Oster Coffins.

The Saturday Review gives the following description of the latest London sensation.

"The waning amusements of the season have received an interesting addition in the exhibition of coffins at the Duke of Sutherland's.

When the ship Chaplain ran on the rock the shock was heard at Fort Cassin, four miles distant.

San Francisco Bay promises shortly to be the scene of a somewhat novel contest—that is, a contest of power, not of speed.

There is a bee-hive on the eastern slope of the San Fernando range, in Los Angeles county, Cal., which parties have several times tried to capture, and have always failed.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The Key-Note of Health. The health and vigor of the several organs of the body depend upon the simple condition that the functions which pertain to each shall be regularly and actively performed.

The specimens of coffins exhibited at Stafford House are about a dozen in number, and notice is given that they are merely suggestive and do not practically fulfill all the conditions essential to their principal use.

THRESHING MACHINE.

NICHOLS, SHEPARD & CO.'S "Vibrator" Thresher.

The Brilliant Success of this Grain-Saving, Time-Saving THRESHER, is unprecedented in the annals of Farm Machinery.

THRESHERMEN FIND it highly advantageous to run a machine that has no "Beaters," "Pickers," or "Aprons" that handle Damp Grain, Long Straw, Headings, Flax, Timothy, Millet and all such difficult grain and seeds, with ENTIRE EASE AND GREAT ECONOMY.

On the whole it may be supposed that anyone, judging by his feelings when alive, might prefer, as a matter of taste, to be lightly swathed in herbs and osiers rather than screwed down roughly in a hard, tight box; but after all, the question of the fittest mode of interment concerns the survivors rather than the departed one, and it is necessary to recognize at the outset that, where there is anything like natural feeling, it is hopeless to think of reconciling the misery of the event with any kind of aesthetic enjoyment.

By the recent death of an uncle in France, a Chicago newsboy has become heir to a large property and the title of Marquis. The boy's father—Aymar De Belloy—was at one time a prominent grain merchant in Chicago, and failing, left his family in distress, from which the tidings from France will speedily lift them.

LEGAL.
