LOCAL NOTICES

"Portraits in Glass." This is a new style of picture now being produced by Wm. Winter, the artist, of this city. These pictures are creating much interest in all the principal Eastern and Western cities, being altogether new.

Louis Herbert has PILSENER. Don't Forget! If you want to know, stoves, etc., that A. Halley has changed his place of business and can now be found at 115 Commercial avenue, next door to the Arab engine house, where he will be pleased to see you and give you bargains as of old.

Cisterns Cleaned. Persons having cisterns needing pumping out and repairing can have it done promptly and at prices to suit the times, by calling on J. S. Hawkins, Cross street. I have a man and pump employed all the time for the purpose.

Want-d. Everybody to know that the place to get—A smooth shave, A good shampoo, A fashionable hair-cut, Or anything that line, Is at the GRAND CENTRAL BARBER-SHOP, corner Eighth and Commercial. J. GEORGE STEINBOCK.

PILSENER at Louis Herbert's. Dr. Sherman, the great Specialist, 509 North Sixth street, has gained an enviable reputation in the speedy manner in which he treats all chronic diseases. See advertisement for his great Syphilis Eradicator, endorsed by the medical faculty everywhere.

To the Trade. Choice line of coffee and sugar just in, at the New York Store.

Interest on Deposits. The Alexander County Bank will pay interest on deposits in the savings department.

Notice of Removal. C. Koch has removed his boot and shoe shop from the old stand to his new brick building (one block below), No. 10 Commercial avenue, between Fifth and Sixth streets, where he will keep the best home-made and St. Louis custom-made boots and shoes, made of the best material; good workmanship and in the latest styles. All orders promptly attended to.

To the Citizens of Cairo. I would inform my many friends, that I am still in the auction business, and ready to attend to all sales that may offer. My long experience in this business needs no comment—I am no experimenter on my part, and parties entrusting goods to my care need not be afraid as I am no "squib" or novice in the business.

A No. 1 Laundry. It is now conceded that M. S. Coleman, the laundress, No. 14 Fourth street, between Washington and Commercial avenues, has one of the best conducted laundry establishments in the city, and landlords of hotels and boarding houses will find it to their advantage to call upon her. Her prices are as follows: Hotel and boarding-house washing, 75 cents per dozen. For piece work prices are as follows: Single shirt and collar, 10c; per dozen 80c; socks, 5c; two collars, 5c; two handkerchiefs, 5c; vests, 20c; and all gentlemen's wear, 80c per dozen. Ladies' dresses, 25c to 50c; skirts, 15c to 20c; drawers, 10c to 15c; two pair hose, 5c; two collars, 5c to 10c. For ladies' plain clothes $1.00 per dozen; done dromptly, and promptly delivered. Patronage solicited.

A Fine Stock. Wm. Ehlers desires to inform his patrons and the public generally, that he has now on hand a large stock of French and German Calf, Kip and Morocco, and is prepared to manufacture, for store and office wear, the finest of Morocco or Calf Skin Shoes or Boots; and for farmers, draymen and out-door wear generally, his French Kip stands above anything ever offered in this market. His lasts are of the latest styles, and he can guarantee a fit and satisfaction to all his patrons.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1875. Local Weather Report. CAIRO, ILL., Oct. 26, 1875.

A Cook Wanted. A good cook wanted immediately at the BULLETIN office.

General Items. The rain Monday night settled the dust. There was nothing of interest transpired in the police courts yesterday.

Choice cranberries at the New York Store. G. W. Simmons, candidate for county commissioner, was in the city yesterday.

Hon. George W. Wall, of DuQuoin, and several other prominent gentlemen of that city, were in Cairo yesterday.

Perry Powers has taken the contract to take care of the stock of the circus and menagerie that visits Cairo today.

The Alexander County Bank will pay interest on deposits in the savings department.

Go to Rothchild's menagerie to-day and see the only genuine live Rhinoceros ever exhibited in Cairo.

Messrs. T. T. Fountain and J. H. Moberly, both of Du Quoin, were registered at the St. Charles yesterday.

The epizootic is still among the horses and mules of this city, but none thus far have died from the disease.

We are pleased to learn, as will be the many friends of the family, that Mrs. R. H. Cunningham is considerably better.

The business of the various hotels of this city, we are told by the proprietors, is much better at present than it has been for some time.

The Old-Fellows have concluded to have Mr. Oberly deliver his address in the Presbyterian church, instead of the Athenaeum, to-morrow night.

Rothchild's Royal Victoria Menagerie, Asio-African Caravan and Continental Circus in this city to-day. Admission, 50 cents; children under 9 years, 25 cents.

John Baber was up before Justice Comings yesterday for assaulting and striking a woman. He was fined twenty-five dollars and costs. Baber took appeal to the circuit court.

