Local Department.

Mrs. E. C. Hendrick has returned from her eastern trip.

Dogs will kill chickens sometimes. Ask Milan or Ashbel.

Elder Goodman has gone to Chautauqua for a summer vacation.

Lawyer Cross, of Bangor, made us a pleasant visit on Monday last. Come again Cal.

See call for a Republican county convention in another column, to be held Sept. 19.

Matthews, the Bookseller, has something new to say this week. Read his advertisement.

F. A. Earle, of Ypsilanti, formerly a Paw Paw boy, made us a pleasant call on Wednesday last.

Miss Jennie Rowland, of Clarksfield, Ohio, is visiting relatives here and at Hartford and Lawrence.

J. Wilcox has secured the services of Ben. Hill, a man of 15 years experience in the art of shaving.

Enos Stevens, of Mattawan, recently sold his span of mares for $500 each. It pays to raise such stock.

We are indebted to Matthews, our newsman, for a bottle of very fine ink. He always keeps good goods.

Ambrose F. Moon, formerly of Antwerp, and who was well known to many of our citizens, died at Rome, Ga., on the 2d inst.

Silas Engle lost, on our streets last Saturday, a cuff-button. The setting was of crystallized quartz, bound by a plain band of gold.

David Callicott and Chancey Cook plead guilty to assault and battery in Galligan's court on Saturday last. Fined $5.00 and costs.

R. L. Warren of the Decatur Republican called on us as we were going to press, last week. Call again Bro. Warren when we are not so busy.

Mr. Heckert, who is acting as attorney for D. Fisher, Esq., of Kalamazoo, informs us that Mr. F. has an important matter pending, which may involve litigation.

J. W. Luce was in town the first of the week. Joe is stopping at the west end of Crooked Lake eight miles from Potoskey. He is in the drug and grocery trade.

W. P. Sutton, U. S. Consul at Matamoros, Mexico, was at the Lawrence convention. He says he shall not return until "Yellow Jack" is less numerous down there.

Mr. H. S. Williams has written for his family to come to Aberdeen, Dakota, where he is now located. Mr. W. is to go into the land office, as an assistant to Register Duncombe.

The survivors of the 19th Mich. Vol. Inf., will hold their annual reunion at Three Rivers, Aug. 24th, at 10 o'clock a. m., being the second day of the reunion of the S. & S. A. S. W. M.

Drs. J. T. Kenble and G. L. Rose, of Decatur, called at the NORTHERNER office on Friday last. Call again gentlemen when we have not gone to convention. Always pleased to see our friends.

Henry Matthews, Esq., on Aug. 4th, left at our residence some very fine sweet corn. Who had it sooner? Mr. M. is in the gardening business quite extensively, and will market his produce here.

At the recent meeting of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias, our former townsman Durelle F. Glidden was chosen Grand Vice Chancellor, only one step from the highest position in the Grand Lodge.

Luther Dean brought to the NORTHERNER office on Tuesday last, a half dozen apples fresh and fair, of the Jonathan variety. They were kept all winter in a barrel in his cellar. This beats anything we have heard of in the line of keeping apples.

Preaching at the M. E. Church, Sunday morning, by C. W. Snodgrass, local preacher.

Last week some of our fishermen reported that they had seen a small sloop floating out in the lake, with the jib and part of the bow visible, but in a few moments the craft entirely disappeared.—South Haven Messenger.

The South Haven Sentinel, of last week, says that F. M. Manning, of Albion, formerly of this town, has been sent to the asylum. We are informed that such is not the fact. We certainly hope he is not afflicted in such a manner as to render such action necessary.

George Longwell marched into our office the other day with a huge watermelon under his arm, which he quietly deposited, and inquired for the d—l. The boys in the office all responded. They don't care what names they are called, if they only get the fruit.

A. W. Cummings has received a letter from Gen. D. E. Sickness, stating that if it is possible he will be present to greet his old comrades of Co. "C," 70th N. Y., at our county fair. He says he will be able to determine definitely during the month, whether he can come or not.

An excursion party will leave this place in a short time on a fishing expedition. In the evening an address will be delivered by "Elder Tong," the coriphæus, after which an essay will be read by "Prof. Horace" in ore rotundo. Prof. Durby, of Chicago, cum multis aliis, will be in attendance.

Lewis gets there. In the junior four oared rowing race at Detroit, Aug. 8th, in the first heat, the Gognaes, of Battle Creek came out six lengths ahead of the Excelsiors and Centennials of Detroit. L. W. Melchor, formerly of this place, is stroke with the Gognaes. Time of Gognaes, 8:48 1/2; Excelsiors, 9:05 1/2.

"Pete" says in last week's Herald that a republican caucus was held in Waverly, in Streator's barn, and called to order by Dr. Woodman. The Dr. would not like to accense "Pete" of lying, but, nevertheless, would say that the statement made by him was a tergiversation, a prevarication, an equivocation and an unmitigated falsehood.

Many of our exchanges have been telling startling tales about the abduction of a Benton Harbor lass, by a couple of terrible darkies, intimating that the girl had been foully dealt with. It now appears that there was no truth in the report. The girl left home voluntarily and had been but a short distance away. She has returned and her friends are very reticent as to the cause of her absence.

A CARD.—We desire to express our sincere thanks to our neighbors and friends who have shown us so much kindness, and been so ready with their help and sympathy during our sad bereavement in the loss of our brother, who was instantly killed by the cars at Albion, Mich., on the 5th inst., and also to his friends in Jackson, who came with his remains to Lawton for burial.

Porter, Mich., Aug. 7th.
MR. AND MRS. C. M. DAILEY, C. H. DAILEY.

