The Undertaker of Holly, Orleans county, N. Y., stated to me after he had opened the Casket containing the remains of my mother, after being transported from here, that the Undertaker at Paw Paw, Mich., had prepared them in the most skillful and approved manner; that they were in a perfect state of preservation, and everything in as good condition as though the work had just been performed. That of all the numerous bodies received in charge by him, he never saw one where every requisite had been more faithfully attended to. Mrs. F. C. THOMAS, 1416tf

Hello! Bill Johnson where are you going?

Local Department.

Amos Deming has gone to Petoskey.

Josie Sherman is wrestling with a bicycle.

Mr. C. G. Nash is still quite low, and does not improve much.

Geo. Dixon has a new awning. Not very tasty, but it is shady.

"Bine" Whitney has removed to Hartford with his photographic gallery.

Van Auken has sacked and shipped the wool he bought, 50,000 pounds.

Roll Quick has returned from his northern trip. Says he had lots of fun fishing.

Farmers say their wheat is not turning out nearly as well as they had anticipated.

We visited Engle's peach orchard yesterday. We shall "write it up" next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eber Rowland are visiting relatives in Jackson and Calhoun Counties.

Mrs. Annie Feebles, of Lawrence, has a brave new daughter, born on Sunday last.

There were more people in town Saturday than there has been before in a long time.

Miss Jennie Zander, of Kalamazoo, is visiting Miss Bertha Whitman of this village.

Mrs. John Walker, Miss Florence Butler and Mrs. C. H. Butler have gone to Petoskey.

The Greenbackers will caucus at Town Hall to-morrow (Saturday) at 2 o'clock p. m.

Josiah Wilcox, the white barber, has secured an increase of pension. Galligan did the work.

J. B. Roosevelt, formerly a resident of this county, now of Cadillac, visited this town last Saturday.

Miss May Blowers, typist of the Herald office, and Mrs. E. F. Bradt, have gone to New York on a visit.

Dr. A. Robinson, of Grand Rapids, made a flying visit to our town on Saturday last, returning home on Monday.

The fine rain of last Thursday night, knocked fifty cents per bushel off the price of potatoes, between sunset and sunrise.

Somebody left a pair of spectacles in the NORTHERNER office. The owner had better call and get them as they are a little too old for us.

Brodhead Post, G. A. R., has ninety members on its muster roll, and the boys are after the other ten. Its next meeting will be August 10th.

The lads of Lawton came over last Saturday and played the lads of Paw Paw, a game of ball on the Fair Grounds. The Paw Paw boys took the cake.

A meeting of the Van Buren county spiritualists and liberalists will be held at South Haven, on Saturday and Sunday, August 12th and 13th, 1882.

Married, by C. E. Galligan, Esq., at Paw Paw, Mich., August 1st, 1882, Samuel T.
Woolsey, of Dowagiac, Mich. and Miss Althea Fales, of Paw Paw, Mich.

Geo. E. Breck and wife returned home on Wednesday last, from their trip around the lakes.

Miss Florence West, of Lawrence, who was injured by a fall from a cherry tree, does not recover rapidly. She is still confined to her bed.

On Monday last Mrs. Hungerford, of Waverly, presented the NORTHERNER with a handsome bouquet from her flower garden.
Thanks. Mrs. H. knows how to raise fine flowers.

All are invited to take part in an excursion from Lawton to 4 mile lake, on Tuesday, August 8th, 1882, under the auspices of the ladies of the M. E. church. Fare for the round trip 25 cents.

Mrs. Cora Martin has been engaged by our school board to take charge of the grammar school, in place of Miss Belle Bitley who has resigned her position, and intends to go to McGregor, Iowa.

Al. Howland, of Waverly, met with an accident at Sheldon's mill in Waverly, on Monday last. He came near falling onto the boiler, and to save himself grasped a hot pipe, burning his hand quite severely.

It is announced in the Post and Tribune, that a County Teachers' Institute will be held in Paw Paw, from August 21st to 25th.
Our people should be prepared to entertain the teachers that will be in attendance.

A large audience was present at the union meeting held at the Disciple church, on Sunday evening last. The discourse by Rev. J.
B. Drew was a good one. The next meeting will be at the Methodist church, preaching by Elder Goodman.

The "yellow house" on the corner of Paw Paw and Niles streets, belonging to the estate of the late Harmon Crane, was sold at administrator's sale, on Saturday last. Horatio Sheldon was the purchaser, for the sum of five hundred dollars.

Through the courtesy of Henry Frailek, Esq., President of the Society, we have received a complimentary ticket to the 24th annual fair of the Mich. State Agricultural Society, which opens at Jackson on Monday, the 18th day of Sept.

Showman says that fellow who stood in front of his gate last Tuesday evening, from ten o'clock until eleven, is a boss whistler.
He whistled but one tune, but he stuck to that for a straight hour. Emery has an hour's sleep charged against the b. w., and would like to know his address.

The Rev. G. L. Cole, of the M. E. Church, with his family, started for Chautauqua last Monday. He expects to be absent about two weeks. His pulpit will be filled next Sunday morning by Rev. W. L. Jakways of Mattawan, and the Sunday following by Mr.
Chas. Snodgrass, a local preacher of the society.

We have a newly organized "Male Trio" in town. W. R. Hawkins, Primo Don; H.
W. McCabe, Primo Tenore, and H. A. Rogers, Basso Profundo. They gave their first public exhibition on Wednesday evening last, at Branch's music store. Among the gems they sang was a new song entitled, "The Sword of Bunker Hill."

