The Democratic-Liberal majority in Perry county is reported at 250. Glory!

The Best oysters at the Delmonico Restaurant. 267-9-20-4f

DAVE LINDEAR is a happy convert to the good cause of the opposition.

Mr. Fisher says he don't care. He is sorry though, and may not recover.

The Democratic-Liberal majority in Jackson county is reported at 275. Thunder!

The Democratic-Liberal majority in Alexander is reported at 213. O, Lord!

FRESH oysters or anything else you want at the Delmonico Restaurant open day and night.

There is no doubt that Col. Winston is elected representative in the general assembly.

It thundered all around the sky on Tuesday, and the clap in Massachusetts was terrible.

Mr. Fora looked like the last rose of summer yesterday, and Mr. Munn was invisible to the naked eye.

FOR RENT.—Cottage, No. 32 Tenth street, between Washington and Walnut. Enquire of Chas. Lane, or at THE BULLETIN office. 335-10-11-4f

The Democratic-Liberal majority in Union is reported at 1,000 sure, and probably 1,100. And now let us go home in peace!

BENEFIT TO THE GERMAN SCHOOL.

The free lunch given by Mr. Edwin Huelner for the benefit of the German-American school, Tuesday evening, was largely attended. The table was well supplied with oyster soup, salad, meats, etc. Mr. H. turned over to the treasurer of the school, Tuesday evening, and twenty dollars, the receipts from the sale of beer donated by the Schlitz Milwaukee brewery company.

DAILY LUNCH.

JACKSON is now spreading a daily lunch of the finest kind, between 10 and 12 o'clock a. m., and invites all his patrons to partake. Jackson has also fitted up a room in the rear of his saloon, in which he will serve oysters in all styles. Gentlemen with ladies can be accommodated with a fine table and oysters in any style. Milwaukee beer always fresh. Corner Washington Avenue and Twelfth street, opposite THE BULLETIN.

MILLINERY, TRIMMINGS AND FANCY

STONE.—Miss Burnside desires to call the attention of the ladies to her full and complete line of millinery and fancy goods just opened in the Athenaeum building on Commercial Avenue. Her stock consists of a full assortment of fall hats, java chapeaux and patterns, a full line of zephyrs, all colors, feathers, French flowers, ribbons, and a general assortment of fancy articles, such as are kept in a millinery store. 321-10-7-1m now in full control of the Washington bakery, and having learned the wants of the public, is prepared to supply on call all demands for French loaf, Boston, Brown and Graham bread, and everything else ordinarily found in a first-class bakery. He maintains a full stock of confectioneries, and can, as well as any other dealer in the city, fill all orders in that line. Cakes baked, frosted or ornamented on short notice. Special attention given to the orders of wedding or picnic parties. 3-12-4f

JOE KONEKER'S

JUST ARRIVED.

Mr. Ehlers, the boot and shoe man, Twentieth street, between Washington Avenue and Poplar street, has just received, according to previous announcement, from Henry Arthur, importer of leathers, New York, French Calf, French Kip.

Sole Leather.

And everything else pertaining to the making of first-class boot and shoe work. Those needing foot wear are invited to call and examine this stock, the finest brought to Cairo. 367-10-20-1f

NEW LUMBER YARD.

Chas. Langester, and Newell Rice, (late with S. Walters) both well known to our citizens, and to river men generally, have established a lumber yard in Cairo, corner Sixteenth street and Commercial Avenue. They will keep every description of building material and steamboat lumber, doors, sash, blinds, moldings, shingles, lath, etc., etc., and are determined to sell lower than lumber has ever been sold in Cairo. They solicit a fair trial from steamboat men and builders, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases. 1387-10-27-4f

ROLL OF HONOR.

ROOM NO. 4—THIRTEENTH STREET SCHOOL.
Julia O'Shea, Lily Martin, Emma Berry, Hetty Willis, Clara Robbins, Maud Rittenhouse, Hetty Thompson, Minnie Baird, Clara Igel, Belle Redman, Bettie Kormeyer, Ellen Law, Ella Torance, Ellen Clodfelter, Etta Victor, Sidonia Fricks, Thomas Cook, Clement Mulky, Frank Ferguson, Willie Clarke, Eddie Taylor.
October 31, 1874.

R. JONES,

fashionable bootmaker, has moved into his new house next to his old stand on Commercial Avenue, and assures his friends that he is better than ever prepared to satisfy them in the style, stock, fit, etc., of their boots and shoes. An evidence of his ability to satisfy everybody may be seen in the fact that he is crowded with work, and has been compelled to employ three more first-class workmen. He manufactures every style of boots or shoes and uses only the best of material in all cases, whether making a cow-hide shoe or a pair of the finest French calf boots. Give him a trial. Satisfaction is guaranteed. 303-19-3-2

PHOTOGRAPHIC GALLERY.

Gustav Wetzels Photographic Art Gallery, (formerly T. T. Thomas), corner Eighth street and Commercial Avenue. Everything pertaining to the photographic art skillfully and elegantly executed. The happy combination of a splendid light and the best instruments, enable me to take children's pictures instantaneously. Mothers, give me a trial, if you desire the sweet smile of your cherubs preserved forever. Satisfaction given in every case, or no charge made. My prices are most reasonable. Cartes de visite, $3 per dozen; Gems, six for $1. Call and be convinced. 10-8-4f

PETERSON'S JOURNAL FOR DECEMBER.

ALL ARTICLES COMPLETE IN EACH NUMBER.—We have received the first number of this magazine, that for December, and can truly say that this new enterprise opens in the most promising manner. This number contains twelve first-class stories, all published complete, many of them written by authors of high ability and reputation. "A Dangerous Marriage," by Nora Perry. "Mrs. Gairright's Story," by Florence Percy Allen. "Stronger than Death," by Eleanor C. Donnelly. "By the Sad Sea Waves," "Told at Nightfall," "A Story of a Vindicator," etc., are all unusually excellent. We may specify also a story, called "King Solomon's Opal," by Henry Peterson, a critical paper upon Bryant's "Thanatopsis," two interesting articles, one upon "Camp Life at the Delaware Water Gap," the other upon "The Pleasure Grounds and Drives of Washington," and a good poem. To all those desiring a first-class magazine, a large majority of whose pages are devoted to the publication of the best fiction of the day, we can recommend this. The publishers, formerly connected for many years with the Saturday Evening Post and The Lady's Friend, will, in the management of this new periodical, have the benefit of a long and varied experience. The mechanical getting up of the magazine is unexceptionable; the paper being excellent, and the cover decidedly handsome and novel in appearance. Terms, $3.00 a year, in advance. An extra copy will be supplied free for one year to any person sending a club of five subscribers, at $3 each. The postage will be prepaid by the publishers, without extra charge, in accordance with the new law. Specimen copies, 25 cents. H. Peterson & Co., 929 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

WHY IS THIS THUS?

Ed. BULLETIN.—Allow me to make a brief remark through the columns of your paper concerning the "Continental exposure" of spiritualism. I am not a believer in this doctrine, though it is a singular fact that a great many communications are published here in this city and throughout the whole country, purporting to expose the "bumbug," but I (or anybody else that I know of), have yet to see or hear of a single instance where the author of such distinctly and intelligently exposes it. Some will say, "Well, I declare! that's the worst bumbug on the face of the earth; it's ridiculous and how absurd!" etc. Others will write a long, clamorous article, to some publication, on the subject—giving their opinions of the medium, and the spiritual manifestations; how they are conducted; who by, etc.
