CASE OF COL. J. C. BRANSON.

KINGSTON. GA., September 15, 1871.

GENTS:—For sixteen years I have been a great sufferer from Scrofula in its most distressing forms. I have been confined to my room and last for fifteen years with scrofulons ulcerations. The most approved remedies for such cases have been used, and he most emineut physicians consulted, without my decided benefit. Thus prostrated, distressed, tesponding, I was advised by Dr. Ayer, of Floyd Jounty, Ga., to commence the use of your Compound extract stillingia. Language is as insufficient to escribe the relief I obtained from the use of the tillingia as it is to convey an adequate idea of the itensity of my suffering before using your mestime; sufficient to say, I absendoned all other remeies and continued the use of your Extract of Stillingia. or before January 1st, 1880, for pro-rata distribution, or they will be forever barred.
