

THE CAUSE AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION.—The primary cause of Consumption is derangement of the digestive organs. This derangement produces deficient nutrition and assimilation. By assimilation, I mean that process by which the nutriment of the food is converted into blood, and thence into the solids of the body. Persons with digestion thus impaired, having the slightest predisposition to pulmonary disease, or if they take cold, will be very liable to have Consumption of the Lungs in some of its forms; and I hold that it will be impossible to cure any case of Consumption without first restoring a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very first thing to be done is to cleanse the stomach and bowels from all diseased mucus and slime which are clogging these organs so that they cannot perform their functions, and then rouse up and restore the liver to a healthy action. For this purpose, the surest and best remedy is Schenck's Mucilage Pills. These Pills clean the stomach and bowels of all the dead and morbid slime that is causing disease and decay in the whole system. They will clear out the liver of all diseased bile that has accumulated there, and arouse it up to a new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy bile is secreted.

The stomach, bowels, and liver are thus cleansed by the use of Schenck's Mucilage Pills; but there remains in the stomach an excess of acid, the excess is torpid and the appetite poor. In the bowels, the contents are weak, and requiring strength and support. It is in a condition like this that Schenck's Sea-weed Tonic proves to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered. It is alkaline, and it will neutralize all excess of acid, making the stomach easy to clean, and giving a permanent tone to this important organ, and a good, hearty appetite, and preparing the system for the first process of a good digestion, and ultimately make good, healthy, living blood. After this preparatory treatment, what remains to cure most cases of Consumption is the free and persevering use of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. The Pulmonic Syrup tonifies the system, purifies the blood, and is readily absorbed into the circulation, and thence distributed to the diseased lungs. There it ripens all morbid matters, whether in the form of abscesses or tubercles, and then assists Nature to expel all the diseased matter in the form of free expectoration, when once it ripens. It is then, by the great healing and purifying properties of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, that all ulcers and cavities are healed up sound, and my patient is cured.

The essential thing to be done in curing Consumption is to get up a good appetite and a good digestion, so that the body may grow in size and get strong. If a person has diseased lungs, a cavity or abscess there, the cavity cannot heal, the matter cannot be expelled, the cavity will heal, the matter will ripen and be thrown off in large quantities, and the person regain health and strength. This is the aim and only plan to cure Consumption, and if a person is very bad, if the lungs are not entirely destroyed, or even if one lung is entirely gone, it is not enough to take any medicine, unless it is such as to help up the system, and give me the means of clearing the system of all the disease that is in the lungs, whatever the form may be.

I have seen many persons cured, with only one sound lung, live and enjoy life to a good old age. It is what Schenck's Medicines will do to cure Consumption. They will clean out the stomach, sweeten and strengthen it, get up a good digestion, and give me the means of clearing the system of all the disease that is in the lungs, whatever the form may be.

It is important, when using Schenck's Medicines, care should be exercised not to take cold: keep in-doors in cool and damp weather; avoid night-air, and take out-door exercise only in a genial and warm climate.

I wish it distinctly understood that when I recommend a patient to be careful in regard to taking cold while using my medicines, it is for a special reason. A man who has but partially recovered from the effects of a bad cold is far more liable to a relapse than one who has been entirely cured, and it is precisely the same in regard to Consumption. So long as the lungs are not perfectly healed, and so long as there is imminent danger of a full relapse of the disease, hence it is that I so strenuously caution pulmonary patients against exposing themselves to an atmosphere that is not genial and pleasant. Confirmed Consumptive lungs are a mass of sores, which the least change of atmosphere will inflame. The grand secret of my success with my medicines consists in my ability to subdue inflammation, instead of provoking it, as many of the faculty do. An inflamed lung cannot with safety to the patient be exposed to the chilling winds of winter or the chilling winds of spring or autumn. It should be carefully shielded from all irritating influences. The utmost caution should be observed in this particular, as without it a cure under almost any circumstances is an impossibility.

The person should be kept on a wholesome and nutritious diet, and all the medicines continued until the body has restored to it the natural quantity of flesh and strength.

I was myself cured of this treatment of the worst kind of Consumption, and have lived to get fat and hearty these many years, with one lung mostly gone. I have cured thousands since, and very many have been cured by the treatment whom I have never seen.

About the 1st of October, I expect to take possession of my new building at the northeast corner of Sixth and Arch Streets, where I shall be pleased to give advice to all who may require it. Full directions accompany all my remedies, so that a person in any part of the world can be readily cured by a strict observance of the same.
