

CARRETT'S ADDRESS.—Our Carrier, Jas. P. Balch, will visit upon our friends and patrons today (Saturday), with his annual Christmas card, containing the names of Dr. Chas. Williams of this city, and worthy the personal of all. John has been on duty for three years, and has performed his duty admirably, giving entire satisfaction to our patrons in the city. With the energy of a small steam engine he has spread the news another year without remuneration, and we hope our readers will remember him peculiarly.

And he will labor still with pleasure, "to entertain your hours of leisure."

THE Whig and Tribune Steam Printing Establishment for all kinds of Plain or Fancy Printing.

Hats and umbrellas Thursday.

Only—Three announcements for the Shrivleyville fair on Friday.

Mild.—The weather for several days passed has been exceedingly mild.

FORN.—"That Christmas truth for you and for me—what a beauty it will be."

As the nights lengthen the gas bills strengthen.

Check wins in this world, whether it be the property of a lawyer or that of a female—dimpled and rosy.

GRATEFUL.—A merry Christmas and a happy New Year to our friends, readers and patrons of the Whig and Tribune.

WILL HAVE TO.—Our schools during the holidays.

IN TOWN.—Henderson and McNairy counties have been handsomely represented in our city during the week.

RECORDERS' COURT.—Three rights and one obstructive individual reported by the Recorder this week. No body hurt.

RECORDED.—The Crisp Sisters played at King's Opera House Monday and Tuesday nights, and then played out.

SPECIAL POLICE.—There will be a special police force appointed to take custody of all violators of the law during Christmas week.

CHARITY.—When you are lavishly spending your money during the holidays, don't forget the poor among us. Charity will reap a multitude of evils.

PERSONAL.—Col. J. L. Wisdom, our senior, left for New Orleans Wednesday, where he will join his "dilex" excursion and bring it back with him. May he never grow less.

RENTS.—The passenger trains on both railroads put in an appearance several hours after they are due. How is this?

EBLANT.—The ground available to be given by the young men of the city, at the South-Western Baptist Union, next Monday night, promises to be an elegant affair and an enjoyable occasion.

LADY BROKE.—We are informed that a negro man, whose name we did not learn, fell from the roof of the cottage last Saturday, while attempting to extinguish the flames, and had one of his legs broken.

SHORTLY.—Monday last was the shortest day of the year. One of our mathematical exchanges says if you wish to find the length of any day, multiply the hour of sunset by 2; to find the length of any night, multiply the hour of sunrise by 2.

The following tract of land, in the 13th district, was sold upon our first page:

Robert, Chester, 200 acres of land and described: value $800, state tax 3.20, county 3.20, school 3.20, penalty 80c, interest 50c; total $1,111.00.

LOOK OUT.—Leap year is rapidly approaching, and the girls have a gala time. Then, in the language of Charles the 12th of Sweden, "the boot will be on the other foot," and "narrow gait skirts" will be worn by the average female with a boldness, truly child-like and bland.

ELECTION TICKETS, ETC.—Remember that the job office of the Whig and Tribune, will be open next week for the purpose of printing election tickets and such other work as may be desired. We do the work in the best style, and will duplicate bills from any of the cities. Memorize this, or cut it out, do not care which.

POWDER EXPLOSION.—Master George Foose, son of Judge Foose, of this city, was fatally hurt by the explosion of a flask of powder, which he held in his hand. His face and hands were badly burned, but he is pleased to hear that he is on his feet again and will be ready for Christmas.

TAXE NOTICE.—We publish in this issue the card of Messrs. A. F. Bush & Sons, located at Mobile, Ala. They are extensively engaged in the commission business, and have a special care for the interest of their customers. We take pleasure in fully endorsing this house, and feel assured all goods sent them will be disposed of at the best terms.

REPAIRS NEEDED.—We are informed that a bridge over Cub Creek, near Andrew Chapel, is in an impassable condition. When we consider that much of the trade in the western portion of the county is thus driven to Brownsville, it would be well for the proper parties to look into the matter and have the bridge repaired as speedily as possible.

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—We learn that Mrs. A. E. Hill and Miss Alice Harris have been elected by the Trustees of this district as teachers for the girls at Read Academy, and W. T. Webb and Henry Morris for the common children at the Baptist Hall and Benevolent Hall. The schools will be opened on the first Monday in January next, and continue without intermission until the summer vacation.

SEWING MACHINES.—It will be seen from our advertising columns, that Mr. Welles, well known to many of our citizens, has been placed in charge of the Singer Sewing Machine office in Jackson, and will hereafter be found at Brown's Book Store. Mr. Welles will offer special inducements to parties wishing to purchase machines, and would be pleased to meet his old friends and acquaintances at his new quarters.

NASHVILLE VISITS.—Sheriff May left for Nashville Tuesday, with the following prisoners under his escort: John Gilmer, (white) ten years, larceny; Alfred Clay, (col'd) ten years, burglar; Sam Bond, (col'd) three years, stealing cattle. The force at Castle May has thus been greatly reduced, only six prisoners remaining to hold the fort, five whites and one black.

THINK OVER IT.—The custom which many boys, and some very old boys too, have of destroying property for fun, during Christmas time, is deserving the severest censure. There is not a particle of fun to the owners of property to have their signs displayed or broken down or to have their gates and fences demolished.

JAMES AMOS.—In another column will be found the announcement of James Amos, a candidate for the office of sheriff. Mr. Amos is an old citizen of the county and has a large circle of friends. He is full of energy and if elected would prove himself an active and thoroughgoing officer.

