A very pleasant musical social was held at the residence of Mrs. Shilling Friday evening last.

Children's Day will be observed next Sabbath evening by the Free Baptist and Methodist Sunday schools.

The Pioneer meeting at Lawton was a success. We shall give an account of it next week.

Hank McCabe, the wild Irishman, has been driving a nobly looking team around town for a few days past.

Messrs. Davey, Reed, and Oocobock have provided the No. 22222 office with new screen doors and windows.

That was a splendid lot of button hole bouquets which Mrs. C. P. Rawson gave to the boys on memorial day.

Longwell brags about that three bars of soap which he sells for a quarter and throws in an elegant "floral basket."

Van, of the Herald, has returned from his editorial excursion to Denver and Leadville. He reports an immense time.

Covert & Bartram, the live druggists, speak a new piece to the readers of the Northerner this week. Look it over.

L. B. Sheldon sold his farm of 130 acres, last Saturday, to his brother J. J. for $7,200. L. B. will build on his lot here in town.

The Hartford school closes this week. Prof. Bradt has made a success of his work there and expects to remain another year.

The school board has adopted Swinton's series of readers for our school. New readers will be exchanged for old free of expense.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Melchor, of Canton, Ill., are visiting their mother, Mrs. Harriet Melchor, and other friends in the neighborhood.

Esq. Galligan will keep his office in town open every Monday, and as soon as his health will permit, during business hours on other days.

The opera house was had for memorial services last week, free of charge, thanks to the liberality of Mr. Geo. W. Longwell, proprietor.

Mrs. Chas. H. Mosier started last Monday morning on a visit to her brother in California. She doesn't mean to let Chas. do all the traveling.

There is a rumor current on the street that the non-resident partner of the Courier will soon come to town to look after his interest in that concern.

There will be a business meeting of the Alumni, Wednesday evening, June 13, at the residence of O. W. Rowland. All members are requested to be present.

Dr. Palmer has had his dental parlors handsomely decorated and refurnished. The decorating was done by Mr. A. J. Burns who is studying dentistry with Dr. Palmer.

If there were to be a baby show in Paw Paw, and a premium be offered for twins, it would take a nobby pair to prevent Warner's boy babies from taking first money.

The basket of fruit and the swinging lady displayed on our front door, were presented by Mrs. J. H. Prater, dealer in pictures, the basket of flowers, by Geo. W. Longwell & Co.

Capt. G. H. Frontice of Lawton, is working up a good business in the sale of evergreens. He has sold over 1,700 this spring, and around Lawton, Decatur, and Marcellus.

The Decatur boys came over on Friday last to beat the Paw Paw boys playing ball, and they did it. Afterward Decatur's small boys came over to beat Paw Paw's kids, and they didn't.

Joe, the butcher, bought a calf the other day, of Chas. H. Butler, which was a few days past the age of six months, and weighed 650 pounds. It was a nice one. Joe paid $30.30 for it.

Broughton has a new advertisement this week. The picture represents the proprietor in the act of giving instructions to his chief clerk, in the matter of disposing of 300 miles of corsets.

The high school department give an entertainment this (Friday) afternoon, consisting of music, select reading, essays, recitations, etc. Patrons of the school cordially invited to be present.

Wool growers will find a good market for their wool in Paw Paw. Clapp and Van-Auken will both be in the field as usual and will pay as they always do, all the market will bear. E. S. Smith will buy at Lawrence.

Our contemporary, the Paw Paw Herald has entered upon its fourth year. The initial number of volume four under the management of sister May, shows a decided improvement over some of its predecessors.

There is some talk of organizing a young men's military company in town. All who would like to join such a company are requested to leave their names with Frank Millington at Duncombe, Stearns & Co.'s store.

Dr. C. M. Odell who has for months been ill and unable to attend to business, has at last so far recovered his health as to be able to resume his practice. He had a serious time but looks as though he had succeeded in weathering the storm.

The case of Sage vs. Gilbert, for lost money, was quashed, on account of the affinity of the justice. Mr. Gilbert says all he wants is to have the owner identify his property and he will give it up. He advertises the money in this number of the Northerner.

We have received No. 2, Vol. 1, of "Outing," a monthly journal devoted to outdoor sports and recreations. It is a bright, crisp and readable publication. Subscription price $2.00 per year. We will furnish it and the Northerner for $3.00 per year, payable in advance.

An ice-cream and strawberry festival will be held on the lawn at the residence of Harry S. Richards, if the weather is favorable, on Friday evening of this week; otherwise the delicious refreshments will be dispensed to the public at the Presbyterian church, and in either case, a cordial invitation is extended to all.

The beautiful songs of the birds, The odor of asphalt and tar, Are telling us plainer than words, That summer, bright summer, has come from afar.

The melodious notes of the tree, As well as the bees' merry hum, And the tar-kettle smelling its woe, All tell us that summer, bright summer, has come.

The Courier has hired Miss Furness as preceptress of our school. The school board have not engaged her services, although they may perhaps, concede to do so. That venacious sheet makes no mistakes.

