TIME! TIME!! To Save Time is to Save Money.

And to save time come and buy one of the ITHICA CALENDAR CLOCKS, for they are far superior to any now in use, having been awarded the highest medal at the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia above all other clocks made. It is the simplest and yet the most perfect in construction, and every clock guaranteed to be a perfect time-keeper. The Calendar is so constructed that it makes the necessary changes at the end of every month, and even at leap year it will adjust itself without your assistance. I am now selling these celebrated clocks on liberal terms, from $10 to $18, and warrant and keep them in order for 5 years.

When you come to town call around and examine them at my shop on the North side of the public square at R. H. Ogilvie & Co's hardware store.

Let 'Em Come To GOODWIN & GILL'S on the South side of the Public Square and get new, fresh Drugs, Oils, Paints, Glass, Putty, Soda, Paper, Spices, Wall Paper, Writing Paper, Inks, Stationery of all sorts, School and Miscellaneous Books, Croquet Sets, Cigars, Tobacco and Notions.

Neither Dead nor Sleeping. But I have removed my shop from next door to Lamb & Tillman's to the BILL SMITH SHOP one lot South of my residence, where I will be pleased to meet my former customers or others in need of work. I use only the best seasoned lumber and can furnish you a good job for low money in cash.

"It is not good for man to live alone."

We are at present living under the inconvenience of the above scriptural injunction, as our wife for good reason has left (for a short time) our bed and board; another injunction is to "increase, multiply and replenish the earth." To those who have lived up to the last named command, we take pleasure in notifying that we are receiving our full stock of goods which, amongst other attractions, will have a thousand and one things on our five and ten cents counter that will for their usefulness and cheapness surprise the most credulous. As usual we will have the celebrated Bay State Shoe Leather Co's standard screw boots and shoes, every pair warranted, at prices to compete with the Yankee pegged work. Our ready-made clothing, hats and ladies' dry goods will be full and complete, so every person come and give an upward "boom" to the fellow that paddles his own "canoe."

We call attention to the advertisement of Nassauer & Hipsh. This house has a brand new stock of staple dry goods, notions, etc., which they offer at the lowest possible price.

Refugees are returning to Memphis, and, of course, yellow fever is spreading and deaths increasing.

Mr. W. T. Ashby, an estimable young man late of this county, died in Tarrant county, Texas, in August.

Chancery Court adjourned last Tuesday morning. A very large amount of business was transacted, but no cases were heard, we are told, in which the public are interested.

The beautiful residence situated in Fayetteville belonging to the estate of John W. Hatcher, dec., will be offered for sale to the highest bidder on Thursday, October 16th. Apply to M. W. Woodard for particulars.

Bring him into the house now, girls, it is too chilly to loaf around on the front steps; you can make the oil bill light by keeping the parlor dark.

The Elk River Woolen Mills have had a prosperous season. The Mills have orders for about 25,000 yards of jeans and near 10,000 pounds of yarn.

Little Eugene Holman, whose fall and broken arm we mentioned last week, died Friday morning of lock jaw. The arm was amputated, but nothing could save him.

Uncle Daniel Norris, a well known colored man of Fayetteville, died last Saturday night. He was 75 or 80 years old, and one of the oldest residents of the town.

The Colored Methodist Conference convened in Shelbyville last week. George Dickens was admitted to the traveling connection. Thos. Bright was received into full connection and recommended for Deacon's ordination and Green Bailey for Eldership. Other names are mentioned, but we call attention to those familiar to us.

The railroad engine house was destroyed by fire on last Wednesday night. When discovered the wood in the tender was ablaze and had communicated the fire to the building. The fire engine was on hand, but was of no service. This was no fault, however, of the machine. The persons who understood its workings were absent, and no blame should attach to the engine of those who had it in charge.

James McKinney, whose impalement near Medina we noticed last week, died after excruciating suffering. He fell on a pawpaw stem about two and a half feet long, which entered the lower part of his person and passing through the bowels came out at the right side, pushing up the collarbone. He had been married about six months and was a nephew of Col. Chris. C. McKinney, of Lewisburg.

Look Out, Fayetteville!

We learn from the Pulaski Citizen that on last quarterly court day for Giles county, two propositions were made by different persons to purchase the right of way from Pulaski to the Lincoln county line to build a turnpike. This right of way will doubtless be granted by the court, and then Giles county will reach out to the west end of our county and will doubtless get a portion of trade from that locality that Fayetteville is now getting. Hence it behooves the business of Fayetteville to endeavor to secure a "pike" to our western border. Let some enterprising citizen take the matter in hand and secure from our county court the right to build a "pike" to the Giles county line. It would prove a good investment, we think.

"Don't know half their value." "They cured me of Ague, Biliousness and Kidney Complaint, I recommend. I had a bad bottle left which I used for my little girls, who the doctors and neighbors said could not be cured. I would have lost both of them one night if I had not given them Hop Bitters. They did them so much good I continued their use until they were cured. That is why I say you do not know the value of Hop Bitters, and do not recommend them high enough."—R. Lochester, N. Y. Industry, brains and cheek—those three—but the greatest of these is cheek.

Regrets are always vain. If you have done the best you can—indeed, whether you have or not—it is better to look ahead than to look back.

The Methodists.

The 6th annual session of the Tennessee Conference convened in Murfreesboro on Wednesday last, Bishop Paine presiding. The attendance was very large. Dr. McFerrin spoke encouragingly of the prospects of the Publishing House.

The class of the second year was considered, and among others F. L. Carpenter passed. Of those elected to Elders' orders we note John B. Jordan. Among the local preachers elected deacons we notice W. H. Cotton and W. B. Abernathy—names familiar to this county.

The following complimentary and just notice of a citizen of this place was presented—all of which we heartily endorse—

The Presiding Elder of the Fayetteville District announced that Adolphus Hatcher, a young preacher of his district, had, from conscientious motives, surrendered his credentials.

The Presiding Elder spoke in high terms of his worth as a Christian gentleman.

Dr. Kelley, in few words, indicated points of honesty and manhood exhibited by the young man in connection with his preparation and work as a preacher, which he regarded as deserving of being highly honored by the Conference. Thus we propose, as Methodist preachers, to cultivate manhood and reverence honesty. I cannot allow this young man to retire from us without this expression of admiration of his good qualities.
