What is Said of the People's Cyclopedia.
From Prof. Edw. Olney, University of Mich.—"I am fully satisfied that it is the Cyclopedia for the people. Its exceeding cheapness puts it within the reach of all, while it is good enough for any. It is a great educational agency."

From Henry Ward Beecher, D. D. Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I deem it an admirable work.
It covers the field of knowledge effectively, and gives just that information which all want. Its price puts it within the reach of multitudes who cannot afford to buy the costly Cyclopedias. In short, it is just the book for reading, thinking American citizens."

From the New York Daily Graphic—"Take them all in all, it is no exaggeration to say that these two volumes contain more useful knowledge than any other ten volumes that can be named, and they amply prove their claim to supply a place that was not filled before."

From Rev. A. C. George, D. D., pastor Central M. E. church, Chicago, Ill.—
"The People's Cyclopedias of Universal Knowledge" is appropriately named, as these two huge volumes, with immense contents, demonstrate. I do not know of any work furnishing, in such limited space, so great a variety of useful information in respect to so many important topics. There is condensation everywhere, but fullness where fullness is demanded, and brevity only where brevity suffices. The maps and diagrams are of inestimable value, and the 300 pages of appendices, treating discursively and tabu-larly almost every interest of civilization, are alone worth many times the cost of this Cyclopedia."

Photographs.
I take pleasure in announcing to the public that I have re-opened my Picture Gallery, at my old stand, on Main St., in Paw Paw.
My apparatus is entirely new, and of the most approved pattern, and I am prepared to take pictures of all kinds in the highest style of art. Give me a call and I am sure I can please you. 61tf

Local Department.
Sam, how do you like to hug a Jew?
Pigs will climb ladders, won't they Vallee?
Just at present, pitching quoits is the popular amusement in town.

A new side-walk has been built in front of Covert & Bartram's drug store.
Will some friend please send to this office a copy of the NORTHERNER of June 29, inst.?
Sam. Munger is again engineer on the "narrow gauge." He and Elison Johnson now do the running.

Ed. Crane has gone to Albany, N. Y., on legal business. He intends to rusticate somewhat before he returns.

O. W. Rowland has his office as justice of the peace, with C. E. Galligan, Esq., over Covert & Bartram's store.

The Spiritualists and Liberalists will hold a camp meeting at Four Mile lake, from July 26 to July 30th, inst.

We are informed by the Master, that the next meeting of Paw Paw Grange will be on Friday, July 27th, inst.

Ice cream social at Court House grounds Tuesday evening, by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Free Baptist church.

Frederick W. Curtenius, late Col. of the 6th Michigan Infantry, died at Kalamazoo last Friday.

Elder Breedy of Plainwell, preached a good sermon at the union meeting, at the Baptist church last Sunday evening.

Four dollars pays for a round trip ticket from Paw Paw to Chicago and return, via Hartford, Benton Harbor and the lake.

Orders have been issued from the post office department changing the mail route from Lawton to Hartford to a railroad route.

The new Pennock road machine purchased by our village was out working on the streets last Tuesday. It does admirable work.

Willie Hyames, of Waverly, the young man whom we mentioned last week, as being severely hurt by a fall, died from his injuries.

August 25th is the day Jay gives away his next sewing machine. Everybody should have plenty of money for it.

Some of the newspapers of this congressional district are talking about a Fourth District Press Association. We second the motion.

Miss Nina McCabe is ill with malarial fever. She was taken sick last Sunday. She had just returned from visiting friends in Kalamazoo.

Under the amended school law, which is now in force, boards of trustees of graded schools consist of only five members instead of six, as heretofore.

The increasing business of the "narrow gauge" has compelled the purchase of a new engine, larger than either of the others. This makes three engines now on the road.

On Monday last a terrible tornado visited portions of Wisconsin and Illinois, doing great damage to standing crops, and demolishing many buildings. But few casualties are reported!

The common council of Decatur have passed an ordinance to prevent Sunday loafing. It will be in order now to declaim against interference with the citizens' personal liberty.

Owing to the leasing of the town hall to the new shirt factory, Brodhead Post, G. A.
R. will have to find a new armory. The boys will, probably, have to get along with less convenient quarters.