Mr. Hinkley, superintendent of the Cairo & St. Louis narrow gauge road, was in the city yesterday. He took a look at the wash in the levee, and left on the morning train for St. Louis.

Today A. B. Rothchild's great Royal Victoria circus and menagerie will give two performances in this city. It is said to be one of the best shows traveling, and will no doubt be largely attended.

Those who need winter boots should call on R. Jones, Commercial avenue. His stock of French and Domestic calf skins is the best in the market.

The old tobacco warehouse in the rear of the St. Charles Hotel, has been rented by A. B. Rothchild's show company, and will be used for wintering the animals of the concern.

John Sheehan, George Winter, William Brown and three other men were added to the police force on Monday night as specials, to keep an eye on the light-fingered gentry who paid Cairo a visit on Monday.

Twelve emigrants, from the upper part of this State, passed through this city yesterday, and took the train on the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railroad for Waco, Texas, where they will settle.

exhibited in this city this afternoon and evening, the company will be disbanded, and the animals go into quarters here for the winter. Large stock clothing to be sold out without reserve, at C. Hann's. Rothchild's Royal Victoria Menagerie, Asio-African Caravan and Continental Circus in this city to-day. Admission, 50 cents; children under 9 years, 25 cents.

A number of young men held a meeting on Monday night, to organize a club for the purpose of giving a party. It was decided to give a party at the St. Charles one week from Friday night. Invitations for the event will be issued in a few days.

BIG INDUCEMENTS OFFERED IN CIGARS AND TOBACCO, AT COWPERTHWAIT & PHILLIPS. It is now rumored that the levee is to be repaired at the expense of the Cairo City Property company, the Cairo & St. Louis railroad company, and the city of Cairo. Each are to pay one-third of the cost of the work. Mr. Charles Thrupp is now surveying the route for the new levee.

The Liberal Religious Association gives their second sociable at their hall this evening. A good band of music will be present, and all will be afforded an opportunity to participate in the dance. The Association extends a cordial invitation to its members and their friends to be present. Members of the Association, not receiving invitations, will consider themselves invited.

For cork-soled boots or shoes, go to R. Jones, the Commercial avenue boot and shoe maker. He is a first-class workman and never fails to please.

Phil Howard will open his new meat shop Thursday (to-morrow) morning, in V. Rossi's building, on Eighth street, opposite his old place of business, where he will be pleased to meet all his old customers and as many new ones. The best of meats, and nothing but the best, will be found at his shop daily. His past reputation for keeping a No. 1 shop is a sure guarantee for the same in the future.

A very large assortment of German-town yarn, Bernah zephyrs, and every article appertaining to this department in all shades and colors, at J. Burger & Co's.

The officers of this city yesterday morning received word from the authorities of Denver, Colorado, to keep a sharp look-out for a couple of Italians, who are supposed to be the parties who committed the four brutal murders in Denver last week. The crime for which the parties are wanted is pronounced by the press of Denver as being unparalleled in brutality, and was perpetrated for money, one of the murdered men, who was also an Italian, having had upon his person, at the time he was murdered, six thousand dollars.

On Monday night, when the train on the Cairo & Vincennes railroad, due in this city at fifteen minutes after 10 o'clock, was near Belknap, the engine ran into a large tree that had been blown across the track by the wind, and was damaged to a considerable extent. The top of the tree was broken off by the engine striking it, and as the cars passed through the branches, the windows and doors of each were badly broken. Fortunately no one was injured.

J. Burger & Co. have now on hand the most elegant stock of 2 and 3 button Kid Gloves ever brought to this city, and are determined to sell them at remarkably low figures.

This is the great gala day. Rothchild and company's great circus and menagerie is to be here, and the city will be in a great hub-bub. This institution is one of the largest and most complete that has ever come to our city. It comprises some of the finest ring performers in the profession. In the menagerie will be found a number of the most rare and costly species of animals and birds, among them, and the most prominent, a huge black rhinoceros, or the Unicorn of Holy Writ, which was captured by an expedition of hunters sent out by the proprietors of this institution. The capture of the animal cost Rothchild and company the immense sum of $21,000. None should fail to see this great wonder. In the collection of animals will also be found the Royal Bengal tiger, horned horse, African eland, a pair of Arabian camels, and many other varieties of animal curiosities. There will be found monkeys of every description; macaws, cockatoos, parrots, Mexican peacocks, African gray parrots, English pheasants, carrier doves, and every bird known to the world. We might spend much time in enumerating the various wonders to be seen in this department, but will desist, knowing full well that the great name of the show is a sufficient guarantee to all that it is what it is represented to be—a good show. Go, everybody, become wise in the animal world, and witness one of the best ring performances ever offered!

Shawls and Cloaks of all the late styles ranging from the cheapest to the finest. J. Burger & Co. have paid particular attention to this department, and are able to undersell any house in the city. Call and be convinced.

