THURSDAY, OCT. 21, 1880. Republican Nominations for 1880.

FOR PRESIDENT, JAMES A. GARFIELD, Of Ohio.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, CHESTER A. ARTHUR, Of New York.

ELECTORAL TICKET FOR the State-at-large. GEO. MANEY, of Davidson. A. A. TAYLOR, of Carter.

FOR GOVERNOR, ALVIN HAWKINS. For Congress, 1st DISTRICT—A. H. PETERSON. 2ND DISTRICT—L. C. ROUSE. 3RD DISTRICT—H. B. CASE.

Legislative Ticket. For Senator—T. B. McLemore. For Joint Representative—Alex. Hecker.

The most ridiculously, absurd campaign lie that has ever been circulated in East Tennessee is that going the rounds that Taylor, in the first, and Williams, in the second, have been bull-dozed, or attempted to be, by republicans.

agency we know not, that Wright is to be withdrawn and his vote thrown to Wilson. Carter, the democratic candidate in the senatorial district, just west of there, was openly proclaiming this at London, a day or two ago. The Ohio and Indiana elections would have benefited the regulars if the committee had not thrown up the white flag so openly. The Memphis Appeal also acknowledges Wright's defeat when it proposes a compromise on a third candidate.

The bolters are issuing addresses throughout the state, of which the following is a copy:

us by the dictatorial tone of the partisan organs of the democratic party and by the sneering manner in which they prescribe to the Irish citizen as to how he shall cast his vote.

We care not whether our fellow Irish citizens vote the democratic or republican ticket, for there is no great national issue at stake; but, for our honor and reputation as a liberty loving, independent people, we appeal to them to cast their votes free and untrammelled as their conscience dictates, and not to be driven to the polls like a set of soulless serfs, with a perjured ballot—the emblem of their slavery—in their hands.

If we Irish-Americans do not prove ourselves worthy of freedom here, we never can achieve the liberation of Ireland for the men who obtain the blessing of a free government and prostitute the ballot, the most sacred of institutions, will not command the respect, the support, or sympathy of Americans in their struggle to get rid of oppression in the land of their birth.

As we have said, we do not presume to dictate to any man whether he shall vote for a democrat or republican, but we earnestly urge upon our Irish readers to cast aside party trammels and party leadership, and to vote as their judgment and conscience dictate, honestly and independently in the sight of God and man.

No mirror ever yet threw back A more repulsive sight Than that that that are decayed and black; Or one more pure and bright Than rows of pearls, that all may vaunt Who put their faith in SOZODONT.

THE STORM'S WORK. DETROIT, MICH., Oct. 20.—From Frankfort comes tidings of the total loss of the schooners J. H. Hartzell and the Hope. The former was loaded with iron ore and the latter with provisions. The Hartzell is a total wreck. Her stewardess perished in the rigging. The rest of the crew were saved. The Hope is ashore, high and dry, but may be got off. The crew are safe. The schooner Eclipse, of Chicago, is also ashore north of Ludington. The crew are all safe. Several vessels are reported aground on St. Clair flats, but will be relieved soon. Vessels are now moving freely in all directions.

HOLLAND, MICH., Oct. 20.—A correspondent of the Associated Press reports to have been to the shore and along the beach for five miles he found large quantities of apples, headings and other freight; also, portions of an upper deck, stanchions and rail, gang planks and latches and one door panel, with the name of the steamer "Alpha," also, two life-preservers, an oar and chain, marked with a stencil, "steamer Alpha." A piano also came ashore during the night, which is recognized by an agent of the Goodrich line as belonging to the "Alpha." The body of a lady came ashore, which was recognized as that of Mrs. Bradley. Capt. Butler, of the Goodrich line, has arrived at the wreck, and watchmen are patrolling the shore for the wreck or bodies. The wind has gone down but the sea is running heavy. Small pieces of cabin, upper deck, furniture and berths are coming ashore.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—The excitement and suspense which has been hourly increasing respecting the fate of the Alpha, changed to profound sorrow on the part of those whose friends were known or believed to be on board, when to-day's news not only failed to report her safety, but announced the certainty of her destruction. The offices of the Goodrich line have been filled with mournful faces. It is not deemed possible that any one can have been saved from the wreck. Had a raft been made it could hardly have lived five minutes amid the force beating of the waves, and none probably will ever tell the story of the wreck. Vessel men believe she struck a rock somewhere off the east shore and went to pieces some distance from shore. There is much complaint of the laxity of the company in having no list of the passengers. The crew was thirty strong. It is stated that when the vessel left Muskegon she had seventy passengers, and at Grand Haven she took five, mostly women. Goodrich, however, thinks the passengers did not exceed 25 or perhaps 20 in number.

Why the politicians should select the Irish, any more than the Germans or Italians, to operate upon, we are at a loss to know, unless it be that their credulity of the intelligence and independence of the former was so low a standard that they felt confident that they would be a pliant victim in the hands of political knives and tricksters.

We would ask those speakers and writers who would have the Irish to vote as orthodox in his political as in his religious faith, what has the democratic party done for the Irish that they should bow down in allegiance before its chiefs and slavishly vote at their behest, even though their nominal ally be a notorious blackleg, a poseur to the abuse of political tricksters and mountebanks.
