

LOCAL NEWS

The Circulation of the Journal is DOUBLE that of any other paper published above St. Anthony Falls...

We would respectfully request all business men and others wishing any kind of Job Printing, to call and examine our extensive stock of new material...

All kinds of Job printing, in English, German or Norwegian, executed at this office. Send in your orders.

Boy Wanted.—A capable, industrious boy, of from 16 to 18 years of age, wanted at this office to learn the printing trade...

Beaten.—We notice by the St. Peter Advertiser that Prof. Silver, who flourished so extensively here, had both his horses beaten at St. Peter recently...

Discouraged.—D. W. Orent, on trial for the larceny of a pair of government mules at this place in July last, was discharged last week...

Mails.—Two mails are now received daily from St. Paul—one at noon and another by the evening train...

Good Shot.—Mr. Charles Taylor killed three wild geese yesterday morning at a single shot, among the islands opposite Tobey's mill.

Gone East.—Mr. Levi Wheeler left for the East on Monday, where he intends remaining. Mr. Wheeler takes with him the warm wishes of hosts of friends.

Figure.—A stevedore took place in front of the Montana saloon on Saturday, but as no heads were broken we will not go into particulars.

Military Goods.—Miss F. E. Clark has just returned from the East with a fine lot of fashionable bonnets, hats, and military goods...

Dark.—Last Sabbath night was dark as a "stock of black cats." A good many pious people made very impious exclamations while running into fences, embracing and disarranging themselves generally in their efforts to find their way home from church.

Failed.—When Gen. Gorman was here lately, he quietly intimated to some of the soldiers that if they would organize a "Columbia Club" at St. Cloud they could have the exclusive control of the Federal patronage of this part of the District...

Attempted Robbery.—On Sabbath night some parties entered T. C. McClure's bank and attempted to force their way into his safe. They had packed a quantity of powder into the key-hole, but this seemed not to have worked well...

All Right.—A Chicago correspondent of the Minneapolis Chronicle says that the greatest confidence is felt in the honest management of the Crocker Art Association.

Word to Country Merchants.—COMM-STOCK invites the attention of country dealers to the largest stock of Dry Goods, embracing every grade and class of staple domestic fabrics...

Monday last Irving Todd, editor of the Commercial was presented with a twelve pound baby. We wish the baby and its parents long life and prosperity.

Ah! Todd, Todd! Never did we think when last we met you but little more than one short year ago, an innocent, unphilosophical, gushing youth, that you would come to this? We presume you now devote your attention chiefly to the "WALKER" case. Eh?

We have received the first two numbers of the St. Paul Commercial, an excellent weekly published by Ramsey & Hall. It contains a vast amount of commercial news of great interest to merchants and dealers throughout the State...

The Red Jacket Bitters is no worthless article, but it is what it claims to be, a real, genuine medicinal preparation of sterling virtues. The name "Bitters" is too often used to cover a villainous compound of poor whiskey and some bitter drug. Do not confound Red Jacket with this class.

The new time table of the St. Paul and Pacific Railroad will be found in our advertising columns.

Notice from the Adjutant Generals office, of special interest to soldiers, will be found on the fourth page of this week's paper.

Mr. C. A. Gilman entered upon his duties as Receiver of the Land Office at this place on last Saturday.

See the card of Clark & Anderson. Both are known as skillful workmen, and their shops centrally located.

See notice of sale of Clark & Dam's planing mill.

ACCIDENT.—Joe. Bondway, living near Maine Prairie, had his right leg broken above the knee a few days since. His team ran away, throwing him out, and the wheels passed over his leg. Dr. Tollman set the broken limb.

RUNAWAYS.—On Saturday forenoon, Capt. Laog's team started from the grove in a hurry, without a driver, and dashed on to Washington avenue and the bridge.

Here they met Frank Remoley's team, and the pole of the wagon with the runaway team just grazed the shoulder of Frank's horse—making a narrow escape. Fortunately no special damage was done.

