The Chronicle.

PRINTED WEEKLY, EVERY FRIDAY MORNING, BY NEBLETT & GRANT, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS. Terms—Three Dollars per Year. IN ADVANCE.

TESTIMONIAL OF RESPECT. At a meeting of the Medical Faculty, in Clarksville, Tenn., held on 2nd Inst., at the office of Dr. D. F. Wright, Dr. Wright was elected Chairman, and Dr. Finley, Secretary. The following preamble and resolutions were then offered by Dr. McFay, and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the inevitable doom, which awaits all men, has cut short, at an early stage, the professional career and earthly existence of Dr. Charles H. Lockert, we, the surviving physicians of Clarksville, do now assemble for the purpose of expressing our deep and sincere sympathy with the surviving relatives, and our sorrow at the vacancy occasioned in the ranks of our common profession.

Resolved, therefore, That in the event which we now deplore, we recognize the loss of a son of one of our oldest Clarksville families, who once promised to become a shining light in the medical profession, and whose intercourse with his brother practitioners was always attended with an amicable courtesy which conciliated their esteem.

That we tender our heartfelt condolences to the afflicted widow and family of the deceased, and shall always rejoice in preferring to them the acts of courtesy and kindness which we can no longer manifest towards him.

That we will attend his funeral in a body for the purpose of living a final farewell to the remains of our friend and brother, and untinging our sorrow with those of his friends and kindred in this community.

That the Secretary of this meeting be instructed to present a copy of these resolutions to the widow of the deceased, and to procure their insertion in the Chronicle.

D. F. WRIGHT, Chairman, W. M. FINLEY, Secretary.

LETTER FROM EMERSON ETHERIDGE, HIS OPINION OF MILITARY COURTS. The Terre Haute (Ind.) Journal prints the following extract from a letter from Emerson Etheridge to a gentleman in that city:

DRESDEN, TENN., Oct. 24, 1865. Your very interesting letter of the 29th ult. is received and duly read to Columbus. It is the last act of the farce which originated last summer. The vulgar and malignant malcontents who caused my arrest and detention at Columbus for seven weeks, last summer, had begun to feel the force of the law. They had begun to feel the force of the law. They had begun to feel the force of the law.

But you see my friend, we are getting restless about some things. The war has begun to mellow on us, and after the big collapse, we thought it was over. I had killed folks and killed folks until the novelty of the thing had worn off and we were mity nigh played out all over. Children were increasing and vintels diminishing. By a close calculation it was perceived that we didn't kill our enemies as fast as they were increasing and about the same time I thought it was a pity that some miracle of grace hadn't cut off the breed of ferriners some 18 or 20 years ago. Then you would have seen a fair fight.

Gen. Sherman wouldn't have walked over the top of the world, he would have killed more men than did—of his own side. I have always thought that a General ought to be pertikler which side he was sacrificin.

Well, if the war is over, what's the use of fillin up our towns and cities with soldiers any longer? There's nothin in it. I could have reconstruted a thousand rich States before this. Any body could do that. There wasn't nuthin to do but just to go off and let us alone. We've got plenty of Statesmen—plenty of men for Governor. Joe Brown never wanted nothin, and I don't know why he was with his hat off. Then what's the soldiers here for—what good are they doin—what wants to see 'em any longer. Everybody is tired of the war, and we don't want to see any more signs of it.

The niggers don't want em, and the white men don't want 'em. I could have reconstruted a thousand rich States before this. Any body could do that. There wasn't nuthin to do but just to go off and let us alone. We've got plenty of Statesmen—plenty of men for Governor. Joe Brown never wanted nothin, and I don't know why he was with his hat off.
