

FIRST EDITION. 11:30 P. M.

Wonder if any thing crooked will be discovered in the state officers at Nashville?

At least eight months ago the CHRONICLE predicted a tie in the next United States senate.

ZACH. TAYLOR, florist elect from Fayette and Shelby, is a greenbacker, but will act with the republicans.

One of the first duties of the republican house will be to inquire into the "shoe string" district of Mississippi.

The Louisville connection, instead of injuring the Emory Gap, will be of substantial benefit to that enterprise.

The next legislature will want to know why warrants couldn't be paid when there was money in the treasury.

Republicans can do without a senator from Tennessee. Mr. Arthur will decide a few questions in the new congress.

The left handed Ole Bull of the first district was in town yesterday seeking consolation among his friends. We hope he got it.

The election of a republican governor and the large number of legislators sent Tennessee bonds up from four to five cents.

All prominent democratic papers in the country are denouncing Kelly and Barnum for trying to create a disturbance over the electoral vote.

In the midst of the political hurly-burly the reduction of passenger rates by the E. T., V & G. R. R., did not escape the notice of the people.

Everybody is claiming credit for the victory in East Tennessee. Well, every republican did have something to do with it, and the CHRONICLE also.

Some of our democratic friends are consoling themselves with the reflection that there is another presidential election in 1884. Well, for a wonder, this principle of theirs is true.

Judge Gault, of Nashville; a prominent man who has been voting the democratic ticket, will vote with us in the future. It is the beginning of the exodus of old line whigs from democracy.

The American used the party whip unsparringly in the last canvass, and occasionally brutally. Now the most conspicuous piece of furniture in its sanctum is a hoghead of the acetest, slickest soft soap.

One of the financial sensations of the day is the recent "corner" in pork, managed by Armour & Co., of Chicago, by which seven millions of money was cleared. It is said to have been one of the boldest, best managed transactions ever known in that city of "corners."

The result has shown that the CHRONICLE's estimates of the Tennessee vote, for which it was abused, were correct at the time given. Hawkins' strength did not change any during the closing days of the canvass, and in our estimate we missed it probably 1,000 or 2,000. The tide set in to Wright after the Indiana election, and consequently our figures were changed. I was one of the things that are always probable in a canvass, though the CHRONICLE's veracity has never yet been successfully impugned.

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM has proved itself to be the greatest medicinal remedy for healing the lungs, purifying the blood and retarding the tone of the liver. It cures the phlegm which is raised from the lungs, thereby the cough, and pleurisy, Night sweats and difficulty of breathing, all the above symptoms will be cured, and the whole system again restored to health. For sale by all Medicine Dealers.

Very Cruz Mementoes. Mr. Sam. B. Dow showed us yesterday some mementoes picked up from the wreck of the steamer Vera Cruz, a few months ago. They consist of articles of cheap jewelry, and it is very cheap, indeed. It was picked up by the bushel where it had washed ashore. It was being taken to Mexico to trade to the Mexicans. The mementoes were sent to Mr. Dow by mail from Mr. Pitts, the man who occupies his (Mr. Dow's) farm on the coast of Florida. He is the same man who found the body of Gen. Torbert, who was lost on the steamer.

Oyster Supper. The Ladies of the First Baptist Church will give an Oyster Supper, Wednesday and Thursday nights, November 10 and 11th, at the store formerly occupied by Loveman & Co. All the delicacies of the season will be furnished. Tickets can be obtained at W. & W. E. Williams and Ramage's bookstores, and Lyons & McCampbell's drug store. The ladies will serve lunch from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. to-day.

To the humble and credulous as well as to the rich and skeptical, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a true and welcome friend. Price 25 cents.

NEW YORK.

The Electoral Vote All Right.

ALBANY, Nov. 10.—Edgar K. Appgar, member of the democratic state committee and of the executive committee of that body, has written a letter to the Argus stating that there has been no meeting held since the day of election either of the democratic state committee or of the executive committee, nor have notices been sent members of either committee for any such meeting in the future. He also says: "Any action taken by members of the committee whether officers or otherwise, is individual action, which the committee has not authorized and for which it can not be held responsible. In so grave a matter as calling into question the vote of New York in an electoral college, too great caution can not be exercised. The only way in which any contest could be made with even a shadow of probable success would be by the rejection of republican electoral tickets on which the word 'electors' has been twice printed. This, I believe, can not, and should not, be done. To change the result in any other way, more than 20,000 separate cases of fraudulent or corrupt voting would have to be proved, an evident impossibility. It certainly can not be expected that the present state board of canvassers will declare otherwise than is shown by the face of the returns, and my view of democratic doctrine leads me to hold that congress can not go behind the seal of the state to investigate fraud at the polls in the choice of presidential electors."

ROUNDT, N. Y., Nov. 10.—The chairman of the Ulster county democratic committee has served upon the board of canvassers of that county a protest against counting the republican electoral ballots, claiming that those ballots do not conform to the requirements of the statute, in that they contain both caption and endorsement, and that the names of the several candidates are printed "in plain type with letters of uniform size." Ulster county, heretofore largely democratic, on the 2d inst. gave the Garfield electors 130 majority.

