WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1870.

Trustees Meeting.

The Trustees of the East Tennessee University are requested to meet next Saturday, at 3 o'clock P. M., in the People's Bank.

Theft of Money.

Frank Smith, colored, stole eleven dollars and sixty cents from the till of P. Kern & Co., on Monday morning. He gave leg bail, but was caught and lodged in jail. The money was recovered.

Wheat Prospects.

The prospects at present for an abundant crop of wheat is very flattering. A good crop this season will relieve our farmers of their present embarrassment on account of the "tightness" of money matters.

Large Club.

We tender our thanks to C. W. Karnes, Esq., for a large club of subscribers. We are making a paper for the people, and are glad that our efforts are appreciated. We hope our friends will continue adding to our list.

Common School Laws.

We are indebted to the Union and American office at Nashville for a copy of the Laws relating to Common Schools in Tennessee, compiled by order of County Court of Davidson County. It is a neat pamphlet, well printed, and is sold at 25 cents per single copy, or $15 per thousand.

A First Class Hotel.

Those who visit Nashville will find at the City Hotel excellent accommodations. The host, Gen. Joel A. Battle, gives his personal attention to the wants of his guests, which is a sufficient guarantee to all who know him. If you wish to spend a few days pleasantly in the City of Rocks, go to the City Hotel.

School Laws.

We have received from the office of the Union and American, Nashville, Tenn., a copy of "A Compilation of the Laws of Tennessee Defining the Duties of Commissioners, Clerks and Courts in relation to Common Schools," which we think a convenient and useful pamphlet. Price 25 cents per copy, or fifteen dollars per hundred.

Dr. J. Nat. Lytle.

We are indebted to this gentleman for a rousing club of subscribers from Dandridge. If all our friends will do just as well as the Doctor our list will soon exceed that of any other paper in East Tennessee. He will accept our thanks, with a pledge that the CHRONICLE will never sell out, and will always endeavor to render itself a welcome and worthy visitor to the firesides of all who are opposed to Modern Democracy.

Ornamental Hair Work.

We saw the other day some beautiful specimens of hair jewelry, splendidly mounted in gold, the hair work done by Mrs. E. F. Britton, and the gold mounting by Mr. Jos. Wood, jeweler, of this city. Mrs. Britton is an artist in this line, and ladies wishing breast-pins, earrings, &c., can be accommodated by leaving their orders at Mrs. Haire's, corner of Church and Crooked streets. Gentlemen's watch-guards made in any style. Specimens can be seen at her residence.

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.

Grand Jubilee Among the Colored People of Knoxville.

