TILDEN is carrying counties in Thurman's pocket borough. SHERMAN, Blaine and Washburne will divide the Wisconsin delegation.

ZACH. CHANDLER is dead, but the presidential backbone is as solid as ever. JUDGE KEY's successor will not be appointed until after the Chicago convention.

THE democrats of New Hampshire hold their convention to-day, and those of Ohio to-morrow. THE president's cabinet was a remarkably ill-made piece of furniture.

It is to be hoped that the South Carolina pistol-whisky crusade will spread. It's one of the things that is doubly good when it is contagious. GEN. TOM YOUNG, of Ohio, claims eight of South Carolina's votes for Sherman.

THE exact decrease of the public debt for April was $12,078,070, and yet the government is wrong in its accounts a hundred million of dollars.

THERE is no punishment so severe for those people who are spreading the report of yellow fever in New Orleans and Memphis. The matter ought to be investigated and penalties dealt out with an unsparring hand.

GRANT's friends claim 417 votes on the R. S. ballot, Blaine's 333, and Sherman's 238. These figures look well, but the application of a principle of arithmetic shows the total to be 988, and, as there are only 756 in the convention, it is pretty evident somebody sees double.

THE Cincinnati Commercial says that Don Cameron has received letters from each delegate from Pennsylvania, and that they will all vote for Grant on the first ballot.

PRESIDENT HAYES is a pretty mild sort of a man, and it takes a long time to wake him up; but when you do once get him stirred a little, it takes him a long time to get over it.

THE statement that all Jews have been ordered to leave St. Petersburg within six hours is both affirmed and denied. An exceedingly awkward state of affairs might be developed if the order is true.

THE Kentucky Sunday law has created a sensation in Louisville. No kind of work can be done, and not even a restaurant can be kept open.

At midnight last Saturday, the police officers visited all the newspaper offices and procured the names of all those at work for presentation before the grand jury.

THE Rev. S. Hart Robinson was a zealous advocate of the bill and had much to do with its passage. Last Sunday the police visited the church of which he is pastor and procured the names of its sexton and organist.

They will also be indicted. RAILROAD MATTERS. VICKSBURG, May 4.—At the annual meeting of the directors of the Vicksburg and Meridian railway yesterday Thomas Regly was re-elected president.

The New York bondholders bid $334,000. the republican party, namely, partisan abuse in the minority report on this case. That the report insinuated that the ex-confederates, now senators, could not be trusted, but loyalty to the constitution, as understood by republican politicians, was loyalty to the republican party.

TENNESSEE REPUBLICANS

NASHVILLE, TENN., May 4. The convention to-morrow will be the largest one the republicans ever hold in Tennessee. Nearly every county in the state will be represented.

The prevailing sentiment in Middle and West Tennessee is for Grant. A large portion of East Tennessee is anti Grant. A vote was taken on the Nashville and Chattanooga train, yesterday, just as it was leaving the latter place.

The prospect is that a candidate for governor will be nominated, although there is some opposition. Hons. J. M. Thornburgh and L. C. Hook will go to Chicago as delegates-at-large.

By Senator Morgan (Ala.)—Providing that the president of the senate shall submit to the senate and votes, when assembled to count the votes for president and vice president, all packages purporting to contain the electoral vote.

By Senator Paddock (Neb.)—To increase the efficiency of the marine hospital service.

The bill appropriating $52,600 to pay Ben. Halladay's claim for losses as mail contractor by Indian depredations was again taken up.

Senator Vest (Tex.) supported the resolutions. He had heard no argument against them, except the usual argument of the republican party, namely, partisan abuse in the minority report on this case. That the report insinuated that the ex-confederates, now senators, could not be trusted, but loyalty to the constitution, as understood by republican politicians, was loyalty to the republican party.

Senator Vest (Mo.) then discussed the doctrine of res adjudicata, and in a colloquy with Senator Carpenter, maintained that it was not applicable to the senate's action. The constitution required the senate to see that each state had two senators.

The president to-day signed the army appropriation bill, and returned the deficiency bill to the house with the following veto message: "To the House of Representatives: After mature consideration of the bill entitled 'An act making appropriations to supply certain deficiencies in appropriations for the service of government, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, and for other purposes,' I return it to the house of representatives, in which it originated, with my objections to its passage.