THE PHILP-GARFIELD LIBEL CASE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Examination was held to-day, by Police Justice Morgan, in the district attorney's office, of Samuel Morey and Robert Lindsey, arrested for alleged perjury in the Philp-Garfield libel case. Assistant District Attorney Bell, Commissioner Davenport and George M. Bliss were present. The accused were in close custody of detectives. The magistrate ordered the room cleared of the spectators. John W. Morey, a police officer, of Boston, testified that Samuel S. Morey never had an uncle named H. L. Morey. Lindsey was next examined. He said his real name was Jas. O'Brien, was 21 years of age, a native of Washington, and was employed as a laborer in the gas house at Georgetown. He took the alias of Morey and registered from Cumberland.

NOT TRUE TO HIS PROMISE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Richard Spring, a young lawyer, said to be from South Carolina, was arrested yesterday on the charge of betrayal, under promise of marriage, preferred by Emily Hines. His friends claim in a most positive manner that the charge is an attempt to levy blackmail.

FOREIGN.

STATE OF AFFAIRS IN THE EAST.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—A Paris dispatch says: President Grevy has accepted the resignations of the ministers, and has sent for Gambetta and Leon Say. A Dublin dispatch says the authorities have consented to allow fifty armed men to go to Loughmuck to cut Mr. Boycott's crops, and will afford them full protection and give a cavalry escort.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—Premier Ferry opposed M. Laisant's proposal to investigate Gen. De Cluse's conduct on the ground that as a law suit was pending it would be unfair to prejudice the question by parliamentary inquiry.

DUBLIN, Nov. 9.—Four troops of the Hussars were dispatched hence for Ballinrobe, by special trains, at 2 o'clock this morning. Four hundred infantry have just arrived at Ballinrobe and will encamp near Soughmuck. These precautions are taken in view of the intention of northern orangemen to send laborers to harvest the crops of Mr. Boycott. Lord Ernest, the agent for whom the local peasantry, at the instigation of the land league, refused to work. The government will protect a moderate force of laborers, but refuse to permit anything approaching an armed demonstration which would certainly provoke a collision.

Rev. R. R. Burts, of Manata, Fla., says: "Tutt's Pills are held in high repute as a liver regulator in hot climate. In fact, I hardly know how we could get along without them. Chills and fever have not yet been heard of here. Our people take one or two doses of the pills and follow it with fifteen grains of Quinine, divided in three doses, during the day. Theague never returns."

DELAYED RETURNS COMING IN FROM THE FAIRS!

Some Startling Facts!!! Will Marshall & Co. Come to Time?

In the Daily Chronicle of October 17th, Marshall & Co., after making many reckless statements, published the following propositions: "First—If Mr. Cummins will prove that ONE of his statements about either of the fairs is true, we agree to quit business at once. Second—If Mr. Cummins will show that we have misrepresented in ONE particular, we agree to close our doors at once. Come, sir; clear yourself of the brand. Respectfully, MARSHALL & Co."

To-day I present some facts, "clear" myself of the "brand," and have more to follow at an early day. Whose statements are true and whose "false"? We'll see.

1st. I asserted that I made no entries at the Bristol Border Fair, and Marshall & Co. claimed that I did. Below is a statement from the Secretary of the Bristol Border Fair:

"BRISTOL, Tenn., Oct. 27th, 1880. W. F. CUMMINS, Esq., Knoxville, Tenn.—Dear Sir: Upon examination of the Bristol Border Fair Association books and lists of entries of articles for exhibition, I did not find any entry of articles of any kind in any department, made by you for competition for the year 1880.

Yours, &c. H. S. GOOKIN, Secretary B. B. Fair."

2nd. I claimed that I entered no instruments at the Jonesboro Fair, and Marshall & Co. claimed that I did. Below I give the report of the Secretary of said Fair:

"JONESBORO, Tenn., Nov. 9th, 1880. The only entry made by Mr. W. F. Cummins, of Knoxville, Tenn., at the Washington County Fair for 1880, was 'Display of Musical Instruments,' for which a Diploma was awarded and issued. J. D. SLEMONS, Secretary."

You see no instruments were entered; the entry was for "Display" only.

3rd. Marshall & Co. claim that I promised a young man a situation if he secured the Diplomas for me at the Greene County Fair, and I assert most emphatically that the charge is utterly false. Mr. J. F. Shepherd is the "young man" in question and below he gives his own statement:

"KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 6th, 1880. I hereby assert that I never said or wrote to any person that you promised me a situation if I succeeded in getting the Diplomas for you at the Greeneville Fair. My instructions were simply to see that you had fair play. Yours, respectfully, JAS. F. SHEPHERD."

The above is much more proof than is necessary to close Marshall & Co. up and retire them from business on their own proposition, but I have more testimony still to come.

Yours, &c. W. F. CUMMINS, nov11-d&wit.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 10.—W. R. Moore's (republican) majority over Casey Young (democrat) is 844.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—The Mississippi valley commission met here yesterday. Committee were appointed and the commission adjourned until to-day.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The canvass of New York county commenced to-day by a board of aldermen sitting as supervisors. A protest was presented by Nicholas Miller against the vote for Benj. Wood for congress in the fifth district, on the ground of fraud and illegally endorsed ballots.

D'BULL'S COUGH SYRUP. Almost Young Again. My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy, inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family.—A lady in Providence, R. I. Journal. All kinds of stomach and bowel troubles are cured by free use of Tate's Spring water. Peter Kern keeps it.