According to previous announcement, the colored people of Knoxville and vicinity celebrated the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment on the 20th inst., by a procession, speeches, &c. The procession was formed at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Main street, under the direction of the Chief Marshal, Dr. J. B. Young, and notwithstanding the rain commenced falling just at that time, was a very creditable affair. The principal features were the appearance of the colored fire companies, in uniform, with their engines handsomely decorated with flags, evergreens, flowers, &c. One of the engines bore a large sized likeness of President Lincoln, and the other, in addition to Mr. Lincoln's, also bore the likeness of President Grant. Another feature was a triumphal car, handsomely decorated, upon which sat thirty-seven colored girls, tastefully attired, representing the States of the Union. Preceded by the brass band, the procession moved through the line of march previously marked out, to Methodist Hill, where a stand had been prepared for the occasion. Owing to the rain, the large crowd was forced to adjourn to the Court House, where every available space in the lower court room and vestibule was filled. Here the Fifteenth Amendment was read by Dr. J. B. Young. A number of girls were then introduced, and recited an original poem in a highly creditable manner. Original poems were also read by James Scott and Wm. Franklin, both of whom were warmly applauded. M. J. R. Gentle was then introduced, and made a few well timed remarks, in a plain, common sense way, which were well received. He was followed by Rev. G. W. Le Vere, who made a speech which was alike honorable to his head and heart. While he is a quiet man, attending closely to his calling, he is nevertheless a close observer of men and things, and knows how to clothe his ideas in language which will be appreciated by an audience. He showed up some of the fallacies which certain parties are trying to palm off upon the colored people, in such a way as to have a salutary effect. His speech was listened to with interest, and was frequently interrupted with applause. Rev. Wm. Howell was the next speaker, who also made some good points, showing himself acquainted with the political history of the country, as well as the Scriptures. At the close of Mr. Howell's speech, loud calls were made for Rev. John C. Tate, of Anderson county, familiarly known as "Bishop Tate." He is a man of fine natural ability, and possesses accomplishments which might well be envied by the most talented. His speech, though short, was fraught with sound doctrine, and interspersed with inimitable witticisms, making it altogether a spicy affair. At times the applause which greeted him was so enthusiastic as to compel him to desist for the moment. Rev. J. P. Jay also made a fine speech, and was vociferously cheered. Other speeches were made, and we regret that our space forbids a fuller notice. Taking it all in all, the affair was highly successful. The rain prevented a great many from being present who would have been otherwise, yet there was a large number out. The procession reflected credit upon those managing it, and was indeed a very handsome affair. The speeches were all good, and will tell upon the future interests of those who heard them. We cannot close this notice without speaking of one other matter. We have never seen a gathering of this kind, either among the whites or the colored people, which was marked by such uniformly good behavior as this. While enthusiasm ran high, as might naturally be expected, in view of the great event being celebrated, when speaking was over the large crowd dispersed, going to their homes quietly and soberly. No reeling drunkards were present to disturb the harmony of the occasion. The exercises were closed by the vast audience joining in singing, "Praise God from whom all blessing flow," &c., to the tune of "Old Hundred." The genuine melody in that splendid old song, as rendered on this occasion, showed that it proceeded from hearts that fully comprehended its import, and it never applied more aptly than on this occasion.

Decorating Day.

The day set apart by the American people for the annual decoration of the graves of the Federal dead is May the 30th. The time will soon come again, and we should be thinking about this matter, and be in readiness to do honor to the occasion by turning out en masse on that day and strewing with the flowers of spring, the graves of the gallant dead. Let the surviving comrades of our dead heroes come out. Let their widows, mothers, sisters and friends come out. Let all who love republican liberty and self-sacrificing devotion to human freedom come out. Let all who are now friendly to our restored Union come out, and assist in making this floral offering to the memory of the fallen heroes who wore the blue. Let a meeting be called without delay, and committees appointed who will see that there is nothing left undone which should be done, and do any and everything necessary for the successful observance of this day which is set apart for the objects above mentioned.

The Custom House.

We learn from a private letter from the Hon. Horace Maynard, that Mr. A. B. Mullett will be here in a few days to select a site for the new Custom House. From what Mr. Maynard says of him, we are convinced that it will be useless for those who may be expecting the location of the house on their premises to try to obtain an extortionate price for a lot upon which to erect it. We are satisfied that Mr. Mullett will act for the best interest of the citizens; that he is competent, and will not likely be biased in his judgment by matters of trifling importance; but we are also of the opinion that he will carefully guard the interests of the Government, and that he will not allow any one two or three prices for a lot, when they can be had for reasonable figures in any suitable location in the city. Work will be commenced on this building soon, and if finished according to design will be a credit to the Government and an ornament to the metropolis of East Tennessee.

Natural Curiosity.

Mr. H. J. Kinzel has in his possession a white mouse, which was plowed up in a field near Miller Town, in this county. The mouse is entirely white, except the eyes and the tips of the ears, which are red. Whether this is a new species in this country, or a freak of nature, is something we do not understand.

For Sale.

A number of cheap and desirable lots, improved and unimproved, in the different additions to Knoxville. Also several fine residences in the city, which are offered for a short time only, and can be had at a bargain. Maps can be seen and full descriptions furnished at our office. MUNSON & BAILEY, Real Estate Agents and Conveyancers.