MR. T. L. KENDRICK.—We announce in this issue Mr. T. L. Kendrick, a candidate for sheriff at the ensuing election. Mr. Kendrick is a young man of sterling worth and will make things lively for his opponents.

MR. ED CLARK.—The announcement of Maj. Ed Clark for the office of sheriff at the ensuing election will find in this paper the candid opinion of our friends in the county and anything more than a mere announcement at our hands would be superfluous. If elected he will make an efficient officer.

PERSONAL.—Mr. R. S. Fletcher, editor of the Grange column of the Southerner, called on us on Monday.

ROBERT GATES.—The "Sun," left on the excursion last Friday, en route for the land of the Magnolia.

MR. Wm. Perkins, who has been attending the medical department of the University, is spending the holidays with us.

MISS Sallie Slater has just returned from a pleasant visit among friends in the Bluff city.

STILL THEY BURN.—A cottage residence, located on the corner of Lafayette and Shannon streets, and owned by Mr. Rosenberg, was burned last Saturday about 12 o'clock.

MR. ROSENBERG and his family were at their restaurant, on Market street. At the time the fire was first discovered it could have been easily extinguished if the proper facilities had been on hand, but, alas, Jackson jacks in vain for a fire engine, or even a bucket fire extinguisher.

We learn that Mr. Rosenberg saved all his furniture, but the house was a total loss, as we hear there was no insurance on the property.

BAD ESCAPE.—We are astonished to learn from one of the officers of the law that much of the stealing which has been done in our city for some time past, has been the work of small boys, better known in the cities as mackerels. They have become adepts in the business, and when caught should be severely punished. We warn our merchants to keep a lookout for their slow windows and articles exhibited in front of their stores, to be as fastidious as the Greeks, to teach the art of stealing to the little American mackerels have caught the prevailing and most profitable trade.

THE CHANCERY COURT follows in quick succession, commencing on the 1st Monday in January next.

STOP THIS.—Was the cry, raised, as a new dashed down Main street, with a bundle under his arm. On being intercepted by the police, he said that he was only in a great hurry to show all of his friends the great bargains in Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Caps and Furnishing Goods that he had bought at the Louisville Clothing Store, under King's Opera House. He was immediately released and went on his way rejoicing.

FOR RENT OR SALE.—Two nice Cottage Residences on Cumberland and Church streets, would exchange for a good farm over seven hundred acres.

ORF MACKERS, and promptly captured by Officer Perkins. They had evidently been doing a land office business, as these four proceedings had been kept up for several days. Mr. Cisco finding that his fire works were mysteriously disappearing, kept an eye single for the thief. In a short time he discovered a small black boy enter his store, and appeared interested about nothing. Mr. C. had occasion to go into his back-room and glance through the door, he saw the juvenile darkie loading himself with fire-crackers and Roman candles. The little rascal was immediately seized and turned over to the city authorities. Three of the brigade were found guilty and lodged in the calaboose, where they will have the pleasure of spending the holidays. This lays it on to the "crooked" whisky business which has brought St. Louis into prominence.

COMING.—All Burnett, one of the leading politicians of the country, will appear in our city next Monday night. The reputation of Mr. Burnett is well established wherever he has been and we can assure our readers that they will be highly entertained by witnessing his extraordinary facial exhibitions and his unsurpassed delineations of human nature. We hope he will be greeted by a large house.

MILTON McLEAN.—On the 7th of January, 1876, a spectacle is to be beheld in this city, a counterpart of which we have not had for twenty-six years—a legal execution. How swiftly must fly the hours, and how speedily must pass the numbered days with Milton McLean. Shut out from the light of heaven, incarcerated in an iron cage, and left with his own thoughts, while death approaches nearer and nearer, he is indeed paying the penalty of his crime. The merciful prayers offered in his behalf by the men of God, and the warm tears of a sorrowing wife, and the plaintive cries of his children—soon to be fatherless—have at last metted his lonely will. We learn from those who have visited him, that he appears more deeply interested in the salvation of his soul, and requested that a testament be sent him, which was accordingly done. He has been reading the book ever since, but says the "Bible is full of mystery to him." Last Sunday evening a gentleman read a portion of a letter to the prisoner, received from McLean's brother in South Carolina, and he was very deeply affected. While evidently anxious about his soul's salvation, he appears exceedingly cheerful and converses more freely than several weeks ago. We are requested by the sheriff, Capt. May, to state that the execution will take place on the East side of the Central Railroad, near the bottom. This is a human being's life rapidly drawing to a close, and the decline of the sun on the 7th of January, 1876, will find a robust man in the habiliments of the dead. May God mete out to him that measure of pity and kindness which his sad fate so justly demands.

FOR SALE.—$800 will buy a splendidly toned, next to the best nakers in the United States, of the fine fish, which cost a few years ago $650, and is yet as good as new.

LOST.—An open silver Watch, a good time piece, for which a reward of $10 will be paid by returning property to W. P. ARKOLD, Post-Office Street, Tenn.

0630-11. JAS. W. ANDERSON.

Now is the TIME.—All over the country, north, south and west, numbers of men are out of employment, and are suffering for food and reliance. The reason of this distress is mainly owing to the fact that the unemployed are wanting in those business qualifications which almost invariably secure pecuniary success. The way then to create a demand for your services is to learn business habits, and acquire a first-class business education. It will be remembered that the Stratton and Bryan Business College, at Louisville, Ky., is the best in the country, and offers superior inducements to young men. Send for a College paper and you will be furnished with all the necessary information.

By purchasing your Monuments and Grave Stones from the Humboldt Marble Works, you save money in freights and support home enterprise.