WASHINGTON, May 4. Mr. Orth (Ind.) made a long personal explanation of his action regarding the Venezuela claims in 1870, and charged Mr. Springer (Ill.) with having investigated the matter without the authority of the house or the committee on foreign affairs.

Mr. Reagan (Texas), of the committee on commerce, reported the river and harbor appropriation bill, and it was ordered printed and recommended.

The president's veto of the immediate deficiency appropriation bill was received and read. It was listened to without manifestations of approval or disapproval.

Mr. Cobb (Ind.) moved its reference to the committee on appropriations, and that the bill lie on the table.

Mr. Whitthorne (Tenn.) moved its reference to the judiciary committee. While from a cursory reading of the message, he felt inclined to agree with the reasoning of the president as against the policy of riders, yet he believed the president had gone a step too far, and involved the privilege of the house.

The effect of leaving the bill on the table is mainly to postpone its consideration until the house sees fit to call it up.

The house then resumed the consideration of the bill amending the internal revenue laws. The amendment striking out the leakage clause of the bill was rejected.

Mr. Young (Tenn.) introduced a bill incorporating the Cherokee and Arkansas river railroad company. Mr. Hooker (Miss.) asked leave to report, from the committee on Indian affairs, a bill transferring the Indian bureau to the war department, but Mr. Conger (Mich.) objected.

The house then went into committee of the whole on the postoffice appropriation bill. It appropriates $38,676,420, being $1,94,500 below the estimates and $940,000 above the appropriation of last year.

Mr. Money (Miss.) moved to increase the appropriation for mail transportation on railroads $500,000. Rejected.

Mr. Blackburn (Ky.) opposed the amendment, showing that the expenses of this service for the first half of the current fiscal year were but $4,200,000.

No quorum voted on the amendment, and the committee rose without action on the bill, and the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 4. The house committee on Indian affairs to-day agreed to recommend the passage of the bill introduced by Mr. Wellborn (Texas) to transfer the Indian bureau to the war department, with an amendment dating the transfer July 1st, 1881, instead of 1880, as introduced.

The president to-day signed the army appropriation bill, and returned the deficiency bill to the house with the following veto message:

"To the House of Representatives: After mature consideration of the bill entitled 'An act making appropriations to supply certain deficiencies in appropriations for the service of government, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, and for other purposes,' I return it to the house of representatives, in which it originated, with my objections to its passage.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—At a meeting of the board of supervisors last evening, the judiciary committee, which had been instructed to take into consideration the utterances and addresses of Mayor Kallloch and report the proper action to be taken by the board, filed a long report, reviewing the history of the labor agitation and the part borne in it by Kallloch, finding that he has encouraged the lawless and discontented element, advised them to parade the streets, and endeavored to keep them in such disposition and temper as to commit an outbreak whenever it should suit his purposes.

The roll was then called, resulting in a unanimous vote for its adoption. A resolution was then adopted, authorizing the finance committee to cause judicious proceedings to be instituted against the mayor for his removal from office, and empowering them to employ counsel and prosecute the matter to a speedy termination.

Throughout the reading of the report and resolutions, Kallloch appeared cool and unmoved, seeming to consider only the dignity of his position as presiding officer of the board.

VIRGINIA.

New York, May 4.—A special from Richmond, Va., states: "A fire occurred this morning between 3 and 4 o'clock in the suburbs of Christiansburg, by which Martha Jones, colored, and her five children were burned to death. The woman is believed to have set fire to the house herself for the purpose of destroying the whole family. She was evidently deranged. She refused to give entrance to any person to the house, and by the time it could be broken into, the fire had obtained such headway no one could enter.

Placing my objection to the bill on this feature of its frame, I forbear any comment upon the important general and permanent legislation which it contains as a matter for specific and independent consideration. [Signed.] "RUTHERFORD B. HAYES. "Executive Mansion, May 4, '80."

At the cabinet meeting, Secretary Everts read a communication from the United States minister to Mexico, stating that two Mexican officers pursued two deserters across the border into Texas, fired upon them and accidentally shot a female, and that the officers were arrested for the violation of both federal and state laws.

Capt. Howgate's Arctic expedition, just authorized by congress, was also considered. The bill provides for fifty persons in all to go on the vessel from the army and navy. Both Secretary Ramsey and Secretary Thompson were a little doubtful about detailing men for this service.