The Biorama.

Schuman's Biorama has been exhibited in this city for two days, and will give their concluding entertainment at Hoxie's Hall this evening. The newspapers everywhere speak in high terms of the Biorama, and deservedly. The varied scenes are explained by an able delineator, Mr. G. R. Harding, whose graceful flow of language evinces previous experience as a "talkist" of no mean ability.

Teachers Meeting.

The Knoxville Teachers' Association met at the Female Institute on Saturday, at 10 A. M. Opened with prayer by Prof. Butler. Minutes of the preceding meeting read and approved. The first election of Officers under the Constitution resulted as follows:

President, Prof. M. C. Butler; First Vice President, Prof. R. L. Kirkpatrick; Second Vice President, John M. Love; Secretary, Prof. J. V. Bradford; Treasurer, Prof. D. C. Hommel.

Prof. Payne read report of the Committee on Public Schools, which was received and referred back for amendment.

After some general discussion in reference to the proposed convention of teachers of East Tennessee, and of other topics, the Association adjourned till next Saturday at 10 A. M.

Personal.

The many friends of Samuel Walker, Lieutenant U. S. A., who has so acceptably discharged the duties of his position for the past five years, in our midst, will be pained to learn of the death of his father, Hon. Nathaniel Walker, which occurred on the 6th inst., at his home in Butler, Pa. From the Butler Eagle we extract the following notice of Mr. Walker's life: "Mr. Nathaniel Walker, whose death is announced in this paper, was well and favorably known to most of the older class of our citizens. The announcement of his demise will be read with sadness by all. He was a man of strong and decided convictions; always frank and candid in his ways. He has been for many years sorely afflicted, and for the last four or five years unable to leave his room or bed. He served our people in a public capacity with general satisfaction. His mind was well stored with knowledge. His social qualities were excellent. He always strove to discharge his whole Christian duty, and was in truth a good man."

Nervous Headache, Liver Complaint, &c.

The Brain being the most delicate and sensitive of all our organs, is necessarily more or less affected by all our bodily ailments. A headache is often the first symptom of a serious disease. If the nervous system is affected, there is always trouble at its source in the pericranium. And it may be here remarked that as the nervous fibre pervades the entire frame, no part of the physical structure can be affected without the nerves suffering sympathetically. Liver complaint of every type affects the brain. Sometimes the effect is stupor, confusion of ideas, hypochondriasis; sometimes persistent or periodical headache. In any case, the best remedy that can be taken is PLANTATION BITTERS. In headache proceeding from indigestion or biliousness, or both, the stomachic and antibilious properties of the preparation will soon relieve the torture, by removing the cause. If the complaint is purely nervous—in other words, if it has originated in the nervous system, and is not the result of sympathy, the BITTERS will be equally efficacious. So light and delicate are all the preparations made from SEA MOSS PARIN that it is invaluable for invalids and all those requiring a light and easily digested food.

CHAMBERLAIN & ALBERS are always alive, and keep up with every new improvement in their line of business. We were shown the other day a new apparatus, called Matthews' Syphon bottle, which will prove a good thing, we know. They bottle Vichy, Congress or Soda waters, so as to preserve them sparkling and effervescent. Our friends away at the springs for the summer can now take their soda water with them, and cool it in their springs, and have it as fresh as from their ice cold fountain.

SCHOOL FUND.

Notice to County Trustees. COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, Nashville, Tenn., April 19th, 1870.

Notice is hereby given to the County Trustees of the State, that I am now ready to issue to them a warrant on the State Treasurer for the amount of school money due the counties respectively, for the years 1868 and 1869, and only await an official notice from the Clerks of the County Courts that said Trustees have given the bond required by section 1,089 of the Code. If the Trustees will ascertain the amount due to each teacher in their respective counties, and will notify me, I will issue warrants for such amounts, so they can be transferred immediately by the Trustees to the teachers in payment of what is due them. G. W. BLACKBURN, Comptroller.

