Scribner's Monthly

AN UNRIVALED ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE.

When SCRIBNER issued his famous Midsummer Holiday Number in July, affrantly said of it: "We are not sure but that SCRIBNER has touched high-water mark. We do not see what worlds are left to it to conquer." But the publishers do not consider that they have reached the utmost of excellence—they believe "there are other worlds to conquer, and they propose to conquer them."

The prospectus for the new volume gives the titles of more than fifty papers (mostly illustrated), by writers of the highest merit. Under the head of

"Foreign Travel,"

We have "A Winter on the Nile," by Gen. McClellan; "Saunterings About Constantinople," by Charles Dudley Warner; "Out of my Window at Moscow," by Eugene Schuyler; "An American in Turkistan," etc. Three serial stories are announced:

"Nicholas Minturn,"

By Dr. Holand, the Editor, whose story of "Sevenson" gave the highest satisfaction to the readers of the Monthly.

The scene of this latest novel is laid on the banks of the Hudson. The hero is a young man who has been always "tied to a woman's apron strings," but who, by the death of his mother, is left alone in the world—to drift on the current of life—with a fortune, but without a purpose.

Another serial, "His Inheritance," by Miss Trafton, will begin on the completion of "The Lass of Lowrie," by Mrs. Hodgson Burnett. Mrs. Burnett's story, begun in August, has a pathos and dramatic power which have been a surprise to the public.

There is to be a series of original and exquisitely illustrated papers of "Popular Science," by Mrs. Herrick, each paper complete in itself.

There are to be, from various pens, papers on "Home Life and Travel"

Also, practical suggestions as to town and country life, village improvements, etc., by well-known specialists.

Mr. Barnard's articles on various industries of Great Britain include the history of "Some Experiments in Cottoning," "A Scotch Loom Factory" in the November number, and "Food Laws, Icelandic," in December. Other papers are, "The British Workingman's Home," "A Nation of Shopkeepers," "His penny a week for the City," etc.

A richly illustrated series will be given on "American Sports by Flood and Field," by various writers, and each on a different theme. The subject of "Hazard and Home-coming" will have a prominent place, whilst the productions of American humorists will appear from month to month. The list of shorter stories, biographical and other sketches, etc., is a long one.

The editorial department will continue to employ the ablest pens both at home and abroad. There will be a series of letters on literary matters, from London, by Mr. Webster.

The pages of the magazine will be open, as heretofore, so far as limited space will permit, to the discussion of all themes affecting the social and religious life of the world, and specially to the freshest thought of the Christian thinkers and scholars of our time.

We mean to make it a more genial and more generous in all its utterances and influences, and a more welcome visitor than ever before in homes of refinement and culture.

FIFTEEN MONTHS for $1.

SCRIBNER for December, now ready, and which contains the opening chapters of "Nicholas Minturn," will be had at cost price. To take it in a matter of economy.