R. C. Nash, of Waverly, brought to the NORTHERNER office, on Saturday last, a little bundle of timothy, bearing a card with this legend inscribed thereon: "How is this for last fall's seeding, grown in wheat on the clay?" We measured it and found it to be five feet and eleven inches in length. We should say, "How is this for high?"

On Thursday night, John Ganit had nine sheep struck by lightning. Four of them recovered, but five were killed outright.
They were all standing under a small hickory tree at the time. John's folks were standing in the door and saw the stroke. He at once cut the throats of the five that were killed, and so had an abundant supply of mutton.

An alarm of fire was given here on Friday last, just as people were eating their dinners.
Some ladies at the Clifton House had been using a lamp, to heat curling irons, or to perform some other mysterious part of their toilet and left it burning. By some means it was broken or exploded and set fire to some light articles. The boys started for the engine house, but the flames were extinguished without their aid, and without having done any damage to speak of.

Don Henderson of the Allegan Journal has a libel suit on his hands. He published a birth notice, charging that the matter cost Hon. R.
Koning $500, and stating that the mother and child were doing well. Mr. Koning lays his damage at $10,000. In the language of the Allegan Tribune, "birth notices have riz."

Truly the life of an Allegan editor is melancholy and full of tribulation. It is a dull week in Allegan when some newspaper man don't get licked, or is not hauled away to prison. Don gave the required bail without any difficulty.

The narrow gauge engine runs over half a mile on the new track to Hartford. Laborers have been imported from Chicago.

In a card to the Bangor Reflector of last week, Mrs. W. L. Thomas says, in speaking of the taking of her father and mother to the county house, "We did not want them to go, and both of us told him so." She would have it appear that it was against the wishes of herself and husband, that the old people were taken "over the hills to the poor house," and that they were willing and anxious to care for them. Our Overseers of the Poor are not in the habit of taking charge of people if their friends are able and willing to keep them. We venture to suggest to these officials, that they are not doing right in depriving Mr. and Mrs. Thomas of the privilege of taking care of their aged parents in their declining years, and of smoothing their pathway to the tomb. Wouldn't it be better to allow them to enjoy the society of the old folks and to minister to their wants, as old-fashioned children love to do, than to put them in the county house and make them a public charge? We only throw out this by way of a suggestion. We don't want to interfere.

A Republican caucus was held at the village of Paw Paw, on Saturday afternoon last.
Between forty and fifty Republican voters were present. The caucus was called to order by B. F. Stearns, one of the township committees, and on motion, A. H. Herron was elected chairman and O. W. Rowland, secretary. A vote was passed to elect the delegates by ballot. The following named gentlemen were then elected as delegates, viz: Geo. L. Cole, Chas. H. Butler, Cyrus A. Sherrod, Albert R. Wilkey, Benjamin F.
Heckert, Josiah Andrews, John E. Showman, Porter A. Dean, Henry Hinkley, Wm.
R. Hawkins, Chandler W. Whipple, Ora W.
Rowland.

By a vote of the caucus the delegation was instructed and empowered to fill any vacancies that may occur in their numbers.

Considerable strife, in a good natured spirit, was had over the election of delegates, not because there was any division of sentiment in the caucus, but simply as to what man should be elected on the pending ballot.
The delegation is understood to be a solid Burrows delegation, and the sentiment of the caucus was unanimously in favor of Mr.
Burrows. Mr. C. H. Butler was elected as a member of the Republican township committee vice Williams, gone to Dakota. The committee now consists of Messrs. B. F.
Stearns, C. P. Rawson and C. H. Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Kilburn, with their friends, are down on Cape Cod inhaling the invigorating sea-breeze, and creating sad havoc among the lobsters and clams of old Mass., as will be seen by the following extract from one of "Jo's" letters. He says:
"I am writing this letter from the balcony of a cottage fronting on the sea, about 200 feet from the beach, and on a wooded knoll 60 feet high. From this point of view a magnificent panorama stretches out before us. Looking sea-ward, to the right, are Well Fleet and Provincetown whose lights we see at night, while on the other hand is the broad expanse of ocean, at this time quiet as a mill-pond, and dotted with sail craft of all descriptions. A beautiful beach of clean white sand, the water being so warm that no chill is felt by the most delicate, while, as there is no under-tow and a gradually sloping beach, no danger is to be apprehended. Opposite our cottage is a fish-weir.
About 60 rods of piles are driven in a straight line in three fathoms of water, three more are driven in a circle at the end of this line, and a large net is strung around having a bottom shaped like a basket, and weighted to hold it down. Two openings are left for the boats to enter where the circle reaches the straight line. The fish get in and go round and round,—don't know enough to get out, and every morning the men row out and get them. They took out 100 bbls. of mackerel at one time this spring.
I have a chance to go out with the men every morning to see them pull up. We have three lobster pots just opposite, which belong to our cottage. At low tide we generally get from four to twelve per day, so we always have them on hand. We put them in a kettle of boiling water and in 45 minutes the black rascals are red as a cherry, and sweet as a peach. Then there's the clams!
We can get a pail full in twenty minutes.
As the tide recedes they draw in their heads, leaving a hole in the sand like a pipe stem, and we know just where to find them. Besides we have tautog, blue-fish, scup, and sea-bass. The latter weigh from 25 to 60 lbs. The town of Dennis is distant one-half mile, and the nearest house 80 rods, so nothing disturbs us but the roll of the breakers, and the flapping wings of the sea-gull, fit emblem of the sea, with his white body and dark wings. We occupy the time by strolling along the shore, gathering shells or watching the yachts sailing by."
