The youngest child of Volney Smith died on Tuesday, and another, a little girl, is very sick with scarlet fever.

There are a number of cases of scarlet fever in the Dowd neighborhood in the township of Hartford.

"The Future of the Republic" is pronounced to be one of the Col.'s best, eloquent, witty and brilliant lectures.

We think the Sunday school at the Christian church is a model school, and one whose superior would be hard to find.

Mr. W. H. LeSuer has taken his brother-in-law, C. T. Bassett, into partnership in the grocery business at Marcellus.

The M. E. Society will hold a social at the residence of Mrs. Smolk and Mrs. Avery on next Wednesday evening, May 3d.

Luman Conklin, of Lawton, has just received his arrears of pension amounting to about $900. O. W. Rowland got it for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Benjamin of Illinois, parents of Mrs. O. W. Rowland, are visiting their friends and relatives here and at Lawrence.

The City Fathers of Bangor have been adopting a new set of village ordinances, to meet the requirements of that thriving little town.

The amount of timber and lumber in Hon. J. J. Woodman's yards, indicates that he is about to add another large barn to his farm buildings.

If you would laugh and grow fat, hear Col. Copeland, Monday evening, on "Snobs and Snobbery." He gives it to that other fellow "right smart."

Mrs. S. T. Bowen's parents are visiting her and they are so well pleased with our town that they talk of purchasing a house and coming here to live.

Mr. and Mrs. John Loveridge have gone to Mason, where Mr. L. has the contract to build a dwelling house. They will be gone the greater part of the summer.

After what Beecher and some other eminent divines have done by way of abolishing H—ades, Elder Ebert's sermon on Sunday evening last was truly refreshing.

Mrs. Mary Taylor, of Bangor, has filed a bill for divorce from her husband, Noble S. Taylor, on the grounds of extreme cruelty. She says Noble has been very naughty.

Miss Delphina Rickard was married yesterday to a man from Ohio (we did not learn his name). May his bride never grow less and his happiness be a wellspring forever.

The Courier man is kicking about the manner in which the village assessors have valued his property, claiming it was tripled from last year's valuation. Getting rich Ed, eh?

Rev. James Goodman, pastor of the First Baptist church will preach next Sunday morning, on Life, an April Day, and in the evening on The Book Sealed with Seven Seals.

Mrs. Emily Bishop has gone to Jackson county visiting friends. It is the first time in five years that she has been out of town. Not since she fell on the walk and hurt herself.

The concert given by the Kalamazoo College Orchestra at Longwell's Opera House on Friday evening, was attended by a large audience, and the entertainment was of a high order.

The bastardy case against young Powell of Pine Grove, before Justice Mason, was settled by a marriage between the complaining witness and the respondent. Billy got his fee just the same.

The assessors of this village have assessed the property this year at its full cash value. The roll shows the assessable property to be worth $799,950. That being $611,685 greater than it was last year.

Miss Lou Van Riper, daughter of Attorney General Van Riper, was married on Wednesday last week, at her parents residence in Buchanan, to A. A. Worthington, son of the late Rev. Worthington.

The boys over at Decatur want to know—as there are two species of blue racers—to which specie the one mentioned in the Courier last week belongs, "the Black-backs, or Green-bellies."

Married, at the residence of Aaron Norton in the township of Porter, April 19th, 1882, by Rev. Wm. D. Tomkinson of Kalamazoo, Mr. Rozell W. Rice and Miss Ida L. Norton, both of Porter township, this county.

Alonzo Sherman has gone to Chicago and will spend a few weeks in that city and Milwaukee. Our esteemed friend says he has not been out of town to spend any time for the last six months, and he is getting restive.

Mrs. Fitz H. Stevens died at the residence of her son, John D. Sherman, in this village, on Wednesday of last week. Her funeral was held at the Disciple church, on Friday. The discourse was delivered by Dr. Spinney of Detroit.

The Three Rivers cigar makers produced upward of a million cigars last year, which were sold for about forty-three thousand dollars. The companies paid to their employees not less than three hundred and fifty dollars per week.