Notice.

ASSESSOR'S OFFICE, U. S. INTERNAL REVENUE, Second District Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn., April 9, 1870. In compliance with Section 19, Act July 13th, 1860, United States Revenue Laws, notice is hereby given that the annual list of assessments in the 2d Collection District, Tennessee, for the year 1869, payable May 1, 1870, is now completed and open for inspection at my office, until the 1st of May next.

Those who may desire to avail themselves of the privilege of an appeal from any erroneous or excessive valuations, assessments or enumerations, made by Assistant Assessors, can attend at my office, over 1st National Bank, Knoxville, from the 22nd to the 30th of April, inclusive, where appeals will be considered by me. G. W. ROSS, Assessor 2d District, Tenn.

BARRY & McDANIEL keep nice cold soda water, that can't be beat.

Who Shall be our Circuit Judge?

The man who is to hold this high and responsible position should certainly be honest and capable. If he is endowed with these important qualifications, he is the man the people want, irrespective of and above party bias.

In the person of Capt. D. K. Young, of Anderson county, I am sure we would have the man. He is a gentleman of fine natural intellect, who has had an active, extensive and lucrative practice for twenty years, in the course of which he has had much to do with a large number of the Circuit, and where he is best known he is much stronger than any other aspirant for the Judgeship.

Then, let us unite upon him, not as a member of any party, but the party who always have and always will continue the supporters of the American flag. And if we have any convention, let it be of the people, not of a party; and let them consult together upon the important and vital subject of putting the right man in the right place. G. W. KEITH.

A foreign army of over five thousand persons landed in the city of New York the day before yesterday, and at this moment ten steamers are preparing to leave Liverpool with another army of six thousand and five hundred emigrants—all, or nearly all, bound for the same sheltering wharf of Castle Garden, and no doubt destined to be shortly reinforced by whatever vessels are now on their way westward. The majority of these are probably from England and Ireland, since Germany has her own line of steamers. The Cork Examiner states that four steamships had just left that harbor, in one week, with about a thousand emigrants for America, and laments that the coercion act will only have the effect of increasing those departures of the people. If "solitude" may be called "peace," as in the times of Tacitus, Ireland will probably be quiet enough very shortly. The continued emigration from that country, after the preceding exodus of millions, is an extraordinary spectacle in the social history of the present age.—N. Y. Times.

The bill creating the county of Lincoln, in Mississippi, has passed both Houses and will undoubtedly be approved by the Governor.

The desire for happiness is natural; the desire for holiness is supernatural.

MISS SHIRK, one of the young women who, during the Vallandigham campaign, rode in a cart labeled "White Husbands or None," has changed her mind somewhat, and married one Lee A. Kelly, who, to the slight disadvantage of being a State prison convict, adds the serious one of being a black nigger.

FINANCIAL.

Knoxville Quotations of Money and Stocks.

OFFICE CHRONICLE, Tuesday, April 26, 1870. Gold opened in New York yesterday at 1.134 and closed at 1.111. Buying price here is from 2 to 3 cents lower, according to size of lots offered. But little is being offered, scarcely enough to meet the local demand. Tennessee money remains the same as last week's quotations. Local demand has fallen off considerably, as the greater part of the taxes are paid, necessitating the holding over of the balance until fall, which will reduce the buying price. Tennessee Bonds were quoted in New York on the 21st at 60 1/2 for the old, and 59 1/2 for new—a big advance on both denominations. Yesterday the quotations were 60 1/2 for old, and 59 1/2 for new. The price during the past week has varied more or less every day. The fluctuation is said to be caused by the operators on Wall street, who, holding large amounts, are gradually unloading by selling in large quantities, and buying back in small quantities. There has been a slight advance in Government Securities, but not enough to make any change here.
