Music hath Charms, &c.

On these beautiful moonlight nights, when the gay young Troubadours visit the homes of their young lady friends, discoursing sweet music for their edification, then pater familias arises, and peeps through the lattice viewing the moonlight scenery and drinking in the sweetsound—for you must know that he has an ear for music—then the band strikes up the "Girl I left behind me," he commences skipping and dancing through the room, his nether garments gyrating through the air, his better half peeping from under the coverlid religiously watching him with one eye; in his capers he falls over the historical rocking chair, she cries out "stop your nonsense, Murray, the neighbors will think you crazy," then it is that he is reminded that his greatest forte is in selling the bay state shoe & leather boots and shoes, every pair warranted to neither rip nor leak until worn out, his ready-made clothing and ladies' hats at cost, his cottonades and jeans at ten to twenty cents per yard, the greatest drive ever offered to the people of this county. Then take a look at his carpet exhibit and see the different beautiful patterns representing a stock of twenty thousand dollars worth of carpets, his men's and boys' wool, saxon and fur hats bought by the case with trade discount off, enabling him to sell them fifteen per cent. cheaper than is bought by the dozen from the jobber. By these things (even if he is not an elegant dancer) he is enabled to pay the fiddler.

The State Debt.

The above subject is now agitating the political world, but agriculture is something that pays and should agitate the farming world, and in order to make it pay you, come and buy one of our celebrated Thomas Sully Hay Rakes, or one of our Champion Mowers or Champion Reapers & Mower combined, self-raker, which we will sell you at strictly manufacturers' prices with freight only added. Our stock is as full and complete as is kept in any house in Middle Tennessee, consisting in part of Iron, Horse and Mule shoes, Nails, Cotton Hoes, Collars, Traces, Hames, Mechanics' Tools of all kinds, Cradles and Waldron's celebrated English Blades, Grass and Bush Scythes, Hay Forks, Pocket and Table Cutlery.

Our stock of Queensware is very large and bought at bottom prices, and we propose to sell as low as the lowest.

Census Returns.

Last week we published statistics from the census returns filed in the County Court Clerk's office, according to which the 3rd and 27th districts show a loss as compared with the census of 1870, of 42; the 9th and 11th, a loss of 256; the 2nd and 25th, a loss of 464; the 12th and 13th, a loss of 379.

James M. McAfee, Esq., enumerator of the 12th district reports—in the 14th civil district of Lincoln county, 932 persons; in the 15th, 841—total, 1,773. In 1870, the 14th district had 953, the 15th had 844.

P. J. Green, enumerator, of the 1st and 2nd districts, reports:—The population of the 1st dist. is 956; 2nd, 632; in both, 1588. Enumerator district, 119.

Number of farms enumerated, 160; total families and dwellings, 286; blacksmith shops, 1; wagon shops, 2; flouring and grist mills, 3; lumber and saw mills, 1; furniture and undertaker's establishments, 1; idlers, 11; blind, 2; deaf mutes, 1. Of the idiots, 10 were inmates of the county asylum for the poor.

There were 16 deaths in the first district, and 10 in the second during the past year, ending May 31st, 1880. Total, whites in both districts, 1288; colored, 300.

The letter S begins the most names, 230; B, 219; M, 219; I, U, Q, Z, were not represented on the enumerator's schedule.

The deaths for the past year show the districts to be very healthy. One death for every 61 inhabitants, or about .016 per cent.

We have had in our office during the past week a photograph of a shed snake skin which is certainly a great curiosity. The shed was found by a little girl near Farmersville, Texas, and the picture is vouchered for by Mr. W. M. Bagley, formerly of this place, as being faithful. In front, on the shed, appears the picture of a lady's head, on each side a lady, in one head and in the other there are dog's and in the end of the mouth a sheep or mouse's head. It is wonderful.
