

The Morristown Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1883.

Local Notes and Other News.

Fruitful of trouble—Green apples.

Morristown schools begin on the 20th.

Wheat is moving lively at $1.00, and corn in demand at 50 cents.

The native melon has appeared and is greatly sought after.

Van Hest & Bro. burned a kiln of 350,000 brick last week.

Milk cows for sale. Apply to Aug 5th.

Over 3,500 Georgia melons have been sold in Morristown within the last few weeks.

George Noe, at Turley's Mills, is said to be the finest horse-shoer in the country.

Col. Daniel Briscoe, of Knoxville, now in New York, has our thanks for late copies of New York papers.

In the sanitary committee doing anything? The condition of the town does not seem to improve much.

One hundred and sixty persons are camped at Mooreburg Springs, several of whom are from Morristown.

J. C. Mathes & Co. shipped one hundred and forty-five coops of poultry last month, or a total of 7,000 chickens and ducks.

D. W. C. Davis, the popular and enterprising jeweler, received an invoice of new and attractive jewelry last week of unique and handsome designs.

We regret our inability to accept an invitation to spend a week at Galbraith's Springs—a very pleasant place, with a fine chalybeate spring that is rapidly becoming known as one of our leading summer resorts.

The editor of the Baby Hill (Nev.) Mining News, in announcing a new volume, says the founder of the paper is dead, his successor in the insane asylum, and himself fighting the world, bullets and the devil. The wretch!

Officers Mackey and Fairchild of Knoxville were in town a portion of last week, looking for the trail of a criminal who is wanted for murder. They subsequently ascertained that their man was in jail at Asheville, N. C.

The depot at Bridgeport was entered by burglars on the night of the 25th ultimo, and the safe opened. No money was secured, however, and beyond the theft of a few articles of little value, the robbery was a failure.

To-morrow (Thursday) is the day of the Inter-State Tournament at Warm Springs, N. C. A number of our people will go over to witness the knightly contest. Round trip tickets will be sold from this place, but at what rates we failed to learn.

We learn our thrifty little neighboring town, Whitesburg, is on a boom. A steam flouring mill is to be erected, a weekly newspaper published, and there is talk of incorporating the place. Here's a bumper to Whitesburg; we love 'er as much as ever.

The August term of the Circuit Court convened Monday, Judge Rose presiding. The docket is unusually large and it is thought an extra session will be necessary. The town was alive with people Monday, and the horse trader was in his happiest strain.

It isn't the lack of money, business or social position that deters the young man of to-day from declaring his love to the lady most worthy in his eyes and marrying her at once. It is the solemn thought that he will have to sit at the head of the table and carve. There's the rub.

Marshall Barry has been engaged for several days past, in enumerating the population of Morristown. So far the result is very flattering and shows a remarkable growth in the town since 1880. We will give whatever information the enumeration may afford when it is completed.

Prof. Mack's dancing school is well patronized. Lessons are given Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights weekly at the Opera House. Outside of the regular instruction each occasion affords a pleasant time for the members of the class. The Professor himself is a jovial, pleasant gentleman, of 300 avoirdupois.

The miasmatic ponds about town are continually growing worse. Sickness will increase in proportion. Steps should be taken to get rid of them. Turkey creek is in a filthy condition and should be looked after also. The Corporation cannot expect to thrive without it keeps itself in a healthy condition.

Old Nancy Stiffey, colored, living near Turley's Mills, Gralager county, comes to the front as one of the "oldest inhabitants." According to those who know her best, she is one hundred and ten years old. Her health is still good, she walks about as usual, and bids fair of scoring a round six twenty.

The store of D. T. Witt, at Witt's Foundry, was broken into by burglars a few nights since. The extent of the robbery was not learned. A suspicious character was arrested at Mossy Creek soon afterwards, but subsequently made his escape. He is doubtless belonged to the gang that has been raiding various places in the surrounding country for weeks.

The valuable mill property of W. R. Fine, in Cocke county, was totally destroyed by fire on the morning of July 31. The building and machinery was new, and the loss is reckoned at $4,000, with no insurance. Had Mr. Fine protected himself by taking a policy in the Knoxville Fire Insurance Company the weight of his loss would not have fallen so heavily upon him.

T. R. Eekle's dwelling house near White Pine was consumed by fire on the 27th ultimo, together with most of the household effects. Loss about $2,000. Mr. Eekle is one of Jefferson county's most esteemed citizens and we regret to learn of his misfortune. Only a few days before the fire occurred his wife was seriously injured by a runaway team, and he had not recovered from the first misfortune before he was overtaken by the second.

THE STATE NORMAL.

