Cierk and Master. BRIEF. The complainant, Elijah D. Biffle, alleges in his bill, that on or about the 11th day of May, 1858, he executed his promissory note to the defendant, John D. Woodward, for something over $2,200, with G. R. Biffle security thereto, and that the consideration for which the said note was given has failed through fraud and collusion, and has obtained an order to en join and restrain the said Woodward and all other persons from collecting or attempting to enforce the collection of the said note until after the hearing of the said cause. Notice of which cannot be served upon the said John B. Woodward, and is therefore hereby made public. D. R. OWEN,