At a meeting of the County Grange to be held in Bangor, Aug. 24th inst., the following programme will be presented, and those designated to take part will please accept this as a notice: Address of welcome, H. M. Overton, Bangor; Response by David Woodman 2nd, Paw Paw; Paper by Mrs. Keith, Keeler; Oration, Jay Woodman, Paw Paw; Essay, Mrs. J. M. Hungerford, Waverly; Oration, Warren Goss, Bangor; Selection, Miss Emma Cook, McDonald; Paper, T. D. Himbanck, Vicksburg. Plenty of music interspersed. By order of committee. C. B. CHARLES, Secretary.

Fruit Growing.

One of the prominent industries of our county is the raising of fruit of every description, adapted to growth in this latitude. The "fruit belt" of Michigan has a world wide reputation, and Van Buren county is the very garden of this belt. One of the most prominent fruit growers of this region is Columbus Engle of this township. We had the pleasure of visiting his orchards on Thursday of last week, and found the proprietor in the midst of his early peach harvest. Mr. Engle's farm is pleasantly located on a beautiful hill one mile south of this village. He has a fine brick residence and other commodious and comfortable farm buildings. But, at the present season of the year, it is his peach orchard that is the particular attraction. It would be hard to find a better location for a fruit farm in any place. The ground upon which it is situated, slopes in all directions, affording an ample atmospheric drainage, so that the temperature in cold weather is always several degrees warmer on the hill than on the lower grounds surrounding it. Mr. Engle has about seven thousand peach trees in his orchard, of the choicest varieties, several of the most valuable of which were originated by himself. At the time of our visit he was gathering his Alexanders, which is the earliest variety of peach known to growers. This peach is a very high colored, handsome, medium sized fruit, but is chiefly valuable because of its early ripening, the fruit being far inferior to later varieties, such as the Crawford, Snow's Orange, and many other kinds. Mr. Engle has seven hundred trees of the Alexanders all heavily loaded, a beautiful sight. He estimates his crop of this particular variety at 3,000 boxes equivalent to 1,000 bushels, and at the time of our visit he was getting one dollar per box, after shipping them to market. His estimate of the entire crop is 12,000 boxes. His orchard is thoroughly cultivated, being like a garden in this respect. In addition to his peaches he has five hundred choice pear trees, all well filled with fruit, one of the finest quince orchards in the State, and about three thousand grape vines, all heavily loaded with fruit. He shipped a consignment of apricots to Detroit a few days since, for which he received nine dollars per bushel, but this fruit, Mr. E. says, is too tender for our climate. The peach harvest is about two weeks later than usual this year. Hale's Early will be fit to commence picking about the middle of the present month, and the Crawfords about September 1st. We cannot close this article without an allusion to the fair lady packers who greeted us so cordially. Perhaps their cheeks were not as red as the peaches they were handling, but they had a healthy color, at all events, and they were not the least of the attractions, to be seen at the orchard. We expect to see them again before the close of the fruit season. We shall call upon some of our other prominent peach men hereafter, and give them the result of our observations.

Obituary.

DIED—Maria Warner, wife of Samuel Mills, of general debility, at her daughter's residence, in Muskegon, Mich., July 27th, 1882, aged 78 years, 4 months and 15 days.

Mrs. Mills was the mother of a large, well known, and highly respected family. The last year of her long and useful life, was spent at the residence of her daughter at Muskegon, Mich. Her remains were brought to her old home in Almena, in this county for burial, by the side of her husband. The deceased was born in Waterbury, Conn., in 1804, and the same year was carried in her mother's arms to the western part of New York, which was then a wilderness. There she endured all the privations incident to the life of the early settlers of Livingston county, and her character was formed and developed amid trying scenes and stern realities. At the age of 23 years she married Samuel Mills, and with him and six children, she emigrated to Michigan, in 1843. The present well known homestead of the family was then a wilderness, and the luxuries of life were very few indeed. But she was equal to the emergency, and with untiring zeal, she continued to be a cheerful helpmate of her husband and a kind adviser of her children. Her affectionate deportment, not only won the love of her children, but gained the esteem of all who knew her. Her generous self-sacrifices were remarkable, and will ever remain a bright picture in the memories of her relatives and friends. She was the mother of nine children, five sons and four daughters, all of whom, except one daughter, who died in infancy, have lived to bury both father and mother, and all, except the youngest son, were present at the mother's funeral. She was borne to her last resting place by her four eldest sons. Her funeral was largely attended by the pioneers of the county, who will carry to their graves the memory of this kind, christian mother, and hospitable friend.

DIED—In this village, of heart disease, on Sunday, Aug. 6th, 1882, Charles G. Nash in the 34th year of his age. In the death of Mr. Nash our community sustains a sad loss, and one that will be felt for a long time. He was one of our most energetic, prominent, and rising young men, a thorough going, honorable and upright business man, and one who had been for years, largely identified with the business interests of our locality. He was beloved and respected by our entire community, and all feel to mourn at his early decease. Mr. Nash had usually been a healthy, strong man, and previous to his last illness, had as fair a prospect for a long life as any one. He was confined to his house since the 7th of June last, and for much of the time has been very low, although his friends did not abandon hope until a very short time before his death. He was buried on Tuesday last. His funeral was conducted by Peninsular Commandery of Knights Templar, of Kalamazoo, of which he was a member. He was also a member of the Odd Fellows and Masonic lodges, and the Knights of Honor, of this village, and his brethren from all these societies were present at his obsequies in large numbers. He leaves a widow, who is inconsolable at his loss, and one child, a bright little boy whom all know and love. He was a son-in-law of our townsman, Mr. E. O. Briggs. Mr. Nash was a dutiful son, a kind father and an affectionate husband, and his mourning friends, have the heartfelt sympathy of all our citizens.
