It appearing from the bill which is sworn to in this case that the defendants C W

Johnson, John Finnie, Jesse Finnie and other heirs-at-law, and legatees of John G. Finnie, deceased, heirs-at-law and legatees of Joseph

State of Tennessee and residences unknown;

Frank M. Smith.

The Knoxville correspondent of the Chattanooga Times pays the following merited compliment to a gentleman who has been sojourning for some time past in Memphis and made many friends here:

Had I the ear of Governor Hawkins

I would suggest to him the impor tance of appointing Mr. Frank M.

Smith Superintendent of Public In struction, who is now engaged in the normal work in North Carolina. He is an East Tennesseean and is a native of Knox county, of which he was Su perintendent a few years since, a posi tion he worthily filled. There is no better educator perhaps in the State and none more familiar with the practical operations of our common school system, which he has studied with a great deal of care. He has been in the service of the ablest scholars of the State, and performed valuable service in the school insti tutes under the administration of Superintendent Trousdale. He is an

MOB LAW.

George Ellis Swung to a

Sycamore.

Another Chapter in the Catletts-burg Horror.

CINCINNATI, June 3.—A Times-Star

special from Catlettsburg, Ky., says:

A masked mob at 3 o'clock this morn ing came by rail from Ashland, and took George Ellis out of the jail at Catlettsburg, and took him to Ash land, near the scene of the murder of the Gibbons girls last December, and hanged him to a Sycamore tree. The mob was masked. George Ellis was convicted of manslaughter yesterday on an indictment for the murder of these girls. It was his testimony that convicted Wm. Neal and Ellis Craft, who are now in jail at Lexington, Ky., and George Ellis and these two were taken by escort to Catlettsburg, under a military escort last January, to escape a mob.

A Secret Circular to Promote a

Mahone Movement.

The Usual Railroad News—The

Cattle and Horse Trade.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—The Republi cans' Dallas special says: Circulars have been received here from Admin istration circles at Washington, look ing to a Mahone movement in Texas.

The circulars are sent to Republicans, Greenbackers and Independents, and favor Wash Jones for Governor. A request is made to forward to Wash ington a list of counties that can be carried against the Democracy, a list of those that are doubtful, and the amount of money that will be needed in a vigorous, red-hot cam paign. Nearly all the opponents to the Democracy here are out-spoken against the candidacy of Governor Roberts. They say he has little strength, is self-nominated and has promulgated his own platform. It is evident that things are being shaped to support Jones. Another special

REED'S LAST MOTION.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—No opinion can be delivered on Reed's last moti on the Guiteau case until Monday. It is believed that the decision will be very short, and there is no doubt but that the entertained motion will be positively denied.

HIS LAST JUMP.

The execution of Sandy Matthews yesterday, a few minutes after 1 o'clock p.m., was cleverly done. Sandy spoke to the crowd twenty-two minutes in regular backwoods darky preacher style, jostling, swinging his arms, stepping back and forth, and rolling out his words in that sing-song fashion peculiar to the illiterate colored man when exhorting his brethren in the brush. At the end of his harangue Sandy stepped upon the trap door at the edge of the scaffold, held on one side by iron hinges and on the other by a small wooden pin
