Board

At the Delmonico Hotel at Reduced Rates.

Boards will do well to inquire at the office and make arrangements.

75-7-12-61 HARRY WALKER.

DISOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.—The public are hereby notified that the partnership heretofore existing between James K. Lane and myself was dissolved on the 21st inst., on which day I bought out his entire interest in the partnership business and stock on hand, and assumed the payment of all liabilities due by the late firm.

75-7-12-61 ROBERT LEVY.

THE LINCOLN DIVORCE.—The verdict in the Lincoln divorce case was for Mr. Lincoln, to the surprise of nobody. We do not know the details, or else we would have treated our readers to the evidence in this case; but it was not a very easy case. The only question involved was cruelty—whether he was cruel or she was cruel. The jury have decided that she was cruel—that Mrs. Lincoln was cruel!

DISOLUTION OF CO-PARTNERSHIP.—Notice is hereby given, that the co-partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned and Robert Levy, under the style of Levy & Lane, there having been no definite period fixed for the continuance thereof, has this day been dissolved by my giving to said Levy a written notice of such dissolution, according to law. Dated Cairo, Illinois, July 11th, 1874.

75-7-12-61 JAMES K. LANE.

AT ALL HOURS.—We understand that on the first of next month the Delmonico hotel dining room will be open day and night. Meal tickets will be sold at the rate of fifteen for five dollars, thus enabling those who wish to call for and get their meals at any hour, day or night. The best market goods will be supplied, and boarders can order what they choose.

SHALL WE EXCURT?—The people of Cairo have been favored by visits from the people of Jackson, Humboldt, and other towns in Tennessee, and gave to some of them at least a very hearty welcome. We were courteously invited to return the call. Shall we do so? Arrangements could, no doubt, be made with the Mississippi Central, and at least a couple of hundred of our people induced to go to Jackson. A Cairo crowd, in its best bid and tucker, on a cool day, led by the numerous bands of the city, flying a number of Sunday school banners, would be an attractive spectacle to the good people of Jackson.

DOGS.—It is a mournful spectacle that is daily presented to the weeping eyes of the dog-lovers of Cairo—cart loads of canine carcasses being carted by hard-hearted draymen to their last resting place somewhere outside of the levee. Yesterday thirty-five were carried to the Cemetery Field, over the entrance to which is the mysterious legend: "Rescue the dog in Pace," and disposed of with appropriate ceremonies. In all, fifteen thousand dogs have been killed within the city limits since dog-killing time commenced, now six weeks since. As a consequence the nights have become quieter, and people who have no babies and can keep cool, may enjoy the luxury of sleep during the night time.

THE GREAT AMERICAN BEER PLANT.—Entirely free from alcohol. The only thing known that will take the place of milk, coffee and tea. This plant will produce the best of beer in 3 to 5 hours, at the small cost of 4 cents per gallon. It is a new thing in this country, and no family should be without it. One package will be sufficient to supply a half dozen families with the beer. Persons desiring to do so can club together and send for a package and divide the same at a trifling cost. Full directions for making and using the beer accompany each package. On receipt of $1 I will mail, postpaid, a package of the beer plant, neatly put up and sealed to any postoffice in the United States or Canada. Send money when convenient by P. O. order or registered letter. Address

TIT BITS.—We have learned from the Masses Journal that Guplin killed Eschbach, and that Capt. Perkins was "badly hurt" in Cairo.

—The Blake concert is a great success.

—The Paduch people have been making excursions to Jackson, Tennessee, and other points South trying to coax the business men of that region to not deal at Cairo.

—The little James Fisk still runs the Cairo and Paduch. A gentleman by the name of Crow bosses her.

—The Old-Fellows will exercise their degree to-night.

—We are doing all kinds of job printing for substantially nothing. Send in your orders.

—Water to drink and cook with is in great demand. The water carts are doing a paying business.