We learn that some of the young bloods from a neighboring village, made a cheap excursion of it when they came over to our Hill & Arnold dance recently,—got money here to pay their bills with and have not returned it yet. We have the names.

E Kingsbury recently sold to Joe Hanson three cows for $175 in gold.

Fred Bassett has removed his jewelry store to his new building, which makes a very neat appearance. He starts off with a new advertisement in the Non-Resistant, and proposes to do business.

Died, at his residence near Three Mile Lake, on Saturday last, of measles, Will Leighty, aged twenty-one years. Last October he was married to Miss Dora Welcher of Decatur. The blow is a severe one to his young wife and parents.

The county grange will hold its next regular meeting at Bloomingdale on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, May 4th. There will be an open session of the grange in the afternoon, commencing at 2 p. m., to which all are cordially invited.

Henry Filley has been matching up a very fine span of half-blood Norman horses. He purchased one of Frank Taylor and the other of N. Smith, and when he got that nice harness, made by Cook & Forsyth, on them, they made a very showy team.

Since Sherman & Avery had their store refitted, they have been putting in a new and elegant stock of dry goods, carpets, etc. They claim to have purchased their goods when the market was at the bottom, and have made their prices accordingly. See their new advertisement elsewhere in this paper.

The next quarterly meeting of the Spiritualists and Liberals of Van Buren and adjoining counties, will be held at Longwell's Opera House in this village, commencing Saturday, May 6th, and continuing over Sunday, May 7th. C. B. Lynn, of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. E. C. Woodruff, of South Haven, are engaged as speakers.

The time for holding the annual meeting of the East Van Buren and West Kalamazoo Sheep Breeders' Association, has been changed from May 3d to May 25th, and will be held at the residence of James Buckhout in the township of Ostemo, one-half mile from the county line on the Almena and Kalamazoo road. By order of Committee.

We are informed that there was a genuine cock fight at the old Brown tavern in Hamilton last Tuesday. The contesting birds were owned at Kalamazoo and Dowagiac. A number of the boys from here went over to see the fun, and have a little "rare sport." On their return they had the appearance of having been in the ring with the "birds."

It is very seldom that so complete a line of musical goods can be found in a town like this, as is kept by Wm. Branch at the Chicago Music Store. All kinds of musical instruments from a piano to a jew-harp. Elegant sheet music and everything desirable in the musical line, are kept constantly on hand, and can be purchased as cheap or cheaper than in larger towns.

Col. L. F. Copeland has been engaged for two more lectures in our town, and will speak at Longwell's Opera House, Monday evening, May 1st, on the subject, "Snobs and Snobbery," and on Tuesday evening, on "The Future of the Republic." Admission 25 cts; children 15 cts; reserved seats for a single evening 35 cts, for the two evenings 50 cts. For sale at Chappell's.

Did you observe how nicely Julio Sheldon's span of brown horses handled the engine at the fire the other day? It may not be well understood that there is a standing offer by the village board to pay $2.50 to any one who will haul the engine down when there is an alarm of fire. The first team that takes the cake, and it makes no difference whether it is a farmer's team or some team owned in town, the price is the same to all.

W. E. Stewart, of the South Haven Sentinel, was in town yesterday. The Observer who writes Observer's Observations, says he came in the interest of Burrows. Well, perhaps.—Free Press and Courier.

Well, perhaps, the Courier man may know. He may have been here to join hands with him in some of his questionable methods to "beat 'em." Stewart won't have bogus tickets on his plate, Ed, you will have to try something else this time.

A visit to our neighboring village of Lawrence on Saturday last, proved to us that, notwithstanding the destruction of a large portion of the town by fire, the citizens of that place are still alive and enterprising. The business places were thronged with customers and the streets filled with teams. On our way to the depot we counted sixty-five teams on the two principal streets.

The editor of the Herald is opposed to "machinery and improved means of production, because they have a tendency to induce women and children to take the place of men." He regards "children's labor as a disgrace to civilization." Just so, Van, there's a practical demonstration of it and the next time you need an inker on press-day employ a full grown man, and let the little boy whom we saw working in your office the other day attend to his studies at school.
