LOCAL POCKET PIECES.

—Rain, rain rain!
—The umbrella business is brisk.
—The next big thing is the baby exhibition.
—The weather yesterday was miserable and business dull.
—The Athenium was crowded last night.
—Overcoats and fires are essential to comfort.
—Judge Green is in Chicago on important business.
—No business in the police court yesterday.
—The K. M. K. C. will conduct the next steamboat excursion.
—Judge Gross and Mr. Harrell are engaged on the delinquent tax list.
—Mr. C. R. Woodward and family will leave for Metropolis on Tuesday next.
—There will be two priests at St. Patrick's church to-morrow to read mass.
—Confucius says "originality is the greatest of things." So is the baby show.
—The rain yesterday evening did not prevent a large attendance at the Athenium.
—T. F. Bolton, of the Jonesboro Gazette, is confined to his bed with sickness.
—Mr. and Mrs. Safford and Mr. and Mrs. Oberly will return to Cairo Monday or Tuesday.
—There are several young men in the city getting near sighted sitting in saloons looking for work.
—There was no change in the presidency of the Hibernian fire company as was expected by many.
—There will be services at the Church of the Redeemer and at the Methodist church at the regular hours to-morrow.
—The "Bijou" of the BULLETIN failed to make his rounds yesterday on account of the disagreeable weather.
—Mrs. J. H. Kellogg, of Jacksonville, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. John M. Lamsden.
—Street Superintendent Gorman was repairing the bridge on Walnut across Thirteenth street yesterday.
—The baby show is all the talk. We know of one lady who has expended twelve dollars for trimmings for her baby's dress.
—Remember the advice under the auspices of the Mysterious Knights at their hall Tuesday evening. None but those having invitations will be admitted.
—Paducah Sun: "Cairo is to have a genuine baby show on the 8th and 9th of the present month." The editor of the Sun will be entered in class "B."
—The Jonesboro Gazette says: "Cairo had a $15,000 fire on Monday night. This is just about $13,500 too high. The actual loss by the fire will not exceed $1,500."
—The Johnson county circuit court, Judge Baker on the bench, will convene on Monday next. The docket we understand is not large, nor are there any cases of special importance to be tried.
—Captain W. P. Halliday left by the Illinois Central train yesterday afternoon for Chicago, where he goes to spend a few days with his wife previous to her departure for Europe.
—Rev. G. C. Noyes of Evansville, is in the city visiting at the residence of Hon. John M. Lamsden. We understand Mr. Noyes will conduct services in the Presbyterian church to-morrow.
—A young man of this city, now on his way to New York, got as far as Edinburg and ran short of funds. He telegraphed back to his father for more "sugar." His trunk was checked through.
—Judge Hillman of Union county, was badly hurt a few days ago by being struck down by a fractious horse. His injuries are of such a nature as to confine him to his bed for some time.
—Mayor Winter is in favor of reducing the police force to two men and a chief. Why not abolish the force altogether? Two night policemen would be no better than no police at all.
—Since the peddlers of moleskin have visited our city the price of that article has fallen. Some of the young men of this office have a dozen pieces they paid two dollars a yard for, which they are willing to trade for a "Prof. Hermann's chromo."
—Quarterly meeting at the "Miller school house" near Ullin, will commence this afternoon and continue until to-morrow (Sunday) evening. Elder Pearce will preach the sermon Sunday morning.
—His honor is a "little off" on the matter of city printing. He asserts that the printing for the last year has amounted to $114.35, which is just about one-half the sum really expended on account of printing, as we shall prove to the satisfaction of his honor before many days.
—Prof. Buycourt, leader of the orchestra at the grand opera house, Louisville, has been engaged by the managers to furnish music for the baby exposition next Tuesday and Wednesday at Turner Hall. This is a rare treat for the citizens of Cairo, and alone is worth the price of admission.
—There was a fair attendance at the entertainment at the Athenium last night to witness Prof. Cooke's exposure of the tricks of spirit mediums. The professor is no doubt well versed in his business, and it not a medium himself, certainly understands their ways perfectly. He gives another of his entertainments this evening.
—Farmers in every part of the county are busy planting corn and getting the ground ready for sowing oats. It is estimated that the number of acres of corn to be planted will be at least one-fourth greater than last year. The growing wheat everywhere is in fine condition, and with a good season from this time until harvest, the yield will be abundant.

