TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 27, 1862.

Ignorance the Cause of Secession.

A correspondent remarks that in travelling through a noted rebel district in Missouri he saw in a route of one hundred and twenty miles but one half-finished church and not one school house. This keeping the masses in ignorance is a part of the tactics of the cotton oligarchs. They wish to keep free schools out of the country, to keep up high rates of postage and to make churches few and far between, so as to reduce the people to the same deplorable ignorance that exists in Great Britain. They copy faithfully the example of their aristocratic patterns. One of the first deeds of Governor Harris was to rob the State of the fund of $2,000,000 which had been created for the education of her children. Destroy the schools and suppress newspapers, and thus render the people fit to be duped by corrupt leaders. Such is the devilish scheme of secession.

The editor of the Milledgeville (Ga.) Union says:

"We would rather make our home in revolutionary Mexico OR IN DESPOTIC AUSTRIA, than dwell in the Union." That is exactly the unnatural crime we charge upon you. You prefer Austrian despotism to American freedom! This is your own confession. Infamous avowal. It is not enough to subjugate a wretch who could utter sentiments so revolting. Extermination is his proper doom. He is unfit to pollute the earth.

The Memphis Appeal of the 17th inst.

contains two advertisements, one of which offers thirty dollars reward for a lost six-inch repeater, and the other offers fifty dollars for a likely mulatto woman thirty-five years old. Pistols seem to go off in Dixie better than darters.

That "Last Drop."

The Memphis Advance of the 12th inst. makes this very notable confession, which is not inapplicable to some blustering skin-flint rebels in this city. No one act, such as the one of refusal to accredit the Government and receive freely Confederate notes, has ever been more generally condemned or censured. The act committed only by Union men, would have been charged not only to disloyalty, but it would have been denounced and stigmatized as HIGH TREASON! But, so far as we have heard particular names mentioned in this connection, they have been individuals who were first and foremost to involve the country in the revolution; they were those who resolved to proclaim that they would spend their "last dime," and "spill their last drop of blood."

"Southern bloods," as the rebels call themselves, are queer creatures. The Raleigh (N. C.) Standard complains that "Syme and Spellman, one a Scotchman and the other an Englishman," are the favored newspaper publishers in that city. The Standard ought to know that if a foreigner is an enemy to monarchy he is for the Union, but if he is a vassal and lickspittle of Monarchy, he is certain to be a rebel and a tory.

It has been ascertained from an authentic source that the expenditures of the Government from April, 1861, to the present time have not averaged one million dollars per day. This may be considered a refutation of the exaggerated reports upon the subject.

A correspondent of the National Intelligencer gives Amos Kendall "the credit of having made the proposition which General Hunter has thus practically carried out." Mr. Kendall addressed a letter to the editors of the National Intelligencer, in which he says: "I should consider myself a traitor to my country if I were to approve, the late order of Gen. Hunter, purporting to set free all the slaves within his military district.

In the order of Gen. Hunter I see the essence of military despotism, utterly subversive of the Constitution we are fighting to maintain.

THE STORM SWELLING IN THE SOUTH.
