The Circuit Court Of this judicial district will hold its spring session in this village, commencing on Tuesday, the 6th inst., JUDGE GRAVES, presiding. Now that we have a Prosecuting Attorney, and all the necessary court machinery for convicting criminals, we hope our jail will be emptied, and the drain upon the county treasury stopped. We have suffered too long already in world's property and taxes, to wish to retain the present incumbent jail birds any longer.

CIRCUIT COURT COMMISSIONER.—We are informed that CHANDLER RICHARDS, Esq., of this village has been appointed by the Governor to fill the above office. We have had no legal incumbent for the last fifteen months, and we can mend the appointment.

The semi-annual School Inspectors meeting will be held throughout this State on Saturday the 10th inst. Districts should have their Teachers engaged before that time, and see that they are in attendance for inspection on that day.

Remember, readers, that we will furnish you the NORTHERNER and Peterson's Ladies' Magazine, one year, for $2.25. The above magazine stands unequalled to any now published, in the United States. It being a monthly journal it stands "excelled by none, unequalled by few." Who would not venture for such a chance to secure a three dollar magazine and newspaper for 2.25. The Turkish High Admiral.

WASHINGTON, March 29, 1858. The interview between the President and the Turkish High Admiral yesterday was very brief, but of an interesting character. The only persons present were the President and his Private Secretary, the Secretary of State, the Admiral and his suite, J. Hasford Smith, the Hon. J. M. Cross, and E. H. Carmick, Esq., of New York.

The visitors were received by the President at 2 o'clock, having first been formally introduced to the Secretary of State. The President said that it gave him great pleasure to offer the hand of friendship and hospitality to such a distinguished officer of the Ottoman Empire. He assured him of a kind and friendly greeting from all true Americans wherever he and his suite might go. He spoke of the friendly relations existing between the two Governments, and did not doubt but this interchange of courtesies would go far to strengthen them.

The Admiral in reply expressed his gratitude for the kind feeling and honor shown himself and traveling companions by the chief of so great a nation. He had been directed, he said, by his Imperial master to be guided by the advice and direction of the President of the United States, and he desired to offer a souvenir in testimony of the high regard entertained by his Imperial master.

During the interview Mr. Carmick informed the Admiral that the Secretary of State was a veteran soldier as well as a Statesman, that nearly fifty years ago, he had met and conquered the armies of Britain in the Far West, and ever since had been prominent in the Councils of the nation. The Admiral expressed much gratification with meeting one who had long been known by reputation in Turkey.

The President then invited the Admiral, his suite, and those present to dine with him on Wednesday next, and the interview was terminated.

MARRIED.

In Porter Township, on the 5th day of March, 1858, by Elias Harmon, Esq., GEORGE R. ROATCH, to MARTHA JANE RIDGELY, both of Marcellus, Cass Co., Michigan.

DIED.

In Dowagiac, Dec. 21st, 1857, Miss Jane Van Houten, aged 25 years.

Beneath the mold, in the grave yard cold, We have laid her down to sleep; Where flowers shall bloom, o'er her lowly tomb, And the stars their vigils keep.

There birds shall sing, in early spring, A requiem soft and sweet; And the whippoorwill's note, shall gently float, Where the oaken branches meet. On the summer breeze, while the bending trees, Shall list to the rephyr's sigh; And hush each leaf, in a solemn grief, As he slowly wanders by.

The flowers she loved, while on earth she moved, Ere her spirit sought its God; We'll plant with care, that their blossoms fair, May deck her lowly bed. The rose and willow, o'er her earth, shall pillow'd Shall bloom in their beauty there; And the clinging moss, its tendrils toss, Where sleeps dear Jennie, so loved and fair.

How sweet to think, as we near the brink of Jordan's rushing tide, That the "loved and lost," a numerous host, Who have crossed to the other side, Will welcome us o'er, to the eternal shore, As one by one we go.

Thro' the shadowy vale, with the boatman pale, Who calls for each here below, January 7th, 1858. LUDIAN LYLE.

Died of Consumption, in this village, on the 27th inst., Mrs. Mary A. Mathe, son, daughter of Jas. J. & Susan Forsyth, aged 19 years.

Messenger's London Cordial Gin

A PERFECTLY PURE TONIC AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

THIS medicinal beverage is manufactured in London under the rigorous espionage of the Excise Police, in accordance with the Excise laws of Great Britain, (which punish with heavy penalties the adulteration of any article designed for food or drink), from the finest of barley, impregnated with the choicest tonics of the Materia Medica. It has been submitted to the severest chemical tests, and acknowledged to be free from any deleterious ingredients, and recommended as a perfectly pure stimulant and beverage by Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer, of Mass., Dr. Chilton, the celebrated Chemist, Professor Hale, of London, Drs. Castle, Turner, Whitney, Bookley, Adams, and Richard, and several hundred physicians in every part of the United States, who constantly prescribe it in their practice for kidney and gravel complaints, dyspepsia, gout, rheumatism, general depression and debility. Where the water is bad or unwholesome—in low or swampy ground, or feverish and ague districts, this article will be found a positive cure and permanent preventive. It is put up in quart and pint bottles at fifty cents and 25 cents, with the words "R. E. Messenger & Co.'s London Cordial Gin" blown in the glass, neatly labelled and enveloped. The labels are copyrighted in New York. R. E. MESSENGER & CO., Importers, 28 Fulton St., New York.

CAUTION.—In purchasing, be sure that it is absolutely "MESSENGER'S," as several New York and Chicago spirit-mixers are swindling the public with a counterfeited, which they represent as their own importation. Every bottle of the real London Cordial Gin is imported by us, and bears the signature of R. E. MESSENGER & Co.

Sold to the trade by C. H. Beckwith, L. O. George, Merrill & Havers, and L. Reed, Chicago, and retailed by all druggists and grocers.

NEW MARBLE Works!

The undersigned having engaged for a term of years to carry on the Marble business at Lawton, Van Buren Co., for Geo. W. Winslow, proprietor of the "Kalamazoo Steam Marble Works," would respectfully inform the public that he is now, and will continue to be, well prepared to furnish at his shop at Lawton any article in the line of MONUMENTAL MARBLE that may be called for, such as Monuments Head-stones, and Tablets; also, Imposing Stones, Paint Stones, &c. &c.

His prices are moderate and stock of the best quality, and as there is great difference in the soundness, hardness, strength, and firmness of texture, of Marble itself as well as workmanship, he would invite persons needing any article in the line to give him a call before purchasing of agents from abroad, as he can and will make it an object for them to buy of him; and by selecting marble themselves they will be better suited.

Should any particular style of work be desired it will be made to order, or procured from Kalamazoo on short notice.