Tobacco and Cigars.

Merchants, grocers, and saloon-keepers should not forget that Messrs. Corlis & Evansville, proprietors of the Prairie State Tobacco Factory at Metropolis, have opened an establishment at the corner of Sixth street and Ohio levee in this city where they will do a wholesale and retail business in the tobacco and cigar line. They have on hand the largest and most complete stock of tobacco and cigars ever opened in Cairo, and are prepared to supply the wants of the trade at the lowest living prices. Dealers are invited to call and examine their stock. 4-13-4f.

The New Town Hall at Ayer.

This elegant structure is now complete. In beauty of design it surpasses anything of its kind in the state. Constructed of brick and dark marble it is as permanent as it is charming. The English architects have adorned it in subdued colors, which please without tiring the eye. Dr. J. C. Ayer built and gave it to the town in acknowledgment of the distinction they conferred upon him in taking his name. Although it is a generous gift, still the hearty good wishes of a whole people are of greater value, and the generous donor has doubtless secured them.—Groton (Mass.) Journal. 1m

The Wise Course in Rheumatism.

Rheumatic patients who have been induced to submit to depletion by blood-letting, or to take cathartic and other drugs of an equally pernicious character, will consult their well-being by abandoning such insane procedure, and using as a substitute Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which will infallibly afford them the much desired relief, and is absolutely safe. This benign vegetable depurative cools the blood by expelling from it the inflammatory elements which give rise to maladies of a rheumatic and gouty type, and rectifies disordered conditions of the stomach, nervous system and bowels which usually accompany them. As rheumatism has a tendency to attack the heart, the desirability of an early resort to the Bitters is obvious, since the danger is increased by every moment of delay.

A Young Sharp.

Night before last a young man (we will call him Mud) went into one of the Commercial Avenue saloons, walked up to the lunch table and commenced filling a plate. While he was thus helping himself the barkeeper stepped up and demanded ten cents.
"What do you want with ten cents?" asked Mud.
"That's my own affair. I charge all those who are not my customers," replied the barkeeper.
Mud ran his hand in his pocket, and after fumbling there awhile, said, "I can get lunch at any other place without a nickel. I've got plenty of money, but wouldn't spend a cent here."
"Got plenty money?" exclaimed the barkeeper, "I don't see where you get it. You are not doing anything."
Mud went down his upper vest pocket and drew forth three cards, saying, "That's the way I make my money."
At this juncture Mr. Mud was bounced.

Crossing the Desert

Is generally an eventful episode in life; whether it be as pilgrim to worship the prophet's shrine at Mecca, or as a part of a caravan of merchants. The dangers of the destructive simoon, attacks of predatory robbers and the agony of dying from thirst are dissipated on reaching one of those gardens of the desert, an oasis. Partaking of that which recuperates, they meet their future difficulties with recruited strength and renewed energies. So with modern life, dangers from disease threaten all humanity, but if we make use of a remedy which alleviates acute attacks of sickness, thus preventing their becoming chronic, we shall realize that necessary and refreshing in traveling life's desert which has been discovered in the HOME STOMACH BITTERS. 5-1m.

Two Irreconcilable Conditions.

Debility and health are irreconcilable conditions. Weakly people, that is to say people who lack the vitality requisite for a vigorous discharge of each and all of the bodily functions, are invariably afflicted with some, though it may be a trifling, disorder of the system. Atony, or a want of muscular and nervous vigor, is accompanied by poverty of the blood and leanness. A certain way to overcome it and prevent the aggravated malady to which it must ultimately lead is to use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which promote digestion and assimilation of the food, and thus are the means of furnishing the body with a supply of blood of a quality essential to its proper nourishment. Investigation through the instrumentality of the matches tonic protects the feeble from a host of bodily ills which lurk in ambush for the debilitated. The Bitters are an article which it is most desirable to keep constantly on hand. 4-30-7t
