The New York Star (Dem) of Sunday morning, says of the gubernatorial canvass in that State:

"The week just closed has been a stirring one in local political circles. While the same apathy that was visible early in the week among Robinson's supporters has characterized the close, the fires in the Kelly camp have been kept burning brightly. There are now about one hundred and thirty John Kelly campaign clubs in the city, sixteen in Brooklyn, and probably twenty five to thirty more throughout the State. Before the close of the present month this number will be more than doubled. In several wards of this city splendid banners and transparencies have been raised in honor of the Shakespeare Hall nominee."

COL. JRO. W. FORNEY, who has just returned from a Western trip, was interviewed by a Gazette reporter in Cincinnati last Saturday. He was asked what the Western people say of Grant, and said:

"Every body is for Grant. The feeling for Grant seems to me to be irresistible. Many good men doubt and deplore the necessity of making him a candidate again, and many hope he will refuse to be a candidate. One element of his great strength is the incalculable and intense conduct of the extreme men of the S. U. For my part, and I do not think I stand alone, I constantly pity the Southern people. I know how wrong they have acted; but in the spirit of Christian charity I would try them again and again. I would do as Napoleon did. I would try them seventy and seventy times, simply because they are our own. They can do without us if they would, and we can do without them. If we were to divide the globe, I would say as much, even at the risk of offending some of my own friends. We are conquerors, more now than ever, and a great conqueror should always be tolerant and magnanimous. The Democrats are going to succeed, and I have not met one honest member of that party, who has not, in private conversation, admitted as much. Therefore I think that if such a policy of forgiveness could be enacted by Grant, it is in the word that he may be elected to a third term by a unanimous vote, North and South. Nothing wins in this life so much as love, particularly on the part of a great people."

Still Resisting to the Teeth the Injunction of the Cotton Order.

YELLOW FEVER.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 23.—10 a. m.—No new cases reported. There has been one death since last night; Herbert Ellisor. The weather is clear and warm.
There have been seven new cases reported, viz: Rev. Father Revelli, Maggie Murray, Bessie Anderson, Geo. Jerome, J. D. Allen, Harrietta Richer and John Bowles, the two last named colored. Three additional deaths, E. E. Marshall and wife and J. F. Cronan. Mrs. Prestidge's condition is more favorable.
The following telegram was received by the Board of Health, who telegraphed to Nashville for instructions: "Employ at once the best legal talent to be found in Memphis and resist, by all lawful means, the application made for an injunction and send me the name of the attorney you employ. Every process shall be exhausted to protect the lives and health of the people in the district contiguous to Memphis."
(Signed) J. D. PLUNKETT, "President Board of Health."

Among the contributions received by the Howards to-day are, $3,000 from the Chamber of Commerce, New York, and $539.67 from citizens of Columbus, Ohio.

But one death has occurred since last night—Archie P. Kehoe, son of the late Capt. P. M. Kehoe, who died beyond the city limits. In addition to the new cases reported to the Board of Health, the following persons were stricken with fever to-day:
Lytle Penn, Financial Reporter of Diamond Lodge, K. of H., and in charge of the Treasurer's office of the Street Railway Company; P. S. Simonds, an ex-policeman; Jesse Anderson, residing at the corner of Third and Jefferson; Mrs. John Bierman; R. T. Dabney, signal service officer, who, it was thought had a mild attack of fever about three weeks ago.
Miss Louie Bedford died last night of fever at Bailey Station, Tenn.
Fifteen nurses were assigned to duty to-day by the Howards. Weather clear and pleasant.
Dr. J. D. Plunkett, President of the State Board of Health, was lying in effigy to-night at the corner of Main and Madison streets. Attached to the caricature was a placard inscribed, "Up with Plunkett; down with order No. 6."

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—At the instance of the Postmaster General, Chief Special Agent Parker has telegraphed his deputy at Atlanta this. "The case of the shooting of the postmaster at Blackville requires immediate attention. The Postmaster General will abolish the office if the postmaster is not safe while performing his duty and is not protected by the authorities. Go yourself if possible."

Chattanooga Sidewalks.

If there is a denizen of Chattanooga who is not heartily ashamed of its sidewalks, he is certainly a very careless and indifferent specimen of humanity. The comfort and convenience of every resident of the city are directly affected by the condition of the sidewalks. It is not a matter of mere interest, or of mere city pride, but one that comes immediately home to all.
Winter will soon be upon us, with its snows and rains, and our people must trudge along through slop and mud, as they have done heretofore. It may be well enough for those who have become used to it, but for us poor devils who have not, it is really too bad.—Chattanooga Chronicle.
If they've got any sidewalks in that place, off of Market and one or two other principal streets, we have never been able to find them. Perhaps they were concealed in the mud and slop.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 22.—Jockey Club races, for the Bluegrass stakes, two year old fillies, three-quarters of a mile dash. There was a dead heat between Bye-and-Bye and Sly-Dance, Blue Lodge second. The second heat was won by Sly-Dance in 1:17.
The second race for the St. Ledger, two miles, was won by Lord Murphy by half a length, Buckner second, Aureolus third; time 3:34. Aureolus claimed a foul, but it was not allowed.
In the third race for the Ashdon purse, mile heats, the first heat was won by Shortline, second by Ben Hill.