Mrs. Mina G. Slayton will give one of her unique and interesting entertainments at the M. E. church in Lawton, on Tuesday evening next. Those who have had the pleasure of listening to Mrs. Slayton, do not need to be told that she stands high as a vocalist and elocutionist, and that her entertainments are always very interesting and worthy of patronage.

The funeral of Mark Woodman, eldest son of the late Dr. Woodman, was held at the residence of his grand-father, Mr. John Smolk, last Friday afternoon at two o'clock p. m. The services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Burns, assisted by Rev. Geo. L. Cole. The body was escorted to the cemetery by the class-mates at school accompanied by Mrs. A. C. Martin, their teacher.

The pound master at Bangor put H. G. M. Howard's horse in the pound. H. G. M. opened the gate and took him out. Results: H. G. M. arrested and fined $5 or 10 days in the village cooler. He did not discover a writ of habeas corpus. Case argued before Judge Mills, and sentence sustained. H. G. M. paid the fine and the citizens jubilated because their ordinances are valid.

Some of our village streets are being graded, some are being plowed up and raised in the center, and some are being graded down. A great amount of money has been expended in years gone by, "mending our ways," some of which has resulted in little or no good. We hope the present work may be intelligently done, and permanent improvement be accomplished.

No. 4281, held by Miss Clara Reed of Paw Paw, was the number that took Jay's second machine. This was the second number in the series. About a week after the machine was drawn, Mr. M. F. Beebe, of Almena, put in an appearance with the first number, but he was too late. He did not discover in time that he had the winning number, and so lost the prize. Keep your eyes open next time, Miles.

Mrs. B. F. Stearns started on Monday last for her visit to Frank at Aberdeen, Dakota. She was joined at Chicago by Mrs. W. M. Snow, who had gone to that city a couple of days before. Frank and Will, will no doubt, be very much pleased to see their better halves. The Courier, which is always so ready to point out the mistakes of others, and to boast of its own accuracy, sent these ladies on their journey ten days ago.

We called on our friend Mr. Riley Bangs last Saturday morning and found him quite comfortable. He has been an invalid for a long time, but at present when the weather is pleasant he is able to get out of doors and move around somewhat, by the aid of his crutches. He is improving his elegant residence by having the old unsightly kitchen removed and a new one erected in its place. J. M. Brown, Esq., is doing the work for him.

Died, in this village, on Saturday last, Mrs. Clara Tyrrell, wife of Oakley F. Tyrrell. Mrs. Tyrrell had been ill for a long time, and for several months past had been a great sufferer. Her funeral took place on Tuesday from the residence of Mrs. L. L. Hall, her mother. The sermon was preached by Rev. Harvey and was a fitting tribute. She was a graduate of our union school, and the Alumni of which she was a member, were present in a body. The casket was strewn with flowers, and as she lay there she looked as though she was sweetly sleeping on a bed of roses. A post mortem examination showed that she died from disease of the liver, that organ being greatly enlarged and weighing 16 1/2 pounds. Mrs. T. was loved and respected by all who knew her.

On Saturday last at half-past 11 a. m., the alarm of fire was sounded in this village. Almost instantly a throng of people filled the streets, and in a very short time the engine was out and ready for action. The fire was in a pile of refuse in rear of Duncombe's barn, on the place occupied by Mr. E. A. Crane, and evidently originated from a spark or coal of fire contained in ashes that had been deposited there. The fire was extinguished before any particular damage was done, and before the engine was ready for work. The boys turned the hose on the refuse heap and gave it a thorough wetting down and then returned the engine to its quarters. A few moments farther delay in discovering the fire might have led to a disastrous conflagration. Moral—Be careful of cold ashes.

Some Wexford county boys have just paid eight dollars apiece for spearing fish in Clam Lake. Some Cass county boys are now thinking seriously of paying for the privilege in this county or else stop spearing.—Democratic Republican. Why do they want to pay for this privilege, Bro. Republican? There is no law to prevent spearing after April 30th. Our legislature have heretofore seen fit to allow a wholesale destruction of fish during the spawning season, and at the same time vote away large amounts of money for the artificial propagation of the same; a most inconsistent course, indeed. The spear and dynamite cartridges will soon deplete our waters, and make a native fish as great a curiosity as Jimbo himself, if something is not speedily done to prevent it. Representative Warren has tried faithfully during the present session of the legislature to secure the passage of a law to prevent the spearing of fish during the spring months, but failed of success. There are too many members who like the sport, and so they are willing to destroy the fish entirely to gratify their love for it. The result will be that in a few years there will be no fish to spear. 'Tis secured one good thing, however, and that is the passage by the House of an amendment to prevent the killing of fish by the use of explosives.

Police Court.
Felix and James Rasset of Hartford, arrested for violation of liquor law. Charge, keeping open saloon on Sunday. Before Esq. Warner. Adjourned until to-day, (Friday).

The examination of Henry Sherman before Esq. Mason, was concluded last Friday and resulted in the accused being held for trial in the sum of $500. The required bonds were given.

Perry Bentley, charged with drunkenness. Cause pending before Esq. Warner. The accused came into court on Friday last, and withdrew his former plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty. Fined $10 and costs or 20 days in jail. Fine paid.
