YELLOW FEVER RECORD.

The Yellow Plague Getting a Strong Foot Hold in New Orleans.

Death of Gen. J. B. Hood, and Two Daughters at Point of Death.

Nine New Cases and Six Deaths Reported in Memphis.

YELLOW FEVER.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 30.—Nine new cases, two white and seven colored reported this morning. There have been six interments since last night, among the number John P. Hoffman; Eugenia Boggiano, sister-in-law of L. Podaska; Frank M. Clemmens, nephew of A. J. White, and Mrs. John Pope.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 30.—Gen. J. B. Hood died at four o'clock this morning, and it is believed his daughter Lydia will not recover. Edith is also very sick.

Special to the Nashville American.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 28.—For the first time since the beginning of the epidemic, the number of deaths as reported to the Board of Health exceeds the new cases. This is a most favorable outlook, although no calculations can be relied upon where the yellow fever is concerned. There are yet two months to elapse in which the disease may assume a more malignant form and the bright hopes of to-day may be dispelled by the reports of to-morrow. The following are the names of the new cases and deaths as officially reported to the Board of Health, to-day:

New cases.—Fannie Combe, aged 33, 180 Carolina street; Lizzie Schwartz, aged 15, 295 Poplar street; Mrs. Pope, aged 45, 139 Mulberry street; Grace Prestidge, aged 16, corner Jessamine and Lauderdale streets; Clinton Prestidge, aged 15, 220 Wellington street; Harrison Prestidge, aged 10, corner of Jessamine and Lauderdale streets.

The death list is as follows: Rachael Sloan, aged 49, 489 Pontotoc extended; Jerrie Sloan, aged 34, 499 Pontotoc extended; Geo. E. Taylor, aged 34, 76 Vance street; D. O. Wilkie, aged 34, corner of Fifth and Jackson; Martin Moran, aged 35, 91 Vance street; Mrs. Ruth E. Egrew, aged 56, corner of Sixth and Saffin; Pierre Lalarte, aged 21, Ft. Pickering; J. Lowery, colored, aged 28, 42 Fourth street; Emma Jackson, colored, aged 2, 37 Vance street.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 31.—Gen. Hood had hopes of recovery to the last. Perceiving slight favorable symptoms he said to Dr. Bemiss: "We may yet dislodge the enemy." As a measure of precaution none of the military associations to which Gen. Hood belonged were invited to the funeral. He was buried this afternoon. Gen. Hood leaves eleven children, the eldest only ten years of age and the youngest twins three weeks old. His physical condition has been bad for some time past, caused, it is all by anxiety rising from financial reverses and the terrible blow he received in the death of his wife. The General leaves a manuscript of the history of the war, which he intended to have published this fall.

MOBILE, ALA., Aug. 30.—Mobile quarantines against New Orleans on and after twelve o'clock to-morrow night. This port remains perfectly free from fever.

The News publishes the following from Montague, Texas, August 29: Charles Harris was executed to-day in the presence of five thousand persons, for the murder of his brother John, in January, 1877. He was convicted on his own confession. He was firm to the last and the drop fell while the assemblage sang "Sweet by-and-by."

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 29.—At Brighton, in the suburbs of this city, this morning, during a heavy fog, the Baltimore and Ohio night express ran into the rear end of the New York Short Line Express, badly mashing the end of the sleeper and passenger coach. One passenger in the sleeper was seriously injured and may not live. No others were injured.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—All the checks of John Mackintosh, of Cornhill, E. C. London, large speculator in American railways, returned last night and will be declared a defaulter on the Stock Exchange to-day or Monday.

A Warning to Pinchers.
London Court Circular.

A dignitary of the Church was dining out. Of the two ladies between whom he was seated the one on the right-hand side was an intimate acquaintance, and noticing that her distinguished neighbor was silent and preoccupied, said to him, sotto voce: "I am afraid you are not very well this evening; you do not seem in your usual spirits." "Well, said the dignitary, "I am in rather a nervous state of mind about my health, and have a sort of presentiment that a serious illness is hanging over me. I am conscious of a peculiar numbness all over my right side, which seems to forbid an attack of paralysis." His fair companion expressed her hope that such fears were ill founded. "Ah, no," he replied, "I'm afraid there's no doubt of it, for I have been pinching my right leg all dinner-time, and can elicit no responsive feeling whatever. The limb seems quite dead to all feeling." "Oh," exclaimed the lady, briskly, and with an expression of intense relief on her face, "if that is all which troubles you, I think I can at once relieve your mind from anxiety, for the leg which you have been pinching all the evening is mine."

