While John Smolk was milking, on Wednesday evening last, his cow kicked him over and trampled upon him, bruising him severely. No bones were broken.

I. A. Whitman, the marble cutter, has a new "ad." in this paper. There isn't a place in Western Michigan where you can get better work, or more favorable prices, than at Whitman's.

Forsyth & Bryar have sold out their stock of drugs, groceries, etc. The purchasers, Messrs. Covert & Bartram, are from Ovid, Clinton county, Mich. They net as though they meant business.

Ed. Smith, who has been in Chadwick's store at Lawrence for some time past, and who was formerly in the employ of A. Sherman & Co., has accepted a situation as book-keeper for G. W. Longwell & Co.

We expected our contemporary, the Courier, would crow over the result. It has eaten so much crow that it ought to know how to crow, and ought to have a chance to crow. Crow away, while you may.

Some intelligent voter, on Monday last, voted a fusion corporation ticket, instead of a township ticket. It had the same pretty picture at its head, and he was, no doubt, a man who never goes "beyond the pictures."

Our friend George Harrison, who has been confined to his house for a long time from the effect of measles, was able to be out to the polls last Monday. Hope you will soon be able to attend to business again, George.

Mr. Hawkins and his wife returned to town last Tuesday. Some of the boys improved the occasion to make night hideous with horns and other instruments of torture. Such things are disgraceful and ought not to be tolerated.

The trade between Geo. W. Matthews and Mr. Cole did not come to a head. George has sold his stock to Mr. Chappell, brother of the jeweler, and the goods have been removed to Chappell's jewelry store. See his new advertisement.

Part of the questions used at the last teachers examination were marvels of ingenuity. It required several pages of legal cap to answer some of them correctly. Our new State Supt. must have spread himself to devise such a set of questions.

Bangor, which has long prided itself on being one of the staunch Republican towns of the county, elects a Fusion Supervisor, by an overwhelming majority, while Paw Paw, at best a doubtful town, elects a Republican by a majority almost as great.

George Wilcox was taken ill last Friday, and died Sunday evening. He was buried on Wednesday last. His illness was supposed to be in consequence of injuries received by a fall some two years ago. Mr. Wilcox was a hard working industrious man, and a good citizen.

After serving satisfactorily, as foreman of the NORWEMER, for more than a year, A. F. Hayes has severed his connection with us. He has our best wishes for his success in the future. We consider ourselves fortunate in having secured the services of one of the best men we know to take Mr. Hayes' place. Mr. Bert Cole who has for a long time past been connected with the Courier office.

Dr. Geo. V. Hilton, of South Haven, is about to remove to this town. Dr. Hilton is a graduate of the Detroit Medical College, and has spent a year at Harvard University. He is a young man of much promise, and has already acquired a reputation as a skilled physician and surgeon. We are glad to learn that he will make this town his future residence. He can be found at the office of Dr. Andrews.

We have on our table a very neat and tasty volume of poems, published by Dr. W. L. Engle, of Hartford. Before receiving the book, we had no idea that the Dr. ever indulged in poetical fancies, but we are undeceived. The author does not expect his work to take rank beside those of Longfellow or Tennyson, nevertheless, it is an interesting and readable work, and we commend it to the reading public.

We received the following communication through the mail. We don't know what it means, nor who it refers to, but lest it should be a matter of great importance, we publish it without remodeling:

"to be put in the Locals Take Notice I want the people of vanburen and Waverly county to tender Stand that Mrs. Collins was not a rested for a daltery for that pretty hand of hers has positively denide the charge and sayS him self that heid not a rest them for adaltry he Posatvely Denis the charge."

Our fat J. P. went to Muldoon's Picnic, and he was just tickled to death, but what pleased him most was to see one of the Muldoons stamp his comrade's hat in pieces. He laughed and shook his fat sides until tears as big as horse-chestnuts rolled down his benign countenance. It was just too funny for anything. But his joy was turned to grief the next morning when he looked for his new four dollar hat, and found that it was the identical hat that tickled him so the evening before. The bold, bad Muldoons had bribed the Squire's boy, Johnny, with a free ticket, to provide them a hat, and now Charley wears his old one.

It was with deep sorrow that this community learned of the sudden and dangerous illness of Dr. L. C. Woodman. On Thursday evening last he retired feeling better than usual, and the next morning he was found in his room, so ill that but little hope of his recovery was entertained. Since that time he has been unable to speak, and has been irrational a great portion of the time. At this writing he is reported to be somewhat better, and there is some prospect that he may rally from the attack. The family have been sorely afflicted, and if the sympathy of friends and neighbors could avail, they would be speedily relieved from their burden of grief and care.