Clum, Engle says he will not begin to harvest his peaches before the last of the month.
The crop is fully two weeks late. Alexanders, the earliest variety, which ought to be ripe now, have not begun to color.

D. Darwin Hughes of Grand Rapids, one of the ablest and most prominent lawyers in the state, died on Thursday of last week, after a long and lingering illness. Mr.
Hughes was well known by many of our citizens.

As we go to press—Wednesday morning—we are informed that Mr. L. J. Brown, the fifth man who was complained of for keeping open saloon at South Haven on the Fourth, is expected in town to arrange his "little difficulty."

The apple crop will be very short. If you have any of those rosy cheeked Baldwins, or Inscuous Greenings next winter, you will have to pay well for them, unless you happen to be one of the fortunate few who raise enough for your own use.

The sidewalk between the race bridge and the river is in a very bad condition. Pedestrians are liable to stumble and break their necks if they travel over it after dark. It is not calculated to give visitors a very good idea of the enterprise of the town.

C. L. Fitch has been nursing a badly swelled arm and hand. A swarm of bees alighted near his house and Charley thought he would become an apiarist. He succeeded in living them, but in doing so he made the acquaintance of some of their business ends.

The races at Kalamazoo were fine and attracted quite a throng of spectators, but not as many as was anticipated. St. Julien, although present, did not trot in any of the races. The best trotting time was made by Fanny Witherspoon, 2:19, and by Flora Belle, a pacer, 2:17 1/4.

Emery Towner of Pine Grove was arrested last Tuesday, charged with bastardy, on complaint of Miss Ash, daughter of Wm. Ash of that town, and arraigned before Esq. Long of Gobles. Mr. Towner emphatically denies the charge. Mr. B. F. Heckert will defend.
Examination, Thursday, July 26th.

The young ladies of Oak Park Seminary will give an ice cream social at the Seminary grounds, on Friday evening of this week.
Its object is to start a fund for the purchase of astronomical, chemical, philosophical and other apparatus for the use of the Seminary.
All friends are requested to be present and give substantial evidence of such friendship.

G. G. Palmer, a gentleman from Big Rapids, alleges that he had $27 surreptitiously abstracted from his pockets while in this village on Friday last. He had been up nearly all the previous night, and while waiting at the Dyckman house for the train, he sat down in a chair, on the walk and fell asleep, at which time he claims the pocket-picking was done. No clue to the thief.

The Vicksburg Monitor has got it bad, we mean the spelling reform mania. It drops the final "e" in such words as are, were, have etc., and casts out silent letters in such words as through and though, spelling them "thru" and "tho." This way of spelling is a fine thing for those who, like the Yankee we have read of, think a man must be a "durned" fool, who can't spell a word more than one way.

Carroll & Co. sent up their balloon last Saturday. It had not got fairly started on its aerial journey before it caught fire and was consumed. Harley Wilkinson, a young colored lad, found the tag and received the $3 pair of shoes, as advertised. The firm will send up another balloon on Saturday p. m., July 28th, with a similar card attached, a similar prize being offered to the finder if the card is returned within ten days.

Frankie Osborn, son of L. R. Osborn, met with a painful accident last Friday afternoon.
The gun club were out shooting glass balls, and Frankie was placing the balls in the trap.
A shot had just been fired, and before he had time to place another ball in position, orders were given to pull the trap. The cup that holds the balls flew up and struck him in the face, inflicting a severe cut. It was thought at first that the eye was destroyed.

but fortunately such was not the case. The little fellow bore his injury manfully, and it is likely he will soon be all right again. Such an accident is inexcusable, as ordinary care and caution would render it impossible.

Some time since Chas. W. Sweet was arrested on complaint of his wife, charged with adultery. He was taken before Justice Mortimer of Hartford, where he waived his examination and was committed for trial. Subsequently he procured bail, with Wm. Webster of Lawrence, and ex-Sheriff Showman as bondsmen. On Friday last, Mr. Webster made application to Justice Rowland to surrender Mr. Sweet, alleging that he had absconded. A warrant and mittimus was issued and Mr. S. being found in Ludington, was arrested on a telegram from Sheriff Van Anken, who has gone to that place after his prisoner.

