Nervous debility, the curse of the American people, immediately yields to the action of Brown's Iron Bitters.

Ladies and sickly girls requiring a non-alcoholic, gentle stimulant, will find Brown's Iron Bitters beneficial.

"Wake up, my man," said an East-Tennessee railroad conductor to a sleeping passenger the other evening; "wake up, I say."

"Where am I going?" That's good one. Dinty see I'm drunk? I'm going to Knoxville, of course.

The following bit of clever sarcasm we find in a contemporary: "A man who says he is not able to pay for a paper ought to go at once to the county court and have his wife appointed his guardian."

Remember that a newspaper is worth more to a family than a three months school. A family that takes a paper lives, as it were, in a house set upon a hill, from whose windows he can see all that is going on in the world.

DEGREES CONFERRED. Rev. J. J. Manker, of the Holston Conference M. E. Church, and Rev. W. W. Bays, of the M. E. Church, South, have been honored with the degree of D. D.—the former by the University of Tennessee at Knoxville and the latter by Emory and Henry College, Emory, Virginia.

Rev. F. Richardson, editor of the Holston Methodist, has received the degree of M. A. from Emory and Henry College.

The degree of D. D. has been conferred on Rev. Jas. Atkins, Jr., President of Asheville (N. C.) Female College, by Rutherford College.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE 1882. The Presiding Elders District in the Holston Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which have not yet held conferences for 1882, will hold them as follows:

Franklin District, at Webster, N. C., July 20-23. Aheville District, at Big Ivy, Buchanan Co., N. C.

From the above list it will be seen that two are in Tennessee, two in Virginia, and two in North Carolina.

A Letter to Chairman Childress and Wallace, Asking that They Agree to Eliminate and Set Aside the Democratic Platform.

Special to the Nashville Banner. GALLATIN, July 4.—I saw, to-day, a letter addressed to Mr. Wallace and Mr. Childress, chairman of the Low-tax and State-credit Democratic parties, by a prominent and life-long Democrat, asking and suggesting a meeting of the executive committees of both parties at an early day, and that an agreement be made by both parties to eliminate and set aside the platform adopted on June 20th from the gubernatorial canvass, that every member of the next General Assembly be elected with full and explicit instructions from their constituents, thus referring the whole matter to the people who can send members fully instructed to the next Legislature.

It is notorious that there is dissatisfaction with the platform on all sides. It would, or ought to, satisfy all parties, and they could then unite on Gen. Bate and carry his banner triumphantly through to success.

The President has removed Collector Woodcock of the Fifth Revenue District of Tennessee, and put in his place A. M. Hughes, Jr., of Maury county.

A Sermon by Guitau's Spiritual Adviser—Hope for the Vildest Sinner—Baptism of Guitau's Remains—The Autumn.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The little church in South Washington of which Rev. Dr. Hicks, Guitau's spiritual adviser, pastor was crowded to overflowing this morning. As was expected, Dr. Hicks' based his sermon upon the events of the past week. While he did not mention names or refer directly to any particular person, yet he was thoroughly understood by those present. He took the ground that the vildest sinner might be saved through the instrumentality of divine power. He discussed the probability of a murderer who repented at the last moment entering the kingdom of Heaven. He then proceeded to say how cruel and uncharitable it was to put a fellow-man to death simply because popular opinion demanded it.

During his remarks he said he believed that if Jesus Christ was upon earth now there were people living who would crucify Him within a week. This statement caused much unfavorable comment among the congregation. At times he was decidedly bitter in his denunciations of the people of the present day, whom he said were in some instances barbarous and heathenish.

He staked up and down the platform in a very excited manner. Several of the audience left the church before the services concluded, and expressed themselves disgusted with the discourse.

On Saturday afternoon Guitau's body was buried in the northeast corridor of the jail. The brick flooring was taken up and a grave seven feet deep was dug, into which the remains of the wretched assassin were deposited, far beyond the reach of the body-snatchers. Six of the jail prisoners acted as pall-bearers. There was no ceremony of any kind, and the task was gone through with in the most expeditious and practical manner under the direction of Warden Crocker. Rev. Dr. Hicks and John W. Guitau witnessed the interment, and when it was concluded the latter laid a crown of white immortelles on the grave. Not a word was spoken, and there was no one to shed a tear.

Mrs. Sewell came to the jail, accompanied by Miss Chevalier, and begged to be permitted to see the burial of her brother, but she was not admitted. She went away, leaving some flower-pieces, with the request that they be put on the grave.

There is a good deal of speculation about the condition of Guitau's brain, but beyond the fact that it weighed 49 ounces and that its condition and appearance were nothing at all like those of a normal brain, nothing is known. Dr. Damb is quoted as saying that the membrane which enveloped the brain had an unhealthy appearance. The microscopic examination will probably not be concluded for two or three days.

WHITE AND BLACK. THE YOUNG DAUGHTER OF A WEALTHY RESIDENT OF HOLYOKE MARRIES THE WHOOP MAN.

HARTFORD, June 16.—To-day Adolphus Hall, a full-blooded negro, was arrested here for bigamy. On May 13 he married Mamie Grover, a white girl, daughter of William Grover, superintendent of mills in Holyoke, Mass., he being already married to Jennie Chase Hall, colored. Two years ago Hall and his first wife were employed in the stewards' department of the Trinity College in this city. They quarreled frequently, and in the fall of 1881 Hall abandoned her and fled to town. In the early part of the present year he went to Holyoke, Mass., and got employment on the place of a wealthy resident of that town. Adjoining the premises is the Young Ladies' High School. Miss Grover was a pupil there, and had opportunity of frequently seeing Hall at his work.

At length they met, and the girl became infatuated with him. Her father's commands and threats were unheeded, and at every opportunity she had clandestine meetings with Hall. Soon afterward the couple fled to Springfield, Mass., and were married by the Rev. Mr. Garrett, a retired white clergyman. Mamie falsely swearing that she was over 18 years of age. Her father learned of this clandestine marriage the next day, and looked up his daughter and used every effort to bring about a divorce, but he was stoutly opposed by Mamie, who would not consent to a separation. Hall fled. Recently Mr. Grover heard of Hall's first marriage, and steps were taken to arrest him for bigamy. He was arrested this morning on arriving here from Meriden, and on refusing to go to Massachusetts without a requisition, he was locked up here. He professes a willingness to do anything which may be necessary for a legal separation from Mamie. Hall is 30 years of age, quick-witted and cautious. Mamie is 17, a blonde, handsome and accomplished. Her father is rich.

After the cyclone in the southwestern portion of Holt county, Ark., a child about three years old, with both legs and one arm broken, was found near Towry Springs, on the Line road. The child was cared for by a family whose name is unknown, and will doubtless get well. No one in that section knows the little waif, or from whence it came. It is supposed to have been brought a great distance in the cyclone.