PRACTICAL WATCHMAKER.—Mr. J. J. Stelzer, a practical and thoroughly competent watchmaker, has established his self in business at his residence, No. 12 Cross street, where he will take in all work tendered him. Mr. Stelzer being under no expense, can afford to work from 50 to 100 per cent cheaper than any other watchmaking establishment in the city. All work warranted to give satisfaction. Orders for work can be left at the bindery in THE BULLETIN building. Mr. Stelzer also keeps on hand a full supply of all kinds of flowers, and will take pleasure in filling orders left with him.

THE LAST

DASTARDLY ATTEMPT AT ASSASSINATION.

MRS. HOURAGAN ASSAILED BY A NEGRO.

BEATEN OVER THE HEAD WITH A CLUB.

A mulatto man named George Steele assailed Mrs. Michael Houragan Tuesday night with a club and so seriously injured her that she may not recover. It is evident, from all the circumstances, that robbery was the object of the murderous assault.

THE DETAILS.—Almost everybody knows where Mike Houragan lives in the Fifth ward, and many of our people know both Mike and his wife.

A few days ago Mr. Houragan went to Missouri and left the house in charge of his wife. He is still absent.

GEORGE STEELE, the would-be murderer, was, for some time, employed at the hub factory. He has lived in Cairo for several years, and was not regarded as a bad man. It is probable, however, he became convinced that Houragan had a great deal of money. The temptation to obtain it got the better of him, and he selected a time during the absence of the Houragons from home to get hold of it.

TUESDAY NIGHT he went to Houragan's house and told Mrs. Houragan that he wanted to buy a couple of chickens for a sick friend. Mrs. H. told him he would not sell them for less than fifty cents a piece. Steele said the price made no difference. He wanted the chickens and would pay what they were worth. Mrs. Houragan then took a lamp and went down into the basement where the chickens roosted, and showed two she would sell for a dollar. Steele gave her a dollar bill, saying he would only pay ninety cents. It is believed he did this in the hope that Mrs. H. would accept his offer and go up stairs for the dime change and thus expose where she kept her money. She refused less than a dollar, and shortly after stooped, when Steele, taking up a club about eighteen inches long, three-cornered, larger at one end than the other, said: "Now I've got you!" struck Mrs. H. on the back of the head, on the face and neck, knocking her down and inflicting serious wounds.

Mrs. H. was not knocked senseless, and screamed at the top of her voice, attracting the attention of the neighbors who rushed to her rescue, but Steele had fled.

It is believed he crossed the Mississippi river, and is now lurking in the neighborhood of some friends he has not many miles from Cairo. The officers are diligently searching for him, with hopes of his capture.

PERSONAL.—Dr. Thayer, returning from this Western jaunt, is as hearty as the birds he saw or heard of on the plains over which he passed.

—This from the Masses Journal: "Miss Jennie McKenzie and Miss May Harman have been visiting in our city for the past week. Miss McKenzie is a sister, and Miss Harman a niece of Mrs. Moore, wife of Judge Moore, at whose residence these good looking daughters of Cairo, in Egypt, have spent most of their time. We trust that they may frequently illumine Metropolis with the brightness of their coming."

—Dr. P. L. Williams is under the weather, but is well enough to attend to all the orders he may receive.

—Alderman Walder is going to a watering place in a few days if the weather does not cool off—probably to Crittenden springs. During his absence, he will leave THE BULLETIN to the tender mercies of his able colleague and Alderman Nellis.

ELLIOT & HAYTHORN, the popular wholesale and retail dealers in Boots and Shoes, have found their present building entirely too small for their rapidly increasing trade, they have, therefore, taken the well-known three-story building formerly occupied by R. H. CUNNINGHAM, No. 101 Commercial Avenue, and near the corner of Sixth street, and are this day moving their entire stock on "badly hurt" in Cairo.

—The Blake concert is a great success.

—The Paduch people have been making excursions to Jackson, Tennessee, and other points South trying to coax the business men of that region to not deal at Cairo.

—The little James Fisk still runs the Cairo and Paduch. A gentleman by the name of Crow bosses her.

—The Old-Fellows will exercise their degree to-night.

—We are doing all kinds of job printing for substantially nothing. Send in your orders.

—Water to drink and cook with is in great demand. The water carts are doing a paying business.