The following circular of interest to us of the First Congressional District, comes to us from State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Col. Thomas H. Paine:

"You are hereby appointed and requested to act as one of the Board of Examiners for the First Congressional District, which will hold a Competitive Examination at Greenville, in the county of Greene, of such candidates as may present themselves for examination in the branches required in a Circular issued from this office May 1st, 1883, which is herewith enclosed. The candidate making the highest average in said examination as determined by the Board (taking the standard of 100) will be entitled to receive the certificate of appointment to the Scholarship provided by the Peabody Education Fund in the State Normal College at Nashville. You are referred to the Circular of May 1st for the directions as to such examination, which will be held August 21st, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and at such place in the town of Greenville as the Chairman of the Board may designate. The following candidates said Board, the first named being Chairman, viz: Supt. Geo. B. Anderson, Prof. W. M. Wright, Prof. W. Lucas, Prof. W. L. McSpadden, Prof. J. G. McFerrin. Three members will constitute a quorum to act, and in the event any member should be absent, the Chairman shall fill the vacancy until he shall secure a quorum. Should the Chairman decline to act the next one named will act as Chairman."

Miss Hattie McClure and son, T. B. McClure, of Nashville, are in the city, stopping with relatives.

Prof. J. M. Hook, of Memphis, with his family, has been at the Cain House for several weeks.

Frank L. Montgomery, of Leadvale, made a pleasant call while in the city last week.

M. H. Rankin was called to his home at Hills Sunday in consequence of the alarming illness of his mother.

A. A. Legg, of Marietta, Ga., returned home last week from Grainger county, where he had been visiting relatives.

The charming Misses Emma Legg and Nettie Tate, of Rutledge, are visiting friends in the city, the guests of Mrs. J. F. Geolston.

Mr. Jay C. Brown is still very low with typhoid fever. His wife and children returned from a visit North last week.

Miss Hattie Neal, of Knoxville, and Miss Carrie McKee, of Nashville, two excellent and fascinating young ladies, are visiting Miss Ada Thompson of this place.

Rev. R. M. Hickey, pastor, was unable to fill the pulpit of the Methodist Church Sunday an account of sickness. He is again confined for several days with general debility, but not dangerous.

Geo. A. Rice, who has been engaged in agricultural pursuits for several years, near Witt's Foundry, has returned to Morristown to live. Welcome, Jim; may your days among us be fruitful and many.

Miss Ella T. Gilliam, a beautiful and bewitching belle of Atlanta, Ga., spent a portion of Monday in the city, on some business to be transacted.

"On motion of the Attorney General for instructions from the court, as to the term in which the case certified by the clerk of this court, 'C. H. Anderson, J. P., recording testimony, $4.00.' is ordered by the court, the Chief Justice, Judge Street, as follows: The currying, that the said term is not properly chargeable, the same not being expressly allowed by any law or statute, and is therefore dismissed." Judges Freeman and Turley dissenting.

P. P. Pickard, Comptroller.

SOUTHERN EXPOSITION.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 1.—To-day is general public holiday there being no business done whatever. With the first streak of daylight crowds of people began pouring into the city from every point of the compass. Trains were doubled up and by 9 o'clock Main street was so full that it was difficult to pass along the sidewalk. The Presidential party left the Galt House in carriages, escorted by a body of police and military organizations, and moved by the most direct route to the Exposition. Their way was a perfect ovation the entire distance—thousands of people cheered their distinguished visitors passed them. The great main building, capable of holding 30,000 people, was filled completely but the crowd was thick for comfort. President Davenport of the Exposition welcomed the President. President Arthur graciously responded and concluded by starting the vast machinery, including the Exposition opened. The crowd was wild with enthusiasm. The Presidential party left for Chicago to night. The managers of the Exposition were most agreeably surprised at the outlook for the first day.

County Correspondence.

(This is the GAZETTE'S Public Forum, upon which all who have anything pertinent, timely and interesting to say, on topics of current interest, may stand and give their independent opinions to the people, the writers being responsible for their own sentiments and statements. Correspondents are cordially invited, especially from every point in Hamilton and the adjoining counties, to give us items of news and local occurrences in their respective neighborhoods. We politely ask that it be brief, concise and to the point.)

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

PAPER MILL, August 4, 1883. To the Editor of The Morristown Gazette: In your issue of August 1 I see a request that teachers and others interested in the public schools of Hamilton county send short reports of the opening of schools, and such other information as would be of interest to those engaged in the great work of education. I wish to say that School No. 2, in District No. 19, has been in session two weeks. We have a good log house, built by the patrons of the school, and every thing in order without expending a dollar of the public money. The house is situated near C. J. Burnett's saw and grist mill. The directors are: C. J. Burnett, E. L. Long and Jas. Wright. The enrollment has already reached seventy with a prospect of its reaching ninety or even one hundred. We are endeavoring to work up a uniformity of text-books in our school, and am glad to say we are having success. Our school is alive to the question of uniformity, and with the co-operation of directors and parents the amount of work in the school is steadily being increased. Hoping to hear, through the columns of your excellent paper, from other interested in the public schools of the county, I am very respectfully, etc., C. W. M.

THORN HILL NOTES.

THORN HILL, Tenn., July 28, 1883. To the Editor of The Morristown Gazette: Messrs. Monroe and Oliver, two excellent stock dealers, who were met with rather a serious accident a few days since. They were attempting to yoke a couple of bulls, they became uncontrollable and ran away, passing through a large stack and rider fence, crippling Monroe seriously, but not fatally. Oliver made his escape with a skinned shin. The pair of Short horns are new for sale.