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

Proceedings of the City Council Last Night.

The Board met as usual last night, Mayor Luttrell presiding, and the following Aldermen present: Allison, McAffry, Harris, Stephenson, Sullivan, Hockenjos, Lewis, Dickson, Burrier, Albers, Seales, O'Conner and Irvin.

The minutes were read and approved.

The following bills were presented by Alderman Allison, Chairman of the Finance Committee, properly approved and passed for payment: Knoxville Gaslight Company, $305 85; C. F. Youngblood, 22 50; H. L. Bradley, 53 74; Thos. Rodgers, 1 25; Knoxville Laundry and Machine Company, 28 30; A. Kin & Repass, 26 91; S. F. Budget, 106 50; Repairs for Fire Department, 49 72; S. T. Atkin, 8 60; J. M. McAffry, 49 72; Knoxville Laundry and Machine Company, 18 90; Chas. Waring, 28 50.

Alderman Harris presented a petition from W. W. Langford, asking for some compensation for entertaining a destitute woman named Parcell for one week and furnishing her with a ticket for Rockford, where she had relatives. On motion, an allowance of $6 was made for his trouble.

Alderman Dickson read a communication from Capt. H. H. Taylor, attorney for certain creditors of the city, asking the levy for the special tax to meet Capt. Taylor's and other demands of past due floating indebtedness of the city.

Alderman Dickson thought it would be better to set apart 10 cents on the hundred dollars of the regular levy of $1 to satisfy Capt. Taylor's demand, saying that 90 cents on the hundred dollars will pay running expenses.

Alderman Sullivan opposed any further levy, saying his Eighth Ward constituency would sustain him in it. A proposition had been made to Capt. Taylor, and if he is willing to accept it, let him proceed to collect it.

Alderman Burrier favored the special levy, saying it ought to be for more.

Alderman Allison said $1 on the hundred is sufficient to defray the running expenses, and he will never vote for a higher levy in the general tax, under the existing circumstances. He favored, however, the special levy. The eyes and nose were called on the passage of the ordinance on its first reading, with the following result: Aye—Allison, Albers, Burrier, Harris, Lewis, McAffry, Seales—7. No—Dickson, Hockenjos, Irvin, O'Conner, Stephenson, Sullivan—9.

A motion to suspend the rules and pass the ordinance on its second reading failed for want of a two-thirds vote.

Alderman Dickson spoke of a point in East Knoxville where the city is paying rent for a public highway, and moved for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the matter. Carried, and Aldermen Dickson, Burrier and Sullivan appointed, to be called a "Committee on Economy."

A lamp-post, asked for by Alderman Hockenjos, on Temperance Hill, was ordered erected.

On motion of Alderman Irvin, a crossing was ordered on McClung street.

A motion to instruct the Street Committee to clean up the dirt left on the streets by carts taking dirt from the city dump, and to see that the ordinance requiring the parties dropping it there to clean it up be enforced.

Alderman Allison offered two ordinances which are intended to complete the necessary legislation by the Board with reference to the issuance of water works bonds. Both were adopted on two readings. The second ordinance provides for a board of three "Trustees of Sinking Fund," but their election was postponed till the next meeting.

Alderman Dickson said some of the police are in the habit of taking many cases before the Magistrates, and thus making extra cost, and depriving the city of the revenue which should go into the city treasury. He moved that the matter be referred to the "Committee on Economy" for investigation. Carried.

No other business the Board adjourned.

Proclamation by the Governor.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

NASHVILLE, TENN.

To the People of Tennessee:

The plague still afflicts Memphis. Her authorities have employed every agency to arrest its progress without avail. The employments of her citizens are entirely suspended. They have no opportunity to supply themselves with the necessities of life. Her authorities have used the utmost economy in the application of the resources in their control. These resources are nearly exhausted. Want threatens to unite with pestilence in afflicting Memphis. The State Government, assuming that local calamity would be relieved by private charity, has withheld the power to afford relief out of the Public Treasury. The executive authorities of the State would be justified in assuming such a responsibility only as a last resort.