In an hour or two afterwards, two horse teams belonging to Peter Hahn, living at St. Martin, ran away from Hayward's Livery Stable. The wagon was loaded with stove pipe, a crate of crockery and other articles. The stove pipe was scattered miscellaneous along St. Germain street as the team dashed along toward Edlebrock's store, at which place they caught the posts that supported the awning, tearing them away. A yoke of oxen had been tied to one of the posts, and just about that time there was a heterogeneous mass of horses, awning, wagons, oxen, potatoes, stove pipe, crockery, barrels, and things generally.

The Register.—Quite a number of our Democratic friends are gazing with hungry eyes on the Register of the Land Office, now so well and satisfactorily filled by Hon. H. C. Wait. It is said that Judge Evans is quite willing to waive his extremely slim chances of being State Senator this fall for the fat berth of the Register's office. Hon. N. F. Barnes, it is currently rumored, has intimated to Mr. Norton that he himself might be persuaded to accept the labors of the position in consideration of the salary and fees. This is pressed as being some equivalent for the nomination for the Senate which he did not get. In various quarters there are whispers that our present worthy Mayor, Judge Gregory, has been watching for an opportunity to exchange the barren chair of the Mayornity for the fattest one of the Register's office. If it were not that the Judge is a Democrat, and the Democrats have an historic repugnance to holding Federal offices, we might be tempted to lend an ear to this rumor. Last, but not least, the Hon. J. P. Wilson, is said to be "figuring" for the position. As it is well known that J. P. Wilson can "figure" out almost anything; (we refer to Col. Shaw, of the Merchants,) it would be surprising if he could not this time "figure" himself in. But as he started the other day for the pine country of the Upper Mississippi, we guess he considers his chances rather slim. But go in, gentlemen; it is very amusing to outsiders.

An Unfortunate Being.—An individual residing in the country had applied at the last term of the District Court for a divorce from the wife of Bonum. Thinking that of course it would be granted, he brought with him another woman to whom he proposed being united in the sacred bonds of domestic felicity. Making a little detour he went to Platte River, where his wife that-was-to-be had some grain, and putting on a load of wheat, which he considered just the same as his own, started for town. This was on Saturday last, and about dark he drew near to Sims & Arnold's mill, and about then and there his wagon stuck in a mud hole. Unhitching his team and leaving his wheat he went to a farmers near by and spent the night. On returning to his wagon next morning, he discovered that during the night some person had stolen all his wheat. Burdened with these ill tidings he came to town, and proceeded to Judge Evans, office to get his license for marriage No. 2. The Judge among other questions asked to see his divorce; the anxious individual replied that he did not have it, but that "all was right." When he went to look it up, however, he found that Judge McKelvy had declined to separate him from the partner of his joys and sorrows whom he had left at home, and that "all was not right." Then came a recital of his woes showing that "Misfortune marked him for her own." "Only a little while ago," he said, "during a thunder storm a fine mare and colt were drenched feroz enough to run into the lake and drown themselves—there was $300 gone. Then I got a load of wheat that belonged to the woman I was to marry, and on Saturday night that was stolen. And now, I had applied for a divorce from my wife, and thinking of course I should get it, brought along another woman whom I intended to marry. But I didn't get the divorce—and its just my infernal luck!" He left town in disgust.

MASONS.—Dispensation for a Holy Royal Arch Chapter has been granted to a constitutional number of brethren of this place, to be named Saint Cloud Chapter. The organization will be perfected on Thursday evening, 11th inst., with the following principal officers: Most Excellent High Priest W. A. B. Taylor. Most Excellent High King Oscar Curry. Most Excellent High Scribe W. P. Highy. Brethren of the Holy Royal Arch from abroad are expected to be in attendance, and a good time generally is looked for.

THEY HAVE COME.—Joseph Edlebrock has received a splendid lot of new goods, purchased in New York and Boston. It embraces staple dry goods, ladies' dress goods in great variety, boots, shoes, fur hats and caps, gloves, notions, quincenares, &c., &c. An examination of Mr. Edlebrock's stock will well repay purchasers.

HUGE TURNIP.—Mr. M. Inkholder of this county, raised a turnip which measures 32 inches the long way, 27 inches around, and weighs 114 pounds. It can be seen at Loye's store.

NOTICE.—All persons having library books will bring them in at once to West's bookstore.

NARROW.—We are compelled to use a smaller sized paper this week, as it was impossible to obtain a supply of our regular size.