The St. Louis Republican of Monday furnishes us the following item in regard to a colored Cairo citizen: "Richard Houston, colored, was arrested yesterday on Myrtle street by Sergeant O'Sullivan, on a requisition from Illinois, charging him with the crime of incest, his own daughter being the alleged victim. Houston is a well-looking man, about forty-five years of age. He recognizes in this prosecution the hand of his wife. He says that he lived in Cairo two years ago, but left there on July 11, 1874. He had for a long period of years been subjected to the direst torments a virago could inflict, so he and his wife separated, and he took his four children, the oldest of whom was a girl seventeen years of age, and set up housekeeping in a locality remote from the old woman. Things went smoothly for a year or more, so smoothly in fact, that his wife could not endure it, so she had him arrested on a charge of grand larceny, and then on a charge the same as that now standing against him. Both cases fell through, but he felt so humiliated that he brought his oldest daughter to St. Louis, and they set up house-keeping, intending to send for the little ones as soon as they got well fixed. He is a carpenter, but was very unsuccessful in securing work at his trade, and has been working as a laborer. He hates to go back to Cairo this, not knowing what kind of a game the old woman may have set up on him. A deputy sheriff starts south with him to-day.

THE "LAND'S END." What Wilson, the "Good Gesser," Has to Say About Cairo. His Talk With Old Settlers.

The Young Pine Between Two Royal Oaks.

Mr. E. V. Wilson, who visited Cairo and lectured under the auspices of the Liberal Religious Association, a few weeks ago, speaks thus of his visit, through the columns of his paper, the Spiritist at Work:

Cairo, the capital of Egypt in Illinois, the shire town of Alexander county, is literally the "Land's End" of Illinois, situated on a tongue of land lying between the Mississippi and Ohio rivers, 200 miles below St. Louis, 500 miles below Cincinnati. When standing on the extreme point of this land you look to the south "way down into Dixie." Turn to the left, looking east, and there lies Kentucky, with its story of the "dark and bloody ground;" turn to the right, looking west, and there lies Missouri. Between these States and where we stand flows "la belle Ohio" on the left, on the right the "Father of Waters," the Mississippi river. Turn around, look northward, and before you spreads out the fourth State in the Union, Illinois, fifty-eight years ago a territory, then the home of savages and the haunt of wild beasts, now a garden, over which and through which floats and rolls the commerce of many States. Turning to the rivers on your right and on your left, you behold a new river every minute, for the swift flowing waters carry not, but flow on and new waters take their place. Yesterday we stood on the levee, and saw the waters of fifteen States and Territories rolling by us, an empire of themselves, mingling their tears in the wedding of these rivers. Over our head the telegraph, on which our soul can send its thoughts to the uttermost parts of the world—only a few minutes of precious time between Cairo of the Nile and Cairo of the Mississippi and Ohio. On our right and left the iron rail on which rolls the iron horse, all ready for the race, and with tireless speed whirrs you swiftly on from land's end to land's end. By us a palace floats, yea, many of them, freighted deep with the products of civilization. No longer the war whoop of the red man or the howl of the wolf or the screech of the panther is heard; no more the birchen canoe with its dusky pilot is seen. All have given place to the pale face, a race of strangers.

Yesterday, Sept. 30, we sat between two men, Col. Webb and Dr. Arter. It was at the tea table in the pleasant home of the doctor. Turning to the Colonel, we asked, "When did you come into this country?"

"In 1818, sir; the year Illinois became a State."

"The year we were born. And how old are you, Colonel?"

"Eighty-one past."

"And you, doctor?"

"Seventy-eight past."

"And all these years you have lived here?"

"Yes."

"And are there any living now, Colonel, that were here when you came?"

"No, not one; all are gone and I alone am left. Last year my wife died, and soon I, too, will go."

"Great changes and mighty revolutions have taken place in your day, Colonel?"

"Yes, indeed."

Reader, we felt like a child as we sat between these two old men, either old enough to be our father, and yet we are grandfathers. And then as we listened to the pleasant voice of Col. Webb, when speaking of his interviews with Jackson, VanBuren, Benton, Clay, Douglas, Lincoln, Harrison, Taylor, and others; when he spoke of the Black Hawk and the Mexican wars, in both of which he took a part, we felt indeed a child by the side of this grand old soul, one of the first settlers of Illinois. And as we gazed into his eyes, and looked up to his massive brow and snow-white locks, we felt that the past and the present were shaking hands, saying to each other, Good evening, for to-morrow we will greet each other on the shining shores of the river of Life, beyond the Land's End of Time, and with the open country of Eternity before us.