ALABAMA.

SELMA, Sept. 22.—The Selma Gulf Railroad was sold under foreclosure to-day. The bidding was spirited. The Mobile and Montgomery Railroad's final bid of one hundred and twenty thousand dollars was raised one hundred dollars by Charles Williams, of Atlanta, for D. T. Sullivan, president and owner of the Peninsular Railroad, who was declared purchaser. The citizens of Selma are rejoiced at the prospect of a direct line to Pensacola Bay.
The Mobile and Montgomery Railroad did not bid as a company on the Selma and Gulf Railroad. The syndicate was composed of New York parties.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 23.—Special United States Deputy Marshal A. F. Davis was shot yesterday in Spartanburg by J. B. Panther, while serving a bench warrant issued in North Carolina, but made serviceable in Spartanburg District by Judge Bryan. Panther was shot in the leg by a colored man and is now in jail. Davis' thigh bone was broken.

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 23.—The Prohibitionists met in convention to-day and nominated Wm. L. Richardson for State Treasurer.

ARORA, Ill., Sept. 23.—A crowd of people, including 2,500 school children and 1,500 yeomen from the surrounding country, greeted the Presidential party on its arrival to-day. Congressman Sherwin introduced the party, and President Hayes, Gen. Sherman and Sheridan responded.

READING, Pa., Sept. 23.—J. Warren Woodward, State Supreme Court Judge, is dead.

FOREIGN NEWS.

PARIS, Sept. 23.—The bulletin des Halles reports that the new wheat threshed so far is unsatisfactory, both in yield and quality, being deficient, even in the districts where it was expected favorable. In several departments, new wheat brings from three to four francs quintal less than the old, some of it requiring several months' drying before it can be milled.
BRUSSELS, Sept. 23.—The Nouvelles de Douai states that M. Trere Orban, Minister of Foreign Affairs, has gone to Rome incognito to negotiate with the Vatican respecting the attitude of the Belgian clergy. "That journal says: 'Cardinal Nina, Papal Secretary of State, inclines to moderation, but the Jesuits are pushing matters to extremes. The Belgian Bishops have asked the Pope for precise instructions, which the Pope hesitates to give. The threatened refusal of the Sacraments by Bishops to the elementary school teachers who retain their posts under the new system has, so far, led to the resignation of only 100 out of a total of 7,500 teachers.'"

VIENNA, Sept. 23.—The conference between Bismarck and Andrassy undoubtedly contemplated the consolidation of the German and Austrian interests. The Russian story of the occupation of Bosnia and Herzegovina served perhaps, he said the mule began to either elevate himself behind, or lower himself before, he could hardly tell which. Capt. Kinzel stuck him, though, like a leech, and would not be damped.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 23.—Flour strong and higher, family $5.10-5.25. Wheat strong and higher, $1.05-1.10. Corn active, demand higher, 48c, but held higher at close. Oats active, firm and higher, 25 1/2-31c. Pork in fair demand, $9.25-9.50. Lard strong; current make, $1.00-1.05. Bulk meats quiet; shoulders held at 30c asked; short ribs, $5.50-5.65, closing at the inside price bid; short clear, none offered. Butter in good demand and a shade bid; fancy creamery, 25 1/2-26c; choice dairy, 24 1/2-25c; Western reserve, 14 1/2-15c; prime Central Ohio, 11 1/2-12c. Sugar firm; hards 9 1/2-10, white 8 1/2-9c; New Orleans 7-8c. Hogs inactive and lower; common, $2.75-3.00; light, $3.35-3.55; packing grades, $3.50-3.75; butchers, $3.70-3.75.

Okolonaisms.

"Hurrah for the Kemper county jury.
"It is a pity that every man who will talk such twaddle about secession as do the editors of the Okolonais States was not made a victim of the late war.—Litton (N. H.) Republic.
"Why, you immortal idiot! the Democratic party would be deader 'n Caesar's great grand-daddy if all the present believers in the right of secession had been rifle-balled in the late war."
"And the boys in blue will sink at the heels of the guards in gray, as the docile dog follows the beck of his master."
We hate your Union, and we will continue to hate it,
Until the right of secession is recognized.
Until Cuffy is caught by the nape of his neck and the seat of his trousers and pitched headlong out of politics;
Until Jefferson Davis can step into the Senate Chamber of the United States and help dictate laws that will undo all that your party did in the high hey-day of its deviltry.
"Barksdale was justified in shooting Dixon to death."
And never by voice or act of the Democracy shall Lee, the Patriot, be ranked with the Red-handed Traitor of Galena.
Or the name of Davis, the grand, heroic President of the old Confederacy, be coupled in song with that of the Sangamon Assassin of Liberty.
Let the Democracy read the Conservatives out of their councils;
Let them proclaim that the United States is NOT a Nation;
Let them swear by the Lord God Omnipotent THAT IT NEVER SHALL BE A NATION;
Let them teach the Radicals that they are ready to stand by this oath at whatever cost,
And all will yet be well.
