elect the superintendent of the county and it be the duties of the superintendent to recommend teachers to the board and the board do the hiring of the teachers. Mr. Churchill thought this would be an improvement over the old system of districts. Mrs. Mamie Fulkerson of Salem gave some interesting lectures upon primary teaching. She is said to be one of the best primary teachers in the state because of her long experience in training young children. Prof. Gentle, one of the teachers in the state Normal was present and gave several very interesting lectures to the teachers. He has such a pleasing manner about him that he keeps everyone in good humor while he is giving out some very valuable information. He believes in the principle of laughing and growing fat. No one can go to sleep while he is talking. The teachers spoke of having a most enjoyable time, not only while attending the institute, but on strolling on the beach, hunting agates and enjoying the grandeur and beauty of the ocean as the great waves roll in and break upon the shore, often giving the seven colors of the rainbow, reflected by the rays of the sun as the spray dashes upon the rocks. The next annual institute will be held at Toledo. Superintendent Goin was always busy looking after the comfort and pleasure of the teachers. He is popular among the teachers.

W. P. Keady is spending a few days at Newport and will be present at the next meeting of the County Court. He is interested in having the Nease Timber company of Portland cruise and estimate the value of the timber lands of Lincoln county. He thinks the timber owners are not paying their share of the taxes. By a careful cruise and estimate of the timber in the county, Mr. Keady believes the county would get enough more taxes in one year to pay for the cruise. He believes the timber men ought to pay 80 per cent of the taxes. They pay now 60 per cent of the taxes and make no complaint. The cost of the cruise will be 12½ cents per acre. The number of acres of timber in the county is said to be 350,000. This would bring the cost up to $40,000 or $50,000, which is a large sum to pay unless we are sure the county would get enough more taxes to pay the extra expense. Mr. Keady owns some land in the county and is therefore interested in its development. He came to Lincoln county (then Benton) in 1876, and is familiar with the affairs of the county and when the Oregon Pacific railroad started to build to Yaquina bay, Mr. Keady was active in helping it along. He was the right of way agent and for a long time paymaster. He believes the road would never have been built but for the pluck and energy of Col. E. Hogg.

At the meeting of the Commercial Club Monday evening Captain R. D. Morse was recommended as a suitable person to be appointed by the Court as a member of the County Fair Board. Capt. Morse said, if appointed, he would accept the office and do what he could to make the Fair a success and to help to improve and build up the best interests of the whole county.

Prof. O. V. White, one of the teachers in the Albany College, and wife came over on Saturday's train and on Sunday Mr. White preached, both morning and evening, in the Presbyterian Church.

County Commissioner O. V. Hurt spent several days in Newport. Part of the time he was on the sick list. While here he inspected the road now being built up Fall creek canyon and also the road leading out by the Stocker place. Newport is getting her roads, streets and sidewalks in good condition before the summer travel commences. Some 21 cottages have been built in Newport since last Fall. Lumber was getting scarce until Mr. Stocker got his sawmill started. He is furnishing most of the lumber now being used by the people here.

Miss Lena Walcott, preceptress at the Black school, is teaching each Saturday for the sole benefit of the Frye boys of Racks Creek. A generous deed and helpful to the state. These boys, together with their teacher Miss Etta Jordan of Newberg, received honorable mention in the columns of a leading Portland paper last year. Keep your eye on the by ways, oh, ye citizens, for oft times the salt of the earth is treasured there. I came from there.

Jay Buford went to meet his father, T. Jay Buford, who arrived by team from Salem Thursday of last week. Said team had extravagant ears, neat "tribbys" a basso profundo voice; also a defensive disposition. What for "cuyatons" were they? Jest aside, Mr. Buford's friends were glad to have him back.

Last week just over the hill a pleasant home was laid waste by fire. It was visible from here as the Frank Grant house went up in smoke.

Alfred Brooks of Sweet Home and Mr. Hicks of Benton county were picking up stray goats from their band on this side of the divide.

Deputy County Assessor Fred Chambers gave us a call last week. We are always pleased to greet him for no one can put so much starch in our style as the assessor.

We do not anticipate a school here before the Winter session of six months. We are looking for a rare combination. Professor, missionary and social genius. Sabe? Heathen. We want all that the state money will give.

POMONA GRANGE

ORGANIZED

A meeting was held at Newport Wednesday evening for the purpose of organizing a Pomona Grange for Lincoln county. Five of the eight granges in the county were represented, and the Grange started off with a charter membership of thirty-two. B. G. Leedy, deputy state organizer, of Corvallis, assisted by S. T. Loudon, county deputy master, started the new organization and installed its officers, who are, Archie Brooks, of Waldport, master; E. B. Shumway, of Toledo, overseer; Mrs. Hester Coovert, of Ona, lecturer; S. W. Scoville, of Elk City, steward; F. E. Butler, of Toledo, assistant steward; Mrs. Louise Wakefield, of Eddyville, chaplain; J. W. Parrish, of Toledo, treasurer; H. O. Boynton, of Eddyville, secretary; Geo. Rowin, of Waldport, gatekeeper; Mrs. Girdler, of Eddyville, Ceres; Mrs. Dora Bowers, of Ona, Flora; Mrs. S. W. Scoville, of Elk City, L. A. S.; S. W. Scoville, of Elk City, J. M. Bowers, of Ona, and S. T. Loudon, of Eddyville, executive committee.

The next meeting of the Pomona Grange will be held with Lincoln Grange of Ona, on Wednesday, June 16th.

This Grange starts off in fine shape and will no doubt prove a great help to the people of Lincoln county. We hope to see it grow until its membership roll is extended to take in every member of the granges in the county.

S. T. Loudon, Mr. and Mrs. Girdler and Mrs. Wakefield of Eddyville passed through to their homes from Newport yesterday morning, after attending the organization of the Pomona Grange in the Resort City the evening before.

SCHOOLS TO BE

BETTER EQUIPPED

At the special school meeting held at the Grammar School building last Friday evening, it was voted that the school board add two more courses of study to those already taught in our schools, viz: Manual Training and Domestic Science. State Superintendent Churchill of Salem was present and presented his views on the matter, as also did Chas. H. Jones of the Oregon Teachers' Monthly.

That these things are beneficial and are needed in the schools to keep our schools in the front ranks, there is no doubt of, but where the additional revenue is to come from is the sticking point.

SAWMILL AND CAMPS

TO RESUME OPERATIONS

After having been closed down for nearly six months it is now almost certain that within ten days or two weeks, at the most, the logging camps north of town will again resume operations. Considerable work will have to be done before actual logging can be done. The railroad will have to be moved and extended, taking probably a month or more to do so. The mill will be sawing by the early part of July.

The California lumber market is getting in much better condition, looking better than it has for some time. Boats will ply between Toledo and California ports, taking the lumber direct from the mill docks here.

The lumber now in the mill yard, which is under attachment, has been ordered removed and the Sheriff will probably have men removing same today. The lumber will be moved onto Gust Olson's land, adjoining.

COUNTY FIRE PATROL

ELECTS OFFICERS

At the annual meeting of the Lincoln County Fire Patrol Association held at the courthouse last Friday the following were elected officers for the ensuing year. President, W. E. Ball; vice president, Warren Liall; secretary, Ira Wade; directors, W. V. Fuller, A. B. Weatherford, W. R. Hall and A. T. Peterson; supervising warden, Lee Wade. The affairs of the organization were found to be in excellent condition.
