FOREIGN.

LONDON, October 9.—A dispatch to the Times from Constantinople, says: Lord Dufferin, British ambassador, in reply to the Pope's letter in relation to the withdrawal of the British troops from Egypt, says that a portion of the British force has already left Egypt, and that the desire of the government is that the remainder shall follow as soon as possible.

CAIRO, October 9.—Sultan Pasha, president of the Chamber of Notables, thinks that a Turkish intervention in Egypt would mean anarchy, and maintains that the cost of a joint compromise is extravagant, and that 400,000 pounds might be saved annually by the substitution of efficient nations for foreign officials.

WASHINGTON, October 9.—A clause in the naval appropriation act, approved August 5th, 1882, directs the Secretary of the Navy to appoint a commission of three persons, one from the line of the navy, one from the staff, and a third from civil life, to consider and report to the next session of Congress upon the question whether it is advisable to sell any of the navy yards, and if so, which.

NEW ORLEANS, October 9.—A Picayune dispatch from Pensacola, Fla., reports sixty-four new cases and two deaths from yellow fever on Saturday. Total number cases, 1,175; deaths, 105.

Statement of the National Cotton Exchange.

NEW ORLEANS, October 9.—The September statement of the National Cotton Exchange has been issued, showing overland shipments direct to mills, for the month of 3,234 bales, against 21,328 last year.

Horribly Mutilated

PETERSBURG, Va., October 9.—The body of Richard Sangston, a prominent Englishman, living near Prospect Station on the Norfolk and Western Railroad, and widely known throughout the State, was found this morning some miles from his home, horribly mutilated.

The Comet.

PHELPS, N. Y., October 9.—Professor Brooke, of the Red House Observatory, detected great changes in the head of the comet this morning, which were not seen during the observations of yesterday.

A Denial.

RICHMOND, Va., October 9.—Inquiries have been received here concerning the truth of the report circulated in the north that Messrs. Smith and Wise had fought a duel to-day. As there is no truth in the report as far as is known here.

MINOR DISPATCHES.

IN CHANCERY COURT AT RUTLEDGE.

W. B. Dyer, Ex'r, &c., vs. James L. Dyer and others.

IN THIS CAUSE IT APPEARS FROM THE bill, which is sworn to by the defendants, James L. Dyer, Z. T. Dyer, L. D. Dyer, George N. Dyer, John L. Dyer, Ezra Dyer, John Gwin and his wife, Elizabeth Gwin, are non-residents of the State of Tennessee, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon them. It is, therefore, ordered by the Clerk and Master that publication be made in the Knoxville Whig and Chronicle, a newspaper published in the city of Knoxville, Tennessee, for four consecutive weeks, to appear before the Chancery Court at Rutledge, on or before the third Monday of October, 1882, if before the 15th day of said month and answer complainant's bill, or the same will be taken as confessed and set down for hearing ex parte as to them. August 30, 1882.