A postal card was received at a post office not a thousand miles from here, a few days ago, reading as follows, bearing the names:
"Fanny,"

I shall come after you next Saturday if it is good weather. Be all ready.
If you can't come, drop me a card as soon as you get this, so I shall not be disappointed.
Jack.

Hello Pete.
The card was mailed at Pine Grove and bore the following address: "Paw Paw, Van Co., Mich." The query is, who shall the postmaster deliver it to? Probably Fanny will "drop a card" as soon as she gets this one.

The liquor prosecutions at South Haven on Monday last, were dismissed, on account of informality in the papers. The prosecutor, at first, desired to enter a Nol. Pross., but the court refused to allow it. He then moved to discharge the prisoners, on account of defective papers. Counsel for respondents contended the papers were valid, and the prosecution, that they were not. This was reversing the usual order of things. We never before heard of the prisoner's counsel trying to sustain the prosecution, against the desire of the prosecuting officer. The magistrate granted the motion and discharged the accused parties, four of whom were immediately rearrested, brought to this place, and arraigned before Justice Warner, where they pleaded guilty, were fined $40 each and costs, which they paid and returned home the next morning. L. J. Brown, the landlord of the Pacific House, was not rearrested, because Mr. Chandler thought the complaint and warrant issued by Mr. Warner were imperfect, in not giving Brown's full name.

The following facts were communicated to us by a member of the Board of Supt's of the Free.

Some time since Mr. Thos. Thredgold sent to England for his sister, promising, the lady says, to care for her if she would come to this country. The sister, who is a bedridden invalid, suffering from hip disease, came as requested, when instead of caring for her according to his promise, and as common humanity, to say nothing of the ties of blood, should have prompted him, he placed her in an old house, which the lady, and the neighbors say, leaks like a sieve, and neglected to furnish her with the commonest necessities of life. About a month since she applied to the county for assistance. One of the Supt's of the poor visited her and found her in a destitute condition and steps have been taken to remove her and make her more comfortable. Mr. Thredgold is abundantly able to provide for her, but instead of doing so, he even forbids the removal of the poor furniture he has placed in the old shanty, and the authorities will procure new furniture for her use. The Supt's intend to try and compel Mr. Thredgold to pay all expenses.

About Folks.
A. C. Martin is visiting in Bangor.
W. F. Cook, the harness maker, is quite ill.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Free have gone to Petoskey.

A. F. Hayes, former foreman of the Northwestern, is in town.

Mrs. Sam. Andrews and daughter, of Hartford, have been visiting in town.

Mrs. Bryar has relatives visiting her from Kalamazoo and from Pittsburg, Pa.

It is reported that S. W. Duncombe has been very ill, but is somewhat better.

Harry VanAnken travels on one leg and one crutch. Cause, a badly swelled foot.

Prof. Russell will occupy the Bitley house.
He will probably remove here with his family about August 1st.

Sam. Wilson, our genial registrar of deeds, has gone on a pleasure trip to Detroit and around the lakes.

N. P. Conger, who has been suffering for a long time with paralysis, is much worse, and confined to his bed.

Miss Dollie Dillie has gone to Chicago to visit her brother. She expects to go to Kansas and Nebraska before her return.

Eddie Tukey, son of J. S. Tukey, of Charleston, Ill., is spending a few weeks visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Dick Hayes fell through a hole in the floor of the Clifton house barn and lamed himself seriously, so that he hobbles about with a cane.

Mrs. C. G. Nash did not go east as we stated last week. She had her trunk packed ready for a start but at the last moment decided not to go.

W. H. Durkee has gone to Kansas. He has his eye on a matter in the far west that he hopes may prove profitable to him. Success to you, Billy.

Ame. Palmer is erecting a large and elegant residence on his farm. He is one of those agriculturists who suffer so severely from the effects of a protective tariff.

J. H. and E. A. Anderson of Hartford, returned from Springfield, Mass., last Monday where they had been to look after the settlement of an estate in which they are interested.

We understand that Prof. Ross of South Haven, has been retained as principal of the schools at that place at an increased salary.
This speaks well for Mr. Ross as an instructor.

Mr. H. F. Bowen has just returned from a business trip to Aberdeen, Dakota. He does not give a very glowing account of the country. He very much prefers Michigan as a place in which to spend his days.