While the citizens of Memphis are suffering under uncommon affliction, the people of the State at large are blessed with unusual health and extraordinary abundance. The claims of humanity and the obligations of a common citizenship make it appeal to the charity of the people of Tennessee, in behalf Memphis, which cannot be disregarded. Ministers of religion, the mayors of cities and towns, the officers of charitable bodies and the press of the State are requested to call attention to the melancholy situation and pressing wants of Memphis.

Capt. John F. Wheelers, of Nashville, has been appointed Commissary General of the State and charged with the appointment and direction of the necessary agencies for the transportation of such supplies as may be donated to the authorities of Memphis. All donations of money may be made directly to the authorities of Memphis.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my official signature, and have caused the Seal of the State of Tennessee to be affixed, at the Executive Department, in Nashville, on the 27th of August, 1879.

ALBERT S. MARKS,
GOVERNOR OF TENNESSEE.

CHAS. N. GIBBS, Secretary of State.

PERSONAL.

Rev. J. F. Spence, President of the E. T. W. University, at Athens, went down yesterday to arrange for the opening next Tuesday. He informs us that the prospects are very bright.

Mr. H. H. Ingersoll returned home yesterday from upper East Tennessee, where he has been for several weeks. His family returned some days ago.

Mr. Chas. J. McKinney, of Hawkins county, came down yesterday to be in attendance on the Federal Court this week as juror.

Judge L. C. Houk, Mr. J. J. Williams and Mr. John S. Ross, of Clinton, returned home yesterday from a trip to Tate Spring.

Mr. A. A. Sharp's family returned home yesterday from spending several weeks among relatives at Dandridge.

Mrs. Sam Clemens and family, of Athens, who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Caldwell, returned home yesterday.

Miss Minnie Eckle went down to Athens yesterday to visit relatives.

Miss Kate McNutt returned yesterday from a visit to friends at Morristown.

Mr. J. Thomas O'Conor arrived yesterday evening from Nashville.

Mr. John Schweickher, the tailor, and his brother Charley, the popular clerk at Ritter's, returned yesterday from a visit to Greeneville.

The fight between Sam Tilden and Tammany goes briskly on. It is everything for Tilden, because if he does not carry his State he is left out in the cold in the Presidential race. If he nominates and elects his man Robinson the thing is settled, and "Tilden and reform" will once more be among us.

BEING disgusted with politics, it is said that General Joseph E. Johnson will retire to private life at the end of his present term in Congress.

GEORGE W. ADAMS, who has been the Washington correspondent of the New York World since 1860, has severed his connection with that journal and will become business manager of the Washington Evening Star.

WHAT have we come to when a crowd of roughs, claiming to be the representatives of a political party, can go into the White House and insult the President and into the Treasury Department and threaten its spoliation.

We regret to hear of the death of Gen. Jno. B. Hood. The death of his wife was announced several days ago. A large family of orphan children are left to the tender mercies of a cold world. Two more of their daughters are seriously ill and will perhaps not recover.

THE Courier Journal says: "The South is still for Tilden." To which the American responds: "Very still, quite still." If Sam may be anybody else in the world this would be sad, very sad, but it matters not to him. He's got a mandamus on the Democratic party.

THERE is no doubt but that the Communists and Socialists are gaining ground in this country. They are not indigenous to our soil, but are transplanted products of the "effete monarchies" of Europe. A few Gattling guns and a company or two of Uncle Sam's boys would have a good effect upon the mob now threatening Washington.

We failed yesterday to speak of Gov. Mark's proclamation calling upon the people of Tennessee for aid to the yellow fever sufferers in Memphis. The voice of humanity calls and the people will respond. Something should be done in Knoxville at once. We do not deem it necessary to enter into any lengthy appeal to our people. We know that they are ready to do all in their power to relieve suffering humanity.

Is Knoxville to follow the lead of Memphis and have her creditors sue out a mandamus in the United States Courts, or will she levy a special tax to pay her obligations now due? In the end, the result will be the same, and it will be much more to her own honor to pay them without compulsion. The time has come when the matter must be decided, and there's no use of standing idle. It's not a popular thing to levy a special tax, but nevertheless, it must be done.

