RATES OF ADVERTISING.—One Dollar per square of ten lines.

Single Copies of the Chronicle, Ten Cents.

CLARKSVILLE, DECEMBER 29, 1865.

To Advertisers.—All advertisements to be inserted in the Chronicle for less than six months, must be paid for when first inserted.

We are under obligations to our esteemed friend, Billy Collier, Newsdealer, at Nashville, for God's Lady's Book, Ballou's Monthly, Nick Nax, Logger, etc.

The firm of J. B. Rhodes & Co., have dissolved, and the style of firm now is G. A. Hynds & Co. The public will find a good stock of Groceries, etc., at this house, at low prices.

A. L. Whitaker has removed his stock of Goods to his old quarters, formerly occupied by J. E. Broadbent. Jack is at home now, ready to dispense cheap bargains to all who call on him.

Persons wishing information in regard to prisoners of war who have died at Camp Douglas, should address E. S. Jordan, Box 946, Chicago, Illinois.

To our kind lady-friend who sent us a fine Turkey for our Christmas dinner, we return our thanks. There was nothing lacking to grace our festive board on the occasion save her charming presence.

We again return thanks to Harper & Bernoulli, commission merchants and cotton brokers, St. Louis, for the weekly edition of the "St. Louis Price Current."

With our next number we enter upon a New Year. It is a fit time for persons to subscribe for our paper, and we hope we will be called upon to enter many cash subscribers on our list.

As a great deal is said, pro and con, in reference to advertising, we refer our readers to an article on that subject on our first page. It embodies our ideas to a "Y," and will amply repay any and all who may feel inclined to adopt the plan set forth.

We are pained to record the death of Mr. CHARLES M. HITE, which occurred near Tail's Station, in this county, on the 25th inst. Mr. H. was a young man of fine intellect, and possessed of a warm and generous nature.

On last Monday, Christmas day, on account of too much nogg, or something else, our city was thrown into a state of unusual excitement. Some of the boys and the negro troops got at loggerheads, some shooting occurred, but no fatal results followed.

LETTER LIST.—LETTERS REMAINING UNCLAIMED in the Post Office at Clarksville, Tenn., on the 29th day of December, 1865.

To obtain any of these letters, the applicant must call for "Advertised Letters," give the date of this list, and pay two cents for advertising.

Direct letters plainly to the street and number, as well as the post-office and State.

Place the postage stamp on the upper right-hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and direction for post-marking without interfering with the writing.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days when written or printed with the writer's name, post office, and State, across the left-hand end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with at the usual prepaid rate of postage, payable when the letter is delivered to the writer.—Sec. 28, Law of 1863.

Letters to strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked, in the lower left-hand corner, with the word "Transient."

DR. JOHN BULL'S COMPOUND CEDRON BITTERS

DR. JOHN BULL, of Louisville, Ky.

His inimitable preparation of SASSAPARILLA, has long stood at the head of the various compounds of that valuable drug.

His COMPOUND OF WILD CHERRY has become a household word throughout the West and South.

His WORM-LOZENGES, in less than a year after their introduction, attained a reputation as widespread as the continent of America.

But the crowning glory of his life remains to be attained in his discovery, or rather combination, for he does not claim to be the discoverer of which is the basis of the Bitters now offered to the public. That honor belongs to the "native" inhabitants of Central America, to whom its virtues have been known for more than two hundred years. Armed with it, the Indian bids defiance to the most deadly malaria, and handles without fear the most venomous serpents. It is a belief with them that while there is breath left in the body the Cedron is potent to cure, no matter what the disease may be.

While Dr. Bull is not prepared to endorse this extravagant pretension, he is nevertheless satisfied from a thorough examination of the evidence relating to its virtues, that as a remedy and preventive from all diseases arising from exposure, either to changes of weather and climate, or to the miasmatic influence, it stands

WITHOUT A RIVAL, and justly deserves the reputation it has so long enjoyed in Central America and the West Indies.