PERSONAL.

Capt. R. M. Johnson, the wide-awake traveling salesman for the firm of McNulty, Egan, Lillard & Co. of Knoxville, Tenn., is in with us for a few days.

Mrs. J. L. Jennings, Miss Manie Jennings and Miss Dollie Easley, of Covington, Ky., are the guests of relatives in this place.

Mrs. L. K. Johnson, accompanied by her niece, Miss Bulah Campbell, of Morristown, Tenn., are spending the heated term with relatives of this village.

Mr. J. E. Mayer, of Cincinnati, O., is mingling among friends of old Thorn Hill—the place of his birth and boyhood days. Respectfully,

NORTH CHURCH.

A WONDERFUL CURE.

A remarkable cure of paralysis, equivalent almost to a miracle, as given in the American, has excited widespread interest. Col. Wade being overwhelmed with inquiries as to the medicine, sends forth the following formula, which can be furnished by any good druggist:

DEAR SIR—I send you a copy of the prescription used by me for paralysis: Loidio potash, half ounce.

Fluid extract, black hellebore, one ounce.

Glycerine, one and a half ounces.

Distilled water, q. s. to four ounces.

Mix and shake. Dose, teaspoonful 3 or 4 times a day.

Powder's solution arsenic, one ounce.

Dose, (1) drop for a week, then increase dose to (2) drops. Use medicine dropper.

Each of the above to be taken separately (the arsenic first), in wine glass of water three times a day, after meals.

Nearly every sense slight, incoherence, taste (i. e. flavor of food), hearing, etc., were impaired. I improved in all particulars in two months. I had taken the above (except night), which suddenly improved four days after discontinuing the remedies, which I had taken regularly for two months.

Hoping to hear as good results from this, I am, yours truly, D. F. WADE.

IMPORTANT TO JUSTICES.

The following circular has been issued by the Comptroller:

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, NASHVILLE, July 24, 1883.—Justices of the Peace all over the State are claiming a fee of $1 each for reading testimony of witnesses (in criminal cases) to writing, under an opinion which is published in 8 Baxter, page 288, which was the dissenting opinion of Judge Freeman and Turley. The majority opinion of the three other Judges was not published in any case.

"On motion of the Attorney General for instructions from the court, as to the term in which the case certified by the clerk of this court, 'C. H. Anderson, J. P., recording testimony, $4.00.' is ordered by the court, the Chief Justice, Judge Street, as follows: The currying, that the said term is not properly chargeable, the same not being expressly allowed by any law or statute, and is therefore dismissed." Judges Freeman and Turley dissenting.

P. P. PICKARD, Comptroller.

ORANGES AND FLORIDA.

BETTER THAN BREEZES AND BLOSSOMS—UNDER A NEW FLAG.

Ever the balmy air and orange groves of Florida fail to keep the people full of happiness and comfort. Art must help nature everywhere—in the tropics as among the pines of the North.

"To all whom it may concern," writes Dr. J. G. Walker, of Fort Dale, Fla., "is a Parker's Tonic. It seems to have a special effect, and most of the current ailments of Florida are cured in it. In the case of a delicate, dyspeptic young lady, with the most gratifying results. It seems to accomplish with ease what the usual prescriptions and treatment for that miserable malady 'dyspepsia' is unable to do. I am also glad to state that the Tonic has greatly relieved me personally of a long-standing chronic condition of the stomach of long standing. It is the best medicine and invigorant I have ever used."

Messrs. Hixon & Co., call special attention to the fact that after April 16, 1882, the same style of this preparation will hereafter be simply known as "Parker's Tonic" and is changed to the reasons that unprincipled dealers are constantly deceiving their patrons by substituting inferior preparations under the name of Hixon & Co.'s Tonic. We are sure that our friends will agree with us as to the propriety of the change. There will be no more "Parker's Tonic" in the market. All bottles remaining in the hands of Hixon & Co. will be marked with the name of Hixon & Co. and the signature of Hixon & Co. is at the bottom of the outside wrapper.

FOR INFORMATION APPLY AT THE OFFICE OF GREGG & COMPANY.

It is the first successful attempt to lift the subject-matter of the struggle of the White Man and the Red Man from the common level of cheap news and crude works of border warfare to the plane of standard and representative English literature.

It is historical and authentic; with the license of the story-teller, the author has blended the ore of the historian.

It is comprehensive and complete, presenting the cream of the literature of Border Warfare.

Its illustrations are a distinguishing feature in artistic excellence, they are superior to any collection of engravings ever before used to illustrate an American plot, and add very largely to the interest and value of the work.

No other book presents so comprehensive a view of the struggles of the White and Red races for the possession of this Continent.

No other book of adventure approaches it in vividness of description and vigor of style, accuracy of detail, and fascination of the story.

In all the details of type, paper, binding, and illustration, it is fully up to the standard of the best publishers, and appeals to the eye through the garbure of beauty, as well as to the intellect through its high literary tone and dramatic power.