A WESTERN Associated Press dispatched Constantinople, Aug. 28th, says: "The Russian authorities at Odessa had prepared a grand reception for Maynard, the United States Minister, and the officers and crew of the steamer Wyoming, and ordered that public establishments should not accept any payment for expenses from the Americans. Maynard, however, was obliged to leave Odessa before the principal fête took place, in consequence of the meeting of the diplomatic body in Constantinople."

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The Treasury Department has placed fifteen million dollars in gold to the credit of the Superintendent of Essay Office, New York, to be used in payment for foreign gold coin and gold bars now being received by European steamers in payment on balances due this country. This is the largest amount ever required for this purpose.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

WEST POINT, Aug. 30.—There was a large attendance here to-day to witness the ceremony of unveiling Custer's monument. A Sullivan delivered the presentation address and General Schofield the address of acceptance. The orator of the day was General N. P. Banks.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, Aug. 30.—

Don't Take Corn.

"You tink I was a fool, but I aint, Stieles! I don't eat no more of dot corn if I die for it. Dat aint grass. Dats corn. Say, how you like corn for dinner tree dimes a day? Not much, aint it! Vell, I guess not. How you like dim dinners every day for a week? Not much again, aint it? Vell, you don't tink I can't corn. corn. corn every dinner in de day for two months, don't you. How you like if your morder git you corn every day and told you to eat all the time for a month? You don't tink I eat corn to make beds for all dis family? I guess not much! Dey can sleep on de floor! Uf dat was to be a freeder bed do we haf gooses for dinner every day? Not much, I guess? Aint it? Vell I don't make dim corn-skin beds by a long sight! You can't tink Patsy Mulligan vas eat botatoes all day to make dot botatoskin bed? Not much? Dem Irish aint fool! I don't vas a masheen to make dem beds! Not much I vas maet not, but dot's all right; I don't eat no more of dot dem corn, see ef I do."

Honors to Minister Maynard.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 28.—The Russian authorities at Odessa, had prepared a grand reception for Hon. Horace Maynard, the United States Minister, and the officers and crew of the United States steamer Wyoming, and ordered that all public establishments should not accept any payment for expenses from Americans. Mr. Maynard, however, was obliged to leave Odessa before the principal fête took place, in consequence of a meeting of the diplomatic body in Constantinople.

Wants to Know.

Shelbyville Commercial (Savage-Democrat)

The Tobacco-Leaf wants to know if "the Democratic party of Tennessee will shoulder the result of the late election." As a matter of course it will. The Democratic party by an overwhelming majority, with all its former leaders arrayed against it, effected the result, and they intend to enjoy the fruits thereof. They are not going to fold their arms in masterly inactivity and sit down and see these men take possession of the State government and enact laws that will grind them in the dust. The Democratic party will see to it that the next Legislature will be composed of men who will represent a majority, not only of the Democratic party, but of the people of the State.

The Democracy of Tennessee have been ruled and governed by a few men, they are now going to take the matter into their own hands and make their own selections of men to represent them. They will not submit to the dictation of heretofore prominent men, who in the late contest arrayed themselves on the side of the monied power of the land. They will have to stand aside until they have brought forth fruits meet for repentance.

Right Time to Operate in Stocks

By recent communication with prominent stock operators, we learn that now is a favorable time to take advantage of the stock market, by the combination method of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., the New York bankers, who have been so remarkably successful heretofore. The system is founded on correct rules of finance and is universally approved by the shrewdest operators. The orders of thousands of customers are massed into one immense capital, and operated as a great whole, dividing profits pro rata every month. In this way your customer can invest from $10 to $10,000 with equal proportionate success, and at the same time gain all the advantages of large capital and best skill in manipulating the market. This firm's new circular has "two unerring rules for success" and full explanations. $50 will make $250, or 5 per cent; $500 will success $3,000, and so on, according to the market. Stocks and bonds wanted. Deposits received. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City.

Nothing has ever been discovered to equal Dr. C. McLane's Celebrated Vermifuge for riding the human constitution of worms. It never fails—is simple and very inexpensive. Every druggist keeps it, but see the name of "Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh," on the wrapper, or you are being deceived.