In the evening we spoke in Liberal Hall. On our right and left sat these grand old men. We felt like the green young pine between two royal oaks, on whose seared brows the frost of a thousand winters had fallen, and standing thus we felt the inspiration of the past blending with the present, urging us on to the future. We cannot do better than to close this already too long article with the compliments of the Cairo Daily Bulletin of Oct. 1:

"Mr. E. V. Wilson lectured last night, and delivered one of the most eloquent discourses we have heard in Cairo."

Warning. The public is hereby notified that the city is infested with a large number of thieves and ruffians. Citizens are warned to use more than usual care in securing their premises. Special policemen have been added to the force. The class alluded to above are requested to decamp immediately. Should any of them be caught plying their vocation, they will be prosecuted and punished with the utmost rigors of the law.

H. WINTER, Mayor.

THE BIG GUN! Once more Belches Forth its Firey Flame and brings to mind that FARNBAKER, THE CLOTHIER,

Is Once More in the Field to tell all Clothing Buyers that they are still buying "Slop Shop" Goods at Exorbitant Prices. We keep Goods made in the best Manner and of the Best Style.

NO "HAND-ME-DOWNS," No goods that smell of powder of the war of 1812; goods well made and sponged, only for sale—fits guaranteed, as we are already known for such. Others fight competition of that kind with "shoddy" goods, made by second-hand dealers. Keep your eyes open. Listen to no stories that sound like "soft soap," as it's a very poor merchant that cannot defend his own business.

A trial is what we ask to make customers out of you all. We don't ask your patronage on account of being "friends" or old acquaintances as we have been known here 101 these many years—but to save you the almighty dollar. The time for paying for friendship is gone. Our stock of Fine Underwear, the largest in the city, at prices to suit all. We make war on high prices. As Usual.

Farnbaker, The Clothier. OHIO LEVEE, BELOW SIXTH STREET.

W. G. M., John H. Oberly, will deliver his address on Odd Fellowship. Visiting brothers cordially invited to join with us. The public are invited to be present at the church at 8 o'clock.

W. K. HAWKINS, C. K. SLACK, A. B. SAFFORD, A. COMINGS, B. F. BLAKE, Committee.

Resolutions. At a meeting of Alexander Lodge, No. 224, I. O. O. F., held on Thursday evening last, Oct. 21st, the following preamble and resolutions on the death of George Carpenter, a member of said Lodge, were passed:

WHEREAS, Death has again visited us, and taken from our membership our lamented Brother George Carpenter, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Carpenter this Lodge is deprived of the fellowship of one whose daily walk and conversation in life, was that of a true Odd Fellow.

Resolved, That to the mourning widow, children and friends, we extend our heartfelt sympathy in this their great affliction.

Resolved, That a page in the journal be set apart to his memory, and that these resolutions be inscribed thereon.

Resolved, That the Lodge room be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow of our deceased brother by the Secretary.

CITY COUNCIL. Adjourned Meeting Thereof.

COUNCIL CHAMBER, CAIRO, ILLS., Oct. 25, 1875. Present—Aldermen Halliday, Lancaster, Nellis, Patier, Rittenhouse and Wright—6.

On motion of Alderman Rittenhouse, Alderman Halliday was appointed to take the chair.

[Alderman Parker appeared and took his seat.] The Clerk then read Section 614 of Chapters 5 and 9 of Ordinance 1, at length.

[Alderman Thistlewood appeared and took his seat.] Chapter 10 of Ordinance 1 was read at length.

On motion of Alderman Lancaster, the reading of the revised ordinances was suspended for 5 minutes to allow the Street Committee to report upon the bids submitted to them for the construction and reconstruction of sidewalks under Ordinance 111.

The Street Committee then reported upon said bids as follows: We recommend that the contract for building and reconstructing all wooden sidewalks, provisions for which are made by ordinance No. 111, be awarded to N. A. Devore and Thomas Fitzgerald, in accordance with their bid, and that the proper officers be requested to draw up contract for the same.

N. B. THISTLEWOOD, CHAS. O. PATIER, CHAS. LANCASTER, B. F. PARKER, Committee on Streets.

On motion of Alderman Wright, the report was concurred in by the following vote:

Ayes—Halliday, Lancaster, Nellis, Parker, Patier, Rittenhouse, Thistlewood and Wright—8. Nays—0.

Chapters 11 and 12 of Ordinance 1 were read at length. On motion of Alderman Patier, council adjourned, to meet Tuesday evening, Oct. 26th, at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Get the Best. Beyond all question the most economical sewing machine to buy is the Wilson Shuttle. It is perfect and durable in workmanship, simple and easy to operate, and its work is superior to all others. It is sold at a less price than any other first-class machine, and its popularity, so well deserved, is daily increasing. Machines will be delivered at any railroad station in this county, free of transportation charges, if ordered through the Company's Branch House at 610 North Fourth street, St. Louis, Mo. They send an elegant catalogue and chromo circular, free on application. This Company want a few more good agents.
